Another Lift . . .

Another lift was provided this week in the thinking of the Farm Bureau members, as indicated by some recommendations that were approved at their annual meeting.

We have been calling attention to these Farm Bureau recommendations for several years and will do so again, because to us, the bureau's ideas are so fundamentally sound.

The recommendations were made in plain, ordinary words, but they conveyed special meaning. They prove that the give away methods used by many federal agencies are not popular and that they have not persuaded farm people that Democracy can be better served by such indiscriminate handouts and welfare programs.

The farm bureau recommended decreasing regulations in agriculture production and marketing and the gradual elimination of them. It recommended that a president be elected by popular vote. It asked that school control remain in the hands of state and local governments and not federal government.

It asked that medical aid not be mandatory and not tied to social security, that every person be responsible for his own medical care whenever possible. It asked that no financial aid be given to communist countries. It sought improvement in vocational agriculture departments in high schools.

Last year it asked that farm workers not be subject to wage and hour laws, nor be unionized and asked that government spending be cut.

Farm people never have been ones to seek handouts. They don't feel that government owes them a living or that federal agencies should take care of their wants from cradle to grave. They still want the opportunity to provide for themselves and be given a fair opportunity to make an honest living.

Again we say that we wish more people had that basic American spirit.

Robt. Brown Killed By Falling Tree

Robert Brown, 30, county resident living near the Pennsylvania line, was killed yesterday morning, October 31, when he was struck on the head by the limb of a falling tree while working in the woods near Friendsville.

Mr. Brown died in Garrett County Memorial hospital, Oakland, at 8 o'clock about an hour after he was fatally injured while working with a crew cutting logs. Dr. James H. Feaster, deputy state medical examiner, ruled that death was accidental and resulted from the blow on the head.

An autopsy showed that the woodsman died of a fractured skull. Deceased was born in Accident, December 9, 1931, a son of Mahlon and Alice Ringer Brown, of the Cove.

Surviving are his widow, Wilma Brown, one son, Terry, at home; two stepsons, Ronald Smith, Pittsburgh; Roger Smith, at home; one step-daughter, Mrs. Maxine Richter, Addison; two sisters, Mrs. Lois Gray, Mt. Rainier, and Mrs. Kathryn Wagner, McHenry.

He was a member of St. John's Lutheran church, the Cove, where funeral services will be conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the pastor, the Rev. William E. Carlson, officiating. Interment will be in the church cemetery. The body is at the Newman Funeral home in Grantsville, and will be taken to the church at noon on Saturday.

Killed in Collision

H. F. Stockslager, aged 54, summer resident of Oakland, and in recent years residing in Nokomis, Fla., was killed last Thursday night, October 23, in a head-on collision of two automobiles in Tampa, Fla. Driver of the other automobile also was killed.

Mr. Stockslager was a former employee of the telephone company in Pittsburgh, Pa., but had resided in Oakland for a number of years. He was a native of Dayton, O.

Surviving are his wife, the former Elizabeth Yoder, three sons, Theodore Stockslager, Mt. Lake Park; Robert Stockslager, Baltimore, and William Stockslager, now in the U. S. Navy, stationed at Bainbridge. Another son, Harold, is deceased. Also surviving are two brothers, one residing in New Jersey and one in Dayton, O., and his mother, Mrs. E. J. Stockslager, Dayton, O.

The body was cremated in Tampa. A memorial service was held at Nokomis, Fla., on Monday, October 29. Mr. and Mrs. Stockslager had left their summer home on Deep Creek Lake several weeks ago to spend the winter months at their Florida home.

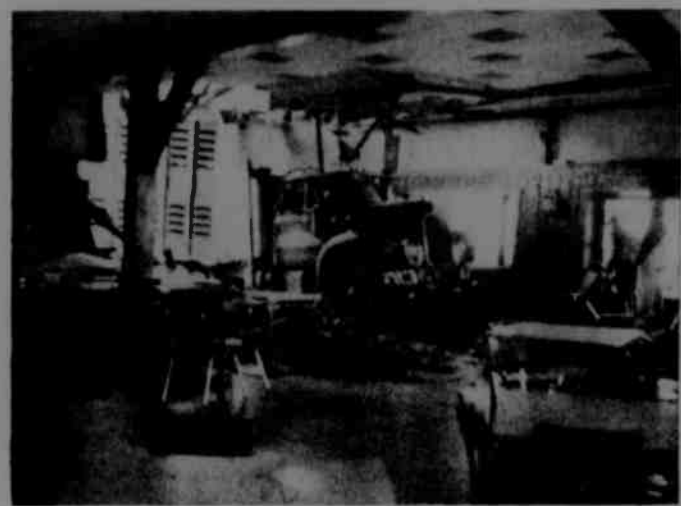

Decision On Wilson Run Watershed Possible Friday

A decision on the Wilson Run Watershed program may be made tomorrow afternoon when the County Commissioners meet to check the ballots that were cast on last Friday afternoon's session.

A report of the watershed viewers was presented on October 18, and last Friday there was a discussion on the proposed program.

December draft call was put at 6,000, a boost of 2,000.

Thayer's Barn, Closed For Winter, Opens Unexpectedly

Although officially closed for the winter months, Thayer's barn at Deep Creek Lake, was opened unexpectedly last Friday morning about 8:15 o'clock when a tractor-trailer broke loose from a tractor position in front of Cabin Lodge and crashed through one section of the wooden structure.

The tractor, in its journey of more than a hundred yards, snapped off a telephone pole and came to rest with the tractor completely on the dance floor and the trailer loaded with cattle backing it up.

The machine was owned by Lee Stover, of Bourbon, Indiana, and was being driven by Ed Shank, Shank and Lewis Seckford, helper, were eating breakfast at Cabin Lodge when they spotted the tractor on the move. They attempted to stop it but were too late.

The cattle, apparently uninjured, had been loaded at Terra Alta, W. Va., after the vehicle had been driven from Winchester, Va., early that morning. The driver encountered difficulty in getting past the overhead bridge on Oak street, Oakland, about 7 o'clock, due to ice and snow. The tractor appeared to be only slightly damaged, but damage to the building was estimated at several thousand dollars. The wall on the lake side had been pushed out a foot or more, the floor, recently improved, was damaged and the impact tore a large hole in the west side.

Gas Production Takes Big Drop In Three Months

County Receives Check For $7,838.25 For Period Ending September 30

The quarterly report of the production from the local natural gas field showed a big drop of $6,250.97 over the last period, it was revealed this week by the County Commissioners' office, which received a check for $7,838.25. The check three months ago was $14,089.22 and the one prior to that was $12,572.30.

The report this week was the third for the year. The first $50,000 received in a year goes toward liquidation of the school building debt, and up to $25,000 above that goes toward the expenses of the Garrett County Memorial hospital. The three checks this year total only $34,499.77.

The report showed that 412,821,000 cubic feet of gas had been taken from the wells of the area compared to 785,690,000 the previous ninety days. The report this week covers the period July 1 to September 30 and showed an average of more than 4,920,000 per day. The amount received for marketable gas was $111,974.95, compared to $201,271.54 for the previous quarter. Some checks for a three months' period have run as high as $28,000.

Thirty-three wells were listed as producing gas with the Riley well showing only 2,000 cubic feet. The Doerr well did not show any production. The Margroff well was a new one and was listed with 7,450,000 cubic feet of production.

Seventeen wells were listed this time under the Texas Eastern Transmission corporation. These wells were the heaviest producers. Largest on the list was the Herman and Hamlin well with a listing of over 66 million cubic feet. Barbara Miller well was next with 59,204,000, with Black and Frazee third with 53,186,000. The Bowser well had 51,298,000 while the Mitchell Rush had 27,506,000 and Collier 25,408,000. The Norris K. Welch well, area's first producer was still showing strong supply over 11 million cubic feet during the quarter.

The breakdown showed that $1,229.20 of the check was from the purchaser's proportion of the tax at 2.8 percent of the marketable gas, and $1,702.95 from the producer's proportion of the tax at 4.2 percent.

Since the first check for the tax on marketable gas was received by the County Commissioners in July, 1951, the county's governing body has received $347,747.30. A portion of this amount is distributed to incorporated towns if there are any gas wells in those areas.

The tabulated report of the gas production appears in this issue.

Fallout Protection Guide At CD, Post Offices Now

A pocket-sized booklet with the most essential, up-to-the-minute information for families and individuals on how to survive a nuclear attack is now available to Americans without charge from any post office or state or local civil defense office.

The 48-page, yellow-covered booklet, entitled "Fallout Protection—What to Know and Do About Nuclear Attack," includes specific instructions on how to survive fallout, build a fallout shelter or improvise a last-minute shelter if necessary, stock and ventilate the shelter, and take sanitary and first aid measures. Special information for farmers is provided on protecting or decontaminating livestock, food and equipment in a fallout zone.

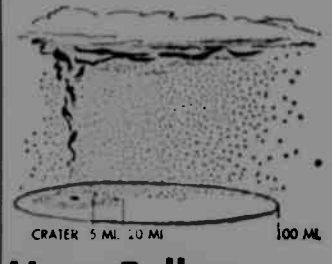

The Department of Defense, Office of Civil Defense, produced the booklet to provide up-to-date, easily-readable survival information in one publication. So far, 25 million of the booklets have been printed and placed in distribution.

The booklet also points out other ways in which the Defense Department's new civil defense program will provide increasing protection:

- The National Shelter Survey now under way will identify fallout shelter spaces in existing structures for about 50 million persons. Identification, marking and stocking with austere food and water rations, first aid kits, radiation detection instruments and other essentials will cost less than $4 per space.
- The proposed Federal Shelter Incentive Program would provide Federal grants of something less than the cost of constructing fallout shelters in schools, hospitals and in other non-profit institutions. Many shelters also would serve a dual peace-time function.
- The existing National Warning System is being extended to provide Americans near-instant attack warning.

Where to Get Booklet

You can obtain your free copy of the Defense Department's survival booklet for all Americans, "Fallout Protection," at your local post office or your community civil defense office. After April 1, 1962, it will be available only from civil defense offices.

How Fallout Endangers U.S. Told in Booklet

What is fallout? This frequently-discussed and even more frequently misunderstood phenomenon of the nuclear age is simply explained in the Department of Defense's "Fallout Protection" booklet now available to the public through post offices and local civil defense offices.

This drawing from the booklet shows how fine dust and debris from a nuclear explosion can be carried downwind from the blast, the amount of fallout gradually diminishing with the distance. Each dust particle is like a tiny X-ray machine whose gamma radiation will penetrate lighter materials but will dissipate in a relatively short time and do little harm to those protected by a sufficient amount of dense materials in shelters.

Car Accidents Cited In Police Report

Two persons were killed and 32 others injured in highway accidents in Garrett and Allegany counties during September. Lt. William E. O'Hara, commander of the LaVale State Police barracks, said one person was killed in Allegany county and one in Garrett county. The fatality was that of Wesley H. Rudisill, former resident, who was killed September 21 when the automobile in which he was a passenger ran into a parked truck on Third street in Oakland.

There were 105 highway mishaps was a son of the late James and Barbara Myers Wiley.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1962

Priceless Gift...

If you had it in your power to make one gift to the millions of enslaved people within the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, what would it be? Food? Good Housing? Clothing? A '63 model car?

Or would you give to those behind the Iron and Bamboo curtains the gift beyond price, the fulfillment of a dream—the right to elect, freely, a government of their own choice?

Freedom is self-government. And, obviously, self-government is in danger when the people do not use the precious privilege of the secret ballot.

Use your vote carefully. Make sure your vote counts for continuation of sound government, national and local, based on individual freedom, opportunity, and responsibility—on truly American principles. Don't let your rights slip away. Exercise your American citizenship!

Peril At The Polls...

From Maclean's magazine comes the following that should give all citizens cause for real thought:

"We've never been quite sure which is the more dangerous theory: that for an individual to cast his tiny individual vote is a waste of time; or that for any old individual to cast any old vote any old reason is a grand and glorious thing."

"To go around telling people who have no inclination to vote that they must get out and vote anyway is to mock one of the hardest-won of all human rights. A man who needs telling that it's his duty to vote is not yet fit to vote at all."

"Let us tell him by all means about the issues and the candidates, and let us hope that he will come to know enough about them and feel strongly enough about them to decide of his own mature volition where his duty lies. Until he reaches that state, don't, for heaven's sake, drag him unprepared, uninformed and uncaring, to the polling booth."

"It may well be that the most foolish slogan ever coined about responsible government is the one that says: 'vote as you please, but vote!' We propose a substitute: If you don't please to vote, please, please don't!"

In this year 1962 we hope that the majority of voters realize the importance of getting out a large vote, and will therefore study to make themselves informed, and vote for those who are for sound and sane government, those who care for your welfare, but care enough that they aren't going to put you further and further in the red, just to show you how much they care.

Sunpapers Back Bid Of Charles Mathias

Of the seven battles for Congress in Maryland this term the Sunpapers have backed three Republicans, Morton, Mathias and Ramsay.

An editorial has the following to say:

Sixth District
Charles McC. Mathias, Jr., Republican incumbent, versus John R. Foley, Democrat. As a freshman congressman Mr. Mathias has already served with distinction in Washington, and if continued in office can be expected to enlarge on that beginning. Mr. Foley, in one term in Congress before his defeat by Mr. Mathias in 1960, became known principally as an advocate of heavy spending without adequate discrimination. Vote MATHIAS.

First District
Thomas F. Johnson, Democratic incumbent, versus Roger C. B. Morton, Republican. Because of his undistinguished record in the Maryland Senate we opposed Mr. Johnson for election to Congress in 1958 and, finding his record there also undistinguished, opposed him for re-election in 1960. For the same reason we oppose him again. Mr. Morton, a new figure in Maryland politics, gives promise that he could effectively represent the Shore in Washington. Vote MORTON.

Seventh District
Samuel N. Friedel, Democratic incumbent, versus Caroline R. Ramsay, Republican. In the House of Representatives for the past ten years Mr. Friedel has worked more diligently than most congressmen, and has no marks against him except a lack of distinction. Mrs. Ramsay, noted for her civic-mindedness and public spiritedness, would be a maverick in Congress, and mavericks when few in number are useful to prevent somnolence in the herd. Vote RAMSAY.

DEER PARK

The Official Board of the Methodist church met at the church on Tuesday, October 30, with Rev. Perry McIntire in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Groves, Keyser, and Mrs. John Mellinger, Baltimore, visited Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey Smith.

The Homemakers club sponsored a Halloween party for the youth of the community, recently.

The Deer Park school children and their teacher had a Halloween parade, Wednesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. John Smith and family, Rawlings, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey Smith.

Revel services are scheduled at the Full Gospel church, November 5 to 8.

Listen Americans!

...by Dr. George S. Benson
PRESIDENT — NATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAM
Searcy, Arkansas

Everybody wants it, but not many persons use it well. Very few who possess it know its dangers and pitfalls well enough, yet people distrust it most when it belongs to others. It has corrupted kings and magistrates who have possessed it. Even the mighty have been consumed by it. They often become its victims, along with the ruled and the oppressed. Democracies are born when people wrest it from princes and dictators to establish popular government. Republics try to safeguard it through representation and free elections. Citizens of free societies fear it.

This thing is power. It is related to money, for one is not long separated from the other. Each seeks the other.

A total budget approaching $100 billion only begins to tell the story of federal power. Other multi-billion funds and aid programs are in its care. Some 5.2 million employees (civilian and military) are on its payrolls. It maintains 2,283 agencies for conducting its programs and scatters billions of dollars all around the world. It owns real estate more than 2½ times the size of Texas. Its debt ceiling apparently knows no limit, having been recently raised to $308 billion to permit more borrowing for more spending. This Administration has sent to Congress more than 200 requests for action involving money and credit.

With its great spending, lending, and contracting authority, the federal government is more powerful than any single segment of business. These powers are feared generally by business, especially since that awesome demonstration of power last April during the steel crisis. That display of federal power involved economic pressures and government orders as well as police power. Was this not the same reach for power that despots have shown through the centuries?

Was it a calculated step toward nationalization of industry, to bring still more power to the central government? As one reviews the steel episode, it is difficult to see how that display of power can be explained except as part of a general reach for power that feeds more and more to take industry under the wing of government. The economic facts did not justify the decisions made by the White House at that time. It is no secret that some government officials are ready to shove any sick or crippled industries another step toward nationalization.

The attempt of U. S. Steel to test the market last April, with an increase amounting to less than three-tenths of a cent per pound, was denounced by the Administration as a threat to the welfare and security of the nation. Steel still faces the same problems. If it can keep down its costs of making steel, it can weather the crisis. But if and when it believes the market justifies it, steel producers ought to ask the public, not the government, for price relief. There is not one law against business determining the fair prices it will ask. The market determines whether it can do so.

Congress has given no power to the executive branch to control prices. Yet it reaches for the power to control private industry. Each example of power leads to demands for more, until the ultimate in government power is reached in "socialization" or "nationalization" of industry. Such a goal is not in this nation's best interests and is a sure road to decay and ruin.

Sun Backs Steers

The Sunpapers have recommended the election of Newton I. Steers, Republican, over Carlton R. Sickles, Democrat.

About the two, the newspapers had the following to say this week:

For congressman at large the Sunpapers commend to the voters Newton I. Steers, Jr., Republican, over Carlton R. Sickles, Democrat.

The State would be fortunate if all elective offices at its disposal were contested by candidates of the straightforward caliber of Mr. Steers and Mr. Sickles. Mr. Sickles, a "Kennedy Democrat," has been gluttedly attacked as merely a labor lawyer, an inadequate categorization, though labor supports him. Mr. Steers has been attacked as off base on foreign policy, but in his statements in the Cuban crisis we do not find him so. His self-characterization of independent Republican, is we think, accurate. In our opinion he would make an excellent member of the House of Representatives, and at the same time would help to invigorate a Maryland Republican party which badly needs invigorating, for the general political health of the state. For congressmen at large, vote for STEERS.

THE AMERICAN WAY

With What Purpose?

By Rosalie M. Gordon
Washington, as well as other parts of the country, has been rife with talk about a "Kennedy Dynasty." The dictionary definition of a dynasty is "a race or succession of kings of the same line or family, or their continued lordship." No one has to be told that such a thing is the exact opposite of the American form of government.

Of course there is nothing evil in itself—in fact it can be a very good thing—for members of the same family to dedicate themselves to public service. But there are two points about this so-called dynasty-building which are causing serious headshaking. One objective is purely political—the great difficulty in countering the ambitions of a supposedly dynastic family when one of its members occupies the White House.

Concept Of Government

The other point is much more basic. Serious-minded Washington observers are not so much troubled about the proliferation of the Kennedy family in places of power. Their worry arises from the threat to the fundamentals of our system when all this is put in the framework of an attitude of mind which is perceived on the part of the New Frontiersmen. As an example they point to the President's remark in a political speech in which he said that what the country needs to "move forward" is a Democratic House and a Democratic Senate. This aroused a good deal of amusement because the President, of course, has had a Democratic Congress ever since the took office. As the N. Y. Daily News asked pointedly, if someone irreverently: "What, for the love of Mike, have you not, Jack?" But the President's demand did reveal that what he seems to want is not a Democratic Congress—he already has that—but a compliant Congress, compliant to the wishes of the Executive. He seemed to think the business of the Congress is to do what the President wants. Naturally, this added fuel to the flames of the dynasty-building charge, because to many it indicated that the New Frontiersmen do not understand or would like to advocate a basic principle of our form of government—the separation of powers designed to prevent tyranny by an Executive who can make the Congress his bidding. The Senate represents the states of the American Union. The House represents directly the people who elect its members. Neither body represents the President.

Other Examples
Unfortunately, this remark of the President's was not a single instance of mere campaign oratory. Last March, for example, at a press conference the President said "There is no sense of senators representing five million people, sitting next to a senator representing 10,000 people." It was indeed strange that a man who had sat in the U. S. Senate seemed unaware of the fact that the Founders deliberately set up the Senate to represent each state as a state, leaving the House to represent the people directly according to their numbers. That's why there are two senators from each state, regardless of its population.

Constitution
Coming on top of all this, an address by the President to 5,000 college students did nothing to ease the worry over the intentions of the New Frontier. No one knows whether the ideas in that speech were the President's or those of his liberal-leftist advisers. But its obvious purpose was to tell these students that the Constitution of the United States is old hat. The President said the Constitution "was written for an entirely different period of our nation's history. It was written under entirely different conditions." Whether the New Frontiersmen know it or not, the Constitution consists of a set of truths, principles and guidelines which do not change no matter how conditions change. Its purpose was to keep us free. Do the New Frontiersmen want to rewrite the Constitution without benefit of legal amendment—and with what purpose in mind?

To The Voters of Garrett County:

It was my sincere desire to visit and talk with each of you personally during this election campaign. However, due to my responsibilities, that has been impossible. Perhaps I can acquaint myself to you in this manner.

I have been a life-long resident of Garrett County, a dairy farmer and taxpayer for many years.

I am a staunch supporter of the Republican Party, and served four years as Treasurer of the Republican State Central Committee. I am a member of the Paradise E U B Church and a past Sunday School Superintendent. I am a charter member and former officer in the Mountain Lake Park Circuit Brotherhood.

I am a member of the K. of P. Lodge, the W. O. W. Lodge of Crellin, and an active Farm Bureau member for many years.

I helped organize the Garrett County Fair Association six years ago and have been treasurer and a director since that time.

I have always been interested in the economic development of our county, the public schools, and am in favor of road improvement—anything that is for the benefit of our people.

I am grateful for what each of you has done for me in the past, and earnestly ask your continued support and your VOTE in November.

If elected, I will strive to faithfully and efficiently execute the duties of the office of County Commissioner, and will serve you to the best of my ability.

Thanking you sincerely,

ALLEN S. "Dick" PAUGH

To The Voters:

I believe that we must operate our county government on a "pay as you go" basis.

I believe that we should concern ourselves with the purely necessary functions of our county government, avoiding unwise projects and waste. By this method we will be able to stop piling up debt, and at the same time we can reverse the trend toward higher taxes.

I believe that the surest way to stop all progress and growth in our county is to continue to increase the tax burden upon our people.

To attract industry we must have a well managed county, staffed by officials who know how to maintain a friendly business climate.

I believe that we must have a competent engineer to head our county Roads Department. An experienced roads engineer with administrative ability can prevent costly mistakes and save us many thousands of dollars each year.

I respectfully solicit your support.

Beall High Mountaineers combined a "home-run" offense with an airtight defense to roll to a 32-0 football victory over Northern High Huskies on a muddy field at Cove last Saturday.

The loss was the fifth in succession for Northern which owns a 2-6 record. Jim Brady and Joe James each scored two touchdowns for Beall, with Komatz getting the other. Komatz also intercepted two passes which were turned into six-pointers.

Beall rolled up 257 yards on the ground. The Huskies never penetrated deeper than the Beall 40. Mountaineers lost no time getting started. Linebacker Komatz put the offense into operation by intercepting on the Beall 45. Two plays later Brady went 45 yards for the score and Davis' placement went wide. Later in the period Beall marched 75 yards with James going across from the two. Davis made the conversion to make it 13-0.

In the second quarter Beall drove to the 11 where Spriggs carried into the end zone but a penalty nullified the TD but on the next play Brady went 26 yards for the tally and Davis converted.

The first of Beall's two third-quarter scores came when Komatz intercepted his second aerial and carried it 55 yards to the goal line. The try for extra point failed.

Scoring was climaxed a little later when James broke loose for 64 yards. Quarterback Gloffelt and end Larry Yonmer were standouts for the Huskies.

It was the final game of the season for Northern High.

Mathias Urges Big Turnout For Election

Congressman Charles McC. Mathias called on the leaders of all service clubs, fraternal and veterans organizations and civic groups, "to spark a drive to the ballot boxes on November 6th and enlist your leadership in a citizens crusade of faith in America's two-party system, in direct contrast to despotic Communist governments."

Speaking before the Wheaton Kiwanis Thursday Luncheon, Congressman Mathias said, "An overwhelming turnout of America's electorate on Election Day, I believe, is one of the greatest contributions American citizens can make in this current Cuban crisis. An American voter holds in his power the most potent weapon for freedom—his ballot on November 6th for the candidates of his choice."

"By voting in great numbers," Mathias said, "the American people will exercise their inherent right and duty to participate in the formulation of our national goals. He will focus attention on the contrast between our government of free men, and those systems in which small ruling cliques, unresponsive to the will of their own people, implement their will by force and manipulate the destinies of nations."

"Each voter by casting his ballots will be participating in government and help support and advance the principles upon which American Democracy is founded. This will be an individual contribution of great importance particularly during this Cuban crisis."

Congressman Mathias said he had sent telegrams to the heads

Bow Season Opens

The bow hunting season for deer opened last Friday morning in Garrett, Allegany and Washington counties. It will remain open until November 14, Joseph A. Minke, regional game warden, announced.

The season in this area is 11 days shorter than other counties in the state on account of the heavy influx of turkey and squirrel hunters.

A total of 212 deer were killed by bowmen in Maryland last year. The total included eight kills in Garrett county, 18 in Washington and 27 in Allegany county. The Maryland Game and Inland Fish commission reported the bow hunters on the increase.

Archers have purchased 3,450 stamps through September which is 700 more than was purchased for the same period last year.

of national service clubs, fraternal and veterans organizations as well as to civic and business groups in his Sixth Congressional District, calling for this crusade of citizen voters.

Subdivisions Obtain Checks From Comptroller

Checks totaling $569,586, to subdivisions of the state, covering the first quarter of fiscal year 1963, were mailed by State Comptroller Louis L. Goldstein. The revenue for this distribution is derived from the excise tax on distilled spirits collected by the Alcoholic Beverages division. The money is computed at the rate of 50 cents per gallon.

Two counties, Garrett and Sonnet, received a smaller amount than last year.

The statistics showed there were 2,211 net gallons delivered in Garrett county amounting to $1,105.50. This was $56.50 less than the previous quarter, or a decrease of 3.29 percent.

To Elect W. DWIGHT STOVER Judge

COMPETENT

QUALIFIED

NOTICE: THE TERM OF OFFICE OF JUDGE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT IS FIFTEEN (15) YEARS.

To The Citizens Throughout Garrett County:

There is no substitute for experience. This truism is applicable to all phases of life. It is especially applicable in assessing the qualifications of a nominee for the position of Judge. Trial experience is most essential for a jurist.

Let us examine the record. The records in the office of the Circuit Court for Garrett County, Maryland, for the ten year period just prior to October 1, 1961, reveal:

- (a) I have had over three and one-half times more criminal cases in the Circuit Court than the other nominee;
- (b) I have had over eighteen times more juvenile cases in the Circuit Court than the other nominee;
- (c) I have had over two times as many civil cases in the Circuit Court as the other nominee;
- (d) I have had almost two times as many equity cases in the Circuit Court as the other nominee.

An average of these same figures, as shown on the records of the Circuit Court for Garrett County, will show that I have handled over two and one-half times more cases than the other nominee.

I repeat, there is no substitute for experience. Experience obtained in the trial of cases is an invaluable asset to a jurist.

I believe that the voters of Garrett County are interested in having an experienced lawyer as their Judge. Based upon the experience I have gained as a practicing lawyer and prosecutor, and upon the recommendations of the Garrett County Bar Association and the Maryland Bar Association recommending me as qualified, I am soliciting the support of both the Republican and Democratic voters in the General Election to be held on Tuesday, November 6th.

Sincerely yours,
W. DWIGHT STOVER

The brilliant evening star is a symbol of many things to many folk. Mariners hail it as a good omen, for it usually forecasts a clear, calm night and smooth sailing. The shepherd tending his flock on a desolate hillside gratefully notes its appearance in the heavens, for its friendly light offers an intangible sort of companionship during his lonely vigil. To many, the star is representative of God's infinite power and wisdom.

Just as this star touches hearts in countless different ways, so may the Church bring to those in all walks of life, peace and comfort which lead to a happier, more fruitful pattern of life.

Let us make the Church our guiding light. We can brighten our lives if we accept the teaching of the Scriptures as guideposts along the pathway to future endeavors.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The Bible

Lesson for November 4, 1962

Why the Bible? Some one might think that the Christian religion has a Bible just to keep up with the procession; for every religion in the world that has as many as a million members, has a Bible of some kind, and Christianity would be very odd if it did not. But this is not the reason we have a Bible.

Is this the reason—that God can speak to man only in a written Word? Not at all. Did you ever stop to think that the whole Bible was written by persons who did not have a whole Bible? In fact, a great deal of the Bible is devoted to accounts of how God has been found in other ways as well as in the Bible.

Is the reason for the Bible our need of a book of rules? No, the Bible itself does contain a few rules, but nearly every page of it is something else besides rules.

Inspired One reason the church cherishes the Bible is because we believe it to be inspired by God himself. This does not mean that God dictated the various books of the Bible, certainly not in English. What we do mean is that God was at work in the entire process by which the Bible has come down to us. You would cherish every letter of one you love; if your loved one was (for instance) a teacher of art, you would not doubt be glad to have pictures or sculpture done by her pupils. Perhaps your friend the teacher did not paint this picture herself, but you can tell it must have been done by one of her pupils. "It looks like her," you say. In the same way, God did not hold the pen for the writers of the Bible; but persons who have assuredly known God, have through the ages recognized the unmistakable marks of God's thought and action.

Some treasured heirlooms are valued highly because they are irreplaceable. So the Bible is invaluable, because it is unique. Most books answer some questions, the Bible answers the central questions. The Bible gives us the answers we do not find elsewhere. The Bible speaks to our most agonized questionings, our most insatiable quests. What is my destiny, as a human being? Am I a kind of accident, along with other human beings, or are we all part of the plan of God? How can I, poor, sick as I am, come to terms with the high God? What is God like? What can I believe about Him, and what does he want me to do? When I consider the inevitable end of this life, and face the last dark doorway, the last toll-gate, what lies beyond? When I stand at the graveside of a loved one, must I stand forever alone? When I look into the vast reaches of space to the galaxies receding ever beyond our reach, do I find there only mindless energy or do I dare to see above all, above all, infinite and eternal love? The Bible and the Bible alone gives us the answers to such questions.

tion here. It is as difficult to "prove" the inspiration of Scripture as to prove that Mozart was a great musician. But both the Bible and the music can be studied, out of the study comes appreciation, and out of the appreciation grows the conviction of inspiration.

You can put up a shack on desert sands or at the edge of the swamp. But if what you want to erect is a skyscraper or a cathedral, you have to look for solid rock foundations.

So when you are building a life, as Jesus said, you need to build it on a rock, not on sand. We feel the need of a court of last resort, a Judge above all judges. We need an accurate compass, we need a dependable light, a map with roads plainly marked. Now the Bible is all of these things, and people who have discovered its value have used such words as these about it. For the Protestant Christian of every kind, in spite of all our smaller or greater differences, the Bible stands as the supreme authority, even above the church. We do not find codes of rules here; we find living men and women who have authentically known God. In their life-experiences and in their reflections and conclusions, we find again the will of God for ourselves.

Some treasured heirlooms are valued highly because they are irreplaceable. So the Bible is invaluable, because it is unique. Most books answer some questions, the Bible answers the central questions. The Bible gives us the answers we do not find elsewhere. The Bible speaks to our most agonized questionings, our most insatiable quests. What is my destiny, as a human being? Am I a kind of accident, along with other human beings, or are we all part of the plan of God? How can I, poor, sick as I am, come to terms with the high God? What is God like? When I look into the vast reaches of space to the galaxies receding ever beyond our reach, do I find there only mindless energy or do I dare to see above all, above all, infinite and eternal love? To The Voters Of Garrett County

MARTHA I. GLOTFELTY Republican Candidate For HOUSE OF DELEGATES

Solicits Your Support In The General Election, November 6, 1962

For six weeks or more I have traveled over Garrett County in the interest of my campaign. I have appreciated the warmth and courtesy that folks have shown to me. It has been an interesting and worthwhile experience.

In public meetings, by way of this paper, and in private conversations, I have stated my views and opinions.

I have not taken part in any controversies in the county, because I was not well enough informed to judge either way, and also because I could not have added anything worthwhile to the discussions.

It seems to me that in the interest of county progress, we need unity, not disunity. Toward that goal, I shall always work as I have in the past. If our county is to move forward and solve our many problems, we will have to work together towards that end.

If I am elected on November 6th, I shall make every effort to meet with any individual or group wishing to state their views. At all times, I shall try to be open and honest concerning pending legislation.

I shall consider the people of Garrett County as my employer and my position in the Maryland Legislature as a trust you have given to me. I am familiar with many of the proper procedures in the Legislature, for I have visited there many times, and appeared before committees. I am not experienced, nor do I claim to be, but if I am elected, I shall carefully study the laws already in effect and those to be proposed.

Our laws should encourage initiative, not laziness—free enterprise, not government handouts. They should help create a climate in which our people can be at their very best.

I wish to heartily endorse my two Republican running mates, Mr. Elva Bray and Mr. Elwood Groves. They are men of ability, intelligence and character. Vote for them.

I endorse the entire Republican ticket. They are men and women of ability and dedication. They will work well for Garrett County's welfare. Vote the straight Republican ticket and do your part to help restore two-party government to our state of Maryland.

Foreign Aid Appropriations—The Foreign Aid authorization bill was passed by both Houses of Congress around the first of August, but the legislation requires an appropriation of funds. The usual last-ditch fight over the aid funds came to us in the wad-up of the session, as usual. There is considerably less support for the Foreign Aid program than in previous years. There is a growing disenchantment over its effectiveness. The feeling throughout the country is that our $100,000,000 worth of Foreign Aid since World War II hasn't brought great support in the world, and so, why go on giving aid to countries that don't give anything in return. The so-called neutrals whom we have aided the most are the least friendly to us, and they almost invariably vote against us and with the Soviet bloc in the United Nations.

There has been considerable criticism about the way the Foreign Aid program is run. Funds earmarked for one project are often switched to another, seemingly on a whim. Funds called "vital" and "urgently necessary" when appropriations were under debate have remained unused—at least, as proposed. Numerous examples of misuse of Foreign Aid dollars have been called to our attention. The administration of the program needs overhauling.

We are spending Foreign Aid funds to countries which are prospering, whose economy is pointed to as much better than ours by some of the White House advisers.

There is a conviction on the part of many that industrially prosperous nations of Western Europe, instead of getting aid from us, should be carrying a large part of the worldwide aid burden.

There has been serious criticism at the policy of sending foreign aid dollars to the Communist governments of Yugoslavia and Poland. It is said that the American dollars are used, not to benefit the poor people of those countries whom we assume are our friends, but actually to strengthen the oppressive hand against them. The Administration has taken the position that by withdrawing our aid to those countries we would be virtually surrendering them to Communism.

And so, the debate rages hot, and will no doubt continue to do so for years to come—for there is an honest difference of opinion on the subject. The debate has not been on cutting Foreign Aid out entirely (Very few would want that now!), but rather, on cutting it down.

There is a by-product to Foreign Aid which is sometimes forgotten. It creates business and jobs for Americans. About 80% of the Foreign Aid money is spent here in this country. Should we cut off our Foreign Aid suddenly, American industries would suffer, and jobs would be wiped out, possibly half a million.

Then too, some of our Foreign Aid is doing a good job for us—giving us even more than our money's worth in certain areas.

Christmas Spirit: New Frontier Style—The Postmaster General has announced open competition for the best design for a special Christmas stamp—intended to encourage the public to send Christmas cards this year by first class mail, thereby relieving the deficit-ridden Post Office Department of a little of its deficit. There's one thing wrong: According to the instructions of the Postmaster General, the design for this special stamp, marking the day celebrating the birth of Christ, cannot contain anything "of religious significance."

Big Jump In Spending: Not Military—Increases in Federal spending have been principally on civilian programs, not so much on military. Last year's spending on military was 16% more than in 1960, while spending by the Interior Department went up 49% and spending on welfare programs went up 52%. This year's spending on farm subsidy ($5,800,000,000), topping that of any other civil benefit program, is ten times as much as it was in 1947. (Among the many silly expenditures under the farm subsidy program is the payment to the City of St. Louis for not planting feed grains.) During a 15-year period, the Federal government's spending for education has increased 22-fold—from $14,000,000 to $1,500,000,000.

Looking back over the last 8 years, while the increase in military spending went up only 14%, the spending on civil benefits more than doubled—an increase of 126%. That's not all. If Social Security and other civil-benefit programs not in the budget but paid for out of "special trust funds" were included, the increase in cost of civil benefits would be 191%, bringing it to nearly three times what it was in 1954.

The other night I heard a TV debate in which one of the speakers said the Federal government simply "had to" provide certain educational benefits because "the States cannot afford it." This line of reasoning shows either ignorance or avoidance of the truth, which is: The Federal government is worse off financially than any of the States; it is head over heels in debt, and hasn't a dime which it does not first take from the taxpayers, and every "benefit" costs the taxpayers double. You see, you send a dollar to Washington for say, education, and you get back 50 cents of it, the balance of your dollar evaporating in administrative and bureaucracy costs. Who needs "benefits" like that? "Federal aid" is a snare and delusion. Money collected and spent locally, on needed projects goes twice as far as money sent on a round trip to Washington.

Would You Be Considered A Good Manager?—Let's suppose that your salary is $200 a year, that you are almost $30,000 in debt, that last year you added $360 to your indebtedness, that this year you are going $700 deeper in debt, and that despite your financial position you loan friends money which you never expect to get back, and even hand out many lavish gifts, brought with borrowed money. And suppose that, with the urging of concerned relatives, you draw up a budget, but instead of reducing expenditures you decide that you will spend $340 more next year than this year. You excuse yourself for doing this on the assumption that you will get an annual increase in salary. You expect to make more, and so you plan to spend more, giving no thought to considered a good manager? No, indeed! You'd be headed for serious trouble.

Well, add seven naughts to these figures and you've got a pretty accurate picture of the financial situation of your Uncle Sam.

Small Summarizes Election Issues

Frank Small Jr., GOP candidate for Governor of Maryland, in a television address summarized the election and said that all of the issues can be summarized in one question: "Do you want corruption in your State Government or do you want integrity?"

Small said, "During the past several months you've heard and read a great deal about politics in Maryland. You witnessed the Jack Pollock type, and I am sure that you recall the sordid deals which went with it. You've witnessed the savings and loan scandals. In fact, many of you may have been among the 43,000 people who lost over $7 million because my opponent vetoed a bill which would have prevented these losses. You've witnessed the flagrant disregard of the public in the Assaiteague Island land scandals and you've witnessed numerous other breaches of the public trust during the 75-year administration.

"The extent of the corruption and backroom, under-the-table wheeling and dealing is appalling. We all know that Mr. Taxes vetoed a savings and loan bill which would have prevented the 43,000 innocent people from losing their life savings and we know that the Maryland Savings and Loan League, the United States Savings and Loan League and the Better Business Bureau urged him to sign the bill.

"You know full well the miserable record of the Taxes administration, but you have probably not become aware of the many positive programs which I have advanced. I would like to mention some of the programs we advocate: a conflict-of-interest law, a second major university, an expanded tourist promotion program and a more concerted effort to develop parks and historic sites, a program to take advantage of the most advanced techniques for cleaning up our rivers, a mechanical automobile inspection law, a second Bay Bridge, a reduction in the sales tax, a cost-cutting business-like administration of the State's affairs and expansion and improvement of our educational system, a vigorous and imaginative program to attract new industry to create new jobs and help solve our unemployment problem, and many other positive programs.

"I do not have to tell you that the tax burden which you are carrying is staggering. My opponent raised taxes and diminished services. You may recall that when he raised taxes in 1961 Mr. Taxes commented that the people probably would not remember this fact in 1962. I am sure that he wishes that the voters had short memories.

"I am convinced that we can reduce the cost of our State government without reducing services.

"We need more schools, libraries and parks. We need new roads and clean rivers. Our teachers and State employees need higher wages. We need numerous other facilities and services. Why doesn't my opponent spend this extra money for these purposes?"

"All of the many issues in this campaign lead to one basic question: Do you want corruption in your State Government or do you want integrity? That is the basic issue—the basic question which you must answer on November 6.

"Will you reward a man who has abused his position of public trust by re-electing him? I am convinced that if you vote your conscience on election day, you will vote against Mr. Taxes."

Buffalo Bill in Oakland

Back when D. F. Offutt's store was located where the Rudy Department store now is, two strangers came into the store one day. One of them had the erect carriage of a military man, the other the stride of a plainman. Mr. Offutt walked up to the distinguished looking man and in his usual friendly manner said, "How do you do, gentlemen. I am Mr. Offutt the owner of the store. Is there anything I can do for you?"

"How do, you do, Mr. Offutt" came the reply. "I'm Colonel Wm. Cody, better known as Buffalo Bill, and this is Major McKinley."

Thus it was that the world famous hunter, showman, guide and Indian fighter accompanied by a future President of the United States introduced himself and his friend to the proprietor of an Oakland store. They were in town as a part of the group which had gathered here for the funeral of General Crook. Both men had served under the famous general at various times. Many dignitaries had accompanied General Crook's body from Chicago, where he had died, to his resting place in the Oakland Cemetery. Years later the body was removed from here and interred in the Arlington National Cemetery.

General Crook's military campaigns against the Indians in the post Civil War period had brought him fame and recognition.

The general had planned for his retirement home a place they would call "Crook's Crest." It was to be built to overlook the peaceful valley of Oakland and the surrounding Allegheny Mountains. General Crook did not live to enjoy the home he had planned. It was later finished by his wife and has become a landmark.

The funeral procession with the Honor Guard of foot and mounted soldiers had been the object of interest and curiosity for the people of the town, many of whom had known the General and admired him for years. After the funeral in the morning several of the illustrious visitors had taken lunch at the Glades Hotel, and now in small groups they were strolling about the streets of Oakland.

"Well, Colonel Cody" asked Mr. Offutt again, "is there anything I can do for you?" "Yes, there is Mr. Offutt" replied Buffalo Bill with a smile. "I find that I am short of funds." "Easily remedied, just come with me" said Mr. Offutt with a wave of his hand. He led them down the board walk to the Garrett County Bank (now the Garrett National Bank). There Buffalo Bill, as Colonel Cody, made out a check for $500, which Mr. Offutt endorsed and the bank promptly cashed.

Their business transaction completed Buffalo Bill and Major McKinley chatted with Mr. Offutt over of Oakland would also go down in history as famous men in their own rights.

TO THE CITIZENS OF GARRETT COUNTY

I wish in this manner to appeal to the central and southern sections of Garrett County to help us elect the man we need as our County Commissioner. We want Earl Opel. Your votes will determine if we get the man we want.

I should like to list a few of the reasons why we oppose Clifford Friend.

1. Clifford Friend during his term in the State Senate cost Garrett County over several thousand dollars by his opposition to the school building program. The delay on construction caused by him increased the costs by the above amount. This was due to the period of rapidly rising construction costs so the delay he caused, caused this increased costs to the taxpayer.

2. Clifford Friend opposes the state programs of developing Garrett County as a recreational area. This has proven in the past to be our most dependable resource. We need a County Commissioner who will encourage this help, not try to stop it.

3. Clifford opposed even by personal violence the county roads necessary to the development of areas along the lake.

4. Clifford is responsible for having our County Commissioners on a district basis rather than being representatives of the whole county. This system definitely hampers any attempt at county wide planning or carrying out programs for the benefit of the entire county as a whole. Was his chief interest in this system to create an atmosphere more favorable to his attaining the office of County Commissioner?

5. Clifford Friend has always approached all governmental activity negatively. He is always against, never for anything. His record as a State Senator proves this. Do you want the County Commissioners' office to become an arena for Clifford Friend to battle the progress of our county?

For the above reasons I ask all citizens of Garrett County to help us elect Earl Opel as our County Commissioner.

Sincerely yours,

TO THE CITIZENS OF GARRETT COUNTY

Good government begins with good citizens going to the polls on election day and voting for the best candidates available. The greatest threat to our American Democracy today may well be the person who sits at home on election day and fails to exercise his constitutional right. The "good" people who fail to vote are the people who pass the "bad" laws and elect our "worst" officials.

Tuesday, November 6th, may well be one of the most important dates in the history of Garrett County. It is more than just another election day because the citizens of Garrett County will be selecting, on that day, the leaders who will shape the destiny of our county for a great many years. For that reason, let's go to the polls and vote for the type of county we want for ourselves and our children.

We are deeply grateful for your interest and confidence expressed in me, and earnestly expect your continued support in this vitally important election.

A Message

To The Voters of Garrett County:

This is the last opportunity that I will have to address many of you before you go to the polls on November sixth. I respectfully request you to consider the following before you cast your vote for the Judgeship of Garrett County.

I seek the office of Associate Judge for Garrett County on the strength of my qualifications, ability and past performance on the bench. I believe the people of Garrett County are of the opinion that the Court has been conducted in a fair and proper manner during the past year and I have enough confidence in you to feel that this, rather than any personal or party affiliation, will dictate how you cast your vote.

I have conducted my campaign in a proper and dignified manner, with due regard to the importance of the office, and have strictly adhered to the Canons of Judicial Ethics. The Canons clearly set forth these principles: That a candidate for judicial position (A) SHOULD NOT permit his campaign to be financed substantially by another person; (B) SHOULD NOT have ties to any individual which would in any manner affect his impartiality as a judge; (C) SHOULD NOT reduce the campaign for Judge to the level of scurrilous innuendoes and slander; and (D) SHOULD NOT promise future contributions to any political party, if elected.

Whatever the outcome of this election, I am secure in the knowledge that I have sacrificed none of my personal ideals. I have engaged in no hypocrisy, but have been honest and faithful with all of you.

If you, the people, see fit to elect me as your Judge, I pledge myself to conduct a just and impartial Court and to allow no other persons or interests to interfere with the proper performance of my judicial duties. I shall rest not upon my own understanding or strength alone, but shall implore and rest upon the direction and strength of God.

October 30, 1962.

The old photograph today shows an annual activity of the 1930's which is no longer observed. It is the annual reunion sponsored by the Child Rescue Home, which, until 1939, was located near Eglon. The photograph is believed to have been taken in 1933, in a grove near the home.

A newspaper account of that period perhaps describes the event it relates:

"The Pinto Choir, a quartet from Moorefield, W. Va., and a chorus from Calvary U. B. Church of Keyser, W. Va., were included in the fourteenth annual reunion program of the Child Rescue Home on Sunday, July 1, in Memorial Grove, two miles southeast of Eglon, W. Va.

The morning service was in charge of Rev. E. E. Muntzing, of Maysville, W. Va. In addition to special music, the afternoon program included fifteen minute talks by Rev. P. E. Chamberlain, pastor of the M. E. church, Thomas, W. Va.; Elder H. C. Sanders, Auburn, W. Va.; Mr. Deets Parrack, Terra Alta, and G. A. Fraley, Oakland."

The history of the home begins in March of 1921, when a Board of Trustees from the First and Second Districts of West Virginia and the District of Western Maryland of the Church of the Brethren purchased the farm of Charles P. Jones, near Eglon. The property included 93 acres of ground, a house, large barn and other buildings.

Here was established a home for orphaned children, with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vought, of Eglon, as the first caretakers.

During later years, due to the increase of applicants for admission, the house was enlarged and in 1925 a new building was constructed at a cost of $20,000. This home contained 16 bedrooms, but was still unable to care for all who applied.

A newspaper account describes the situation:

"The new building in course of erection is 28x55 with a 'T' back of the main building 16x22, two stories with basement.

"There are 11 children in the home at the present, 13 having been placed in permanent homes. Because of a shortage of space, 87 children were refused admission since last year. Since the home was established several years ago, 323 children have been refused admission. It is hoped the new building will prevent this."

In spite of its obvious success, mounting costs of operation forced closing of the home in 1939, and the property was sold.

He also spoke of Farm Bureau's interest in maintaining and improving the work of the Vocational Agriculture Departments of our high schools. He explained careful study made by the Directors before shifting from the Blue Cross Hospitalization Group Insurance Plan to that of Nationwide Insurance. Rankin Lusby, Director of Information and Public Relations of Maryland Farm Bureau, explained that the two keys which open the door to an informed membership are "Discussion groups and information itself". He stressed the importance of a well informed membership, and asked for literary contributions to the Maryland Farm

Hymn Singing Will Feature Worship Service

St. Paul's Methodist Church in Oakland will have a unique service this Sunday at 10:45 a. m. It will consist almost entirely of hymns and hymn stories.

The series will start with very early hymns. From this part there will be a chronological development through the early Psalm singing to the Reformation and on through other developments to modern times. In each instance the story of how the hymns came about will be told.

In addition to congregational singing there will be special numbers by the choir.

Sunday, November 4, has been designated as "One Great Day Of Methodist Singing" throughout the United States.

News of which he is Editor.

A Kenneth Miller, Executive Secretary of Maryland Farm Bureau, stressed the fact that farmers should, and many are, "Looking at some direction other than Washington for assistance."

Mr. Miller explained the action which Farm Bureau is taking to expand American markets in Europe through Farm Bureau's European Market in Amsterdam, Holland. He also explained, briefly, the functioning of the American Agricultural Marketing Association, and its subsidiary to the Maryland Agricultural Marketing Association, which are sponsored by Farm Bureau. Mr. Miller explained that "A marketing association provides the farmer with a voluntary system by which his production can be guided by consumer needs, and not directed by unrealistic government programs."

He also urged that voters will help tighten loopholes in Maryland's Unemployment Compensation Law by voting "FOR" question number seven on Election Day.

Mr. Miller concluded, "In all of Farm Bureau's activities we are guided by the same philosophy as that which guided the Founding Fathers of our Nation—The Dignity of the Individual."

He also urged that voters will help tighten loopholes in Maryland's Unemployment Compensation Law by voting "FOR" question number seven on Election Day.

Letter to The Editor

Dear Mr. Editor:

Major Garrett County citizens are concerned about the County Manager bill which will be voted upon next Tuesday, Nov. 6, but not enough has been said about the advantages and disadvantages of the plan. Some citizens are of the opinion that our County Government is in a rut, and a County Manager is just what we need. Others say that it is a "Big City Idea", and would be completely out of perspective in Garrett County.

The question is of vital importance to all the voters of the county, and answers to the following detail questions would be interesting:

1. Does our democratic learning indicate that a one-man commission is more sound than a three-man one? (Admitting that it could be more efficient in operation.)

2. If the County Manager plan should be accepted, is there a local unattached person qualified to fill the position, or would "those in the know" have an out-of-county "Super-Man" already groomed for the job?

3. What service could a County Manager perform for the County Commissioners, that a capable Executive Secretary could not?

4. Is the plan designed to keep State politics out of County administration, or vice versa?

5. Is the County Manager plan designed to strengthen Democratic County Government, or to gradually weaken it to the point where high caliber men will lose interest in local government?

6. Would it be a better policy to allow a few other rural counties to be the "guinea pigs" for this idea? After all, Garrett is not considered to be the most progressive county in the state, and we could prove to be the most gullible.

If we, as Garrett County Citizens, do not know the answers to some of these questions, then we are in a bad way, and need a County Manager.

Sincerely,
Bally Ridder

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Clarence Uphold, who passed away October 31, 1960.

Two years have passed, dear father. Since you were called away. How well we do remember that sad and dreary day.

God gave us strength to bear it. And Courage to meet the blow. But what it meant to lose you. The world will never know.

We often sit and think of you. And Speak of how you died. To think you could not say good-bye.

Before you closed your eyes. For all of us you did your best. On God, grant you eternal rest. Sadly missed by,
Loving wife and children.

Hon. Stuart F. Hamill, Jr., Judge,
Fourth Judicial Circuit of Maryland,
Oakland, Maryland

Dear Judge Hamill:

We wish to acknowledge your interesting letter of October 24, 1962 regarding your campaign for election on November 6. You are to be commended for this enlightened approach in seeking support for your candidacy. I am pleased and impressed that you have taken the time and trouble to ask for my vote and support. Personally, I am sick and tired of candidates who only present themselves for our important public offices on a partisan basis and expect voters to hew to the line in their interest. In talking with many people around the country I find that most folks intend to make their votes count to the utmost by selecting those candidates who demonstrate by their efforts to get elected that they are hard-working, capable and intelligent and are dedicated to the public service. We appreciate the difficulties involved in your efforts to conduct a vigorous campaign while maintaining the dignity of your office and in our opinion your efforts have been most resourceful and of the highest ethical standards.

We have followed your work on the bench with interest and feel that you have dispensed justice in a wise and humanitarian manner. We were particularly interested in your recent comments regarding the need for revisions in some of our laws. We feel that it is most appropriate for a judge to bring these things to the attention of the public so that they may be discussed with our Congressional representatives.

We agree with you that the outlook for your election is encouraging, and to that end you will have our vote and active support.

Sincerely yours,
E. L. BUSSEY

Fact Sheet on Senate Bill 19 QUESTION NO. 7

Through your efforts, the provisions of Senate Bill 19 have been prevented from becoming effective pending the outcome of a referendum to be conducted in the General Election in November, 1962. VOTE AGAINST "QUESTION 7" ON NOVEMBER 6th. THIS WILL HELP DEFEAT SENATE BILL 19.

This is what will happen if Senate Bill 19 becomes law:

- (1) Would prohibit unemployed workers from filing a claim and receiving benefits if they are unemployed at the time they draw their last check at the end of their calendar year, even though they have earned wages during that period. This would mean a cancellation of earned wage credits.
- (2) Reduce benefits or deny benefits to all retired workers, whether voluntary or involuntary retired.
- (3) Deny benefits to unemployed workers who receive dismissal (severance) pay the number of weeks represented by dismissal pay.
- (4) Deny benefits to unemployed workers who receive vacation pay at time of lay-off. Deny number weeks vacation pay represents.
- (5) Restrict payment of dependent allowance to one spouse or parent who must claim dependents at beginning of benefit year and other parent cannot claim dependents during the benefit year. Number of dependents cannot be increased or decreased during benefit year.
- (6) All disqualifying provisions will be grouped. Voluntary quit, dismissal, refusal to accept suitable work, misconduct and GROSS misconduct. All cases at the mercy of the Director who has discretion to levy one to nine weeks penalty or COMPLETE disqualification for period of unemployment and until such time as re-employed and has earned 10 X Weekly benefit allowance ($100 to $380.)
- (7) Restrict receipt of benefits to cases due to pregnancy. Benefits denied four (4) months before birth and two (2) months after. Current 2 before and 2 after.
- (8) Raise maximum Weekly Benefit Allowance from $35 to $38. (Note: Average Weekly Benefit Allowance payments past couple of years around $30, therefore, only those receiving $35 would benefit. In 1960 only 46.1% were eligible for the maximum of $35 per week. Also the average unemployed worker received only 14% weeks of benefits.

The Mayor and Town Council
— of —
Kitzmillersville, Maryland
Flood Control Bonds
of 1962

Sealed proposals will be received by the Mayor and Town of Kitzmillersville, at the Town Hall, Kitzmillersville, Maryland, until 11:00 o'clock a. m., Eastern Standard Time, on for the purchase of $15,000.00 Flood Control Bonds of 1962, to be dated November 1, 1962, to be in $1,000.00 denominations, numbered consecutively from No. 1 upward, to bear interest at the rate or rates named by the successful bidder, not to exceed five per centum (5%) per annum, payable semi-annually until the maturity of the bonds.

All of said bonds will be in coupon form, registrable as to principal only. Both principal and interest will be payable at the principal office of The First National Bank of Oakland, Oakland, Maryland, Paying Agent. Said bank has also been designated by the Town as Registrar for said bonds.

Under existing laws, said bonds and the interest thereon will be exempt from taxation in the State of Maryland and such interest will be exempt from direct Federal income tax.

Said bonds are issued for the purpose of paying part of the cost of local flood control protection for the town together with appurtenant facilities and improvements.

Said bonds will be issued pursuant to the authority of Sections 31 to 39, inclusive, of Article 23-A of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition), and pursuant to authority conferred by the Town Charter. Said bonds have also been authorized by an Ordinance of the Mayor and Town Council of Kitzmillersville, adopted pursuant to the above mentioned statute and said charter. Principal of and interest on said bonds will constitute unqualified obligations of the Town, a municipal corporation of the State of Maryland, provisions being made in the above mentioned ordinance for the payment of such principal and interest from the proceeds of ad valorem taxes levied to the extent necessary by said ordinance pursuant to said charter which empowers the Town to levy ad valorem taxes without limit as to rate or amount upon all taxable property within the corporation limits of the Town sufficient in rate and amount to pay the principal of and interest on the indebtedness of the Town.

Bidders are requested to name the rate or rates of interest, in multiples of one-eighth (1/8) or one-tenth (1/10) of one percent, to be borne by the bonds, on which rate or rates of their proposals are based and submitted. Bidders may name different rates of interest for the several maturities of the bonds offered but may not name more than one rate for any one maturity. No rate of interest may be named in excess of five per centum (5%) per annum. No proposal for less than all of the bonds, nor at a price less than one hundred per cent (100%) of the par value thereof, plus accrued interest to date of delivery, will be entertained.

All of said bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose offer to purchase bonds results in the lowest net interest cost to the Town. Such lowest net interest cost will be determined, with respect to each acceptable proposal, by deducting the total amount of the premium bid, if any, from the aggregate amount of interest payable on the bonds, at the rate or rates named in such proposal, from the date of issue of such bonds to their respective dates of maturity. Where the proposals of two or more bidders result in the same lowest net interest cost, the bonds will be apportioned among said bidders but if this should prove unacceptable, the Town will determine to which of said bidders all of the bonds shall be awarded. The right to reject any or all proposals is reserved to the Town.

Each proposal must be submitted on the prescribed form accompanying the Official Circular, must be for all of the bonds, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Town and marked "Proposal for Flood Control Bonds of 1962". Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified check upon, or a cashier's or official check of a responsible banking institution, drawn to the order of the Treasurer of the Town of Kitzmillersville, for $300.00. Upon making of the award, checks submitted by unsuccessful bidders will be returned to them. The check submitted by the successful bidder will be retained as fully liquidated damages in case such bidder shall fail to take up and pay for the bonds; otherwise the amount thereof will be applied on account of the purchase price of the bonds at the time of delivery. No interest will be allowed on such amount.

The legality of these bonds will be approved by Mr. E. Ray Jones,

Oakland, Maryland, and the unqualified approving legal opinion of this gentleman will be delivered, upon request, to the purchasers of the bonds without charge.

Delivery of said bonds, without expense to the purchaser, will be made by the Town to the purchaser or his agent within thirty (30) days from the date of sale or as soon as practicable thereafter, at the place designated by the purchaser, and thereupon the purchaser will be required to accept delivery of said bonds and pay the balance of the purchase price due thereon. The bonds will be accompanied by the customary closing documents at the time of delivery, including a notitication certificate effective as of the date of delivery.

By J. GLENN BEALL
United States Senator from Maryland

Better At Talking Than At "Doing"—Appropos of President Kennedy's campaign "pledge" to "Get this country moving!" it has been pointed out that the country is indeed "moving!" More people are moving into the unemployment lines every day, some 744,000 more in June than in the preceding month. The steel industry ahead of us has moved downward to less than half of its productive capacity. Businesses are moving abroad, away from intolerable Government attacks on free enterprise and old-fashioned economics. Farmers are moving off the farms at a record rate as foreclosure mount. Small businesses are moving in court that they be declared bankrupt. New private housing construction is moving down at the rate of 11% a month even after allowing for seasonal trends. The outlook for our national economy is moving downward toward "recession and stagnation," according to no less an authority than Prominent House adviser, in an article written for a British publication. By the same authority, the United States is moving toward record-breaking annual deficits of $12-000,000,000 or more. The Communists have already moved in Laos, with our Administration's blessing. And Castro the Communist has moved into a stronger position in Cuba, at our very doorstep, thanks to foolish high-level planning by the U. S. Government! We are indeed moving—in the wrong direction!

Perhaps the expression, "Get this country moving!" just slipped out—like the expression about the ancestry of all businessmen, or the more recent expression about "sailing along" with one party or anchoring" with the other. These off-the-cuff epigrams demonstrate a talent for the quick come-back, the smart retort. Sadly we have observed a demonstration of clever slogan-making accompanied by utter inability to take action which would benefit our nation's economy—and, therefore, our nation and our people.

"By the way, someone asks, 'Isn't it better to "anchor" until needed repairs to the Ship of State are completed than to "sail along" in a leaky sloop and sink?'"

"Business Is Millions Of Little People—Calling for understanding and cooperation between Government and Business. Mr. Roger M. Blough, Chairman of the Board, U. S. Steel Corporation, had this to say:

"We in business are prone to criticize government, but in my view, action by both in a cooperative spirit is the only feasible answer. Business cannot afford to think of those in government as Machiavellian overlords whose prime purpose in life is to push business around. I do not think this is the case, nor do I think we can let ourselves fall into the critical state of mind that that kind of thinking generates. On the other hand, it will do no good for anyone to think in terms of business as a pawn to be shunted, lither and yon at Executive or Legislative whim. Business, after all, is nothing but millions and millions of people, organized into relatively small groups to achieve better production. And thinking of business in this way should remove much of the desire to do that kind of shunting."

"Sure! Let Washington Pay It!"—One sometimes hears on the TV an ignorant or Left-wing commentator or panelist say or imply that the Federal government should pay for this or that. In such discussions, there seems to be lack of awareness that the Federal government is dead broke and heavily in debt. There has grown up the false belief that the Federal government can afford what State and local governments can not afford because at the Federal level we are presumed to be spending someone else's money. The Federal government, of course, derives its funds from the same taxpayers that pay the State and local taxes. What's more, the Federal government pobbles up most of the tax money in extravagant administration and waste. Money collected and spent at the local level, without making that extensive round trip to Washington, does much better.

Government Growing Bigger And More Oppressive—Civilian employees of the Federal government totaled 2,416,864 last year, and the total, instead of being decreased, is being increased by 15,000 to 100,000 a year.

The Federal government owns 1,575,000 acres of land, about 1 out of every 3 acres in the country. In one State, Nevada, the Federal government owns 85% of all land. It owns 421,260 buildings with a total floor space of some 2,500,000,000 square feet. It leases an additional 96,000,000 square feet of building space.

Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges, appearing before a Congressional committee, testified that "all sorts of money" could be saved if the Government would get rid of the deadwood on its payrolls. He said that 10% of the people in his Department "are doing jobs started 40 years ago which just aren't needed." But before anything could be done about overhauling the Government's featherbedded payroll, along came the Administration's budget for the new fiscal year and in it was the request for funds for more jobs in every Department and agency, including the Department of Commerce. Secretary Hodges had asked, not for 10% fewer employees, but for 7.5% more. Postmaster General Day had asked for 15,000 more employees. Secretary of Agriculture Freeman wanted 5,400 more employees in his Department. Secretary of Interior Udell had asked for 5,400 more. And so it went. As the Government grows, it imposes more regulations, enters into additional areas of our daily lives, restricting still more of our personal freedom of choice and exercising additional dangerous influences on all segments of our economy.

One of the monstrosities of the Government, and the most oppressive, is the "regulatory" agency. We like to think of our Government as having three branches, Executive, Legislative and Judicial, but actually we have a fourth branch, the regulatory agencies which cannot be classified properly as belonging exclusively to any one of the three branches because they first promulgate regulations which have the force and effect of law, then enforce them, and later adjudicate them. They are indeed unique in that they act as lawmaker, enforcer, prosecuting attorney, judge, jury and executioner. They are the 60 independent agencies, with 400,000 employees and a total annual budget of around $10,000,000,000. We as individuals and as a business community have arrived at the point where the eye of some almighty agency is upon us when we buy or sell, ship or receive, hire or fire, grow or manufacture, save or spend, drink or diet, profit or lose, talk or listen.

We see the erosion of individual liberties and the increasing substitution of bureaucratic planning for individual decisions. Individual initiative must not be completely swamped by government edict. We must do what we can to prevent the government from getting bigger. We must ask ourselves how much regulation of our private affairs can we undergo without relinquishing our oldest concepts about a free society and the principles on which our beloved U. S. A. was founded.

"This Is My Native Land—When I hear a sophomore discussion of patriotism or the questioning of basic American principles, my thoughts are inclined to turn to the words of Sir Walter Scott, penned more than a century ago:

"Breathes there the man, with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said,
This is my own, my native land?
Whose heart hath ne'er within him burn'd,
As home his footsteps he hath turnd?
From wandering on a foreign strand?
If such there breathe, go, mark him well;
For him no minstrel raptures swell.
High though his titles, proud his name,
Boundless his wealth as wish can claim,
Yet his this earth, this common clay,
Still to himself he says, 'My native land.'"

THE NEW VALIANT

The compact that fits any purse!

No doubt about it, this will be a Valiant year. You see, Valiant is the low-price compact that is completely restyled for 1963. Valiant is the low-price compact with a 5-year or 50,000-mile warranty*. And Valiant's prices start even lower than last year! How can you beat that for real value?

*Your Authorized Plymouth-Valiant Dealer's Warranty against defects in material and workmanship on 1963 cars has been expanded to include parts replacement or repair, including related labor, for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, on the engine block, head and internal parts; transmission case and internal parts (excluding manual clutch); torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints (excluding dust covers); rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings, provided the vehicle has been serviced at reasonable intervals according to the Plymouth-Valiant Certified Car Care schedules.

Best all-around compact anybody has come up with yet!

RAY TEETS GARAGE

Heartening . . .

There were several heartening things about the election in Garrett county on Tuesday. One was the interest in voting displayed in many areas. Some precincts had as much as an 80 percent vote, while others ranged down to the 60's, but over all there was around a 65 percent vote.

This indicated an awareness of the importance of casting one's ballot. Whether this renewed interest was stirred up by the Cuban crisis, or whether the candidates themselves did the stirring, we are not able to say.

But it did seem to consolidate the Republican party which was a distinct improvement over the activities of four years ago.

The enthusiasm for Republican ideals did not carry across the state, but there was a similar result in Allegany county, and it does indicate a revival of party solidarity. Republican gains were made in several areas, and offset in others.

The interest in this election contributed to the re-election of our Republican representative in the 6th congressional district, Charles McC. Mathias, Jr. He had a whopping big victory throughout the district, carrying every one of the five counties. Mr. Mathias will add dignity to the coming Congress.

There was renewed interest among Young Republicans in politics. The young Republicans have other ideas besides just voting. They have decided to help keep Maryland beautiful by making a clean-up campaign of posters, literature and placards that mar the landscape sometimes for months after the election is over and forgotten.

There is also much activity among the Democrats too, and this is all to the good. People must never lose their interest in the Democratic processes of government.

Race To Be Decided Today

STUART F. HAMILL

With only a difference of seven in the unofficial totals, the race for the judgeship will not be decided until some 119 absentee ballots are counted late this afternoon. Hamill has a total of 2939 votes and Stover has 2932.

Woodrow Herndon Found Dead in Alley

Woodrow Herndon, aged 51, who resided near Swallow Falls, was found dead in the alley in rear of the Ray Teets garage in Oakland last Friday morning, November 2. Dr. James H. Feaster, deputy state medical examiner, said death was attributed to a coronary thrombosis and lobar pneumonia.

Until recently employed as a construction worker for the Pennsylvania Electric company, he was a native of Waverly, Tenn.

Assisting Dr. Feaster in the investigation was Sheriff James E. Frantz.

The body was sent to a funeral home in Waverly where funeral services and interment took place on Sunday, November 4.

Snowy and Cold

The week's weather picture included a cold spell, preceded by a snowfall of an inch or more throughout the county.

The snow occurred in late afternoon of Saturday, after a Friday of being cold but partially sunny. Sunday proved to be cloudy and cool, with a resumption of snow flurries on Monday with a temperature reading of 32 to 35 degrees. The temperature dropped to 25 degrees Tuesday morning and the day continued fair but without much moderation. It had reached 32 degrees by noon. The mercury dropped still further Wednesday morning, lowering to 18 degrees, but the comeback was quicker and by nightfall it had risen to 50 degrees. Rain was predicted for today with temperatures in the 40's.

To Address Rotary

Fred A. Thayer III will discuss "Self Insurance Pension" as it applies to professional people and others who may be eligible, at the regular meeting of the Oakland Rotary club Friday evening at the William-James hotel.

Last week a message on rural scouting was presented by Charles S. Griffin, assistant national director of Rural Scouting for Boy Scouts of America, Philadelphia.

Mr. Griffin's objective was to increase scouting among rural boys and he termed one-third of all boys, 8 to 16, are rural.

Named Hallowe'en Queen

The Oakland-Mt. Lake Park Lions club, which sponsored the annual Hallowe'en celebration on October 31, selected Conny Baker, of Aurora, W. Va., as Hallowe'en queen, for being the most typical person in costume. She was attired like a witch and received a prize of $5.

The Lions club committee responsible for the Hallowe'en celebration, also announced there were seven prizes that had not been redeemed, following the parade. The prizes are at Marvin's Men's Wear store, Second street, Oakland.

Drop in juvenile delinquency, first in 13 years, was reported. Saboteurs dynamited the Venezuelan oil field, causing great damage.

Mrs. Lininger expected to be released from the hospital today.

Bear Is Chased

A black bear of unknown size was chased by a coon dog in the Gortner section one day recently, but it has not been seen since.

Farm people in the vicinity of the Elmer Beachy farm saw the chase but did not see the animal. However telephone calls came later from Steyer saying the coon dog had a bear treed in the area.

A coon dog supposedly chases only coons, but in this instance he outdid himself.

15th Annual FFBL Dinner Set Friday

Alfred Krewatch, University of Maryland, To Present Pictorial Travelogue

The annual dinner to honor the seventy farm families enrolled in the Farming for Better Living program will be held Friday evening, November 9, at the Southern High school cafeteria, at 6:30 o'clock.

The farm families are guests of the FFBL council and the business men who sponsor the program. It is the fifteenth annual event and for the tenth consecutive year the program has had 100 percent completion of all enrollees.

All records were turned in on time and a council committee graded the books and is prepared to announce a winner at the dinner on Friday evening. Announcement usually is made by L. Bush Swisher, project director, from the Monongahela Power company.

As a result of another one hundred percent completion of the project books the Garrett County 4-H club will receive a check for $25 and a certificate of recognition from the Power company. The money is to be used for 4-H club work in the county.

R. Thomas Thayer, Jr., chairman of the FFBL council, will be in

Balloon Breaks Windshield

A balloon filled with water, thrown from a fast moving vehicle, struck and shattered the windshield of a car driven by Roy Sanders, of Sunnyside, causing a near accident last Friday on U. S. route 219.

Sanders sustained a broken nose requiring six stitches in emergency treatment at Garrett County Memorial hospital. His wife, riding with him was not injured.

Corporal Robert Honline is investigating the mishap but the person who threw the balloon out the window of the passing car is not known. Honline said the speed of the two cars would give the balloon the force of an object traveling at 100 miles per hour. He said it was fortunate that the event did not cause the Sanders car to be wrecked.

Woman Hospitalized

Mrs. James Lininger, Friendsville, was hospitalized as the result of a one-car accident early Monday morning near Friendsville.

Mrs. Lininger became blinded by the lights of an approaching automobile, ran off the highway and struck a tree. She was badly shaken and brought to the Garrett County Memorial hospital in Oakland.

There were no broken bones but she was considerably bruised. The automobile was damaged extensively.

Mrs. Lininger expected to be released from the hospital today.

Seek Operator For County Airport

The County Commissioners this week are seeking by advertisement a person to serve as a fixed base operator for the Garrett County airport at McHenry.

Sealed bids will be received until Monday, November 19, at 10 o'clock a. m., when they will be publicly opened and read.

A copy of the lease agreement is on file and available for inspection in the office of the commissioners in the court house in Oakland. The commissioners are reserving the right to reject any or all bids.

Amendments Not In Favor With Citizens

Garrett county voters did not favor any proposed constitutional amendments or referendum questions, and gave the proposed county manager system a resounding defeat.

In several instances there were no votes either for or against a question, but when people did vote they were strong on the negative side.

The results state-wide have not been made public. Here was the vote in Garrett county:

Amendment 1, Baltimore condemnation, 433 in favor, 1282 against.

Amendment 2, Signers to petitions, 529 in favor, 1426 against.

Amendment 3, Montgomery condemnation, 351 in favor, 1128 against.

Amendment 4, compensation for legislators, 325 in favor, 1879 against.

Amendment 5, changes in welfare regulations, 1051 in favor, 1203 against.

Referendum 6, creating 8th district, 428 in favor, 1471 against.

Referendum 7, unemployment compensation, 974 in favor, 1873 against.

Referendum 8, Savings and Loan regulation, 703 in favor, 1562 against.

Referendum 9, municipal court in Baltimore, 345 in favor, 1123 against.

Question 10, County manager, 477 in favor, 2669 against.

The Sunpapers had recommended earlier that the people vote against amendments four and six, but suggested that they vote in favor of the other questions.

The full tabulation by districts is found in today's issue. The figures are unofficial.

Floodwall Talk Now Postponed

A petition to the Mayor and Town Council of Kitzmiller requesting a referendum on a bond issue for floodwall construction, which was to have been discussed at a meeting last night, is now put aside until some future meeting.

Last night's session was postponed by Earl Shank, mayor, who is a patient in Garrett County Memorial hospital.

A special meeting of the Kitzmiller council was called by the mayor at the request of the floodwall committee on November 1. Attorney Fred A. Thayer reported that the legal and proper work of the floodwall project was nearly completed.

He announced that $27,000 had been received from the state, as a part of the approximately $60,000 that the state has agreed to contribute toward the project.

A petition was presented to the council requesting a referendum on the bond issue which is being advertised in The Republican at present. Mr. Thayer said there must be a deposit of $27,000 made with the Corps of Army Engineers and that he would like to go ahead and tell the engineers to place the bids.

The council agreed to this and a motion was then made by councilman Ralph Calandrella to table the petition until the November 7 meeting. No date has been set for the postponed session.

Gets 2nd Term

CHARLES McC. MATHIAS, JR., Sixth District Congressman

Mathias In Smashing Victory Over Foley

Rep. Charles McC. Mathias, Jr., won re-election in the state's Sixth Congressional district by a margin of nearly 38,000 votes over his Democratic opponent, John R. Foley.

The district count for Mathias was 105,407, to Foley's total of 67,566.

Garrett County gave Mathias 4,106 votes to 1,926 for Foley. Allegany county gave him 15,288, to Foley, 9,658; Frederick, Mathias, 13,476, Foley, 5,898; Montgomery, Mathias, 58,972, Foley, 29,285; Washington, Mathias, 13,565, Foley, 10,639.

In Allegany county Rep. Mathias polled more votes than any other candidates of either party.

Mathias in a victory statement, issued from Frederick, thanked the voters for their support, and pledged to "weigh every legislative question only on its merits." He called his re-election "a mandate to serve you even more in the next two years."

Commissioners Plan To Proceed on Dams

The County Commissioners this week accepted the report of the viewers on the Wilson Run Watershed association based upon the favorable vote of the property owners, and have made plans to proceed with the construction of dams 1 and 3 in the five-year plan.

The vote showed that 4.09 percent opposed the plan, and that 79.96 favored the plan, as the result of the balloting, and an additional 15.95 percent was considered favorable since they did not bother to return their ballots.

Dam No. 1 is at the Mitchell property, while dam 3 concerns properties of the Winters and Glotfelty families.

The construction of the impoundments, for flood prevention, will be undertaken by the Soil Conservation service, with which the town, the commissioners and the watershed association had planned the program.

It was pointed out that if property owners objected to the construction of the dam sites, it would be necessary to condemn the property.

Appraisals of the worth of the properties were listed in the viewers' report of three weeks ago. The viewers were Jesse Walker, Kitzmiller; Walter DeBerry, Oakland; and Ernest Griffith, Friendsville.

The report declared the proposed improvements were practicable, that they would promote the public benefit and be conducive to the public health, safety and welfare. It also stated it was the opinion of the viewers the improvements would benefit the lands in question to sufficiently warrant the probable expenditures needed.

Republicans Gain In State House

Republicans made gains in the state legislature. It made its solid gains in the Senate where its slim minority was boosted from three to seven of the 29 senators. The possibility of gaining an eighth seat will await an official canvass in Carroll county where the Democratic incumbent defeated a Republican by only 31 votes in unofficial returns.

Republicans tripled their minority in the House of Delegates, winning at least 24 seats where they had only seven before. The House was increased from 123 to 142.

Allegany gave all six of its house seats to Republicans and elected a Republican to the senate. Garrett also elected a Republican senator and solid three-member GOP house delegation. All other Republican gains were in split delegations.

State-wide Voters Approve Seven of Nine Questions

State-wide voting apparently approved seven of the nine proposed amendments and referendum issues on the ballot Tuesday.

The voters defeated the Taves' administration proposal for creating a new congressional district of Howard and Prince Georges counties to make eight instead of seven districts and directed the legislature to try again. They also turned down a proposal that pay of legislators be increased from $1,800 to $3,000 a year.

Approved were the savings and loan and illegitimacy proposals, and also those tightening eligibility requirements for unemployment insurance, reforming Baltimore City's lower court system by adding four judges; condemnation procedure on Montgomery county land; increasing number of signatures required to refer an act of the General Assembly to referendum; and a Baltimore land proposal calling for estimates of fair value by the state in cases where land is taken for state projects or by the Mayor and council of Baltimore.

Garrett county voted against all proposals submitted.

Re-Elected

J. MILLARD TAVES, Governor

Voters Put Taves Back In Annapolis

Maryland voters chose a Democrat, Daniel B. Brewster, for the U. S. Senate Tuesday for the first time in 16 years and returned J. Millard Taves for a second term as governor.

Taves had a tougher time winning than did Brewster and the Democratic candidates for attorney general and comptroller. He wound up with a margin of 92,000 votes over Frank Small, Jr., for another four years in Annapolis. Taves had an unofficial 432,799 votes to Small's 340,893.

The Democrats will have to be content with a 6-2 edge in the Congress compared to their 6-1 edge previously.

Brewster had 442,242 votes to 208,424 for Edward T. Miller. Goldstein became comptroller by 175,000 votes ahead of David Champion and Thomas B. Finan, attorney general by appointment, earned a full four years by 168,500 votes over Martin Ferris III.

Taves dropped more than 100,000 off his winning pace in 1958 but won 17 of the 23 counties and Baltimore city. Small carried Allegany, Carroll, Charles, Garrett, Howard and Montgomery, the latter by 14,000.

Discuss Talent Show For Southern High

Plans for the third annual Southern High School talent show were discussed at the executive meeting of the local school's P-T-A organization, Darrell Malone president, announced today.

The show which has won considerable participation in its two previous appearances, is scheduled for Friday, November 20, at 8 p. m.

Participants will be divided into three classifications: children up to twelve years of age will be considered in the first group; teenagers in the second group and adults in the third group.

While the number of participants in the first two classifications has always been plentiful, the number of adult participants has not been as great. It is hoped that a larger number of adults will take part in the program.

Prize money for each division will be announced later.

Darrell Malone, president, pointed out that the annual solicitation of business places for paid advertising in the program would not be undertaken this year. "It is the general feeling of the members of the executive committee that the local business concerns are over-solicited during the course of the year," he said. "However, anyone desiring to make a contribution may do so."

Proceeds from the show will be placed in the local organization's general fund and be used to purchase some needed equipment at the school which cannot be furnished by the Board of Education.

Old Farmer's Almanac in 171st year of publication, predicts a rough winter.

Republican Party Closes Ranks In Heavy Balloting

GOP Candidates Swept Into Office With Two Exceptions

The Republican party in Garrett county apparently closed ranks in the Tuesday general election and solidified itself without Clifford Friend, a former state senator, defeated four years ago for re-election and this time unsuccessfully aspiring to one of the offices of County Commissioner. He was defeated by Earl Opel in Tuesday's balloting 3,192 to 2,977, a majority of 215.

Balloting mostly along party lines voters of Garrett county swept Republicans into office in most instances and gave substantial majorities to state and national candidates, which apparently went for naught in the final analysis.

Judgeship In Question

There was a question as to the election of associate judge with a difference of only seven votes in unofficial returns and 119 absentee ballots yet to be counted Thursday afternoon.

Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill, Democrat, received 2,939 votes as compared to his opponent, Republican W. Dwight Stover, present state's attorney, who received 2,932 votes.

A Republican state senator, three Republican members of the House of Delegates, two Republican County Commissioners, three Republican members of the Orphans' Court, and other Republican contestants were named in heavy voting.

Up to 80 percent of the voters in some of the precincts turned out to vote with the over-all county picture showing around 65 percent.

Spencer W. Graham was elected State Senator by more than 900 majority over his Democratic opponent, Maurice Brookhart.

He will have three Republican House members to work with at Annapolis, Elwood Groves, Mrs. Martha Glotfelty and Elza Bray. Bray was re-elected with a comfortable vote but high man of the three was Groves.

Elected to serve as County Commissioners were Republicans Allen S. Paugh and H. D. Swartzentruber. Paugh was high man with 3,774, defeating Bernard Guy, 1986. Swartzentruber got 3,307 votes against his opponent, Joseph Hinebaugh, with 2,631.

Highest man in all the voting was Joseph H. Welch, candidate for re-election as county treasurer who received 4,482 votes compared to 1,382 for Delmas Sanders, his opponent.

Opel won his victory by getting a heavy vote in his home precincts and Democratic strongholds, and in addition defeated Clifford Friend in Oakland, Red House and Ryan's Glade. He also received a good vote in Mt. Lake Park.

Oakland districts went fairly heavy for Democrat Stuart F. Hamill and in the Democratic areas, which gave him a seven vote majority at the present time. There was every evidence that some 300 voters forgot to vote for judge, because the two candidates' names were on a separate line and below the other candidates names. Figures showed that at least that many less people voted for judge than for governor.

Unofficial figures

The unofficial returns gave the following figures:

U. S. Senator, Edward T. Miller, R., 3,385; Daniel Brewster, 2,041.

Governor, Frank Small, Jr., R., 3,468; J. Millard Taves, 2,977.

Comptroller, David C. Champion, R., 3,060; Louis L. Goldstein, 2,381.

Southern Announces Senior Standing; Gnegy, Kuhnle, Bowman Top Three

Recently, Southern High's guidance counselor, Ernest Spoerlein, announced to the seniors their individual rank in relation to the rest of the senior class.

The following are listed as the ten highest seniors: No. one, Richard Gnegy; no. two, Judith Kuhnle; no. three, Kay Bowman; no. four, Carolyn Sue Martin; no. five, Helen Bittinger; no. six, Donna Martin; no. seven, Eleanor Sharpless; no. eight, Nancy Sanders; no. nine, Ray Bolyard; no. ten, Judy Durst.

The graduates-to-be were ranked according to the number of points they have accumulated, excluding those grades received during the twelfth grade.

The seniors will be re-ranked at the close of their senior year. The grades and points which the students had at the end of their junior year determined their rank at the beginning of their senior year. The points are as follows: an "A", four points; a "B", three points; a "C", two points; and a "D", one point. These points are for the major subjects the students have taken. The minor subjects are figured according to proportion.

Republicans Will Gain 6 House Seats

American voters have elected a new House of Representatives closely resembling the lineup of the one which went home less than a month ago.

The outlook is that Republicans would pick up about six seats after upsets both ways were balanced off.

Republicans would have needed a net gain of 44 seats to take over and organize the House that convenes January 9. The division in the old House was 263 Democrats, and 174 Republicans. The House drops back next year from 437 to 435 members.

The GOP expanded its gains of recent years in the South—notably in Texas, Florida, North Carolina and Tennessee—and upset Democrats in border and Western states as well. The partially offsetting Democratic upsets were scattered.

Results at a Glance
Senate: Of the 39 seats at stake, Democrats had won 22. Republicans 13 and four were undecided. It appeared the Democrats would gain as many as four seats.

House: Of the 435 seats to be filled, 240 Democrats were elected and 160 Republicans, with 35 races still undecided. Republicans were leading in 15 and Democrats in 20.

Governors: In 35 races, the Democrats had won 15 and led in seven, and the GOP had taken 13, including Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Michigan.

West Virginia voters defeated the liquor by the drink proposal by a one-sided barrage of ballots.

County Favors GOP State and National Ticket; Voting Heavy

Garrett County voters favored the Republican state and national candidates but their efforts were to no avail with the exception of the re-election of Charles McC. Mathias for Congress from the Sixth District.

Over 6,100 votes were cast for governor and Frank Small, Jr., received 3,468 of them in unofficial returns in comparison to 2,676 for Tawes, a majority of 792.

Edward T. Miller, Republican candidate for the United States Senate, received 3,385 votes in comparison to 2,041 for Daniel Brewster. Votes for the other Republican candidates were in proportion.

David C. Champion, for comptroller got 3,060 to 2,381 for Goldstein, while Martin A. Ferris received 2,807 for attorney general with Thomas Finan receiving 2,335.

Newton I. Steers, Jr., got 3,227 votes compared to 2,072 for Carlton Sikes, in the contest for congressman at large.

Democrats were elected in state-wide balloting in all the above instances.

The only redeeming feature was the heavy support for Charles McC. Mathias in this county. He received 4,106 votes compared to 1,926 for John R. Foley, his Democratic opponent. Mathias also carried Allegany county by a wide margin.

During the 87th Congress which concluded its work only last month, Mr. Mathias was the only Republican representing Maryland in the House of Representatives.

The 40-year old Frederick county attorney is a former Frederick city attorney and served in the House of Delegates from Frederick county before being elected to Congress in 1960.

Foley, 45, now resides in Kensington. He is a Washington attorney with background in labor law. He defeated DeWitt Hyde in 1958 and was defeated by Mr. Mathias when he ran for re-election in 1960. Foley had the support of the Committee on Political Education of the Western Maryland Central Labor council.

Republicans were all swept to victory in Allegany county, winning all six House and state senate races. Republicans also regained all offices in the county.

Jr. High Teams Tie

Southern's junior high football team held a larger Northern team to a 6-6 tie Friday night in a game played under the lights on Southern's field.

Just three days before the Little Highlanders had been routed 34-13 by the Huskies of Northern.

Both teams played a good defensive game before a very small crowd who witnessed the game in cold, windy weather. Southern showed great improvement over the three day span between the two games.

The junior high coaches are Carl Schoonover, Tom Kuhn and Mason Callis.

Officiating the game were Charles Strauss, Dick Travis and Leroy Bolding.

Key to African History Threatened

Important archaeological excavations are now being carried out in Sudanese Nubia in a large section of virtually unknown territory which will be covered by the Nile waters after the completion of the Aswan High Dam. Buried in this narrow corridor, stretching from Wadi Halfa, on the borders of the Southern Region of the UAR, to the approaches of the Third Cataract of the Nile, are traces of many civilizations which archaeologists believe would enable them to trace the broad outlines of Africa's ancient history.

An example of the historically priceless antiquities threatened with submersion by the waters of the Nile.

Fertilizer Is Good Land Substitute

Farmers are substituting fertilizer for land at an amazing rate. Increases in fertilizer use between 1955 and 1960—the period of Soil Bank Programs—added the equivalent of 35 million acres of total crop production according to Drs. R. P. Christensen and R. O. Aines of USDA's Economic Research Service. This upward shift in fertilizer use followed an expansion in use equalling 21 million acres between 1951 and 1955, and 22 million acres in the 1940's.

An additional ton of plant nutrients in fertilizers increased crop production between 1955 and 1960 an amount equivalent to that normally produced on 25 acres of cropland. Prices of plant nutrients in fertilizers were fairly stable during this period at about $175 per ton.

Farmers found a ton of plant nutrients cheaper than owning or renting land in many instances. For example, if a farmer could add the equivalent of production from ten acres of cropland, and the cost of additional land exceeded $17.50 per acre plant nutrients were more economical.

This substitution of fertilizer for land actually added the equivalent of 7 million acres of land during the period of the Soil Bank Program.

These findings suggest that it may be necessary when attempting to control production, to control substitutes for major factors of production such as land, according to Dr. Paxton Marshall, University of Maryland, College of Agriculture. Although this may be an unpopular idea with those who produce the substitute factors of production, Dr. Marshall says the idea is not original with him.

TANGIBLE PROGRESS in civil defense in Charlotte-Mecklenburg County, N. C., can be measured by the moving of its office from the trailer to the house, made possible by a new Federal cost-sharing program for State and local civil defense personnel and administrative

NEW LAW AIDS C.D. BUILDUP

New muscle for understaffed State and local civil defense agencies is now resulting from a Federal program to match 50-50 with States or localities the expenses of additional civil defense staff workers.

This new program, authorized by Public Law 85-606, provides $6,000,000 in the current fiscal year for the hiring of additional State and local civil defense personnel and to meet added expenses such as office rental, furniture, necessary equipment and official travel. This is the first time Federal funds have supplemented State or local civil defense salary or administrative expenses. States and localities have requested funds for 3,633 employees under this program.

FRANK B. ELLIS, Director of the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, who administers the shared-cost program, stresses that the funds must be used to expand State and local civil defense capabilities and that hiring must be on a merit basis. Ellis declares: "We cannot maintain a status quo in civil emergency planning in the face of tensions that now beset the world. Civil defense at the local level must expand to keep pace with our national need to strengthen our resistance to aggression and measure up to the President's expressed demand for maximum effectiveness in civil emergency operations."

A typical example of how Public Law 806 is helping our States is that of North Carolina. Under its director, Major General Edward F. Griffin, the North Carolina Civil Defense Agency has hired 21 professional and clerical people to strengthen the State's readiness for emergency action. Hitherto its staff of 11 persons was hard-pressed to maintain a basic minimum of readiness for emergency preparedness.

THE STATE, which was allocated $113,000 by OCDM, passed on $53,040 of its allotment to local civil defense organizations for the hiring of an additional 39 persons. The bulk of these are clerical workers, whose shortage in the past often has hobbled the executive staff with routine but necessary tasks.

THE AMERICAN WAY

THE LOBBYISTS

By Raymond C. Baker
Running true to form, die-hard liberals and their press, radio and television adherents are voicing their usual post-Congress denunciations of business and the professions for thwarting pet schemes to move the nation closer to a socialistic state.

Particularly rankled over defeat by the medical profession of the President's medicare bill which would have meant socialized medicine, these pseudo patriots are now evoking "lobbyists" as though it were a nasty word. They are referring of course to the doctors, other members of the profession and private citizens who appeared before Congressional committees at their own expense to testify against the measure, and to the thousands of citizens who wrote their Congressmen in opposition to medicare.

Administration Lobby.

But these liberals do not mention that the President's Department of Health, Education and Welfare organized one of the most vocal lobbies ever to invade the Capitol in an effort to force this legislation through Congress. With the liberals it's a matter of whose ox is being gored. If you are for them, you are a "legislative spokesman" if you are for American enterprise, you are a "lobbyist."

Business is learning that if it is to win in Washington it must organize all of the tools at its disposal. Going it alone spells defeat. The Administration lobby alone is a powerhouse. When it combines with lobbies supported by labor, rural electrification cooperatives and many others dedicated to a socialistic America, it is an almost unbeatable team.

Two Examples

But it can be defeated. Two outstanding examples of well-organized opposition demonstrate this.

One is the fight sparked by the Magazine Publishers Association to prevent the Senate from adopting a House-passed postal rate bill which would have meant death for many newspapers and periodicals. MPA retained public relations counsel and developed a program which included all newspaper groups and allied industries. The result was a drastically modified rate law which preserves America's free press. The second was the program organized along almost identical lines by banks and investor groups to cause abandonment of the President's withholding tax on dividends and interest.

Both defeats brought cries of anguish from the liberals.

In spite of these criticisms, Congress itself recognizes the important contributions lobbyists make to sound legislation. In many Washington quarters they are known affectionately as "the third house." There is sound reason for this. It would be impossible for Congressmen to be knowledgeable on every one of the 17,000 proposals in the legislative hopper, or to vote intelligently on the nearly 800 measures that become law without expert assistance.

Legitimate Expense
The 87th Congress demonstrated that it does not consider "lobbyist" a nasty word by including in the tax law a provision permitting deductions of expenses incurred for lobbying. For 76 years the Regulation of Lobbying Act has prohibited such deductions.

Congress recognizes the right of petition. It values knowledge thus obtained. It acts are based on such information.

Organized business can defeat the purveyors of socialism—but only if it will act in concert in its own and its stockholders' best interest.

Editor's Note: Guest Columnist Raymond C. Baker is a former newspaperman who writes widely on economic and industrial subjects.

Welfare Expenses Upped in September

The amount a year ago was some $30,000.

The amount for September was distributed to 908 persons, an increase of seven over the previous month.

Many of the old photographs which have appeared in this series have shown groups of school children from various sections of the county. Today's is a little different—the persons pictured were not students, but teachers.

Mrs. Doris Harrigan, of Salem, Ohio, who supplied the photo, said the instructors were from the old Oakland High school. She put the date as 1921.

A careful examination of the background indicates the picture was taken in front of the school on Fourth street, on the hill overlooking the business section.

The Junior Chorus of Southern High school, Oakland, which is comprised of seventy-one members from the 8th and 9th grades, officially elected their officers for the 1962-63 year. They chose as officers the following: president, Anne Gibson, vice-president, Donna Crane, secretary-treasurer, Di-anna Morrow, reporter, Ken Gibson, and librarians, Bradley Stewart, Susan Terrant, and Shirley Martin.

Plans are being made for a Veterans Day program to be given on November 12th for the junior high and parents who will be visiting during visitation day of American Education Week. Some possible numbers include: "Where in the World but in America," "George M. Cohan Patriotic Fantasy," "The House I Live In," "One Little Candle," and "No Man is an Island." A few World War I songs and a comical number by the boys may be included in the program, along with the junior band.

Other plans for the year include a Christmas program on December 19th and 20th; an operetta in March or April; and the county choral concert in May.

The chorus is directed by Miss Barbara Lee Colabrese.

ROLL UP YOUR Sleeves

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

It's November. And in many a local Church it's time to think about the budget for another year.

This is cause for being thankful. Really it is!

For aren't there many places in this world where men haven't any opportunity to support their Church... or any Church to support if they had opportunity?

And aren't there many places where men are compelled to work for causes they do not believe in... instead of free to work for a cause in which they do believe?

Frankly, much of the responsibility for keeping our land and our people what we want them to be rests with our Churches.

So let's rejoice in that happy American tradition—the Church budget.

And, in keeping with another fine tradition of our people, let's roll up our sleeves and help!

Man
Lesson for November 11, 1962

MOST people would call the Bible a book about God; and this is true. But there is something just as true, and for us very important: it is a book about man. Just as there are truths about God that will not be known unless God reveals them, so there are truths about man that have to be shown us. The race of man has seldom taken itself seriously enough. Men suppose they are like the beasts that perish: today gone, and nothing else to be said. Men think their lives are so short and insignificant that it does not matter to any one what they do. Men have thought of themselves as so tied to this planet Earth that when it dies we shall die with it. Men have seen that we are animals, and so they think we need no more than animals do, food, a roof, a little place in the sunshine. What's right or wrong for a beast is right or wrong for us... and so forth.

Man the Master
The Bible gives no encouragement to any such mistakes. Man is much higher than a mere "higher animal." He is first of all a creature of God, that is the key to the meaning of his existence. "Thou hast made him," the poet-psalmist cries. This alone gives man a glory. The same hand that wrought the universe, the same Mind that conceived the galaxies, are the mind and the hand that designed and developed man and mankind. Not only so, but God has made man only a little lower than God, so far as this earth is concerned. On this earth, our home, God has set man as the master of all. Every living thing is placed under the control of man. Much that man does, especially the good that man does, is part of his continuing age-old struggle to be what God created

Man the Slave
But that is not the whole story. The meaning of man is not to be found in his conquests alone, but in his service. Some master he must have. Man (it has been said) is "incurably religious." That is to say, some God man must have. He has a kind of worshipping instinct. The strange thing is that man is often found devoting himself and his talents to what is actually below him. Jesus put it memorably: You cannot serve God and mammon; in other words, you cannot serve God and money. To serve God is to fulfill the purpose for which you were created. To serve money, to serve things, is to be a slave of what should serve man, not ride him. Whatever a man hangs his heart on and depends on, that is God to him, said Martin Luther. Strange how many idols man makes for himself!

Man the Spirit
Another mistake men make about themselves is to confuse themselves with their bodies. This is a natural mistake, because whatever we do or think, we can do or think only with the aid of our bodies. But that does not mean that the body is the most important part of us. It does not rate our major concentrated interest. It does not deserve the pampering we give it. Jesus asks why we put so much thought on caring for our bodies.

A lady selling a young people's encyclopedia went by appointment to a beautiful home where lived a family with several children. The lady of the house did not want the encyclopedia; too expensive, she said. Her visitor pointed out: "As I came up the drive I noticed about $200 worth of play equipment—bicycles and what not—in the yard. Why do you spend all that for what's below your necks and begrudge the same money for their minds?" And she might well have added: "And how much do you spend for their souls?"

The contest has been approved by the National Association of Secondary School Principals. Dr. T. G. Bullen, Jr., and the State Board of Education have approved the contest for Maryland Schools.

Southern followed the recommended method of selection. This was to have the senior class choose three girls possessing the required qualifications and from the three, one student was to be chosen. This method of selecting the State Good Citizen is determined by the Maryland State Society and the State Department of Education.

The state winner will be given a $100 bond, Series E, and presented to the State Society at the March meeting in Baltimore.

Avoid stooping, lifting, stretching. Avoid sun-fading, wind-whipping, and postponed drying because of bad weather. Avoid all these discomforts of old-fashioned drying methods with a flameless electric dryer. An electric dryer dries your clothes with pure radiant heat, just like the sun, but without its fading action. Yet, unlike outdoor drying, clothes are dried gently, with controlled flameless heat.

For clothes that come out fresh and soft, dried with a gentle touch, see the new approved flameless electric dryers at any dealers handling these brands:

Our Heritage . . .

At the time of the American revolution there were less than five million colonists. Yet this small number, together with freedom loving people from other parts of the world, filled the Atlantic Coast, and, in an incredibly short time, subdued the west and built a nation.

How was it that they were able to build our towns, our cities, roads, schools, churches, colleges and their homes and all without government aid?

And how is it that now, with all our accumulated wealth, we have to run to Washington when we have to build a wing on a hospital or a dormitory at a college?

It all started in 1913 with the 16th amendment to our constitution—the amendment that, when ratified, made it possible to tax the citizens without any limit. With this new and easy money coming in, government started to grow and it was soon apparent that favors with blocks of voters could be bought. More money was soon needed for this purpose and since that discovery we have learned that government bureaus never die—they multiply. In the process we have accumulated a national debt of some $300 billion. The deficit this year of the Kennedy dynasty is over $7 billion and Congress will be compelled to raise the debt limit again.

Our generation is making no effort to pay off this debt. We are greedily enjoying a fool's prosperity by mortgaging everything to our forefathers accumulated and leaving the responsibility to pay to our children. Do we think we are rearing children who will be more responsible, more self-denying, willing to bear their debts and ours, too?

Either we will again assume the responsibilities of freedom or the light of freedom kindled by our forefathers will go out in America. If it goes out in America, hope of freedom will go out all over the world.

We have no right to lose this freedom that was given to us to use, to enjoy and pass on to our children. Our children deserve the same opportunity. A good portion of the foregoing is from an editorial in a Michigan newspaper.

Official Count Shows No Change For Contestants

Totals Change Because Of Absentee Ballots And Errors In Unofficial Tally

Official canvass of the November 6 election changed total votes of candidates because of tabulation of absentee ballots and correction of a few errors in unofficial figures but made no difference in the outcome for any of the contestants.

The election saw all Republicans except two elected in the county, the re-election of Congressman Mathias, Republican, and substantial figures for Republican candidates in state and national offices.

There were 119 absentee ballots with five being disqualified for improper markings. Richard L. Davis received 83 absentee ballots with James Frantz getting 78, F. R. Corliss, Jr., 76, Vernie R. Smouse, 71, and Joseph H. Welch 70. The vote was not heavy for amendments among absentees, in some instances only 6, 9 and 10 being cast.

The official figures confirmed the election of Spencer Graham for State senate, Eliza Bray, Martha Gloffely and Elwood Groves as members of the House of Delegates, James E. Frantz, for sheriff, Richard L. Davis, for clerk of the Circuit court, Vernie R. Smouse, for Register of Wills; Allen S. Paugh, Earl Opel and Harvey D. Swartzentruber, as County Commissioners; Truman C. Bittinger, Ellsworth G. Moon and Roy C. (Continued on Page Four)

Kemp Has License Revoked; Others Get Ten-Day Suspensions

Proprietors of five establishments who pleaded guilty or were found guilty of Sunday sales or after hour sales of beer during the September Term of court, and the one proprietor of an establishment who was found guilty of selling alcoholic beverages, in violation of his class D beer license, appeared before the County Commissioners yesterday, sitting as the Liquor Board.

The five who violated the regulations concerning the sale of beer were given 10 day suspensions of their licenses, while the one who had violated the regulations by selling alcoholic beverages, received a two-year revocation of his license.

Those who appeared were Bruce Smouse, Sun Deck Tavern; Roman Lee Thayer, Sky High Tavern; Robert F. Thomas, Deep Creek Lodge; Leo Friend, Stone Tavern; Richard Perande, Maple View Tavern. Thayer had pleaded guilty to his charge in the Circuit court, and the other four were found guilty by juries. They received the 10-day suspensions.

Robert D. Kemp, who operates a tavern near Deer Park, was the one receiving the two-year revocation of license. He had been fined $500 earlier by Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill. Fred A. Thayer, attorney to the Commissioners and also the Liquor board, said that Kemp protested the decision of the board and indicated he may file an appeal.

Thayer had been fined $50 on his violation in permitting a Sunday sale of beer, the maximum under the law. The other four who were found guilty by juries of after-hour sales, were fined $200 each following conviction, by Judge Hamill.

A statewide civil defense radiological monitoring exercise will be conducted Wednesday, November 21, it was announced by Tindale Van Brunt, director of the Maryland Civil Defense Agency. Participating will be the four radiological stations in this county, one at Northern High school, one at Southern High school, one at the fire hall in Grantsville, and one at the Accident fire hall in Accident.

All 668 fixed monitoring stations in the state will participate. Sealed envelopes will be provided each radiological monitoring station and from data enclosed the exercise will be developed. Data in the envelopes is to be kept secret until the exercise begins at 8:30 a. m. Robert E. Craghan, state civil defense training officer, has been assigned as coordinator for the project.

Hamill Victorious In Race For Judge

Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill, Jr., who was appointed last fall by Governor J. Millard Tawes to fill the vacancy created by the death of Judge Neil C. Fraley, won his election to a full 15-year term in the November 6 balloting.

His margin of seven votes at the end of the unofficial returns tabulation was boosted by 29 votes when the absentee ballots were counted to give him a total of 2,006 votes compared to 2,970 for W. Dwight Stover.

Hamill received 67 absentee ballots to 38 for Stover, and there was no change in the unofficial totals from the twenty polling places.

Judge Hamill is the second person to be elected circuit court judge in this county. Judge Fraley became the first judge when former Governor Theodore R. McElshin appointed him after a constitutional change was approved in the 1954 election to assure Garrett County of a sitting judge for the first time. Judge Fraley was elected in 1956.

Judge Hamill is 47 years old and the only Democratic attorney in the county at the present time. Mr. Stover has served as state's attorney for several years. He has made no public announcement as to whether or not he would retain the state's attorney's office.

Hamill received a majority of votes in Grantsville, East Oakland, Ryan's Glade, Johnson, Kitzmiller, both precincts of West Oakland and Avilton. He lost Accident by just one vote. Stover carried Swanton, Friendsville, Jennings, Bloomington, Accident, Sang Run, Red House, Deer Park, Elbow, Bittinger, Crellin and Mt. Lake Park.

Christmas Savings Checks Are $53,000 Christmas Savings club checks from two Oakland banks are totaling over $53,000 this year. It was around $3,600 greater than the two previous years.

Departing from the usual procedure checks are being mailed out prior to December 1 to the depositors. The Garrett National Bank in Oakland mailed out some $20,904.50 to 324 depositors last week. The First National Bank of Oakland is mailing checks to its 400 depositors this week, amounting to $33,643.75.

This is a total of 724 depositors in the two banks. Both banks have already announced Christmas Savings clubs for next year and may have started at any time. Depositors may make as little as 25 cents per week or they will be accepted for $10 per week.

Both banks have shown increases almost every year since the custom started quite a few years ago. Distribution throughout the nation again will be over one billion dollars. Much of the money goes for Christmas shopping, but it is also estimated that a percentage will go into savings accounts, insurance premiums and savings bonds. Many club members save for specific purposes, for winter vacations, to pay taxes, meet insurance payments, finance home modernization or for tuition for college students.

Brewster Claims He Is No JFK Democrat

Senator-elect Daniel B. Brewster, who was accused during the general election campaign of being a rubber stamp of the Kennedy Administration, said this week he intends to chart his own course in Washington.

"I am not a Kennedy Democrat," said Brewster, the first Democrat elected to the U. S. Senate from Maryland since 1916. "I reserve the right to vote against the administration when I believe that such a vote would be in the public interest."

Brewster, 38, was endorsed by President Kennedy prior to the election and will replace a conservative Republican, John Marshall Butler, who is retiring after two terms.

"I'm not a conservative and I'm not a liberal," Brewster said in an interview. "I don't even like the term moderate. Let's put it this way. I consider myself an independent trustee for the people of my state and nation. I shall act accordingly."

Rain and High Wind Prevail This Week

Several days of rain with some high winds on Friday night that played havoc with electric lines, featured the week's weather report.

Rain fell on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, and again on Tuesday with a bit of snow flurries. The temperature dropped to 39 degrees last Friday and during the rains of Saturday and Sunday the weather remained cool. The mercury dropped to 27 degrees early Monday but warmed up somewhat, reaching 45 degrees by late afternoon. Rain fell again Tuesday with the temperature around 34 with spitting snow. The mercury was down again to 26 Wednesday but rising to 41 with partially clear skies. Last night was another cold one with the temperature dropping to 26 but it had reached 43 degrees by 10 o'clock this morning.

The high wind of last Friday night caused a tree limb to fall across a high tension electric line at the corner of Second and Crook street, interrupting the current in that area. A falling tree also caused power interruption in the White Church area and there were other areas that had the current momentarily cut off. The wind cracked a window in the A. and P. store on Third Street, and there were reports that the high winds had unroofed a church at Cranesville. The high winds continued until early Saturday morning.

Oh, WHERE is my wandering ad tonight?

That's a fair question and deserves a factual answer. When you buy newspaper advertising you have an investment in every copy of the paper that carries your sales message because the circulation of the newspaper is also the circulation of your advertising. So, what you get in return for your advertising dollars depends on the newspaper's circulation. In order that you may buy space in this newspaper as you would make any sound business investment, we hold membership in the Audit Bureau of Circulations,* well known to advertisers and publishers as A.B.C. Only publications with paid circulation—evidence that people want the paper—are eligible for membership.

At regular intervals one of the Bureau's large staff of experienced circulation auditors comes to our office to make a thorough audit of our circulation records. The FACTS that he obtains as a result of the audit are published in A.B.C. reports which tell you: How much circulation we have; Where it goes; How obtained; How much people pay for our paper, and many other FACTS that you need in order to KNOW what you get for your advertising money.

It's never necessary for our advertisers to ask, "Oh, where is my wandering ad?" They get the FACTS from our A.B.C. report and KNOW. Ask for a copy today.

THE AMERICAN WAY

TAX REDUCTION

By Willis E. Stone

Newspapers and magazines have recently been featuring the flurry of tax reduction schemes advanced from sources both high and low. It has become a part of the campaign pattern of modern politics. The tax cut propaganda out of Washington has little to sustain it. As Barron's, one of our better financial publications, put it: "To be effective, tax reduction must go hand in hand with a permanent cutback in federal expenditures." Soothing Syrup

Thus it appears that we can write off the political promotion of the tax cut idea as so much soothing syrup of American voters who are themselves launching a real attack upon the reckless spending and taxing activities of the federal agencies. The proposals coming from politicians are vastly different from that of the Liberty Amendment which is generating its power in the "grass-roots." The Liberty Amendment is a workable program which will eliminate federal activities and spending, cutting the cost of government more than half, restoring the sovereignty of States, and removing federal personal income taxes completely. It provides that:

"Sec. 1. The Government of the United States shall not engage in any business, professional, commercial, financial or industrial enterprise, except as specified in the Constitution.

"Sec. 4. . . . Congress shall not levy taxes on personal incomes, estates, and or gifts."

Public support for this Liberty Amendment is gathering at an enormous rate. It has been formally introduced into Congress as H.R. Res. 23. More than 6000 organizations have adopted resolutions of support for it. The National Committee for Economic Freedom, 6413 Franklin Avenue, Los Angeles 28, Calif., now boasts that it has 46 dynamic State organizations. Six of these states, Wyoming, Texas, Nevada, Louisiana, Georgia and South Carolina have already formally approved the Liberty Amendment and it is anticipated that the Legislature in more than 30 States will consider it in 1963.

Movement Growing

The Public Spenders resist this drive to take the tax load off the shoulders of each of us. However, people everywhere are rallying to the drive to remove the unacceptsary and unauthorized functions of government.

The leadership of this drive recently held a two day workshop meeting in Chicago, where most of the States were represented. They discussed ways and means of advising the American people about this traditional American project. It was the consensus that the press leans toward the "official hand-out," which shapes public thinking to accept political domination. The bombast for medicare was cited as a case in point of strictly political propaganda paid for by our tax dollars.

Political Commitments

Despite the power of the billion dollar Washington publicity machine, public support for the Liberty Amendment grows by leaps and bounds. Evidence of this is the great number of candidates for state and federal offices who are taking a positive position for the project in this 1962 campaign year. No candidate has a right to ask for our vote until he is ready, willing and able to declare exactly what he proposes to do with the power he seeks. The Liberty Amendment is a yardstick by which we can evaluate the merit and character of candidates.

Serious Approach

This increasing demand for the Liberty Amendment outweighs the flamboyant claims, opinions and guesswork involved in the empty political promises of tax cuts. The Liberty Amendment is a determined effort to give new force and effect to the original Constitution and thus pave the way for a great rebirth of economic freedom in America.

Tunisia Trains Skilled Workers

One of the most pressing problems of the young Republic of Tunisia is to develop a technical-professional labor force sufficient to let the country stand on its own feet, and develop without the aid of foreign technicians.

In 1957 the government set about the solution of this problem. It levied a professional formation tax on employers, amounting to 1 percent of the salaries they pay technical help, designed to furnish funds to further technical training.

As a result, there are now several technical schools in operation. These give professional training to young men chosen from the various trades and those who have received Certificates of Professional Aptitude from technical high schools. The principal training centers now operating are: the National Railroads Center, which turns out 60 qualified workmen quarterly; the Shoemaking Center (100 workers per year); the Electro-Mechanical Center (80 per year); the

A young Tunisian concentrates over his practical training in the machine-tool industry.

Center for Masons' Helpers; and the General Professional Center, whose role is to give practical training, principally in metallurgy, to young men 15 years old or more picked from orphan's villages.

Other such centers, for training in various professional fields, are currently under construction around the country. Besides these purely national accomplishments, technical study programs and scholarships have been organized with the help of foreign technical assistance.

Now it is a matter of only a short time before Tunisia will be completely self-reliant in the technical professions which are so vital to the development of a young nation.

Redistricting May Mean Solon Fight

The Maryland Legislature has been ordered by voters to tackle again the problem of creating a new 8th congressional district. The re-drawing of lines could affect every district in the state and involve a fight over whether Baltimore city's declining population is entitled to retain three seats.

Maryland earned an eighth seat on the basis of its 1960 population, which reflected substantial growth in suburban counties around Baltimore and Washington. The Democratic administration decided to create the new seat by splitting Prince Georges and Howard counties away from Southern Maryland and giving them a congressman. A population of more than 720,000 makes the district one of the nation's largest. The bill was petitioned to referendum by the Maryland League of Women Voters and the state's voters turned it down by a thumping majority of 195,735 to 110,041.

While the decision was pending the new seat was filled on an at-large or statewide basis. It was won by Democrat Carlton R. Slickles over Republican Newton I. Steers.

The Present Districts

The seven districts to be considered in a new bill, their approximate 1960 populations, and their congressmen are:

1st District, 242,000 residents of nine Eastern Shore counties — Republican Rogers C. B. Morton won over two-term Democrat Thomas F. Johnson.

2nd District, 620,000 population in Baltimore, Harford and Carroll counties — Democrat Clarence D. Long won over Republican J. Fife Symington. The seat was vacated by Democrat Daniel B. Brewster, elected to the U. S. Senate.

3rd District, 239,000 in Baltimore City — Democrat Edward A. Garmatz was unopposed for his ninth term.

4th District, 289,000 in Baltimore City — Democrat George H. Fallon elected to his 10th straight term.

5th District, 720,000 in six Southern Maryland counties and eight precincts of South Baltimore — Democrat Richard E. Lankford of Annapolis re-elected to fifth straight term.

6th District, 605,000 in five counties of Western and Central Maryland including populous Montgomery on the fringes of Washington.

The Seventh District, 359,000 in Baltimore City — represented by Democrat Samuel N. Friedel since it was created in 1952.

Conflicting Interests
If an equitable redistricting is to be attempted, it will involve either taking away a congressman from Baltimore City or adding to the population the three now represented. An attempt to redraft the city's legislative districts also has been promised by leading legislators.

The three biggest counties — Baltimore, Prince Georges and Montgomery — all can be expected to strive for congressional on their own.

An effort also may be made to add to the Eastern Shore's representation, although geographically it is the state's largest.

A variety of plans and considerable problems could develop when the problem is reconsidered in the 90-day session starting next January.

Auto Inspections Urged For State
Annual inspections of automobiles in Maryland at state built and operated stations was recommended to the Legislative Council by a special committee.

The committee proposed that 36 stations, at least one in each county be built. The estimated cost was $6 million. The committee proposed that owners be charged $3 for each certification. It contemplated one inspection the first year and two annually thereafter.

Maryland had a program of compulsory auto inspection at private garages approved by the state in 1943 but abandoned it after several years. The law was never repealed, however, and attempts have been made to revive it in the legislature. The moves bogged down mostly over the system of inspection.

Delaware, New Jersey and District of Columbia have state operated systems. Sixteen states including Virginia, West Virginia and Pennsylvania inspect autos at private garages licensed by the states.

"A MILLION THANKS"

To all the many people who through their most diligent effort, helped me so successfully to conduct my campaign; and to the many hundreds and hundreds who so honorably voted for me, I wish to take this opportunity to thank you one and all from the bottom of my heart.

It shall certainly be an honor and a great privilege to serve you—all the people of Garrett County—as one of your new Commissioners.

In all problems and situations which may confront the Commissioners, I pledge myself to full cooperation and harmony with the other two who were elected on November 6.

With all sincerity and best regards to all, I remain

Searcy, Arkansas

There seems to be new evidence that the public does not understand the mysteries of business. An opinion polling concern has revealed to its private clients that it finds the general public, and businessmen as well, quite concerned about the market dominance of our top industrial giants. This is interpreted to mean strong public support for the government's vigorous anti-trust activity, so as to prevent concentrations of power in the market place.

Another poll by the same organization asked whether there ought to be more or less government regulation of business. Of its sample, 39 per cent called for more, 39 per cent called for less. (Twenty-two per cent were undecided.) Answering the same question in 1957, however, 50 per cent said they were opposed to more government regulations, with 29 per cent favoring more government involvement. Asked whether competition can be depended upon to keep prices fair or whether government control is needed, the current poll turned up 43 per cent preferring to rely on competition and 43 per cent seeing need for government action. But in 1953, only 23 per cent were for government action and 57 per cent favored the competitive system.

This picture of public opinion appears to reveal a need for continued study and communication regarding the principles of our private enterprise economy. Apparently, the recent anti-trust actions, followed by orders and judgments against some of our biggest and oldest names in industry, have led some to have an increasing distrust of business and to feel that more government duress is in order. Others have doubtless found themselves agreeing with the anti-business attitudes found in the executive branch of the federal government.

What some citizens may not realize is that competition, while holding the general level of prices low, may properly tend to bring about uniform product pricing. This is a normal process: that may look like price-fixing, yet it is only the free market in operation and is certainly not to be described as restraint of trade. The government, too, has been eager to confuse competition with price-fixing. But identical prices may mean, instead of collusion, the most intense competitive action.

Actually, the company that sells a product at the lowest price may be on the way to building a monopoly. This is prevented only by his competitors who succeed in meeting his prices. But this is quite another thing from price-fixing.

How does pricing work in the free market? Well, when Macy lowers its prices, Gimbels meets it, or vice versa. A tire dealer will sell two tires for $19.99, and his competitor will do the same. For a portable TV, $29 may be the going rate, whether at Dwe's or Mac's. To avoid being priced out of the market on the one hand, and inciting a price war on the other, many business men and their competitors arrive at identical, or nearly identical, prices. They don't necessarily call a convention or meet in the back alley.

Identical pricing is often forced upon business large and small by sharp buyers and brisk competition. Even the Supreme Court put this down in a 1925 decision: "In the case of a standardized product sold wholesale to fully informed professional buyers... uniformity of price will inevitably result from active, free and unrestrained competition." Recently, however, government anti-trust officials have been making uniform prices look like collusion and conspiracy—a violation of the law.

Is Your Name BENNETT?

Do you know that:

Bennett, an old and honored surname, is of English origin. Of relatively simple derivation, it is merely a contraction of the personal name Benedict. The latter is derived from the Latin "benedictus", meaning "blessed", and its earliest bearer of renown was Saint Benedict (490-543), the founder of the Benedictine Order. It is interesting to note that Benedict was not known as a personal name in England before the 11th century, but shortly thereafter it and its derivatives, such as Bennett, Benson, etc. became very popular.

Walter Bennett (1745-1812), a native of England, served as a surgeon in the Virginia militia during the Revolutionary War. Caleb Prew Bennett (1756-1836) was a lieutenant in the Delaware troops. Numerous genealogies of the Bennett family have been published. One is entitled "The Bennett Family From 1628 to 1910" and was compiled and published in 1910 by Edgar B. Bennett of East Berlin, Connecticut. Another is entitled "Ancestry And Descendants Of Isaac and Anna (Losee) Bennett From 1639 to 1921" and was compiled and published by Frank I. Bennett of Chicago.

The first census of the United States, taken in 1790, has thirteen listings of persons by the name of Bennett, who were residents of Maryland and heads of families at that time.

Bennett Creek, a village in Nansemond County, Virginia, was named for Richard Bennett, governor of that colony from 1652 to 1656.

James Gordon Bennett (1795-1872), a Scottish-American journalist, founded the New York Herald in 1836.

Charles Goodwin Bennett (1863-1914) was secretary of the U. S. Senate.

Charles Andrew Armstrong Bennett (1885-1930) was professor of philosophy at Yale University.

James Van Benschoten Bennett is director, U. S. Bureau of Prisons, Washington, D. C.

John Fisher Bennett is treasurer, Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company.

P-T Congress Would Limit Appropriations

A controversial proposal to ask that public educational funds be limited to "publicly controlled, tax-supported institutions" was put before the Maryland Congress of Parents and Teachers yesterday.

The proposal was contained in an amendment to the report of the legislative committee. The proposal declared "We urge immediate provision for more adequate facilities at our state-operated teacher training institutions."

The committee intention was to criticize the state for supplying building funds to private institutions and at the same time cutting back sharply on capital improvement requests from the teacher training institutions.

Other legislative proposals before the PTA are:

That the state provide at least 50 percent of the total operational costs of public schools.

That state aid be provided for public kindergartens.

That state aid be based on a per pupil unit cost formula.

That public junior and community colleges be extended.

That more state aid be provided for public libraries.

That public health and welfare programs be strengthened.

Earlier the convention heard a plea to back additional economic and educational aid to the world's underdeveloped nations.

The 47th annual convention ends today.

Farm-City Week Designated

Farm-City Week has been designated November 16 to 22 by the Maryland Farm Bureau, Inc., to create a better understanding between farmers and city dwellers.

The Garrett County Farm Bureau is participating. Robert O. Giotfelty, president, said "each group has special problems not always well understood by others."

Rural-urban meetings already have been held by Friendsville and Oakland Rotary clubs and other meetings of service clubs are scheduled. The Hoyes Farm Bureau Discussion Group held a buffet supper recently to create a better understanding.

Farm-City folders will be available in a number of business places of the county, Mr. Giotfelty said.

Test Shows Harmful Bacteria On Fabrics

Harmful bacteria on clothing and household fabrics can survive home laundering and remain alive on the fabrics for days or weeks, the U. S. Department of Agriculture says. But Department researchers find that disinfectants suitable for use in laundering may help home-makers eliminate this hazard to family health.

Bacteria found were Staphylococcus aureus, a cause of carbuncles, kidney infections, pneumonia, and other infections; Escherichia coli, the common intestinal bacterium; and Mycobacterium butyricum, similar to the bacterium that causes tuberculosis. The fabrics used were acetate, cotton, cotton sheeting, and wool blanketing.

Either of two types of disinfectants, added to the wash water, successfully removed most of the bacteria from fabrics laundered in warm water.

These disinfectants are known chemically as phenolic and quaternary compounds. Both types are beginning to appear in retail stores under various trade names.

Example of the quaternary disinfectants are:

Co-op Sanitizer (Greenbelt Consumer Services, Beltsville, Md.) Available at all consumer co-ops and will ship anywhere.

Bucal Sterwin Chemicals, New York, N. Y. Available in janitor, dairy and poultry supply houses.

Examples of the phenolic disinfectants are:

Pine-Sol (either with or without pine-oil scent), Dumes Milner Co., Jackson, Miss. Available in grocery stores, nationwide. Use 1 cup-not 1/2 cup as directed.

It is expected that more such disinfectants will be available on grocery store shelves in the near future.

State Tax Remains Same

The Board of Public Works has decided to keep the Maryland State property tax at 15 cents for 1963.

The board, meeting Tuesday, also granted salary increases ranging from $600 to $4,000 to clerks of courts and registrars of wills in all Maryland counties. The raises become effective December 3.

Locally the salary increase will affect Richard L. Davis, clerk of the Circuit court and Mrs. Vernie R. Smouse, registrar of wills. Davis, currently receiving $5,000, will receive $5,600. Mrs. Smouse, currently receiving $5,400, will receive $6,000.

The board failed to resolve legal and fiscal problems arising out of possible damage claims against the Federal government by the oyster growers. The claims could stem from projects in the Pocomoke Sound and Wicomico river.

The American Way

WHAT IS AMERICANISM

By Harry Browne

One word explains how the people of America came to acquire half of the world's great wealth on their small section of the planet. That word is freedom.

The history of the human race is a history of governments telling their subjects how to live their lives. Once a "reform" movement ousts a dictator, the temptation to abuse the newly-won power generally turns the reform movement into another dictatorship, until it in turn is replaced by still another.

Our founding fathers recognized all this and determined to protect the God-given rights of "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." They searched for a method by which government could have the means to protect us against foreign enemies, and yet not have the means to enslave us.

Washington summed it up by saying: "Government is not reason, it is not eloquence—it is force! Like fire, it is a dangerous servant and a fearful master."

Jefferson expressed it: "That government is best with governs least." He also pointed out: "When government advances, liberty gives way."

And they actually found a way to give government the powers to protect lives and property, but restrained it from interfering with the economic and political affairs of its citizens.

They did it by a Constitution that placed iron-clad restrictions on the powers of government. And they enforced those restrictions by the most elaborate check-and-balance system ever devised—making it virtually impossible for one element in the government to gain control of the whole system.

Freedom From Government

Through this amazing plan, the founding fathers actually created the thing that man had dreamed about for thousands of years—the most precious commodity in the world—freedom from government.

Not just freedom from Moscow, or Berlin, or London—but freedom as well from those who would enslave us from Washington. For the first time in history, man could live his daily life unafraid that he might be taken from his family by the arbitrary whim of a dictatorial government.

Americanism is described in many ways—as the freedom to vote, or the right to work, or love of country. But none of these things are the cause of our blessings, and none have been exclusively ours. The one factor that produced our great wealth, and every other treasure we hold dear, was freedom from government.

Need For Restoration

We have certainly forsaken that heritage. We need desperately to become reacquainted with it, and to do what is necessary to restore it as our national principle.

Let us weigh every proposal, every piece of legislation, by its one vital ingredient: will it increase or decrease government? Whether the proposal's purpose is to fight communism, help the aged, inspire foreign citizens, or whatever, let that question be the yardstick. In this way, we will stay within the boundaries set by the Constitution.

Let us restore as quickly as possible the lost spirit of Americanism to the greatest nation in all history.

EXTRA AWARD WINNERS—For the first time in the Farming for Better Living program, some extra achievement awards presented by the three banks of the county, were given out to former county winners who had continued active in the program, and other participants. They are listed, left to right, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Schloss-nagle, Mr. and Mrs. Lenwood Bittinger, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wag-ner, Jr., Mrs. Mahlon Warnick, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Giot-felly. The Schlossnagles were given the bankers' award for out-standing achievement in farming practices. Mr. and Mrs. Warnick were given an award for superior achievement in family health. Mr. and Mrs. Wagner received an award for superior achievement in farm management. Mr. and Mrs. Giotfelly were given an award for achievement in family activities. Mr. and Mrs. Bittinger received an award for outstanding achievement in land management. All but the Warnicks are previous winners in the FFBL program. The awards were presented at the annual banquet last Friday evening at Southern High school.

Robert Buckel

A disastrous fire in June 1961 destroyed the barn on the Buckel farm. The barn was rebuilt with a modern pipeline milking ar-rangement and a covered loafing shed. The building was designed for handling more cows which will be added as more feed can be produced for them.

The Buckels and their two chil-dren, Dennis Edward, 9, and Sheila Kaye, 7, are very active in community, church and county activities. Robert is the local church Sunday school superintend-ent, and is the secretary of the Garrett County Dairy Herd Im-provement Association in north-ern Garrett County. He is also secretary and trustee of the Bit-tinger community association. Phyllis is local choir director in her church, and is an active member of the local Parent-Teach-ers' Association. Both are mem-bers of the County Farm Bureau. Dennis won a blue ribbon on his junior heifer calf 4-H project this year.

The farm home of uncertain age was modernized in 1958. Conveni-ences such as one finds in city homes are incorporated in this farm home. Attractive flow-ers and shrubbery beautify the farmstead. A new dusk-to-dawn outside farm pole light protects the farm buildings at night.

Buckel was reared on his farm. He established the dairy after he took over the management in 1954. Turkeys formerly were the main crop.

Production of forages on this farm is maintained by the liberal use of lime, fertilizer and manure. The farm is operated under a soil conservation plan. He works closely with county agricultural work-ers.

Future plans call for an ex-panded farm acreage and an in-creased production. The Buckels are planning for a new home when they can arrange it.

The Farming for Better Living program now operates in twenty-five counties, and in all except Gar-rett county are in adjoining West Virginia. The program began in 1910 and has been in effect in this county for fifteen years. For the tenth consecutive year there has been 100 percent completion of en-rollees and for this the county 4-H group receives an award of $25 from the Monongahela Power com-pany. The company also provides the council with a reorganization dinner, as a result of the comple-tion record.

Pictures Out Of The Past

Kendall Engine No. 6 features the Old Picture series this week in a photograph submitted by Mrs. Anna Margaret Witter, of Hagers town. She places the date as 1912, and the location at Shaffer Town, one of the stops on the logging line.

The men are identified as John Evans and Robert Harvey. Mrs. Witter said the picture was given to her by her brother, Lloyd Wilburn, of Morgantown.

"My father Lloyd Wilburn," she adds, "worked in the mountains from Shaffer Town in toward Elkins, W. Va. He was a woods boss for 23 years for the Kendall Lumber Company."

More About Methodist Group
Charles A. Jones writes concerning the photograph of a group of Methodist leaders at Deer Park, published two weeks ago. He supplied the original picture.

"A small part of the picture on the right hand side was not included," he advises. "The change this caused in the description was inadvertently overlooked. Pictures were not printed of A. Frederick George and Rev. William G. Loyd, the last man shown on the right being Rev. Charles S. Feathers."

"I have received a letter asking me if I was not mistaken in stating that I have received this letter, thought maybe attention should be called to it."

Five Negroes were elected to Congress, four being re-elected.

One Amendment Is Received Favorably

The official returns showed Garrett County voters favoring one amendment by a close margin. It was amendment No. 5 concerning compulsory support of illegitimate children by fathers. This won 1170 to 1108.

It was the only question acted upon favorably by the voters, and official returns gave even a bigger majority than ever against the county manager question. It went down 454 to 3,047.

The amendment concerning increased pay for legislators went down 355 to 2,989, while the redistricting amendment was defeated here 388 to 1,524.

Errors in tabulating the returns from four precincts caused a shift in the totals but did not affect the results except in Amendment five. Absentee voters in many cases did not vote on this at all.

The official figures:
Baltimore land, amendment 1, for, 464; against, 1,286.
Increasing number of signers on petition, amendment 2, for, 562; against, 1,441.

Montgomery condemnation, amendment 3, for, 418; against, 1,317.

Unemployment compensation changes, referendum 7, for, 1,085; against, 2,144.

Savings and Loan, referendum 8, for, 430; against, 1,387.

Municipal Court, referendum 9, for, 430; against, 1,387.

Thirteen airplane pilots were fined for misconduct.

It's strange how a man's mind works...

My wife had said, "The keys are on the table," and we both were thinking of the car keys. I have that abominable habit of laying them down wherever I put my gloves — and I'm always losing my gloves.

But when I saw the keys, I saw the Bible, too. We always keep it there even though we seldom read it.

"The keys are on the table." I am just enough of a philosopher to see the chance implication of those words. The keys to a great many things must lie within the covers of that Book. Perhaps the keys to all of the really important things for you, and for me, and for everyone else.

We've been searching far and wide for the keys to peace, and security, and fairness, and brotherhood.

I wonder if the keys are on the table!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

God's Call

Lesson for November 18, 1962

THERE is a word older than the Christian religion to express what happens to a man when God gets hold of him. The word is "saved." To its hearers in times past the word meant rescued, delivered, set free. That is still what it means, though many Christians are not aware of it. Some people, especially people without religion, think that when a man becomes a Christian he gives up his freedom and thereafter lives a tied-down, wretched life. Quite the contrary. The Christian is not tied, he is untied, not chained but free, set free.

Saved from what? So much is said about this in the New Testament that we can take only one single passage of the many that have been listed for this lesson: Ephesians 2:1-10. The great word here is "made alive." The new Christian hasn't stopped living, he just never knew before what it is to live. The difference between before and after is the difference between death and life. What kind of life is the "dead" life? Three things are said of it: it is a life enslaved by the "spirit of disobedience"; it is a life enslaved to impulses and passions shared with the beasts; it is a life under "wrath." To put it into our everyday language, we may say that what God saves us from is (1) the habit of disobedience to God (and how self-destructive it is to be living as an enemy of Life!); (2) the habit of pious self-indulgence; and (3) an existence shadowed by the constant fact that one has "turned one's back on God himself. From all this, God calls us away.

Saved by what? A reader will object at this point. Does this mean that all Christians were at one time criminals, outright and outrageous sinners? Do I have to be God's enemy before I can be his friend? Not at all. Many readers of these lines cannot remember a time when they did not think of themselves as Christians. In many cities there are "rescue missions" in the dirtiest and meanest parts of town, for delinquents, hoboes, down-and-outs. These rescue missions do a great deal of good. But there are also what can be called Prevention Missions if they do their job right: ordinary run-of-mine unpretentious main-line Christian churches, which by their life and work are every day saving their young people from starting on the road that ends in Skid Row.

Whether it's a prevention or a rescue mission, what we're all either dragged out of or kept out of, is all the same thing. So what is it that saves us? Again it's all the same. We are saved by "grace," that is, God might have let us go—"good riddance to bad rubbish." But instead, he cared intensely for us, the pure and holy God actually loved and loves the soiled and selfish race of man. The point is that it is not because we were so good, God was bound to save us. He was so good that he saved us.

Saved through what? One thing is made clear all through the Bible. If man—the race of man or some particular man—is going to be saved, he cannot save himself. God saves him; God's grace, that is to say his freely given love, saves us. But a life preserver will not hold a man up if he will not take hold of it. A word of wisdom might as well be a word of foolishness if no one pays any attention.

Saved for what? If a life-guard has rescued a drowning man at the beach, the rescued man will not be so silly as to set up a tent beside the life-guard's chair and every five minutes of the rest of the summer come to thank the life-guard again. He will be eternally grateful for having been rescued. But if he never thought before, he may well think now: My life was almost washed away, and now it has been given back to me: what shall I do with it? So when God's call comes to a person, it is not a call to a perpetual vacation, it is a call to work. We are saved not because what we have done earns the priceless love of God. We are saved to do the kind of work that God can do only through human beings,—saved to work with God.

There is a legend about two angels sent out by God, each with a basket; one to gather the requests of mankind and the other to gather the thanksgiving and gratitude of the people of the earth. The first had hardly gotten started until the basket was full and overflowing; but the other, though he went to and fro throughout all the earth and met all manner of men in all kinds of circumstances, was not able to get even part of a basket filled with gratitude.

God is anxious that we should make our requests and petitions known unto Him. He has promised that He will not ignore our desires. But God also desires that we should cultivate the attitude of thanksgiving and gratitude for all that He has done.

Let us not seek to discharge our responsibility of gratitude on one special day, and be forgetful of God's goodness at other times. It is said that when Benjamin Franklin was a boy, a barrel of salted pork, their winter's supply, was delivered to their home. He asked his father why they couldn't just ask the Lord's blessing on the barrel and then they wouldn't need to bother to do it at every meal. It is important that we lift our hearts in daily gratitude for all of the blessings we enjoy.

Let us be thankful for harvest time. We enjoy fruitful seasons and reap bountiful harvests. Most of us enjoy the security of enough food and are free from worry about the problems of providing for our families. We are thankful for this. And, being thankful, we also recognize a stewardship to those who have not. Our bulging barns and overflowing deep-freeze cabinets should be looked at in light of the millions in our world who are hungry. We cannot be really thankful for a good harvest and fruitful season and bountiful crops without also being sympathetic and unselfish enough to extend our hands in helpfulness.

Let us be thankful for our homes and families. We have sturdy houses, well-built, affording protection against the heat of summer and the cold of winter. We have warmth of fireside, the security and comfort of loved ones. We should be thankful for the steadily maturing love between husbands and wives, for the security that children feel with their parents nearby, for the energies of youth, waiting to be directed, for the awakening interests of boys and girls ready to be instructed and for the sweet smiles of little babies. But while we are grateful for these, let us also be aware of a world in which there are hundreds of thousands of people who have no homes and no families. In Hong Kong, China, 50,000 children roam the streets, looking for their parents among the sleepers on the sidewalks, in the tarpaper shacks or in cold mountainside caves. In Austria, a refugee boy, living in a camp, visited a nearby village with his father. They stopped to stare at a house under construction and asked wonderingly, "Daddy, what kind of people can live in houses?"

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert DeWitt, McHenry, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Loretta Faye, to Walter L. Livengood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Miles J. Livengood, of Swanton.

Miss DeWitt is a 1962 graduate of Northern High school. Mr. Livengood attended Southern High school, graduating in 1960. He is now employed at the West Virginia Pulp and Paper company.

No immediate wedding plans have been made.

Let us be thankful for freedom and opportunity. No nation has been given so much, or provided the opportunity for growth and individual initiative as ours. We live as kings, we move freely from one end of our country to another. Here we find room for people of other nationalities and we are tolerant of the differences in religion, race and background. And we are thankful. While we thank God for these, we are bound to breathe a prayer for those who live in bondage and in fear and we wish with all our hearts that all men and nations in our world could have these same blessings.

Being thankful for these things requires that we dedicate our lives and our resources to the building of a better world under the direction and according to the will of God as revealed through His Son, Jesus Christ.

With Our Men In The Service

Army Pvt. Thomas R. Watson, 20, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tony G. Croser, live in Hutton, completed eight weeks of advanced individual infantry training at Fort Gordon, Ga., Oct. 20.

Watson entered the Army last April and completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

He attended Elk Garden, W. Va., High School.

Army Pfc. William C. Lohr, of Swanton, recently participated in Exercise Three Pairs, a United States Strike Command Army-Air Force maneuver, at Fort Belvoir, Tex.

The exercises, which pitted members of the 1st and 2d Armored Divisions against each other, were designed to train Army and Air Force units in combined operations stressing team play, speed and flexibility and the development of maximum fire power.

Lohr, son of Boyd F. Lohr, Swanton, is a member of Company A of the 1st Division's 81st Armor at the fort. He entered the Army in October 1961 and completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

The 24-year-old soldier attended Oakland High School.

Carol Sanders Recent Bride

Miss Charlotte Carol Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Sanders, Jr., Oakland, became the bride of William Dickson Nace, Laurel, son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Nace, Oakland, Saturday, October 20, at St. Paul's Methodist Church in Oakland.

Reverend Lawrence Sherwood, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Meritt Feather, organist played the traditional wedding march and accompanied Mrs. Beeson Snyder who sang "The Wedding Prayer," "O Perfect Love," and while the couple knelt at the altar, "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of hand clipped Chantilly lace and nylon, fitted bodice, sabrina neckline and long tapered sleeves. The back featured a cascade of ruffles ending in a sweep skirt. She wore a finger tip veil which fell from a crown of seed pearls and carried a lace covered prayer book with gardenias and white rosebuds. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift from the groom.

Miss Cynthia Nace, Monassas, Virginia, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Garland Steyer and Miss Regina Kay Sanders. They wore dresses of autumn gold brocade and headpieces fashioned from wine red velvet and white daisies. They carried cascades of white daisies also tied with wine red velvet.

Robert Hook Norwich, Vermont, was best man. Ushers were David Nace, Barry Sanders and Thomas Nace.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Oakland Country Club. The bride's table was decorated with fern and a four tier pedestal wedding cake which was baked and served by Mrs. Robert Hawley, assisted by Mrs. Earl Wise, Mrs. Dale Sanders and Mrs. Jack Sanders, aunts of the bride.

Contests Looming In Assembly Leadership

Democrats victorious in retaining their somewhat reduced majorities in the Maryland legislature, are now concerned over who will lead them in Annapolis in January.

The behind-scenes maneuvering has been going on for months but will step up, now that the election has cleared out probables and left only definite starters.

The top legislative seats of Senate President and House Speaker both will be up for grabs when the new General Assembly convenes in January for three months.

Perry O. Wilkinson, Speaker, lost in the Democratic May primary for congressman-at-large, and George W. Della, president, was defeated for renomination. This opened up a wholesale reshuffling in the key posts, three on each side as presiding officer, floor leader and judiciary chairman.

The past judiciary chairman in the House, Rodgeley Melvin, Anne Arundel, did not seek re-election.

Southern Speaks

By Dick Gnegy

To Speak At Legion
Southern's two representatives to Maryland Boys State this past summer, Todd Schaible and Dick Gnegy, will talk at the local American Legion Post meeting Thursday night on their experiences at the statewide convention. The American Legion is the organization that sponsors Boys States throughout the country.

The boys will talk on such things as classroom instruction, athletic activities, and in general the complete schedule.

Sweetheart Dance Scheduled
The annual Sweetheart Ball held by the F. F. A. in co-operation with the F. H. A. will take place this Friday night. The dance will be held in the school cafeteria.

Director Gets Uniform
Mr. Goodwin, the director of the school, has received his band director's uniform this past week to go along with the new uniforms acquired by the senior band last year.

Plans are now being formulated to hold a band concert early in December. As of yet no definite date has been set.

Next P-T. A. Scheduled
The second P-T. A. meeting of the year will be held on November 19. The parents will have a chance to visit the classrooms from 7:30 to 8:00.

Guest speaker will be Willard Hawkins, county superintendent of schools at 8:15.

The P-T. A. is also making plans for its annual talent show which will take place on November 30. Various schools in the surrounding area have been notified of the coming show.

Magazine Campaign Ends
When the 1962 magazine campaign closed November 5, Southern students had sold $3,152.48 worth of magazines. This was just short of their goal of $3,500.

High salesman for the campaign was Fred Fold with $126.23 in sales. Barbara Forman was second with $94.29 worth of magazines and Fritz Piper third with $75.81.

Section 7E was the high home-room with $406.30 in magazine sales. National Education Week

Southern High began National Education Week (November 11-17) by extending an invitation to parents to visit the school.

Two special programs were presented on November 12, which was parents' day. The senior chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Jack Turney, presented a program in the form of a radio skit, after which two songs were rendered by the chorus.

The Junior high chorus and band, directed by Miss Barbara Colabrese and Mr. Goodwin, respectively, presented a program of patriotic songs. Anne Gibson was the narrator.

Members of the Student Council and F. T. A. served as guides during National Education Week. Red boutonnieres and white corsages were given to the teachers by the Student Council.

Three traffic deaths over Nov. 10 week-end raised state total to 492.
McKeldin announced he may seek election as Baltimore's mayor again.

Thanks Voters

My sincere thanks to the voters who supported me in the recent election. Although unsuccessful, I will be forever grateful for the effort put forth by my many friends.

Not long ago, Mrs. Charles O. McAtee, Lutherville housewife and mother of two, kept track of all phone calls made by her family for two weeks. For each local telephone call that eliminated a trip in person, she estimated the time, travel and money saved.

And here's what the diary showed at the end of the two weeks: 567 miles of driving, $45.92 in car expenses and 34 hours... all saved the easy way... the telephone way. Telephone calls to the cleaner, the garage, the dentist, and department stores saved her countless steps and wasted motion. Mrs. McAtee's enthusiastic reaction to the results of the diary? "It's really amazing how much time and effort your telephone saves you."

What tale would your telephone diary tell? You, too, would probably be amazed at how much your phone gives in return for its low monthly cost.

Why of Thanksgiving . . .

Any schoolboy can tell you that the Thanksgiving celebration is derived from a feast of thanks of the grateful Pilgrims.

Yet rarely are we reminded of why the feast was held in addition to being thankful to God, the hunger the Pilgrims endured, or what caused their fortunes to change. It's a story of Americanism that warrants frequent retelling.

The Pilgrims landed on Plymouth Rock in December, 1620, after fleeing religious and economic persecution in England. According to Bradford's History "of Plymouth plantation," the first thing they did was "to erect ye first house for common use to receive them and their goods." It was natural then to have a common house where all food and other production would be stored. All property belonged to the people "in common."

The Pilgrims were practicing the nearest thing in history to pure communism—"from each according to his ability, to each according to his need."

Within three months half of the 100 odd Pilgrims had already perished. Half of the Mayflower crew members died before the ship could return to England. After two horrible years of starvation and misery the governor held a meeting. People decided to try something that appeared heartless. Henceforth, instead of each man being responsible for his neighbors' well-being they gave each family its own parcel of land. The results were extraordinary.

Bradford states: "This had very good success; for it made all hands very industrious, so as much more corn was planted than otherwise would have been by any means ye Govr or any other could use. The women now went willingly into ye field, and took their little-ones with them to set corn, which before would avenge weakness, and inability; whom to have compelled would have bene thought great tiranie and oppression."

Whereas the industrious had resented working for the lazy and shiftless, now every individual had the greatest incentive to produce. For private enterprise system had been born, and it accomplished miracles—as it always has and always will. No wonder the Pilgrims were so thankful that first Thanksgiving day. They had discovered the secret that man had sought for ages.

This Thanksgiving let us pray that God's mercy will give us an undeserved second chance. Let us rediscover the secret of plenty that comes from self-reliance and individual responsibility, always dependent of course upon the mercies of God. And let us do it before it is too late.

Union Thanksgiving Service Scheduled

Five congregations will unite in a Thanksgiving morning service at the Oak Park Church of the Brethren near Oakland Thursday, November 22, at 10 a. m. The service will be led by Rev. J. Stanley Earhart, pastor. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. Lawrence Sherwood. Participating churches are Mt. Lake Park Baptist church, Leach Lynn E. V. B. church, Bethel Methodist church in Mt. Lake Park, St. Paul's Methodist church, and the Oak Park Church of the Brethren.

The offering will be given to teachers of the Green street school for purchase of craft and educational materials.

The Red House community Thanksgiving service will be held Thursday evening, November 22, at 8 o'clock, in the Glade View Church of the Brethren. Rev. Luther Seibert, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, will deliver the sermon. The worship service will be conducted by a Brethren minister. The choir of St. John's church will offer a special anthem.

St. Mark's Lutheran church, Oakland, will have its Thanksgiving service on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. There will be special music by the children's choir, the youth choir and the adult choir. The Rev. Wm. Ernest Fox, pastor, will deliver the sermon.

Additional Bow Kill

Bow hunters added an additional kill to the list provided last week by Harold Harmon of the Mt. New station, north of Oakland. The season ended last Wednesday.

He reported Richard Fairgrieve, Moscow, had obtained a doe on Savage mountain. He also listed the name of one hunter who was omitted from last week's report. He was K. Hutton, Westernport, who killed a 70 lb doe on Backbone mountain.

The number is almost twice as many as were killed last year in Garrett county. The figures was 8 for 1961.

Thanksgiving Service Set At Episcopal Church

Thanksgiving Day will be celebrated at St. Matthew's Episcopal church, Oakland, with a service of Holy Communion at 10:30 a. m. The rector, the Rev. W. Shelby Walhall, will preach the sermon. Music will be under the direction of Mrs. Neil C. Fralley, organist.

Persons attending the service are asked to bring canned goods. Backs will be distributed to the needy of Garrett county. The public is invited. Services are being held at the parish house on Center street until repairs can be made to the church.

6 Properties Go At Tax Sale Saturday

Six properties of the county were sold, at tax sale last Saturday morning after twenty-one property owners had redeemed theirs prior to the date of sale.

Tax sales are conducted by Joseph Welch, treasurer, under powers vested in him by the annotated Code of Maryland. Sales were made to the highest bidder in each instance.

Mr. Welch said there was more interest than usual at the Court House Saturday and that several of the pieces brought exceptional prices.

The property owners have one year and a day to redeem their land before a deed is provided by the treasurer to the purchaser.

Walter W. Dawson purchased the property of Robert S. and Ethel M. Hartley, in district 1, 46 of an acre, for $1,500. Total amount of taxes due totaled $150, and the property was assessed at $2,500.

Homor L. Bennett purchased the property of William H. and Jean E. Covington in district 6, being a lot 200 by 122.73 near Gravelly Run, Deep Creek Lake for $310. Taxes due totaled $31.20 and the property was assessed at $600.

Ray Teets purchased 13 of an acre of ground in district 7, owned by Chester R. and Margaret Sines, for $750. The taxes due totaled $31.06, and was assessed at $600.

Jesse Walker and Kathleen L. Marshall, Kitzmiller, purchased fifty acres in district 13, owned by James A. Gary, William T. Carson and Henry Stockbridge, Jr., for $2,150. Taxes due totaled $42.20, and the assessed value at $400.

Blaine Switzer purchased the property assessed to Ada E. Warren in district 16, amounting to lots in Mt. Lake Park, for $3,800. Taxes due totaled $150.79 and the property was assessed at $2,900.

Highest price for any property was paid by Elwood George, of Swanton. He bid $7,000 for fifty acres of a tract owned by Henry M. and William F. Thomas Fitzhugh in district 1. Total amount of taxes due was $41.93 and the assessed valuation was $400.00.

In Baltimore Hospital

Mrs. Trudy Agness, proprietor of the William-James hotel, and daughter Sandra, have been patients in St. Joseph's hospital in Baltimore as the result of an automobile wreck in the Baltimore vicinity some two weeks ago.

Mrs. Agness suffered a broken nose, a broken jaw and chest injuries. Her daughter was badly bruised and sustained lacerations of the face.

Details of the accident are not known, but it was thought that the mishap occurred after the two had been in Baltimore for medical treatment and were enroute to their home in Oakland.

State And County Road Groups Set For Snow Battle

Snow Fences Erected And Machinery In Good Condition For Winter

The annual battle against drifting snow and ice-covered highways in the county has been planned by the State Roads commission and the County Roads office.

The equipment for both departments is about the same as last year. E. R. Fike, acting state roads engineer here, said there had been replacements for eight trucks and the state has available 20 trucks, two graders, one blower, two roller spreaders. There are approximately 153 miles of state roads in the county for which the SIC is responsible.

Throughout the state the commission has 668 pieces of equipment and 1,500 men in a state of readiness. Maintenance forces have stockpiled quantities of salts, abrasives and chemicals in strategic locations.

The Garrett county roads department has about the same equipment as last year which includes three pay loaders equipped with V-plows, 1 pay loader without V-plow, five bulldozers, nine graders with V-plow, 35 trucks with plows, one truck with blower attachment and one detachable blower attachment that is interchangeable with one of the trucks, and a new caterpillar loader, mounted on rubber.

This plus the regular einderling equipment and a quantity of salt for melting purposes, constitutes the set-up for the local department, and with which they will attempt to keep open the 693 miles of county roads.

Paul DeWitt, assistant county roads supervisor, said that some 12,000 feet of new snow fence had been received, but this was mostly for replacement of worn out fence. There are some 50 miles of snow fences that have been erected throughout the county.

He said the county had purchased this year a quantity of bulk salt in place of rock salt used previously. Some 200 tons have been acquired.

Snow emergency route signs have been placed on U. S. route 40, U. S. route 219, state route 135, U. S. route 30, state route 30 and state route 417.

The roads department had one test a few weeks ago but since that time not enough snow has fallen to require the use of plows.

Sanitary Commission Meets To Consider Sewage Problems

The Garrett County Sanitary commission met with members of State and County health departments last night in an effort to develop plans to benefit from available federal funds for water and sewer projects.

Up to 79 percent participation by the federal government was authorized in the recent session of Congress.

Meeting with the group were the Commissioners-elect, H. D. Swartzentruber, Allen S. Paugh and Earl Opel, who were briefed on the activities and purposes of the Sanitary commission.

Oakland's mayor, Russell L. Smith, also attended and reported a proposal to petition the group for creation of a sanitary district for the tri-town areas of Oakland, Mt. Lake Park and Leach Lynn Heights. He explained that pressure is continuing to mount in the matter of raw sewage being dumped into the Little Youghiogheny river, particularly the sewage from the Sterling Poultry Processing plant. The health department has complained of the condition and Smith said it could jeopardize the continued operation of Sterling by forbidding the discharge of the sewage into the river.

Smith also said that one of the requirements of industry is sewage treatment and that the Oakland area could not expect to attract industry without it.

A petition of 25 signatures of residents and landowners in the proposed district is required before the Sanitary Commission can act. Once the petition is presented and boundaries established an engineer will survey the district and estimate costs of building and maintaining the sewer system and

Fred Thayer Named As State's Attorney

Fred A. Thayer III, third attorney in five generations of his family, has been named state's attorney for this county, effective December 1. He will succeed W. Dwight Stover, who has submitted his resignation to Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris, of the Fourth Judicial Circuit.

Stover served as state's attorney for the past eleven years, and lost his bid for election as associate judge in the recent election by a total of 36 votes.

He informed Judge Harris he did not care to continue in the position and wanted to be relieved of his duties without delay.

Thayer will serve the one month remaining to complete Stover's four-year term, starting January 1. In the past election there was no candidate for state's attorney.

The new state's attorney's grandfather, Frederick A. Thayer, Sr., was an Oakland attorney as was his great grandfather, Thomas Peddicord. His father, Frederick A. Thayer, Jr., was an Oakland insurance agent for many years.

Thayer was born in Cumberland, but his parents resided here. His mother is the former Elisabeth Pearce, of National, Allegany county.

He was graduated in 1951 from Oakland High school, and from the College of Wooster, in Ohio, in 1955. He received his law degree at Duke university, Durham, N. C., in 1958, and returned to Oakland to establish a law practice. He is associated in the practice of law with two former State's Attorneys, Walter W. Dawson, and S. R. Pagenhardt. He has been attorney to the Board of County Commissioners since Associate Judge Hamill was appointed to the bench last year.

Thayer is married to the former Diane Senior, of Sudbury, Ontario, Canada, and they have one son, Frederick A. Thayer IV.

He will be sworn in office on Saturday, December 1, by Judge Hamill.

Board Proposes Jr. High School

Structure Would Relieve Overcapacity Of Oakland Schools

The proposal for a new junior high school in Oakland was proposed and discussed at a regular meeting of the Board of Education, which was announced by Willard L. Hawkins, county superintendent of Schools. Mr. Hawkins also spoke at length about this new school at the Southern High school Parent-Teacher association session.

The school board is to meet in December with a citizens' Building committee, the County Commissioners, Delegates and Senators, to discuss the proposal in detail.

Mr. Hawkins explained that based on an average class size of 30 pupils per teacher, Center street school has an overcapacity of 50 pupils. Dennett Road school has an overcapacity of 55 pupils. Southern High school can house comfortably around 900 students and at present there are 1185 enrolled. This makes an overcapacity of 375 or more pupils in the three schools in Oakland.

He said that in other areas in the county the housing facilities were adequate to take care of present enrollments and any expected increases within the foreseeable future. School population growth in the county is largely in the Oakland area at the moment.

Mr. Hawkins pointed out that the total bonded indebtedness for schools as of November 9, was $1,598,588. By the end of 1961, he said this indebtedness would be reduced to $465,712. While some portion of the cost of school bonds is shared by the county, he said the largest portion was financed by the state incentive fund and natural gas tax. He remarked that an additional bond issue would be necessary to finance the building of any junior high school. After 1961 he felt there would be sufficient funds from the State incentive fund and natural gas tax to finance this bond issue without any demands on local taxes.

2 Southern Players On PVC 2nd Team

Two players on the Southern Highlanders' gridiron team were named to the second team in the Potomac Valley conference. The names were announced at the annual dinner meeting of the conference at Burlington, W. Va., on Monday evening.

James Thayer was named tackle and Jon Thayer one of the backfield men in the second team lineup.

Southern High's baseball team was recognized also during the program. The Highlanders won the Potomac Valley conference championship last spring. The school received $15 toward the purchase of a suitable trophy.

Keyser's "Tack" Clark was named PVC football coach of the year and Keyser High earned a major share of honors at the dinner. The champions landed four places on the 12-player all-conference football team. Keyser had a 7-4 record and has capped 13 consecutive games in the league over two seasons. Clark has been coaching for 20 years at Keyser.

Six schools placed players on the first team. They were Moorefield, Romney, Petersburg, Ridgeley and Cileville, in addition to Keyser.

"Beall High school won the track and field championship award and Romney won the annual cross-country title.

Harold Harmon, in charge of Mt. New station for the Fish and Game commission, said that deer seemed to be as plentiful as last year, if not more so. Many hunters have been in the area in recent days making reservations in private homes, boarding houses and other places and more will make their appearance next week. Several thousand hunters are expected to be on hand for at least the first few days of the season.

The limit is one buck per year per hunter and if he was successful in getting a deer during the bow and arrow season, he would be ineligible to hunt during the regular buck season. A hunter is allowed to drive deer without firearms after he has killed his buck, according to the regulations, so that it is possible to aid his companions.

Game regulations stipulate that bucks may be killed only with a rifle that develops over 1200 foot of muzzle energy. Shotguns loaded with pumpkin balls or slugs may also be used.

There are four deer checking stations in the county where deer must be checked as soon as possible after being killed. It is unlawful to remove the head or hide or other parts except the internal organs, or cut up the meat until

New Funeral Home Officially Opened

The completion of the Leighton-Durst Funeral home at the former Loar home, corner of Second and Pennington streets, was officially announced this week.

The Loar home was presented to West Virginia Wesleyan college following the death of the last member of the Loar family and was originally intended for widows of retired Methodist ministers, but this was found to be unsuitable and the home was purchased by the partnership.

John O. Durst, Cumberland funeral director for twenty years, became an associate of Herbert C. Leighton in the Leighton Funeral home in Oakland last October, and following the purchase of the Loar home, proceeded to convert this building for their new home.

The building has facilities for four separate viewings, has a main chapel, smoking lounge and powder room. It has been completely remodeled, redecorated and carpeted.

For the immediate future the business office and showroom will remain at the Leighton Funeral home site on Oak street.

Announcement of the new home is found in a half-page advertisement which appears in The Republican today.

Herbert C. Leighton became a funeral director in 1933, operating in Mt. Lake Park. He moved his business to Oakland in 1935, building the brick structure which has housed the business on Oak street since that time.

Durst, graduate of Potomac State college, Keyser, West Liberty college and the McAllister School of Embalming in New York, from which he was graduated in 1938, was associated with the Hafer Funeral home in Cumberland prior to coming to Oakland.

Deer Season To Open December 1

Extra Day Added To Season For Fourth Straight Year

The annual deer hunting season will open Saturday, December 1, and will continue until sundown the following Saturday, December 8, excluding Sunday, December 2. This is the fourth year that an extra day has been added to the season to give hunters two Saturdays.

The extra day in 1960 gave the county a new record in bucks killed, the total reaching 804. Hunters were on their way to a new record in 1959 but a raging snow storm practically eliminated hunting on at least two days. Last year district game warden, Joseph Minke, said an erroneous report in the newspapers about a snow storm in the county, had cut down the number of hunters, and for the first time in history there were more bucks killed in Allegany county than in Garrett county. The total kill last year was 638.

During the period of the deer season it will be lawful to kill male deer with two or more points on one antler and spike bucks with three inch antler.

The small game season which began November 15, will be suspended during the deer season but will be resumed Monday, December 10.

Harold Harmon, in charge of Mt. New station for the Fish and Game commission, said that deer seemed to be as plentiful as last year, if not more so. Many hunters have been in the area in recent days making reservations in private homes, boarding houses and other places and more will make their appearance next week. Christmas Lighting Plans Made; To Be Erected Next Week

The usual Christmas decorations for the town of Oakland will be put in place sometime next week, it was announced by the Mt. Top Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber always pays the labor costs for preparation of the strands and erection of the Christmas lights, and the work will be done, same as in previous years, by employees of the West Maryland Power company. City employees usually assist in making the strands.

There will be the usual lights across the streets in the business section plus the pole ornaments and the decorated tree on the church lawn, corner of Second and Liberty streets.

Since the Chamber of Commerce had no membership fee this year, the organization mailed out letters to business places, asking for contributions to help pay the cost of the Christmas decorations. A number responded but not to the extent the Chamber had hoped, it was said.

Christmas Treat

The annual Christmas treat for all children in Oakland and nearby towns is also being planned by the Chamber of Commerce. This year the distribution will be made on Saturday, December 22.

Distribution usually is in charge of Charles L. Briner and will take place at the corner of Second and Liberty streets, adjacent to the Episcopal church lawn.

The treat is made possible each year through contributions from business people, individuals and organizations. Letters are to be mailed shortly to these people and organizations seeking their assistance.

Each year at least 2,500 treats of oranges and candy are distributed. The committee this year includes Mahlon Yost, Willard Hawkins, Kenneth Johns, Edward Smouse, William Hesen, C. L. Briner. Briner said business men and women would receive a letter seeking contributions the first of next week.

Fair Stockholders To Hear Reports, Elect

Stockholders of the Garrett County Agricultural Fair association will meet next Tuesday, November 27, at 8 o'clock p. m., at the Grantsville elementary school, it was announced by Batty Ridder, secretary.

There will be a report of the association's financial condition, election of five new members of the Board of Directors, and suggestions received for discussion in improving future fairs. A period for refreshments and fellowship is on the agenda.

Following the stockholders meeting the board members will meet to elect their officers for the ensuing year. Directors whose terms expire, include Mrs. Bruce Folk, Grantsville; Harry Collier, Accident; Charles Bowman, Harland; Bowman, McHenry; and Robert L. Gloffely, Blittner.

H. G. Gortner, president of the association, stressed the fact that any interested person would be welcome to attend the meeting.

Other officers include Claude Wagner, Jr., vice-president; Allen S. Paugh, treasurer; and Claude Wagner, Jr., manager.

Directors besides those previously mentioned include Hubert Friend, John Breneman, Walter DeBerry, Arthur Fitzwater, Gerald Gloffely, Mrs. O. C. Gloffely, Mrs. Robert Hoffman, D. L. Klotz, Mrs. John Menges, Charles Wilt, Claude Wagner, Sr., and William Umbel.

Throughout the state in general, Type II is being offered in November, but since there is no urgency to rush this program, this date has been moved back to December for Garrett County. The exact schedule of these Clinics will be published at a later date in this newspaper.

As of the present time, this type of immunization lends itself only to a mass program and these immunizations will not be offered in the various Health Centers as has been done with the Bk Vaccine.

The Type III Oral Polio Vaccine will be offered only after it has been cleared by the United States Public Health Services as absolutely safe, as of the present time Oral Immunization is being offered as an adjunct to the Salk Program. The Salk Program will be continued and all who have started this are urged to continue to completion, whether or not they are receiving the oral type. Dr. Jones concluded.

'Rose Red' Petra Fascinates Visitors

Thousands of pilgrims will flock into the Holy City of Jerusalem this Easter to climb the Mount of Olives and to join the Palm Sunday parade. They will cross over into Bethpage and wind their way past the Chapel of Ascension, through the Garden of Gethsemane, and beyond the Church of the Virgin and the Twin Pools of Bethesda to stand in awe and veneration in front of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre.

While Jordan is best known as the Biblical Land and custodian of the holiest places in Christianity, it is also the site of some of the most outstanding historical and archaeological monuments in the Middle East.

Remains of all periods are to be found in Jordan, from Paleolithic to Islamic, including Canaanite cities and villages, Hellenistic and Greco-Roman towers, Roman towers, Roman palaces and mansions, Crusaders' castles and Moslem mosques, not to mention the ancient wall of old Jerusalem. Jordan's beautiful and varied Biblical landscape, the lake and the river, the plain and the mountain, the fertile green lands of the Ghor and the vast arid desert, renders it an ideal place for a relaxed and enjoyable vacation. Tourists are becoming increasingly aware of the attractions of this "Land of Milk and Honey." Last year about 104,000 tourists visited the country, almost double the number of visitors in 1953. Perhaps one of the most fascinating archaeological sites in Jordan is the "rose-red city" of Petra.

Lost to mankind for centuries until rediscovery by an Anglo-Swiss explorer in the 19th century, Petra is being visited today in increasing numbers, but is still a collector's item on the world travel map. Its fascination is enhanced by the dramatic approach to the city as one turns and twists through a canyon on foot or on horseback along the bed of a dry creek. In some parts the lane is twenty feet wide, in others it is narrow enough to permit only one horse to pass at a time through low niches in the rock. No sound is heard except the rattling of the pebbles under the hoofs of the horses and the sighing of the wind through an occasional rock tunnel. Suddenly as one takes the last turn in the gloom of the defile, the facade of "El Khazneh," the Treasury of Petra, confronts the oncomer, glowing gloriously in the sun with a rose-red tint that inspired the English poet William Burges to write one of the immortal lines in English literature, "a rose-red city, half as old as time." The 130-foot edifice was built as a temple and later became a tomb of the Nabatean kings. Topping it is an urn showing the streaks of bullets fired in the hope of releasing the hoard of gold supposedly stored there.

The Khazneh (Treasury) is one of the most beautiful buildings of Petra, a city carved from the heart of a solid rock mountain. The building stands at the end of the winding path along which visitors must pass to reach the Rose-Red City.

Scenic Road Slated

West Virginia's State Roads commissioner Burl Sawyers reported last Sunday that planning was being immediately on the Highland Scenic highway which will run through the Monongahela National Forest.

However, Sawyers did not say when actual construction would begin. He said West Virginia has been allocated $2 million by the federal government this fiscal year for work on the public land portion of the proposed 100-mile highway near Gorman, across the Potomac river from Garrett county, to near Richwood in Nicholas county.

No Nation Marks Except U. S. A. Thanksgiving Day

Thanksgiving Day, is often described as a uniquely American institution.

It is, in the sense that no other country observes such a national holiday.

But the custom of holding a special harvest festival to return thanks to God did not originate in America.

The Bible-reading Pilgrims borrowed the whole idea from ancient Israel.

The story of the real "first thanksgiving" is to be found in the 16th and 20th chapters of the Old Testament Book of Deuteronomy.

They record the detailed instructions which Moses gave to the Jews for a holiday to be held exactly seven weeks after they began harvesting their first crop in the Promised Land.

The purpose of the holiday, Moses said was to "rejoice in all the good which the Lord your God has given to you and your household."

Moses was explicit about the manner in which the children of Israel were to show their gratitude.

"You shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground which you harvest," he said, "and you shall put it in a basket...."

The basket was to be taken to the altar of God's house for dedication. Its contents were then to be distributed among widows, orphans, and others who had no harvest of their own.

The Thanksgiving holiday which Americans will celebrate next Thursday is a far cry from the one which Moses planned more than 3,000 years ago.

We have substituted a great deal that Moses thought essential, and have added certain things, such as turkey dinners and football games, which he probably would have considered irrelevant to such an occasion.

But one can still detect, in the modern Thanksgiving, at least a faint echo of the original idea that men can best "thank God for their blessings by sharing them with others."

Overseas Relief Programs

During this season, all of America's major religious faiths will be conducting their annual appeals to the public for contributions to overseas relief programs.

Protestants will give to the "where our surplus" drive of Church World Service, which helps to alleviate shipments of U. S. foods to more than 100 million hungry people in 32 countries.

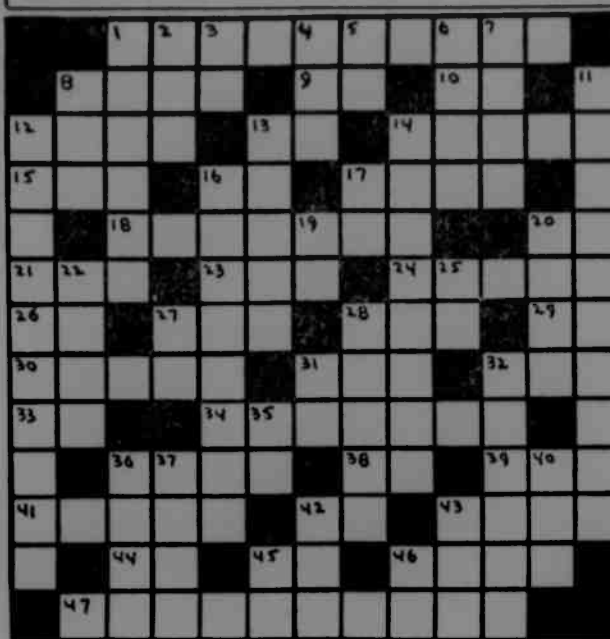

Catholics will donate wearable used clothing, shoes, blankets and bedding supplies for homeless people through the Bishops' Thanksgiving Clothing Collection.

Jews will contribute to the world's needy through the United Jewish Appeal.

All of these campaigns have a common theme: "Give thanks by giving."

Moses might not like anything else about the American Thanksgiving of 1962, but he would recognize and approve of that slogan.

Material things are fine, but

Week after week we urge you to give consideration to the material things of life... a new home... a new car... an education.

But during this Thanksgiving week, and every week, we are reminded of the real source from which our blessings flow.

Let us all truly celebrate our holiday by going to church this Thanksgiving, thanking Him in person for the many blessings of the year. Then we can return to our homes filled with the meaning of our abundant tables, our warm gatherings.

WITH THANKS FOR MANY BLESSINGS...

"Listen Only To Me..."

The heavy hand of censorship is being laid on the American people. You are to know only what government spokesmen want to tell you about what is happening regarding a defiant Cuba and our confrontation with the military power of Communist Russia.

This is exercise of governmental power that can kill your basic right to know the truth and envelope you in the darkness of doubt, fear and helpless submission.

Arthur Sylvester, himself a former reporter and now assistant secretary of defense for public affairs, a public relations position, has ordered that the substance of every Pentagon conversation with a news man must be reported immediately to the Public Information Office, which, in effect, will shut off all but official news releases.

the government, Mr. Sylvester says, "is part of the weaponry."

The press, then, is to be considered a weapon of the administration, with the news, true or false or slanted (for who will know the difference?) to be used for whatever purpose somebody might have in mind at the moment.

This administration has never trusted the people. It is impatient with legislative procedures, with the due process of law, with tradition and custom, and with constitutional restraints.

When campaigning for president Mr. Kennedy said "follow me." Now the administration says "listen only to me." —Elgin, Ill., Courier News.

Letter to the Editor

National Education Week
Dear Sir:

The past week was National Education Week all over this great nation of ours. There was a special invitation extended to everyone to visit the schools of our country.

Yes! I visited two schools, Southern Junior High and Center Street Elementary. I know you will not find any finer, more dedicated people than right here in our classrooms.

I think one is always more impressed with the little tots, especially the first graders, when they are starting as fledglings from the nest and have so much vim and energy they are ready to lick the whole wide world.

It was amazing to me the knowledge and know-how these little ones have acquired in two months of school.

To see that teacher among 35 little, quirming, inquiring leprechauns would warm the cockles of your heart.

She has a knack or more of a talent to love and show it to one but to make each mama and papa feel that their chick is something special.

All the nasty pictures that were painted before the election were just for adult gains and the child in our schools was never considered. Let those people visit a classroom of little children, who are not contaminated by politics, and the position of fear of an atomic war, thinking together and it will restore your faith in the future.

Thank God for a Democratic way of life.

MRS. PAUL W. HOYE

Sewage Problems

Public hearings would then be scheduled to plan the project and get the reaction of the people living within the district, it was explained by Robert B. Sinzell, chairman of the Sanitary commission. Other members of the commission are Victor Harvey, Bloomington, and Earl Haefling, Accident.

The commission appointed Jack Turney as attorney for the group. Present for the discussion were Thomas W. Shives and Fred W. Pence, sanitary engineers for the State Health department, Dr. Arthur Jones, county health officer, and Charles B. Miller, sanitarian.

FBI arrested a Cuban U. N. aide as saboteur; two others seized. Eight Polaris subs are now with the U. S. fleet.

The Bank of Canada reduced interest rate from 5 to 4 percent.

The chorus will include other club members, the Southern High chorus and Girl Scout troop No. 97 members.

The minstrel was written and is being directed by Gladys Vannucci, a club member.

Proceeds from the venture will aid the club to continue participation in local drives, continuing its annual donation to the hospital landscape fund and to increase a scholarship fund for a qualified girl graduate from a county high school to attend Frostburg State Teachers college.

Admission will be $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Deer Season

The deer has been reported and weighed at one of the checking stations.

Stations in the county are the same as last year. Edwards garage, in Grantsville; Matt Storey's, on Deep Creek Lake near Mellicoy; Yough Motor company in Friendsville; and Carroll Miller's Mt. Top Fire and Sport shop in Oakland. Hunters also may check in at Westport or LaVale in Allegany county.

Additional district game wardens from other counties will be assigned to Western Maryland during the season.

Fifteen candidates have already filed their expense accounts for the recent election, as required by the Corrupt Practices Act.

Most expensive campaign reported thus far was that of Stuart F. Hamill, for judge. He reported expenditures of $3,332.99. However, his prize was the greatest of any one running for office. During his fifteen year term he will receive in the neighborhood of $300,000.

Judge Hamill reported the unusual expenses for advertising and gave a lengthy list of persons to whom he contributed money to round up voters, haulers, etc. His list included Charles Bender, $100; Paul George, $75; Stephen DeWitt, $200; Ward Hinebaugh, $300; Chet Kelly, $100; Jesse Merrill, $50; C. C. Nathan, $150; M. Pressman, $100; Carl Schell, $200; Julius Wilhelm, $100.

Spencer Graham, successful candidate for state senate reported expenses of $545.87, while his opponent reported $588.77.

Listen Americans!
...by Dr. George S. Benson
PRESIDENT - NATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAM
Searcy, Arkansas

As these comments are being put together, the Cuban crisis is far from being resolved. But military action appeared less likely as the Russians backed away from a confrontation and agreed to haul their missiles out of Cuba. Most citizens, with lots of help being offered by professional analysts from government, politics, and the press, were asking plenty of questions about Soviet intentions and wanting to know why it was that the Reds armed Cuba with the missiles and thus precipitated such a crisis.

It cannot now be known whether this was a tactic meant to force withdrawal of American bases close to Russia (which were set up openly), or to split the Western Allies, or to provide cover for a new barrage against Berlin, or even something else less noticeable. What we can be sure, however, is that even if it failed it was some part of their program for world conquest and the overthrow of American capitalism. Nothing new has been revealed about the Communists in the whole Cuban experience.

It is possible that this trip to the brink could have been a Red experiment to see how far America would allow herself to be pushed. The whole world was beginning to ask, and so were our citizens, whether our leadership would cover before each demand of the Soviet conspiracy. If it was such a test to discover American determination and resolve, then we can be thankful that Mr. Khrushchev got his assurances in actions as well as words that the nation will oppose his colonialism in Cuba or anywhere else. There was something new in this.

After all, this is the answer the Russians have been needing for many months — yes, for several years. It is an answer, in general, that our liberals have not been willing to give. And it is an answer, we believe, that would have come from the appeasers and accommodators that have floated with ease in and out of the government for nearly a generation. It was an answer, we presume, that could not have come from the builders of the new Socialistic America, nor could have been developed by that expert on Latin America, Presidential Advisor Arthur Schlesinger, Jr.

The question is not likely to be whether the Reds will now, in a new spirit of meekness, compete with us in disarmament. More than likely this withdrawal is merely a staged retreat, entirely tactical, until another opportunity is presented for the brand of aggressiveness the Russians are so well known for. They attach no ignominy to a retreat of this sort following a big thrust forward, for they are still ahead of the position that they might have occupied if they had undertaken no action.

By a similar token, we are still short of the international position we might have claimed, if we had not so belatedly read out the score. We could have been making a more determined effort to halt the international thievery. The Reds are not idealists. They are practical men, dedicated to conquest. The essential question remains, and it no doubt puzzles the Russians when they look at us as much as it mystifies this writer when he examines the wavering patterns shown by American leadership through the years. That question is: Will we now, at long last, become firmly united at home and abroad for firm action against the Communist menace?

THE AMERICAN WAY

I Dreamed I Was Dancing
In My New Frontier Straightjacket
By Tom Anderson

I dreamed I was dancing in my New Frontier Bra — a Straightjacket. It was 1971. Ten wonderful New Frontier years had passed. America was still "on the move." I had moved from the publishing business because the Whiz Kids had made advertising an unnecessary evil. Advertising creates wants. Makes people want such absurd things as taffies, on ears, colored (pardon the expression) bath tubs, pills that work three ways. I dreamed that there was no need to buy all those things Senator Keyfaker was against. No more excuse for wanting to take Bloody Marys for tired blood.

Whiz Kids In Action
Kennedy braintruster, Dr. Galbraith, had now set up a new department: USDW (United States Department of Wants). "Ask not what you want for your government but what your government wants for you," Dr. Galbraith proclaimed. The Whiz Kids knew what people should want so there was no further need for the sincere sell, much less the shrill sell. We now had Grade Labeling. The New Deal hadn't been able to put it over because it was then ahead of its time.

I dreamed I was shopping in a New Frontier super-market. (They always remind me of Jack Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson: built on self-service). This particular store, Public Store No. 4489, had simplified shopping beyond any dreams Clarence Saunders, who originated self-service stores, ever had. Everything was graded A, B or C by the government. No decision on which brand was best. Or which advertisement had been most truthful. The government had it all figured and there was no further need for advertising. Just push button "A." Government Grade Labeling had put an end to practically all advertising, and most magazines and newspapers folded — except those subsidized by the Socialist foundations, co-ops, and the government. Since most of the inefficient little and medium-sized stores had been put in the Store Bank, there was more variety than ever, for the shelves were full of foreign goods sent over by our World Brothers, under the Kennedy Parity-for-foreigners Plan. Some of the foreign goods were sent from foreign factories owned by Americans — which made it all right — for them.

Our Very Own "Head"
I dreamed that John Kennedy and his Military Kids (successors to the Whiz Kids) were still in office, serving their last term before the United Nations' man came in. It turned out that Kennedy was not our best President, as some had predicted, but he was our last. The Land of Opportunity, where anyone had had an opportunity to vote for a Kennedy.

It would seem have a non-American President, chosen for us by our World Brothers. The United Nations now furnished "heads" for all of the world's nations, rotating them for "better understanding."

"UN MUST BE HEAVEN..."

Mr. Koslov was reported in line for our Presidency or Presidency. He's the one who rotated Mr. Khrushchev's head until it came off. But he had conducted himself in a very gentlemanly manner in recent years and now appeared to have little blood on his hands unnecessarily. In fact, almost all of our World Brothers had become Loving Brothers and the U.N. formerly known as the Communist and Cannibal Club, was now the nearest thing to heaven — which had been disclaimed by the National Council of Churches, anyhow.

Editor's Note: Thos. J. Anderson, Publisher of Farm and Ranch and five other farm publications, is the most-quoted farm editor in America.)

$4,732,360. Elementary school buildings were listed at $2,360,000 and equipment of $72,200. High school buildings were listed at $2,212,160, with $88,000 in equipment.

The annual report carries an account of fifteen schools where money is raised, from independent school activities in excess of $20.

Northern High school had receipts of $21,452.13 and Southern had receipts of $35,637.36. Both schools showed balances at the close of the school year.

A violin was sold in London for $25,200, highest price ever for such an instrument.

Church Women Meet

United Lutheran Church Women of Zion Church, Jennings, met November 11. Mrs. Donald Hetrick led a group of nine in a discussion of the theme "Help Wanted."

The lesson gave perspective on present-day youth and challenged adults to consider facets through which they might help youth by encouraging them to become an active part of the life and work of their local congregation.

The quarterly thank offerings were received. Mrs. Hetrick also presided over the business session. Altar flowers on Veterans' day were presented, honoring members of the congregation who had served in the armed forces.

Mrs. Elwood Glogoffy was made a life member of the United Lutheran Church Women. A brief report was given concerning a membership meeting in Morgantown. Attending were Mrs. Joe Resh and Mrs. Ernest Handwerk.

Meetings are to be held in the homes of members during winter months. They will meet with Mrs. Donald Hetrick in December. Mrs. Herman C. Meyers will introduce the theme, "Peace—Our Responsibility." A nominating committee will select four officers and three committee chairmen to serve when the new organization of LCW gets under way in January.

William Bittinger, of Gorman, W. Va., supplied this week's old photograph. The picture is not dated, but Mr. Bittinger identified the group as a Sunday School class at Accident, W. Va., a community in the Eglon section.

Mr. Bittinger said at this time the services were held in the Accident school house, which is shown in the background.

Mr. Bittinger knew most of the persons shown, but positive identification is difficult because of the manner in which they are posing. However, from a general left to right direction, they are Luther Waybright, Ake Waybright, George Waybright, Jonas Bittinger, the Sunday School superintendent, Martin Henline, Abel Waybright, Harry Henline, Emma Henline Simmons, Nina Henline, John Hille, Edna Henline, James Helmick, Ora Slabaugh, Delpha Hansford, John Slabaugh, Zula Bennett, Etta Bittinger, Alice Henline, Martha Bennett, Etta Bittinger, Alice Henline, Martha Bennett, holding the infant, Cora Helmick, Sim Simmons, Willis Dumire.

Standing in the rear are Gerty Lantz and George Lantz.

Missionary To Speak Here

Rev. Harry A. Rich, returned Nazarene missionary to Haiti, now on furlough in the United States, will speak at a meeting in the Church of the Nazarene, 8th and Alder streets, on Sunday evening, November 25, at 7:30 p. m.

Rev. Rich served as field superintendent during 1961-62 and prior to that was a teacher in the Bible school and served as pastor. He will tell about the island and its people and describe the work of the church there.

A native of Pennsylvania, he earned two degrees at Eastern Nazarene college, Wollaston, Mass., and served as pastor in Quincy for five years before being sent abroad. The speaker's wife and two children are residing at Lake Hopatcong, N. J., while he is on deputational service for the Nazarenes.

Huskies Face Bruce In Season Opener

Northern High Huskies, with a new coach, open an 18-game slate Friday, December 7, by playing Bruce High in Westernport. The Huskies had a 3-16 season mark last winter and were defeated by Valley High in the district 1, class B tournament.

Romeo Williams is in his first coaching venture. He is from Clear Fork, W. Va., and starred for Glenville college. He feels he will have a strong nucleus returning from the 1961-62 squad, including the season's leading scorer, Larry Yommer, who had 303 markers in 16 games. Also back are Tommy Speicher, Jim Shoemaker and Klellen McGraw.

Schools Prohibited From Selling Chance Tickets

The Board of Education through Willard L. Hawkins, county superintendent of schools, has issued a letter to principals concerning the regulation which forbids principals and teachers to use gambling devices or games of chance of any kind for the raising of school funds. A similar letter was sent out last year.

It had been reported that some schools were using pupils to sell chance tickets.

Mr. Hawkins said the selling of chances was a violation of the school board regulations and hoped the matter would not come before the school board again.

He said the ruling did not apply to any decision that Parent-Teacher associations wish to make in regard to raising of funds. State

The spirit of Thanksgiving takes root in the heart of a child in the same gradual fashion most of us have experienced.

First there is excitement and anticipation which abundance awakens in our minds.

Then comes the pensive moment when we realize that all this abundance is Someone's gift to us.

Next we know the prayer of gratitude that flows from willing lips and a thankful heart.

Finally — and supremely — there is the sense of confidence, of trust, in a God whose Love is everywhere so manifest.

The hope of your neighborhood churches is that your family's observance of this traditional feast may encourage the spiritual growth of your children ... and renew your own precious faith.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

GAS RESEARCH BRINGS A NEW SOURCE OF POWER INTO YOUR HOME

Do you think of natural gas only in conventional uses? The pleasant blue flame in your gas range . . . the cheery outdoor gas light . . . the instantaneous surge of heat in your furnace.

The gas industry thinks of these things too . . . and ways to improve them. Many new and interesting applications are under way . . . portable lightweight infrared gas heaters . . . a gas power center which air conditions the entire house . . . range burners which will permit cooking without utensils.

But the progress-minded gas industry is moving fast into other developments—revolutionary developments which will bring a new economical source of power into your home.

These power sources have various names—fuel cells, thermoelectric generator, thermionic converters, magnetohydrodynamic generators. But their aim is the same—direct methods of converting gas heat into cheaper electricity than is now available.

Today, these power sources are beyond the "fantasy" stage—they are moving into reality. Devices for your home, based on these principles, are in production.

We can all look ahead to the day when a single utility service—impervious to storms, transmission breakdowns and other emergencies—will bring you low cost power for all your home needs.

Changes Are Made In Unemployment Laws

Significant changes in Maryland's Unemployment Insurance Law were outlined this week by Stephen C. Cromwell, Executive Director of the Department of Employment Security. These changes, as expressed in Senate Bill 19, were voted for under Question 7 in the recent statewide elections and deal principally with the eligibility of claimants for unemployment insurance and the amount of payment such persons may receive under the new provisions. These provisions, as Mr. Cromwell outlined them, will be effective as of December 6, and are as follows:

1. Claimant who exhausts all benefits in a benefit year must have earnings to qualify for benefits in a new benefit year under the present law. The new requirement is that he must have earnings of at least ten times his weekly benefit amount since the start of the benefit year in which he exhausted all benefits.

2. Benefit payments are reduced by the full amount received as a pension if the employer paid the full premium cost of the pension. Benefit payments are reduced by one half the amount received as a pension if the employer paid some of the premium cost of the pension. (Amounts received from Old Age Insurance benefits are included in this category.)

Each such reduced benefit payment to count as a full week of benefits.

NOTE: Disability payments are not pensions.

3. Dismissal payments are allocated to the weeks following separation from employment equal to the number of weeks pay received and such payments are treated as wages earned in such weeks.

4. Vacation payments paid at or during a layoff are allocated to the weeks following date of payment equal to the number of weeks pay received and such payments are treated as wages earned in such weeks.

5. Weekly benefit amount increased from the present maximum of $35.00 by the addition of three new weekly benefit amounts—$36.00, $37.00, $38.00.

6. Dependents' allowances shall be determined when claimant files first valid claim for benefits and remains fixed for the duration of the benefit year. Dependents may not be transferred to another claimant during such benefit year. The father or stepfather is presumed to be the principal support if the children are part of a household maintained by him. Dependents' allowances may be claimed by the mother or stepmother if she can show she is supporting the children.

7. Disqualifications for voluntarily leaving work.

Discharge or suspension as a disciplinary measure.

Failure to apply for or accept work.

The present disqualification provisions are retained. An alternate disqualification provision may be imposed, requiring a claimant to become reemployed, earn at least ten times his weekly benefit amount and then lose the new job through no fault of his own before again becoming eligible for benefits.

8. Pregnancy—The present law prohibits the payment of benefits two (2) months before the expected date of the birth of a child. The new provision prohibits the payment of benefits four (4) months before the expected date of the birth of the child.

9. Wages—Vacation pay paid at the time of layoff or separation constitutes wages.

In addition to this Mr. Cromwell added that the law's provisions requiring the claimant to actively be seeking work in order to receive unemployment benefits are still in effect and that the Maryland State Employment Service, a division of the Department of Employment Security, is continuing to expand and improve its program in assisting such persons to find work.

Mr. Cromwell noted that the Employment Service has placed 13,000 more people in jobs during the first ten months of 1962, than during a similar period in 1961, and 18,000 more than in the first ten months of 1960.

Coffee For Play School Parents

The handroom at Southern was the scene of a coffee hour at 1:20 p. m. on November 13, which was held for the parents of those children who had attended playschool. The two senior home economics classes taught by Mrs. Randol and Mrs. Richmond sponsored the affair.

A panel, composed of five of these senior girls and five mothers of the pre-schoolers, discussed the physical, mental, social, and emotional development observed during the playschool. These mothers were Mrs. Landon, Mrs. Orr, Mrs. Thayer, Mrs. Hardesty, and Mrs. Bolding. The girls on the panel were Sue Tibbs, Mary Laskey, Mary Jane Germain, and Norma Callis. Sharon Sanders acted as moderator for the discussion.

Girls serving as hostesses were Marie Gonder, Paula Marucci, Janna White, and Wanda Sweitzer. Cookies and coffee were made by the classes and served by Dora Pysell, Janet McCrobie, and Shirley Roth.

After the panel discussion, each parent read the records kept by the girl observing the child. These records contained the daily work of the child, and also a summary of all progress made.

Recreation, Safety Awards Won By Maryland 4-H's

Boy meets girl in tie for top state 4-H honors in their respective projects, both winning all-expense trips to the 4-H Club Congress in Chicago Nov. 25-29, where they will compete for college scholarships and national honors.

They are Eileen Morgan, 20, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Rice of Frostburg, and William Magruder, 17, a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Albert Magruder of Westernport.

Eileen has been a 4-H club member for 13 years, during which she was interested in several projects, but excelled most in the recreation program. For several years, she has been tribe leader at the 4-H county camp, as well as swimming instructor, lifeguard, recreation leader and song leader.

She has completed her second year at Frostburg State Teachers College and plans on a teaching career.

Her 4-H trip is provided by John Deere Co., Moline, Ill. Young Magruder's project of farm, fire, safety was a "natural" for him, since he lives on his parents' 315-acre farm and enjoys developing every phase of it.

His 4-H Safety program taught him awareness of the many hazards around the farm, how to correct them and how to inspect homes and barns for fire hazards. Last year he won Garrett county medals for farm and home safety.

The donor of his Chicago trip is General Motors. Both the recreation and safety projects are planned and conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service.

INTRODUCING
DODGE

The low-price field is about the last place a traditionalist would expect to find Dodge. The Dodge name has been associated with the medium-price boys since Hector was a pup. But the fact remains: the '63 Dodge is priced down with good old cars "F" and "C". Now, you can stay with a low price and get a lot more car. The name proves it: Dodge! You get the comfort Dodge is famous for. You get a smooth torsion-bar ride; experts call it best in the business. You get a V8 loaded for bear. (Or, the famous gas-saving 6 with the muscle of conventional V8's.) If that isn't enough to turn the other two green with envy, how's this for a clincher? Every 1963 Dodge is backed by a revolutionary new 5-year/50,000 mile warranty.*

Civil Rights, Etc. . .

Here are two brief messages worth thinking about.

1. Recently in California machinists at a missile plant called a strike which the secretary of Labor Wirtz termed an "intolerable threat to the nation's defense." Commenting, a Florida newspaper said, "As part of this strike the machinists threw up a picket line and endeavored to keep some 12,600 workers, not members of their organization, from entering the plant to continue their work. Non-union employees who didn't like the idea of being denied their right to work tried to pass the picket lines with resulting injuries to both sides. In summarizing the News reasoned: 'Isn't the fact that 12,000 people are kept from earning their paycheck by a picket line just as serious an infringement upon constitutional rights as the act of Mississippi in trying to keep James Meredith out of its university? Now if other workers don't want to cross picket lines, that is their business and right. But if non-union workers do want to cross picket lines and are prevented from doing so by violence or threats then it certainly seems to us that local, state and federal law enforcement agencies have a clear and definite responsibility to provide' (Continued on Page Four)

Four Plead Guilty To Destroying Lights

Four young men, three of them juveniles, were apprehended this week after having shot out lights in Friendsville to the tune of $105.

Just one of them, Robert Turney, was old enough to be tried in a trial magistrate's court, and this took place Tuesday night before Magistrate John W. Holman, in Friendsville.

The other three were given hearings before Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill, sitting as juvenile judge, on Tuesday afternoon.

All four pleaded guilty to the misdemeanor and were placed on indefinite probation, put in the custody of their parents and ordered to make full restitution to the Edison Edison company, which was done on Tuesday.

They had pleaded guilty to charges of being delinquent. The names of the juveniles are not available for public use.

Two other juvenile cases were heard last Wednesday before Judge Hamill. Both were for failure to attend school. The girl was sentenced to the Montrose School for Girls but suspended upon condition she return to school and attend regularly. The boy was sentenced to the Senior School of the Maryland Training School for Boys but suspended upon condition he continue regularly in school until his 18th birthday.

In one other juvenile case a youth was found not guilty by Judge Hamill of the theft of a lawn mower and gasoline. The youth had been tried in September when he entered a plea of not guilty. It was in connection with two other young men, John Henry Beckman and William Bradley Bray who had entered pleas of guilty to larceny. The theft concerned gasoline taken from the Guey Block plant and the theft of a lawn mower. Beckman and Bray were given six months suspended sentences provided restitution be made.

House Trailer Burns Near Grantsville

A house trailer owned by Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Yoder was destroyed by fire last Thursday while they were in Beltsville.

Miss Ida Engle discovered the blaze about 7:35 p. m., on the Roy Yoder farm, 10 miles south of Grantsville. Flames had severed telephone communication, and she drove five miles to Jennings to summon the Grantsville Volunteer Fire company.

Sixteen firemen went to the area. High winds, 24-degree temperature and lack of water hampered their efforts in fighting the fire. A nearby one-car garage and its contents were also destroyed including a 1959 Dodge owned by Delmar Yoder.

Firemen were forced to return to Grantsville to reload their pumper with water. Volunteers remained at the scene until 2 a. m., to protect a farm home and two barns 200 feet away. The house trailer was located on the former Harvey Dietle farm. The trailer was covered by insurance.

35 Due for Physical

Thirty-five young men of the area have been ordered to report to the induction station at Fairmont, W. Va., on Wednesday, December 5, for their pre-induction physical examination. It was announced by Mrs. Helen Bittinger, draft board clerk.

Mrs. Bittinger said there had been no call as yet for any inductions for December.

Directors To Meet

A special Christmas shopping issue of The Republican will make its appearance on Tuesday, December 4, and will be mailed to subscribers in this county and surrounding areas. "Shop at Home" is the theme. There will be Christmas news and features plus advertising of local merchants and business men.

Four Youths Missing From Forestry Camps

Four youths were reported missing from the Forestry camp for boys at New Germany, last week while another youth at the camp near Loneoaning, had failed to return from a visit to Baltimore, authorities reported.

Police received a report of a stolen truck from the New Germany road and it was believed the youths could be implicated. Camp authorities also reported a rifle was missing from the German camp.

Three of the youths were reported to have walked off a work detail Tuesday.

In the office of Robert M. Maroney, trial magistrate there were two charges concerning the forestry camp youths. David Roger Wynkoop was charged with aiding or assisting the unlawful escape of James Joseph Pettis from the Meadow Mt. Forestry camp on November 21, and James Joseph Pettis was charged with unlawful escape from the same camp. Neither case had been disposed of.

Wayne Will, deputy sheriff, reported this morning that three young men were being held in the county jail and that they would be charged with auto larceny, petty larceny and escape. One of the three was said to be a juvenile.

To Present Minstrel 2nd Time Tonight

The Business and Professional Women's club will conclude the presentation of the "First Petition Review," this evening in the Center street school auditorium. The minstrel was presented to a large audience last evening.

The curtain will rise at 8 o'clock and admission will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

The minstrel was written and directed by Mrs. Gladys Vannucci, a club member. Proceeds will aid the club to continue participation in local drives, and continue its annual contribution to the Garrett County Memorial hospital for land-leaping. Some of the funds also will be used as a scholarship fund for a qualified girl graduate from a county high school to attend Frostburg State Teachers college.

Kitzmiller to Get New Phone Facility

Increased demands for telephone facilities in this county have resulted in authorization of $139,000 for a new exchange at Kitzmiller by directors of the C and P Telephone company.

The amount will include additional dial equipment at the Oakland exchange to handle the new volume.

Richard Dayton, Cumberland manager for C and P, said the present dial equipment would be removed from Kitzmiller, which is an automatic station, and replaced with better and enlarged facilities.

The expenditure also calls for the construction of more trunk facilities between Kitzmiller and Oakland to handle the toll traffic volume.

The Kitzmiller project also calls for the construction of a 4,400 cubic foot addition to the present building.

Hunters Preparing For Deer Season

Hunters are beginning to converge upon Garrett county for the annual deer hunting season which opens Saturday, December 1, and will remain open until sundown the following Saturday, December 8, excluding Sunday, December 2. This is the fourth year that an extra day has been added to the season to give hunters two Saturdays.

The small game season which began November 15, will be suspended during the deer season but will be resumed Monday, December 10.

Boarding houses, motels, restaurants, and private homes will take care of the several thousand extra persons who come to Garrett county for this annual event.

Weather is supposed to be mild for the first part of the season at least, but there is no guarantee that it will continue for the duration.

It will be lawful to kill male deer with two or more points to one antler and spike bucks with three inch antler.

The four deer checking stations are at Edwards garage, Grantsville; Matt Storeys, Deep Creek Lake near Melleny; Yough Motor company in Friendsville; and Carroll Miller's Mt. Top Tire and Sport shop, Oak street, Oakland. Hunters also may check in at West-cornet or LaVale in Allegany county.

Additional district game wardens are being assigned to this county from other counties for the eight-day period.

New Partnership To Be Formed January 1

A new partnership will be formed in Oakland the first of the year, and will be between William E. Naylor and Daniel Benson.

Naylor was a partner with the late Earl Shartzer in the Miller's Sanitary Market, until his death several weeks ago. Benson was a former employee in the market and for the past fourteen months has been assistant manager of the meat department in the Safeway store in Cumberland.

He had worked in the Miller market for four years prior to taking the Cumberland position and before that time had been with Safeway company in Denver, Colo.

Benson's mother was the former Nell Naylor. He is a grandson of the late E. G. Naylor, a nephew of the late Earl Shartzer, and also a cousin of William E. Naylor.

Benson is married to the former Eleanor Cale, of Terra Alta and they have a daughter six years old. Mr. and Mrs. Benson have purchased a home in Loch Lynn Heights.

Mr. Naylor was in partnership with the late Earl Shartzer for twenty-one years and prior to that worked for the late Harry L. Miller, for ten years.

Mr. Benson returned to the store some three weeks ago and he and Mr. Naylor will wait until the first of the year before officially forming the partnership.

Complete Inspection For Sheep Scabies

Inspection of all sheep in Garrett County for scabies has been completed with no scabies being found, it was announced by James McHenry, County Agent. A total of 183 flocks consisting of 5,579 sheep were inspected by members of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Maryland Livestock Sanitary Service and the County Extension Service.

According to Dr. F. D. Custer, excellent cooperation was received from the sheep owners, local stockyards, and all other persons having information helpful in completing the inspections. A second inspection will be made sometime after January 1, 1963. If no scabies is found during that inspection, the county will be declared officially "scabies free." Having this status will be helpful to sheep owners, especially those with breeding stock for sale, Dr. Custer said.

Files Appeal From Board's Decision On License Revocation

Robert Kemp has filed a petition for an appeal from the recent decision of the Board of County Commissioners sitting as the Board of License Examiners, in which the board revoked for a period of two years the beer license of Kemp trading as "Bob and Madelyn Tavern." The tavern is located near Deer Park.

The petition was filed by Horace P. Whitworth, Westport attorney. In his declaration Mr. Whitworth stated that if the decision was not modified that Kemp would be forced out of business and forced to sell his mortgaged property, since the bulk of his profit comes from the sale of beer. It was also stated that he had already paid $528.50 in fines to the court, and that if the decision was allowed to stand he would be thrown on the welfare department.

Whitworth said that Kemp was "aggrieved and desired the court to review the decision." He further stated he felt the board's decision was not honestly and fairly exercised and that the decision was arbitrary and unsupported by any substantial evidence and was unreasonable.

Kemp stated this week he still had his license, pending the final decision of the court and was still open for business.

Recuperating After Collapse At Farm

Kermit Glatfely, of near Accident, is recuperating in Meyersdale hospital following a collapse or fainting spell which occurred at his farm Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Glatfely were preparing to go to Annapolis where Mrs. Glatfely had a scheduled meeting with other legislators, and Mr. Glatfely had completed his feeding of the cattle in the barn and was heading for his home when he became ill, apparently collapsing and falling into a ditch that was being dug for a new water line.

He sustained a deep gash on the head and other lacerations when he fell. He was discovered in an unconscious condition by his wife, who rushed him to the office of Dr. Paige Strong in Grantsville and later to Meyersdale Community hospital. He regained consciousness Tuesday afternoon.

He was thought at first to have suffered a heart attack or slight stroke, but this was later discounted. It was felt he had fainted and suffered a convulsion. Mrs. Glatfely did not know just how long he had remained in the ditch before being found.

There were reports this morning that he may be allowed to return to his home in two or three days. Mr. Glatfely is 56 years of age.

Former Grantsville Man Dies in Crash

Richard Bender, aged 29, former resident of Grantsville, who was an employee of the Kelly-Springfield Tire company and who promoted the sale of its products in the northwest portion of the United States, was killed Monday in a car accident near Denver, Colo.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Bender, Grantsville, the body will be returned to the Newnan Funeral home in Grantsville for funeral arrangements.

Mr. Bender, automobile dealer in Grantsville, and a former member of the Board of Education, flew to Denver Tuesday.

His son had been employed by the tire company for several years. He formerly worked for the firm in the Washington-Virginia area before being transferred to Albany, N. Y., and later to the northwest this past June.

The victim attended high school in Grantsville and Charlotte Hall academy on the Western Shore, and was graduated from Franklin and Marshall college in Lancaster, Pa., where he majored in business management.

Prior to becoming an employee of the company he had worked for an oil firm.

Besides his parents he is survived by his wife, the former Miss Shirley Kamp, of Grantsville, and two sons. Also surviving are four brothers, Charles C. Thomas, O., and William D. TANK UNIT UNDERGOES INSPECTION—Major Edward F. Pickett, a representative of the Inspector General's office of the U. S. Army, is inspecting Specialist 5 Roger Glatfely as part of the general inspection of Company "E" 1st medium tank battalion, Maryland National Guard, at the local guard armory Monday night. On to the left in the photo are Capt. Oscar Nilson, army adviser; commanding officer of the unit, Lieut. Mahlon Yost and Specialist 5 James Leo McBee.

Annual Inspection Of Guard Unit Is Made MondayResults Will Not Be Known For Several Weeks

The annual general inspection for Company "E", 1st medium tank battalion of the Maryland National Guard, was held Monday evening, November 26, at the guard armory in Oakland. The guard had an all-day meeting on Sunday to complete preparations for the annual event.

Lieut. Mahlon Yost, commanding officer of the unit, explained that this is an inspection by a representative of the Second United States Army's Inspector General's office whereby a unit is evaluated and rated according to standards set up by the Department of the Army.

The inspections are held annually and it is mandatory that every unit in a National Guard unit be present for drill during an I. G. inspection.

The representative of the Inspector General who conducted the inspection was Major Edward F. Pickett. Also present besides "E" company members were Majors Morris C. Paulsgrove and Paul B. Lord, 1st medium tank battalion executive officer and S-3 (training and operations officer) and Capt. Oscar J. Nilson, army adviser to the battalion.

Inspection In Two Phases

The inspection consisted of two phases—an afternoon phase and evening phase. During the afternoon administrative records were checked for completeness and accuracy. Vehicles were checked for proper maintenance. Tool sets were checked for cleanliness and completeness. Training and supply records were checked for accuracy.

That evening the unit was inspected in ranks for general appearance, knowledge of their weapons and military occupational specialties. A question and answer period was held to determine the unit's general knowledge of basic military subjects.

During the evening also a period of instruction was given by Psg. Robert M. Landon on the subject of "Military Map Reading." Sgt. Landon was assisted by Psg. Kenneth W. Metheny and Sgt. Earl J. Clark.

A unit may receive one of four ratings—unsatisfactory, satisfactory, excellent or superior. In previous inspections the Oakland company has been rated superior on a number of occasions. The results of the inspection will not be known for several weeks, Lieut. Yost stated.

Letters have been mailed concerning the annual Christmas treat for the children. This will be held on Saturday, December 22.

Man Wrestles Deer; Advises Against It

James Wilson of the Short Run area had a wrestling match with a deer recently which caused him some painful injuries and he was freely advising others not to try it for pleasure or recreation.

The Kitzmiller news correspondent was told of the experience the other day. Wilson was attacked by a deer belonging to a neighbor, while he was returning to his home after husking some corn.

During the attack one of the buck's horns was broken. The deer threw him to the ground but Wilson managed to get the deer by the horn and one leg and managed to throw it off. The deer got to its feet and attacked him again and after quite a struggle the deer ran for the woods.

Mr. Wilson suffered considerable bruises about his arms and shoulders and other parts of his body. There were no broken bones, however, and Mr. Wilson is now recuperating but still quite sore, according to the Kitzmiller correspondent.

The deer has been seen only once since the attack. His advice to others: do not wrestle or challenge a deer in any way.

Higher State Aid to Schools Requested

A $115,128,992 aid program for school systems in Maryland was presented to the State Board of Education Wednesday. The proposal is an increase of $8,641,939 over current appropriations.

The amount is based on an anticipated enrollment of 676,470 in Maryland's elementary and secondary schools in the school year beginning next fall. This is an increase of 33,889 over the present enrollment.

The school aid program is the largest single item in the state budget. It is geared to formulas that increase the amount of aid as local school enrollments grow. A majority of the budget, $108,886,780, will come from the state's general tax fund, which is supported primarily by income and sales tax collections.

Included in the proposal is $3,584,059 for partial payment of salaries for the estimated 29,251 teachers who will be employed in state schools next year. The total department budget request for the next school year will amount to $128,705,136, an increase of $12,277,865 over current spending.

Holding The Bag Again

President Kennedy's courageous ultimatum to Khrushchev a few weeks ago seems to have lost its effect. In fact the present state of affairs hints strongly that this will become just another case of coming out the loser in an encounter with the Soviets.

The course of events ever since that first day of brave talk has been humiliating. At that time we were led to believe that the Monroe Doctrine would be applied to the letter. We visualized the complete removal of Soviet influence from our neighboring island, that.

The American Way

By Rosalie M. Gordon

Only many weeks after the smoke and fire had cleared away from what is now called the Oxford Incident — the unhappy episode at the University of Mississippi — are certain disturbing facts emerging. They are worth notice for two reasons: (1) That they are not essentially concerned with the question of whether or not a Negro should or should not have been admitted to the University, and (2) that they have a very serious bearing on the liberties and constitutional rights of all Americans, no matter what their color.

Put differently, there were certain actions in the Mississippi case which, if allowed to stand, could be turned against any American citizen of any color.

Due Process Ignored

First, Supreme Court Justice Hugo Black, with the help of the President and Attorney General Kennedy, played havoc with due process of the law. Before trouble erupted at Oxford, the case of the State of Mississippi objecting to enrollment of a Negro at the University, was pending on appeal to the Supreme Court. Justice Black, a month before the Supreme Court met for its first session of the new term, decided this case by himself. The other justices were scattered about the country. Justice Black, presumably by telephone, made some sort of poll among them and on the assumption that when the Court would meet later it would decide against the State of Mississippi, he issued an order that it register James Meredith. It was to enforce that order that the President and the Attorney General sent federal marshals and troops into Mississippi — an order that was finally met. Lawyers call this ex post facto action. It is hateful to all traditions of American judicial procedure and, if you will think about it, is something that can be turned against any citizen, including Negro citizens, once the precedent is allowed to stand.

Second, there is a growing amount of evidence that the riots at the University of Mississippi were sparked by the federal marshals, not by the students. For example, the very sober and careful U. S. News & World Report last month printed a letter from a student. The gist of it was that the students, many of them girls, with natural curiosity and some jeering but expecting no trouble, were milling about watching the federal marshals take over their campus. All of a sudden the marshals, armed with tear gas guns, began firing into clusters of students and a crowd of curious young people turned into an angry, rioting mob. The important point here is that the kind of federal authority turned loose on the campus of the University of Mississippi can be turned loose against anyone in any conceivable situation if such authority is allowed to proceed unchecked.

Individual Rights

Third, there was the case of General Edwin Walker, arrested, held in the fantastic bail of $100,000 and without benefit of counsel slapped into a mental institution without even a psychiatric examination. It does not matter what one

Listen Americans!

... by Dr. George S. Benson
PRESIDENT — NATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAM
Searcy, Arkansas

One of the most effective arguments for a Capitalist economy is that it puts off. The world affords many an example, with the U. S. perhaps the best illustration of what freedom of jobs, of ownership, of investment, of property, of competition, can do. Individuals are not free everywhere in the world to use and to own their own tools of production, to work, trade, plan, and dream. In the Socialist countries, a paternalism of political ideology makes the state the supreme force in men's lives. This can support economic slavery, for the system does not allow self-realization.

Always carping against capitalism as the enemy of the people, the Soviets have tried numerous five-year plans to prove the superiority of state planning and socialism. But recently indignant citizens of Southern Russia wrote to the newspaper Pravda, complaining about tomatoes lying in the fields rotting, while no tomatoes could be had in the nearby stores of Odessa. This is the old trouble: the failure of state management to get the crops in. This is chronic with Socialist economies.

The scarcity of consumer goods, a similar problem, showed up recently in the Russia newspaper Trud. One of its writers, visiting the Siberian city of Krasnyarsk, was asked by a young mother whether a flight to the moon would be made before baby pacifiers became available in the stores. The conflict between consumer goods and an expensive space program is apparent in Russia. Soviet policy has long placed military power and armed strength first, in order that the fight against capitalism may be pushed on all fronts.

This push of world communism has also forced military spending upon the free world, and our own defense costs are high. Of appropriations in this year's Congress totaling more than $101 billion, about half went to the Defense Department. Despite these costs and other high expenditures of recent years, the 48 million cars that Americans have put on the road in the last eight years are more than twice as many as are found altogether on all the roads of Europe, including Russia. If it had not been for heavy taxes, our peacetime production could have been even more spectacular.

How is it that men in high government positions can insist, as presidential adviser Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., has done, that capitalism is washed up and will have to be rescued from self-destruction by state socialism? Reduced to its absurd conclusion, this in America can amount to nothing less than a thirst for greater power over the economy on the part of men who want to be the Socialist managers in the new Socialist America. We can do it better, they insist. The same old hoakum.

Capitalism makes possible an economy of plenty, not of scarcity. When people are free to work and to earn, they gain self-respect as well as plenty. Work, under a system where trade is encouraged, freedom of action allowed, and excellence rewarded, makes possible the greatest achievement of which free man is capable. But where human activity is controlled and all but called in by political ideology, the "have not" system prevails.

Civil Rights, Etc. . .

them with the type of protection that has been extended to James Meredith.

Do constitutional rights mean anything? Is the right to earn your food less important than the right to go to school?

2. In the past thirty years we have become lulled by the sweet music of the siren called Security, who offers freedom from responsibility from cradle to grave. Our morals have become eroded to the point that we are willing to be bribed by our own money. We seem to forget that government produces nothing and can provide for all the needs of its citizens only by depriving them of these essentials of their liberty. Liberty and security are not synonymous. They could be wholly incompatible. When Patrick Henry declared, "Give me liberty or give me death," he did not ask for security. When the signers of the Declaration of Independence signed that historic document they demanded only liberty.

If security is our greatest urge, we have no need or right to be free. A benevolent dictatorship is probably the most efficient vehicle of security, and if that is all the heart desires then liberty is wholly unnecessary. But if you want liberty, and responsibility, and opportunity, then our traditional way of life, with all its imperfections, is the best hope of earth—for Americans.

Civic Club Hears Address By Walthall

An illustrated lecture on his recent trip to Mexico and Central America by the Rev. W. Shelby Walthall, rector of St. Matthew's Episcopal church, featured the meeting of the Oakland Civic club Tuesday afternoon, November 27, at the William-James hotel.

Mr. Walthall told of the political and economic situations in these countries and gave his personal observation of the communistic activities taking place there.

Mrs. Paul B. Naylor, former county chairman of Mental Health, spoke on the packing of Christmas gifts for hospitalized mental patients. This work is now done at the Baltimore mental health headquarters. Mrs. Naylor said the local club had sent a generous box of gifts but many more were needed.

The gifts are to be given to patients in Clifton T. Perkins, Crownsville, Rosewood, Springfield and Spring Grove hospitals. Items most wanted by women are stretch nylon hose, purses, head scarves, toilettries. Men patients desire stretch socks, wallets, belts, handkerchiefs, pipes and tobacco. Donors may send their gifts to the Baltimore headquarters.

Participating in the program with pledge to the flag, invocation, were Mrs. A. T. Matthews and Miss Isabel Hamill.

The next meeting will be held last Tuesday in January.

Philadelphia mint increased working time to try to fill rising demand for coins.

A charter presentation and court of honor were conducted by members of Boy Scout troop 95, Loch Lynn Heights, on Tuesday evening, November 25.

The charter for the coming year was presented to the institutional representative, Trooper Donald Tucker, by John Browning.

Boys advancing to second class were Kenneth Shaffer, Danny Walter, Donny Parsons, Kyle Sisler, Wayne Callis, Donnie Friend, Donnie Tucker and Mike Raleigh.

Miniature pins of the boys' ranks were presented to their mothers. Awards were presented by Melvin Sisler, scoutmaster, with Stanley Callis, assistant scoutmaster, aiding.

Nevada, Arizona and Wyoming are fastest growing states in the nation, Census Bureau reported. West Virginia declined.

New Legislators Are Briefed on Procedures

Maryland legislators nearly half of them new, met Tuesday at Annapolis for a briefing on legislative procedures and some politicking for leadership posts in advance of the 1963 General Assembly.

Gov. Tawes, who welcomed them to Annapolis, told them the 90-day session which convenes Jan. 2 will be perhaps the most important in their four-year term.

Tawes told the lawmakers that both he and they had a mandate "to carry on the government of this state as skillfully, as effectively, as economically as possible."

John S. Shriver, director of the state's fiscal research bureau, told them what they can and cannot do in terms of cutting or adding to the governor's budget.

Dr. Carl N. Everstine, director of the department of Legislative Reference, reviewed for them legislative processes since the days of King John and the Magna Carta to the present. Legislative aides told the lawmakers what bills looked like, how they evolved.

Attending the session from this county were State Senator-elect Spencer W. Graham, and Delegates Elza Bray and Elwood Groves. Mrs. Martha Glatfelter, other House of Delegates member, was preparing to make the trip to Annapolis when her husband suffered an accident and is a hospital patient in Meyersdale.

Republicans who have increased their minorities to 7 of the 29 senators and 25 of the 142 House members, were busy with sideline politicking. Sen. Gude of Montgomery is waging a campaign against veteran Harry T. Phoebe of Somerset for Senate minority leader. George R. Hughes, Jr., Allegany and Joseph W. Alton, Anne Arundel, also may be in the picture for this job. Newly elected Delegate J. Glenn Beall, Jr., Allegany is making an active bid for House minority leader against Del. Lester Reed, also of Allegany who now holds the post.

All but about 30 of the 171 newly elected assembly members attended the all-day session.

Observes 94th Birthday

Mrs. Amanda Huff celebrated her 94th birthday on Sunday, November 25, at the home of her son, Walter Schlossnagle and family with whom she resides, at Gortner.

Others present to help her celebrate the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Schlossnagle, Janet Schlossnagle, Mr. and Mrs. John Schlossnagle, Jim, Larry and Sherry Schlossnagle, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Junior Martin, Peggy, Linda and Shirley Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Martin, Louise Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Campbell, Carole and Kathy Kelley, Jimmy, Regina and Mary Ann Kelley, Robert Ringer, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Beckman, Mrs. Phoebe Slabaugh, Mrs. Ada Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schlossnagle, Linda and David Schlossnagle.

County Enjoys Unusual Autumn Weather

Garrett county has been enjoying unusual autumn weather, particularly during the past week. Mornings have been cold but the temperature has moderated during the day in most instances.

Last Thursday was cold with some rain, the drops turning to snow in late afternoon. Friday was clear and cold with a reading of 29 degrees in early morning. Saturday was clear most of the day and cold. Sunday was a repeat experience, mostly clear and cold.

It dropped below 20 degrees Monday morning but got up to 35 as it remained clear and cold. The mercury stood at 22 degrees Tuesday but the day remained clear and became warmer. It was 26 early Wednesday and remained clear until late afternoon, with some moderation. The thermometer got into the 40s. Thursday morning was only slightly below freezing with skies clear and further moderation expected.

Injured In Fall
E. F. "Barney" Dunbar, who has been residing at the Wensel farm south of town, fell about 14 feet to the barn floor while getting down some hay last Sunday, November 25, and is now a patient in the Monongahela General hospital in Morgantown, W. Va. He suffered a broken left wrist, injury to several vertebrae, and may have additional injuries.

Train Service For B&O to Be Improved

Train service between Cincinnati and Washington may be improved by changes announced this morning.

The Baltimore and Ohio railroad said that a new train called the Tri-Stater would start on December 8 between Washington and Cincinnati. It would include Pullman accommodations and dining cars with food service.

Leaving Washington at 10 p. m., the new train 23 would reach Cumberland at 1:30 a. m., leaving at 1:40 for Cincinnati, where it would arrive 1 p. m. It would reach Oakland sometime around 3:40 a. m.

The eastbound version of the same train, No. 30, would leave Cincinnati at 10:15 p. m., arrive in Oakland around 8:30 a. m., and reach Cumberland at 10:05 leaving at 10:15 to arrive in Washington at 1:30 p. m.

These are the same trains 23, and 30, as are at present in operation. No. 23 runs at 3:26 a. m., while No. 30 runs at 8:18 a. m. The railroad ticket agent said he had received no additional word on the exact time but would probably receive some information within a few days.

Expansion of Maryland's higher education facilities will carry a top priority in Tawes administration in next four years, he declares.

FIVE FOUR THREE COUNTDOWN TWO ONE ZERO

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The countdown has been completed. At the word "zero," electronic miracles happen. The rocket zooms skyward, and seems to penetrate the infinite.

But it hasn't. Man's greatest efforts fall far short of solving the mystery that is life itself. The answer is known only unto God. And man's greatest troubles still concern not the universe but man himself, and his fellowmen.

The greatest scientists today realize even more acutely than most of us the limitations of mankind. From deep, personal experience they know how desperately man needs God's love and His guidance. And they know, too, that no matter how "invincible" their rockets may become, in the end, true peace can be achieved only by God's own workings within the hearts and minds of men.

Pray for this kind of peace in church next Sunday.

Home for God

Lesson for December 2, 1962

HERE we have five sentences translated from a letter written to a church, a good nineteen centuries ago. And yet the word "church" is not used in these sentences, though the thing is there from beginning to end. It is a good thing he did not use the word "church" because otherwise we might think (as we so often do) of an organization or a building. Paul, who wrote this letter, never saw what we would call a church edifice, something that photographs nicely and "looks like a church."

So he never wrote about buildings. Paul never went beyond what nowadays should be called the "skeleton" organization of his churches; so he was all but silent about what we would call "structure" and "form" in the church. Paul was concerned with something more profound, something more basic. He is speaking to a community of the friends of Christ. He is speaking to people who have had a Christian experience and live Christian lives. How they are related to one another and how they are related to God; this is the basic thing that makes a church; not organization or the kind of place where they worship and study.

Without Christ, what?

The reader is invited to study these five sentences (Eph. 2:11-22) to see what they mean to him. By way of suggestion, the following thoughts may serve as a guideline. Sentence 1: Eph. 2:11-12. Paul reminds his readers what their status used to be, and it was a pretty low one. Indeed a lower state could hardly be pictured; separated from Christ, separated from God's people, strangers to God's promises (they had pitifully never read the Bible), without

Now for Sentence 2: verse 13.

The key words are "in Christ Jesus" and "brought near in the blood of Christ." We are members of Christ's fellowship, not because we belong to the fellowship in the beginning but because our relation to Christ puts us into right relations with one another. To put this another way: we are not Christians because we are church members. We are church members because we are Christians. Two strangers on a bus may find that they are both friends of the same person. This at once links their lives and minds; the stronger their affection for their mutual friend, the stronger their attraction to each other. And if this friend of each of these (hitherto) strangers has risked his life for each of them, their bond is stronger still. What links Christian to Christian, believer to believer, is that Christ gave his life for each of them.

Sentence 3: verses 14-16. Christ is "our peace." The underlying and almost unspoken reality here is the bitter race prejudice between Jew and Gentile. Paul is saying that Christ is the one bond strong enough to bring together in harmony people of different backgrounds and classes—who "naturally" are bitter and scornful enemies. Sentence 4: verses 17-18. Men who had in times past prayed against each other, so to speak, prayed selfishly, now pray in one Spirit to the same Father.

A place for God to live

Sentence 5: verses 19-22. Paul now leaves with us a simple picture that a child can understand. The church—the fellowship of those Christ loves—is like a building. Not just any building, but a residence for God. One brick does not make a home; no bricks without its place and use. The church—the people who make it up, who are the church—is a home for God on this earth.

Evergreens Need Winter Protection

In preparing for winter, don't neglect your evergreens. If C. Buckingham, State Forester of the Maryland Department of Forests and Parks, advises that evergreens should be protected as fully as possible against drying winds, fluctuating temperatures, and storm damage.

Water the plants thoroughly at 7 to 10 day intervals; continue this as late in the year as soil conditions permit. Spread a thick mulch of straw or similar material over the root area; this will help stabilize soil temperatures and conserve moisture.

Erect a screen of burlap, canvas, or woven evergreen boughs around the plant to shield it from the sun and wind. To protect upright-growing evergreens against mutilation by storms, wind a stout cord spirally around the plant from bottom-to-top and top-to-bottom, fastening it securely at the base of the trunk.

A revolt by the air force was put down in Guatemala. Government blamed revolt on "Castro Communists."

Bloomington Dam Awaits Financing

Construction of a $51 million high dam on the North Branch of the Potomac at Bloomington can't get started until financing arrangements are worked out among federal, state, local and private interests, the Interstate Commission on the Potomac River Basin reported last week.

The commission's November newsletter explains that the federal government will pick up about two-thirds of the total tab for the multi-purpose dam.

Figures supplied the commission by the Army Corps of Engineers give a better picture of the dam's financing that has been available until now.

The dam will have four basic purposes — flood control, water supply, water quality control and recreation.

The federal government will pay the entire cost of the flood control segment, $11.3 million; for the recreation benefits; and for the water quality improvement benefits, estimated at $16.7 million in the upstream areas and $4.3 million downstream.

All costs of water supply, or low-flow augmentation benefits, would be paid by other than federal beneficiaries — that is, by state, county, community or private interests which are water users.

The initial cost to upstream interests on construction of the dam would be set at $29 million, and the future allocation would be $10.5 million. Downstream interests would pay $3.5 million.

In all, the federal government would pay about $34 million, and non-federal contributors about $17 million. The government would pay all initial costs and beneficiaries would pay their shares when they start using the water on low-interest payments over 50 years.

The only cost not specifically spelled out in this report is for recreation. Since the federal government's share is put at about $34 million and its specified contribution add up to $32.3 million, recreation apparently would be somewhere around $2 million.

Police in Delaware said the whipping post was a deterrent to crime.

Social Security Mgr. Hits Books' Advice

Walter R. Campbell, Social Security district manager in Cumberland, advises the public to be wary of advertisements promoting the sale of books that promise to tell how to get around certain provisions in the Social Security law.

Some of these advertising materials, he noted, say that books will also show "how to get twice as much social security" or even "how you can get Social Security for doing absolutely nothing."

"Actually," Mr. Campbell said, "these books cannot tell the reader anything basic about the Social Security law that he would not find in the free booklets and leaflets available at the Cumberland Social Security District Office."

In fact, if advice contained in some of the books were followed, it might result in extensive investigation and thus delay Social Security payments. Following some of the advice might place the person in a worse rather than a better financial position.

"If a resident of the Cumberland area has any questions about his Social Security benefits," the Social Security district manager said, "I suggest he come in and talk to someone in our office. We will be glad to give you full and realistic information tailored to your particular situation."

Treasurer To Retire

Hooper S. Miles, treasurer of Maryland for the past 28 years, announced he would retire when his present term expired in January.

Under the Maryland constitution the legislature elects the state treasurer but by tradition the governor has a great deal of influence in naming a successor.

Names already mentioned as possible candidates include Senator George W. Della, Baltimore's 6th district, former Senate president, who was defeated in his bid for re-election in the May primary; and John A. Luckemeyer, president of the Equitable Trust company.

The position pays only $2,500 a year but is much sought after. The treasurer has as one of his jobs the placing of all the state's insurance with companies of his choosing.

Wilson, W. Va. Scene Of 1904 Is Pictured

The picture was furnished by John Poling, of Route 1, Gorman, W. Va. Mr. Poling said those appearing in the scene were George and William McMillan, operators of the lumber company; Bert Wilson, John Poling, Noy Lewis, Sol Dellinger, Paul Wilson and George Palmer.

Wilson is located on the Western Maryland railroad, and was once an important shipping point for coal and timber. In the picture, a sign on the depot reads "Cumberland 65 miles; Elkins 18 miles."

Writes About Civil War Activities of Gen. George Crook

A Virginia grandson of an Ohio civil war soldier who served in this area under General Crook has written to J. William Hunt, editor of the Cumberland Sunday Times, telling of incidents passed down in family records.

The man was Carl F. Murdock, of Springfield, Va. His grandfather, Lewis Murdock, a native of Ohio, fought under Gen. George Crook throughout the Civil War, including the periods when Gen. Crook was stationed in Cumberland, and of the time of his capture (with Gen. Benjamin F. Kelley) while sleeping in a Cumberland hotel on the night of February 21-22, 1865.

Mr. Hunt writes: Many people know of the capture by McNeill's Rangers of Union Generals Crook and Kelley while they slept in Cumberland hotels two months before the end of the Civil War. But few know that Gen. S. Grant thought so much of George Crook that he arranged to release a captured Confederate General in exchange for Crook, and that the latter won added fame in the final month of the war and was the principal cause of Lee's surrender at Appomattox Court-house in April, 1865.

According to the correspondent from Virginia, Lewis Murdock (spelled Murdock) enlisted with his brother, Church F. Murdock in Salem, Ohio, on August 12, 1861. The two brothers were assigned to the 36th Ohio Infantry, then being organized under the direction of Brig. Gen. Jacob Cox, later elected Governor of Ohio, and then in charge of all Ohio federal troops. Gen. Cox wanted a commanding officer of the 36th Infantry who had real military training and some field experience. He knew George Crook, born in 1828 near Dayton, Ohio, and a graduate of West Point 1852, then serving in California as a regular army captain.

CROOK, whose war career was so closely related to Cumberland, hastened east by way of Panama and before the canal was built, and joined the 36th Ohio as colonel-in-command at Somerville, Va. Now W. Va. All winter he drilled the regiment and under his direction, a drill hall 700 feet long was built out of timber his men saved from trees that were chopped down in the nearby forest. During the winter of 1861-62 more than 50 men of the regiment died of typhus and pneumonia.

Minor engagements kept the 36th Infantry and Crook active through the spring of 1862 until the regiment was ordered to join General Pope in Washington, D. C. in June.

ONE OF THE rest points on the way east was Cumberland. The men marched to boats on the Ohio River, boarded B&O troop trains at Parkersburg and moved by railroad through Grafton and Cumberland to the National Capitol. From Washington the 36th under Col. Crook was marched to Manassas where they were given special recognition by being selected as Gen. Pope's headquarters regiment.

During the second Battle of Bull Run, August 28-30, 1862, the 36th was given credit for preventing a rout of Union troops such as occurred in the first battle of Bull Run.

LEWIS MURDOCK, grandfather of our correspondent from Springfield, Va., has this entry on his service record in the U. S. Pension Department:

"Lewis Murdock had been hard pushed to keep up because of a recent attack of yellow jaundice and was near exhaustion at the end of the day."

The 36th under Col. Crook was the first to enter Frederick on the way to Antietam (Sept. 12, 1862) and had to fight a rear guard contingent of Confederates under Gen. Jeb Stuart. On the death of the Union commander of another regiment, Col. Crook took command of both U. S. regiments. Crook led his soldiers on a memorable charge at South Mountain, near Hagerstown, where the Confederates were completely routed.

IN THE BLOODY battle of Antietam, just a century ago, Col. Crook and his two regiments were commanded by Gen. Harriette. So well did Crook carry out his assignments that he was promoted to Brigadier General of Volunteers.

There is not space to detail the battles in which Lewis Murdock participated under General Crook's command. But it is significant that in 1864 Gen. Phil Sheridan was so impressed by George Crook's continuing successes in the field that he asked for Crook's aid in the final campaign that led to Gen. Robert E. Lee's surrender.

PROMOTED to Major General, Crook was ordered in December, 1864, to take command of the Dept. of W. Va. and headquarters in Cumberland. Lewis Murdock was made corporal in charge of all orderlies at department headquarters. He was in Cumberland the night of Feb. 21-22 when McNeill's Rangers stole into Cumberland and kidnapped Generals Crook and Benjamin F. Kelley and carried them off to Richmond.

So anxious was Gen. Grant to get Gen. Crook back for the final move against Lee that he authorized the exchange of a captured Confederate general for Gen. Crook.

On April 9, 1865, it was Crook's force which Lee found across his line of retreat and convinced him that the cause of the Confederacy was hopeless.

Crook's greatest successes came in the Indian warfare in the West which followed the Civil War. He died in Chicago in 1890.

GEN. CROOK was buried in Oakland and among those who attended his funeral was a future president of the United States, William McKinley, who was a major in the Union Army stationed in Cumberland the night that Generals Crook and Kelley were captured.

Later Gen. Crook's body was removed to Arlington National Cemetery. His old Oakland home, Crook Crest, was later owned by Mrs. Thekla Funderburg Weeks, of Oakland and Washington, and is now the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bussey. Mrs. Weeks still returns to Oakland in the summer months and resides at Crook Crest with Mr. and Mrs. Bussey.

Although the home was planned by General Crook, it was never occupied by him, for he died before its completion. The home was first occupied by his widow following its completion in 1891 by Bolden and Soedden, contractors.

In 1904, the property was sold to A. D. Naylor, who made it his home until 1909 when it was acquired by Mrs. Weeks.

CORPORAL Murdock, still in Cumberland at the end of the war, was transferred from there to Winchester during the last part of April, 1865. In June he and his buddies of the 36th were ordered to Wheeling where they were mustered out July 27.

IN MEMORIAM

In remembrance of our loved one, Lillie V. Blizzard, wife of George D. Blizzard, Sr., and mother of seven children, who passed away just two years ago, November 27, 1962.

God called her away to fill a vacant seat before the judgment seat of God, where some day we hope to meet again, to never part. She told her husband to hold on to God until he called her home to meet him in heaven. And tell all the children to get ready to meet Jesus.

She was a Pentecostal church member and a kind mother and a true Christian.

KNOW YOUR INSECT ENEMY
THE PERIODICAL CICADA

Probably no other insect in North America stimulates the imagination more than this fantastic pest.

Seventeen-year locusts have long been the subject of stories and folklore. Entomologists explain this is because there is a certain amount of mystery connected with the insect which emerges suddenly, as if by predetermined signal, as a brood from the earth where they have spent 17 years (in the North) and 13 years (in the South).

In a few weeks, after mating and laying eggs, the cicadas die. Up to 20,000 may burrow up from beneath one tree.

The larvae normally stay 18 to 24 inches below the surface until due to emerge. Then, on the scheduled day, the nymphs burrow quickly upward to shed their skin, becoming winged black adults about 2 inches long. Their whirring, incessant drumming or singing blankets the area with sound.

In their short life above ground, cicadas can cause tremendous damage. Although these pests do not feed on foliage of any kind, females make injurious punctures in branches of trees and bushes when they deposit their eggs. One cicada lays between 400 and 600 eggs, placing about 25 to 30 in each 2 to 3 inch puncture. Other insects and diseases find easy entry into trees through these wounds.

There are several different broods of both the 17-year cicadas and 13-year Southern variety. This accounts for the appearance of periodical cicadas in one area one year and another area in a year or so. They are different broods.

For many years, the only sure cicada control was wrapping trees with cheesecloth. However, research in Maryland indicates that a new chemical, Sevin insecticide, gives close to 100 percent control of these pests. It provides long residual effect to kill emerging cicadas over a period of days and stop those lying in from adjacent areas.

Fruit growers and home owners still can protect smaller trees and shrubs with cheesecloth coverings. Entomologists also note that it is wise to avoid planting young trees in a year when a nearby brood of cicadas is expected.

For Conservatives . . .

For thirty years America has been caught in a battle between those who want more government and those who advocate individual freedom.

Consistently during that time the liberals—desiring more government—have proposed new schemes; and the conservatives—preferring freedom—have resisted the schemes. But always, the liberals' proposals are the issues, and the country either becomes more liberal, or remains the same. It never moves in the conservatives' direction.

Now that may change. Senator John G. Tower, an articulate conservative from Texas, introduced eight important bills and resolutions last March. Those eight proposals are beginning to put the liberals on the defensive for a change.

These eight bills form the basis of Senator Tower's new book, A Program for Conservatives. In it he devotes a chapter to each of the eight proposals, and does an excellent selling job with each.

Two deal with foreign policy and private enterprise. On the one he proposes a joint resolution of Congress, signifying that our foreign policy purpose should be VICTORY OVER COMMUNISM.

In the other he asks for a Senate investigation into the extent to which the national government has set up corporations in competition with private enterprise. This is an area that goes right to the heart of our Constitutional system, and the fundamental right of the individual to be free from government intervention not authorized by the Constitution.

Other proposals include: subjecting unions to anti-trust legislation under certain circumstances; having Congress watch over the administration's new "strong-man" trade powers; making balanced budgets constitutionally mandatory; removing government from the farm business; reducing taxes; and defining states' rights.

The Senator's program is an ambitious one. As he points out, not everyone will agree with all of it; and many feel it doesn't go far enough. He implies that he agrees with the latter, but says that at this time "any progress forward is desirable."

If his proposals will re-orient our thinking enough to make freedom the issue, instead of more government, they will have gone far enough to serve a very useful purpose.

Markleysburg Man Killed on Rt. 40

Mede Deal, 47, native of Markleysburg, Pa., who was employed in Brownsville, Pa., was killed when he was thrown from an automobile in a one-car accident on U. S. route 40 near the Maryland-Pennsylvania line Tuesday night.

Earl Will, 40, of Confluence, Pa., was hospitalized after sustaining a possible back injury, multiple abrasions and an injury to his right wrist. Will's condition was considered "fair" at Mayersdale Community hospital.

Deal was owner of the car and police believe he was driving when the accident occurred about 7:20 p. m. The car was headed west on U. S. route 40.

Tfc. Joseph V. Stakem, state policeman, said the car was traveling at an apparent high rate of speed. It went out of control about 100 feet east of the Pennsylvania line, in Garrett county. The car crossed the center of the highway, proceeded about 60 yards and rammed the guard railing along the highway. The vehicle then continued west for about 40 yards and hit the State Line Methodist church.

Tfc. Donald R. Wade is assisting in the investigation.

Seal Sale Results Given

The results of the Christmas Seal sale in the county by the Tuberculosis Association show a total of $1,069.20 received up to Wednesday morning. This compares to $1,159.50 at the same time last year.

The association announced it was sending out reminders to persons who were sent seals this year and who have not yet responded. An officer in the group asked that persons receiving reminders who already had mailed in their contribution, would do the association a favor by replying. In this way the group will be able to check on the gifts that have not been received, if there are any.

New Commissioners To Assume Office Tuesday, Dec. 11th

The present County Commissioners who have served during the past four years, expect to conduct their final meeting on Monday and Tuesday, December 10 and 11, and on December 11 will step down in favor of the three new County Commissioners who were elected on November 6.

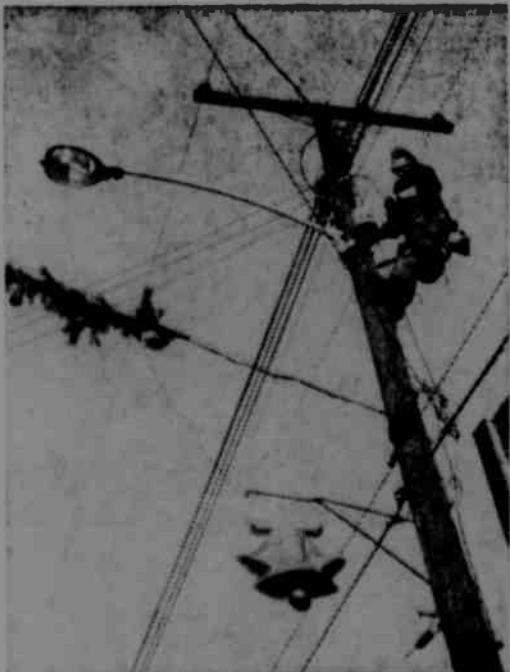

Retiring from service will be Carl A. Schell, president; Fred B. Glosely and Elra Garlett. Beginning their new term will be Allen S. Paugh, H. D. Swartzendruber and Earl Opel. Paugh and Swartzendruber are Republicans, while Opel is a Democrat. Swartzendruber had served as county commissioner for a four-year period several years ago.

As soon as the new commissioners take office they will immediately turn to the task of completing the annual levy for the new year.

A special swearing in ceremony will be conducted in the commissioners' room on Tuesday morning. Swearing in ceremonies have been occurring at various times already. Richard L. Davis was sworn in as clerk of the circuit court the other day. Fred A. Thayer was sworn in as State's Attorney. Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill will be officially sworn in next Tuesday at about the same time as the commissioners. The swearing in ceremony for the judges of the Orphans' court and others will occur later.

To Attend Convention

Dr. F. D. Custer will attend the Maryland State Veterinary Medical association meeting in Baltimore today and tomorrow, and will present a paper on planning and management of a large animal hospital. Mrs. Custer is accompanying him to the meeting.

Council Approves New Registration Of City Voters

Books, In Use Since 1952, Said To Be In Need Of Revision

A resolution to provide for a new general registration of voters for the citizens of Oakland was approved at a meeting of the Mayor and Town Council of Oakland at the regular December meeting on Monday evening.

The last general registration was in 1952, and councilmen pointed out the books were in need of general revision, and that the re-registration should be held to reflect accurately the voters now legally qualified to vote.

The council has provided for this new registration the last Monday in January. This is made possible in accordance with the provisions of Section 47, Article 12, of the Public Local Laws of Maryland. Mrs. Gladys Nordick, clerk-collector, said the old list would be void upon completion of the new list.

Also to be provided is a permanent registration system, whereby a qualified voter could register any time during the regular office hours for city hall. This would be designed to keep the list current at all times.

Other Business Routine

Other business conducted Monday night was mostly routine. Rev. Fr. Michael K. Carney, Sherman White and Robert Garrett appeared before the group noting their concern over the 4th street embankment adjoining the Catholic cemetery. They asked that the council inspect this before they proceed with repair of the cemetery wall.

Sunday movie tax amounted to $27.60. Receipts for the month of November totaled $6,885.28 which included $1,213.18 from water, $4,553.92 from taxes and $1,088.18 from miscellaneous accounts. The latter included parking meter collections of $700.37, meter violations of $82.50 and general fines of $22.90.

Expenditures totaled $17,679.33, leaving a balance in the treasury of $37,142.39. Among the expenditures were $850 for police and $123.37 for equipment; $905.25 for street labor; $1,204.41 for street supplies; $320.76 for lights; $539.51 for water labor and $372.33 for water supplies. Expenditures for the water bond debt was $9,116.25.

Permits were granted as follows: to Sanders and Herman garage, Liberty street, for a car port 50 by 38 on 2nd street at alley, to cost approximately $1,500; Clem Teets Oil company, to erect a service station 28 by 46 or 28 by 32, at the corner of Oak and Third, at an approximate cost of $15,000. This would be on the site of the building formerly owned by Mrs. Carrie Shaffer. The station would be of steel, concrete blocks and glass.

Bids Opened For Deep Creek Park

Ernest Savage, Friendsville contractor, was the apparent low bidder to erect a large storage, shop and office building at Deep Creek Lake State Park. Bids were opened by the State Department of Public Improvements in Baltimore.

His bid was $26,083. Others were William A. Shirer, Oakland, $26,872; and Lawrence Hardesty, Oakland, $29,406.

Ward Ashby, superintendent of the park, said the structure would be 100 feet long and 36 feet wide. At one end two wings measuring 18 feet by 30 feet would be erected for office quarters.

The T-shaped building will be made of concrete block with a frame roof. One end will be used for a work area and the other end for the storage of vehicles and equipment.

Ashby said the new structure would be erected near the camping area. The park superintendent also reported that progress was being made on the construction of the concession stand which is being built near the bathhouse and beach.

Well Bids Opened

The labor and material are from the Department of Forests and Parks. Also for a convenience to picnickers, steps are being built on the banks leading from the parking area. Improvements also are being made in these off-season months in the camping section.

The State Department of Forests and Parks has opened bids on drilling a deep water well on Dans Mountain. Leo Ford Drilling Company, LaVale, was low bidder with $738, followed by the Dillie Corporation, Oakland, with $1,100.

To Address Rotary

F. Perry Smith, Jr., Cumberland business man, will be the speaker at the regular meeting of the Oakland Rotary club Friday evening, December 7. Owner and operator of the Cumberland Box company, Smith is president of the National Wooden Box council of the National Lumber Manufacturers' association, representing United States and Canadian box manufacturers. He is owner of Pergin Farm and other real estate on Deep Creek Lake.

He was at one time part owner of the Oakland Lumber company and is the son of Fulcher P. Smith, of Deep Creek Lake and Vero Beach, Fla.

A Rotarian for the past 18 years, he is a past president of the Cumberland club, was elected by clubs of Rotary district 735 as district governor nominee for 1963-64.

John H. Forman, program chairman for December, said Smith would speak on some aspects of Rotary and as a county land owner. He also plans to discuss some problems of the non-resident property owner in the county.

Hunting Sidelights

There were a number of unusual circumstances occurred. As Ralph Smouse was returning to Oakland late one evening he saw a buck and four does just standing around near the property of Mrs. T. E. Bullard. They seemed to be in no hurry to scatter.

A billy goat that had been loitering near a hunting lodge was discovered the other morning lying near the main road. Somebody apparently had mistaken him for a buck.

And a hunter from Kensington was doing his hunting from a tree. Whether or not he saw a buck and lost his balance in the excitement was not known, but John Wolff came a tumbling down from his perch and ended up with a broken collar-bone. It was set at the Garrett County Memorial hospital and the man was removed to his home in Kensington.

Gov. McChes, a Republican, was named U. S. senator from New Mexico to complete term of late Senator Chavez, a Democrat.

Volunteers Rebuild Barn

On this recent Thanksgiving day the Orville Kinsinger family had additional reasons to be thankful than do many people. For their barn which was destroyed by fire on October 12, was entirely rebuilt by the Mennonite Disaster Service workers and many neighbors.

The story was an unusual one for the Kinsinger family. Mr. and Mrs. Kinsinger reside on a 90-acre farm and have a daughter Donna, 8, at home and two married daughters, Karen, in Newfoundland, and Margie, in Europe.

As Mr. Kinsinger stood at his kitchen door that morning, looking toward the barn he thought the sun was particularly bright. It looked red through the barn. He looked his wife, Alma, and she thought the sun's rays were unusual. When Orville went to the barn and opened the door, fire rolled across the barn floor.

When Grantsville firemen arrived the barn was a mass of flames and was completely destroyed. The cause of the fire was not determined.

Early the next morning the Mennonite Disaster Service representative Jonas Tice, assistant director, called at the farm, offered assistance and help to build a new barn. The Kinsingers were overjoyed. The next day men were on hand to clean up the debris. Each day following there were crews of men and one day there were 55 to help construct the barn. Neighbors also came, several of the old order Amish, and members of the Mennonite Disaster group.

Appreciation Dinner Held

In three weeks the barn was under roof and completely enclosed. The Kinsingers wanted to express their appreciation in some concrete way so they invited all to an appreciation dinner, to be served on the new barn floor. The event was held on Tuesday evening, Nov. 19.

1st National Bank Gets Approval For 2nd Branch Office

Will Open Early Next Spring At Deep Creek Lake, McHenry

The First National Bank of Oakland will establish a branch office at Deep Creek Lake, McHenry, early next spring. It was announced this morning by George K. Littman, president.

Mr. Littman said that approval had been received from the Comptroller of the Currency. The branch will be located in the former post office building at McHenry, after remodeling and improvements are completed.

He said establishment of the branch had been under consideration by the Board of Directors for some time. He said a recent survey indicated the need for more convenient banking service in that area. All normal banking services will be offered at the branch.

He pointed out the Lake office would not only provide service to business and permanent residents of the area but would aid vacationers and summer residents. The branch office also will serve Accident, Hayes, Bittlinger, Jennings, Thayerville and nearby areas. Parking facilities will be available.

This is the second branch office to be established by the Oakland institution. The Friendsville office was established in April, 1960, when the bank acquired the former First National Bank of Friendsville. Mr. Littman said the substantial increase in the business at Friendsville and the success of the operation there had pointed up the importance of additional banking service.

The resources of the First National Bank in January, 1960 were $6,787,696.31, and since that time they have increased to more than $10 million.

A. D. Naylor still retains his position as chairman of the board, with Mr. Littman as president, John J. Robinson, vice president and trust officer; E. Ray Jones, vice-president; Walter W. Dawson, Alva G. Gortner, Lowell Loomis, Dr. Andrew E. Mance, Ralph E. Pritts and Howard Naylor, as directors. Frank L. McDaniel is cashier with James C. Lemmert assistant. Richard G. Stanton is assistant manager of the Friendsville office. The bank did not announce who the manager of the new branch would be.

The Rev. J. Stanley Earhart, pastor of the Oak Park Church of the Brethren, presented a paper on "Financing the New Church," at a regional church extension consultation held at Bridgewater, Va., on December 4 and 5.

SWORN AS STATE'S ATTORNEY—Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill (left) congratulates Fred A. Thayer after administering the oath of office of State's Attorney Friday afternoon. Thayer succeeds W. Dwight Stover, who resigned one month before the completion of his term. The appointment was for a full four years.

Fred A. Thayer Takes State's Attorney Job

Fred A. Thayer III, of Oakland, last Friday afternoon was sworn in formally as state's attorney, to fill the unexpired term of W. Dwight Stover.

He was sworn in by Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill. Thayer will serve the one month unexpired term of Stover, who submitted his resignation effective last Friday. He was defeated for the judgeship on November 6 by thirty-six votes.

Thayer has also been appointed by the Fourth Judicial Circuit through Judge Hamill to serve the four-year term beginning January 1.

There was no candidate for state's attorney at the recent election. The appointment could have gone only to a Republican since Judge Hamill is the only Democratic attorney in the county.

The previous salary was $2,400 a year plus $50 monthly expenses and a provision for up to $100 under certain circumstances. The new salary will be $3,600 a year with $600 expenses.

Thayer is the third member of his family in four generations to be a member of the Garrett County bar. His father, the late Frederick A. Thayer, Jr., was an Oakland insurance agent. His grandfather, Fred A. Thayer, Sr., and his great grandfather, Thomas Peddicord, were attorneys in Oakland.

Thayer was graduated in 1951 from Oakland High school and in 1955 from the College of Wooster, in Ohio. He received his law degree at Duke university in 1958 and returned to Oakland to practice law. He is associated with two former state's attorneys, Walter W. Dawson and S. R. Pagenhardt.

Bids Asked on Flood Work at Kitzmiller

The Corps of Army Engineers is accepting bids for the $400,000 Kitzmiller-Blaine flood protection project until December 20 at its Baltimore district office. The advertising for bids follows efforts that were started in 1956 after the damage suffered by the towns following the flooding of the North Branch of the Potomac River.

The project, it was pointed out by Carl Schell, present president of the county commissioners, would be financed by the county commissioners, the state of Maryland and the Corps of Engineers.

The county's share of the cost will be $29,970, the state's, $39,500, with the federal government paying the remainder.

Schell said the project called for excavation of 4,700 feet of North Branch channel improvement. In addition, 3,800 feet of levee embankment will have stone rip rap similar to parts of the Cumberland-Ridgeley flood control project.

Excavation Planned

There will be 147,000 cubic yards of excavated material from the river channel together with 16,000 cubic yards of protective stone, 10,000 pounds of steel reinforcing steel and 35,000 cubic yards of excavation of embankment.

The contract also will call for seeding seven acres of grass of the embankment.

A serious effort to bring the flood control project a reality came in 1956 after many properties were damaged during Hurricane Hazel and another one just prior to that. Serious damage occurred also in 1921 and 1936.

E. F. Dunbar who was injured last week in a fall in the barn on the F. L. Wensel farm, south of town, was brought to the Wensel home yesterday after being a patient at the Monongahela General hospital in Morgantown, W. Va.

507 Deer Slain First Four Days of Buck Season

Total Expected To Be Less Than Record Of 804, Set In 1960

Five hundred seven bucks have been slain during the first four days of the seven-day season, it was reported this morning by game officials. The number was totaled from the four deer checking stations in the county in addition to others in Allegany county where deer killed in this county had been reported.

Biggest day by far was last Saturday when 267 bucks were killed, and the largest number was reported from Oakland. One hundred ten were killed on Monday, 83 on Tuesday and 47 on Wednesday.

The totals include the following statistics: Oakland, 79, 24, 32, 10, total 145; Storeys, 39, 28, 14, 5, total 86; Friendsville, 38, 10, 17, 9, total 74; Grantsville, 71, 26, 13, 14, total 124; LaVale, 14, 8, 1, 3, total 26; Westernport, 22, 11, 6, 6, total 45. Others, 4 on Saturday, 3 on Monday, total 7.

Game wardens in general were of the opinion that hunting pressure had seemed to be less in this county than ever before. It was evident that the deer population was spread more evenly throughout the county than before. There is now legal hunting for deer in every county but one.

Allegany county reported a kill of more than 600 for the first four days.

Apparently there were few game violations. Hunting weather was considered much too warm until today when it turned noticeably colder and about four inches of snow had fallen.

The weights ranged from 70 pounds to around 160, with most of them being less than 100 pounds. Allen Crites, Swanton, got a 10-point buck weighing 160 pounds which he bagged on Backbone mountain.

More and more women seemed to be getting into the act. Harriet DeBerry, Deer Park; Thera M. Shaffer, Mrs. W. D. Nace, Oakland; Ruth Gilpin, Swanton; Grace Hummel, New Germany; Kay (Continued on Page Four)

Blood Program Will Complete Its 11th Year In January

The American Red Cross blood program in this county will complete its 11th year next month with a visit of the Johnstown bloodmobile unit to Oakland.

This visit will be on Wednesday, January 9, and will be at the usual place, in the Oakland fire department hall, Mrs. Grover C. Stemple, blood recruitment chairman for the Red Cross, expressed the hope that this visit would inspire an unusual response.

The blood program began in this county in February, 1952, and since that time there have been 38 visits and 4,129 pints of blood have been contributed. Last year the program was 69 pints short of filling its quota, Mrs. Stemple said.

The normal procedure has been three visits in Oakland each year with a quota of 100 pints each time, two visits in Grantsville with time, two visits in Grantsville with time, two visits in Grantsville with time. (Continued on Page Seven)

All Conference Man

Dick Stuck, Bethany College sophomore from Oakland, has made the all conference defensive football team of the Presidents Athletic Conference.

Stuck helped pass the Bethany Bisons to their best season since 1955—with a record of 6 wins and 1 loss and second place in the PAC. Stuck, who made the varsity as a freshman, is considered one of the finest defensive stars in several years at Bethany. This season, he intercepted two passes. He netted 16 yards on 8 carries and picked up 36 yards on two kick off returns.

He was one of 31 Bisons to letter this year.

Lake Park, and Robert Buckel, of the Bittinger area. Serving the previous year were Curtis Savage, McHenry, and Keith Stahl, route 2, Oakland.

Date For Visit Changed

Thomas G. K'uff, assistant state service officer, representative of the Maryland Veterans' commission, who usually comes to Garrett county on the 4th Monday of each month, has moved the date to Monday, December 10, because the regular date would fall on Christmas Eve.

He will be at the State Employment office at 12 o'clock noon on that date, it was announced.

Miss Icie Schoch Is Named Nurse of Year By Hospital

Miss Icie Schoch, whose career in nursing began some 40 years ago, last night was named "Nurse of the Year" by the Alexandria Hospital Medical staff, at Alexandria, Va., and a native of Crellin, Md.

Miss Schoch, Medical Records librarian at the hospital, was presented a certificate, a $50 check, a special pin and an orchid by the physicians as a "tribute to outstanding services during the year."

An Alexandria Hospital employee since 1928, Miss Schoch first joined the staff in the combined capacity as a nurse anesthetist and medical records librarian. She was graduated from Providence Hospital in 1922, where she later studied anesthesia. She then served for two and a half years as a nurse anesthetist at Conemaugh Valley hospital in Johnstown, Pa., and later spent eight years at the Port Chester (N.Y.) United hospital, where she began combining the job of medical records along with her duties as a nurse anesthetist.

After taking a course in Medical Records at Columbia University and Presbyterian Medical Center in New York, she served at the North County Community hospital at Glen Cove, N. Y., where one of her most famous patients included song writer Cole Porter.

She also served for several months at Philadelphia General hospital before going to Alexandria hospital in 1928. Miss Schoch received her certificate as a Medical Records Librarian from the American Association of Medical Records Librarians in 1939.

Affectionately known as "Shookie," Miss Schoch gently "cracks the whip" over busy Alexandria doctors in her persistent daily task of keeping patient medical records up to date.

The Medical Records Librarian, often called the "secretary" of the hospital, heads the department which records, codes and stores pertinent medical data. There are over 200,000 medical records on file at Alexandria hospital. Previous patient records often aid in the diagnosis of present illnesses and frequently aid physicians in caring for patients with similar conditions.

Reminiscing over her 40 years as a nurse, Miss Schoch says that the secret to longevity is "doing something you like to do" and working with the "nicest staff in the world," a member of Alpha Epsilon Phi, a member of Alpha Epsilon Phi, a member of Alpha Epsilon Phi.

Miss Schoch is also active in the D. C. Metropolitan Area Medical Records Librarians association.

An avid stamp collector, she likes to knit, do needlepoint and spends much time working in the "treasure garden" at her home, at 2135 Steeply Hollow road, Falls Church, which she shares with her sister, Mrs. Edith S. Sadler.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Zink visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Collier, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Collier and daughter Nancy, on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Walter Lutes, of Alexandria, Va., Mrs. Edwin Jenkins, of Swanton, were Monday evening visitors of Mrs. Ray Artie and sons.

Lloyd Trout, Jr., of Meyersdale; James Wilburn, Baltimore; Roy Artie, were Monday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Artie, of Markleysburg.

Accident Report By State Police Given

Maryland State police, working out of the LaVale barracks, investigated a total of 102 highway accidents during October.

Five persons were killed during the month and 10 persons injured. Two of the fatalities occurred in Garrett county, and six injuries occurred in 15 accidents.

The two fatalities were Clarence Elwood Paugh, Akron, 27, killed October 21, on route 125, and Carolyn Sue Beckman, 8, killed October 8, on state route 495, west of Swanton.

All-gary county had the worst record with three persons killed and 51 injured in 87 accidents.

Garrett county's accident report showed 11 property damage mishaps. Most of the mishaps occurred on U. S. route 40, State 135 and U. S. route 219. Causes of the accidents were listed as drunken driving, speeding and failing to grant the right of way.

During the month the state had a total of 56 traffic deaths, bringing the total for 10 months to 476, a 31 percent increase.

Publicity of County Continues To Spread

Information concerning Garrett county as an all-year playground and recreational area, continues to spread.

The Garrett County-Deep Creek Lake Promotion Council through its secretary, Mrs. Pat Kittle, has made arrangements with at least two companies for additional circulation.

The Maryland C & P call for December, which is distributed to 800,000 subscribers, has the Marsh Mountain ski slope as its front cover with an explanation like this:

"On the Cover—The scene on our Christmas cover is one that ski enthusiasts might recognize. It was taken right here in Maryland—in Garrett County. Many Marylanders may not know that the western part of the State offers a variety of winter sports. In addition to skiing, there are tobogganing, ice skating, ice boating and ice fishing. Maryland's ski center is Marsh Mountain Ski area at Deep Creek Lake. It nestles 3,000 feet in the Alleghenies and boasts a 2,000-foot trail with a 400-foot rise. Here there are attractions for beginners and experts alike. Among other features are rope tows and a modern Poma lift. And even those who prefer to be spectators can enjoy the Maryland State Ski Championships and other ski events.

"The skiing season is getting underway now. Depending upon the snowfall, it generally extends through the end of March."

The Allegheny Power System, Inc. is including an item in its notices to stockholders in five states. It features the "Flying Scot" designed and built by Gordon Douglass Boat Company, an industry operating in Oakland.

This is a popular boat among sailors. It is built of fiber glass and reinforced plastic and rigged with aluminum spars for minimum maintenance.

Deep Creek Lake, a popular water sports center, attracted Mr. Douglass to the Oakland area in 1958. His plant, though small, employing eight people, turns out an average of two boats a week.

The Sun Oil company, Mrs. Kittle says, will also have an item in its January issue. It will also be featured again in "Playtime" on Washington, for motorists, and the January issue of "Ski Time," also will carry a feature about the county.

Vacation Guide Progresses
Progress on the 1963 edition of the Vacation Guide was also noted by Mrs. Kittle. The deadline for

Taste of Winter

Garrett County received a taste of winter to end ten days or more of clear and moderate temperatures. The county was blanketed with four or more inches of snow this morning, the snow starting to fall last evening shortly after dark.

There had been cold early morning weather before that, but usually the sun would have its effect before noon.

A run-down of the weather showed last Friday at freezing or below in early morning but the temperature had risen to 48 by 10 o'clock. It was 15 degrees Saturday but had gone up to 59 degrees by noon. Weather was clear.

Sunday was again cold but clear and moderating. There was a 15 degree temperature reading again Monday but clear and warming.

The temperature got down to 26 on Tuesday with some haze. It was 54 by noon. The mercury was around the freezing mark Wednesday but rising to 55 by noon. It turned cloudy. Rain began falling Wednesday evening but quickly turned to snow, and some four to five inches had fallen by 8 a. m. Snow continued to fall and there was a light wind.

Church Leaders To Meet

Leaders of Church Women's groups throughout the county are being invited to attend a committee meeting Friday afternoon, December 14, at 1:30 p. m., at St. Paul's Methodist church in Oakland to formulate plans for the observance of the World Day of Prayer in their various localities.

This is a program sponsored by the United Church Women and will be held March 1, 1963. Mrs. R. E. Cross, member of St. Paul's Methodist church, chairman for the World Day of Prayer in this area, said her committee was hoping that this year the services would be held in several communities such as Crellin, Mt. Lake Park, Swanton, and other places instead of just in Oakland. She pointed out this would be possible only if church groups were willing to make their own arrangements.

A physician claimed U. S. was "senselessly flirting with an epidemic outbreak of yellow fever."

placing advertising in the guide is January 1. There will be 30,000 copies instead of the 20,000 copies as has been the case in former years. The booklet will be 56 pages and cover, as usual, and will be printed on a magazine type paper. The guides are distributed free by the Promotion Council.

Camp Escapees Are Detained In Lockup

Three escapees from the Meadow Mountain Forestry camp were being detained in the county jail this week on three charges.

The young men were listed as John Harrison Allen, Richard Allen Baxter and Phillip Shiffett.

All three are charged with escape, with theft of a motor vehicle valued at $1,000, and theft of a 22 calibre rifle, valued at $50.

Held for Spotlighting
John L. Beitzel, Martinsburg, W. Va., and Joseph L. Beitzel, of near Accident, were apprehended by Game Warden Leo Friend this week and charged with spotlighting with firearms in their possession. They posted $200 cash bond for their appearance Friday for trial.

Although admitting to having a gun in the automobile the former declared that someone had left the gate open on their farm and he claimed they were searching for some lost cattle on their own property at the time of the arrest.

A fourth forestry youth is in jail, having been apprehended over a week ago. He is James Joseph Pettis, and he is charged with unlawful escape.

The camp director said yesterday that the three youths had run away from a forestry detail, and it was not until later that authorities learned of the theft of the automobile and rifle from the area.

The fourth was lured away by a group of boys from the Washington area who came to the camp at night and persuaded him to leave the camp, according to the director.

Give False Information
Three persons were listed on the Trial Magistrate's docket this week for giving false information in order to procure a license to hunt.

Edward E. Whitehair, Garfield, O., was found guilty at a hearing on December 2 and was fined $50 and costs. Game Warden Leo Friend made the arrest.

Johnny Brooks, Bayard, W. Va., and Donald E. Parker, Akron, were apprehended by Robert Brown, game warden, and pleaded guilty to the charges. They were both fined $50 and costs. The fine and costs were suspended in the case of Brooks.

Sam Nightengale, Oakland, was charged by Mrs. Nightengale, with being drunk and disorderly. At a hearing Tuesday he pleaded guilty and was sentenced to serve ten days in the county jail. He prayed an appeal and posted $50 cash bond for appearance in the Circuit Court.

High Schools Open Season On Friday

Both high schools of the county will open their basketball season tomorrow evening.

Southern Highlanders will meet Elk Garden in a Potomac Valley conference tilt on the Southern High court, with a preliminary game between the junior high teams of the two schools.

The Northern High Huskies will travel to Westernport for their opening encounter with Bruce High Bulldogs.

The Southern high team is in the rebuilding process. Coach Carl Schoonover has only four returning lettermen, Carl Corbin, Gary Orr, Harold Mosser and Bill Carlson. The Elks were defeated last week by Piedmont but have a veteran team.

Romeo Williams is in his first year of coaching at Northern High but he has a strong nucleus with which to work. He has veterans Larry Yommer, Tom Speicher, Jim Shoemaker and Kellan McGraw to help shape his team.

Both high schools are in class "B" this year in state competition.

Have Wool Picking Party

Some thirty persons engaged in a wool picking party last Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lewis, at Hutton. A wool picking party is a rarity these days, but the Lewis family has been doing this for a number of years.

The wool was taken from the sheep last May. Everyone pitched in to assist with the work, after the wool is picked, it is made into rolls by Mr. Lewis and spun into yarn by Mrs. Lewis. They use the wool to knit socks, gloves and mittens. A pair of wool socks brings $2.50 and other things are in proportion.

Many of those helping Saturday night were from Ohio, and Mr. Lewis said they kept coming all night long. Coffee and cake were served to the group.

Qualified Freedom

According to the Internal Revenue Service a man or a company whose business is faced with regulation or even elimination because of impending state or federal legislation cannot express a point of view on that matter and consider it as a cost of protecting his livelihood. Internal Revenue says you can do that if you do so out of profits but it is not a legitimate deduction as a business expense.

This takes on a rather frightening aspect when you consider that many businesses in this country are in competition with the government itself. That puts one business in the position of silencing its competitors. The electric power business is a case in point. In the issue of private power as opposed to public power, proponents of the latter attempt to muzzle their private competitors by this tax penalty.

The criterion is whether or not you are engaged in influencing legislation. We always thought this was what America was all about—everyone had a chance to be heard on such things. Now we are told that tax-free government-operated business can be heard but taxable private institutions cannot without penalty.

The next logical step is for Internal Revenue, or someone in Congress, to declare that editorial opinion in newspapers, magazines, department was called but when it turned out. The Grantsville fire department furnished chairs and hay bales also served as seats. A program included an appreciation message delivered for Mr. Kinsinger by Rev. Paul Bender. There was special singing by children of the parents who helped to build the barn, also by the Conservative church and the Beachy church. Jonas Tice showed slides of the Disaster service and gave its history.

Then all were invited to the tables spread across one end of the barn floor, laden with an abundance of food prepared by Mrs. Kinsinger and her neighbors. There were "sloppy joes", hot dogs, ham sandwiches, potato salad, pickles, baked beans, cakes, pies, coffee, hot chocolate and ice cream.

The Kinsinger family has every reason to know that there still is an abundance of Christianity in the neighborhood.

507 Deer Killed

Knox, Accident; and Alice Holt-schneider were among those listed as killing bucks, but most of them were fairly small.

Marlin Willard, a 13-year-old youth from Lonaconing, got a 12-point, 142 pounder yesterday on Meadow Mountain. Theta A. Shaffer and Grace Hummel were also listed in last year's report.

More of the hunters in the woods seemed to be from Garrett county once again. Many of the hunters from Baltimore and vicinity were taking their hunting in areas where the weather was not so rigorous, except that this year the weather up to now couldn't have been much milder.

There seemed to be no special place where hunters were more successful than other places. The tags indicated that bucks had been killed at Snaggy, Swallow Falls, Gnevy Church, Backbone, Herrington, Muddy Creek, Turkey Neck, Marsh Mountain, Dobbin, Deep Creek, North Glade, Round Glade, Mt. Nebo, Steyer, Table Rock, Negro Mountain, Sand Flat, Meadow Mountain, Eagle Rock and other spots.

Below are many of those who were successful.

Ideas of People On Legislation Is Sought In Meetings

At least two meetings are being planned by the newly elected members of the Legislature from this county, to give citizens an opportunity to express their views on what they feel is needed, and what problems would be better left as they are at present.

Spencer W. Graham, state senator elect, said he and the three members of the House of Delegates had talked about prospective dates and had tentatively decided on Monday and Tuesday, December 17 and 18. One of the meetings will be held at Oakland, in the Court House, and the other in all probability will be held in the fire hall at Accident.

Participating in the sessions in addition to Mr. Graham will be Elwood Groves, Elza Bray and Mrs. Martha Glatfelter, the elected House members.

The legislators also plan to meet with the new county commissioners, the County Superintendent of Schools, the Welfare board director, and other officials. Whether or not they would meet with other groups was not known.

The usual procedure in past years has been to call at least one session before the legislators leave for Annapolis early in January. This is to get the feeling of the people in regard to what they consider needed legislation.

NEWS FROM THE Ruth Enlow Library

BY EDITH BROCK

Books are among the most satisfying Christmas gifts for children. From the wide variety of new books it is possible to find something to interest every child.

The classics, such as old favorites as "Tom Sawyer," "Heidi" and "Little Women" and such well-loved newer books as the Laura Ingalls Wilder stories are available in attractively illustrated editions this Christmas.

The new books of 1962 also include many good choices for Christmas gifts. Rebecca Caudill's "The Best Loved Doll" and Carolyn Haywood's "Snowbound with Betsy" will delight little girls in third and fourth grades.

Ross Hutchins' "Lives of an Oak Tree," Mary Adrain's "Gray Squirrel" and Mary Buff's "Forest Folk" are a few of the many beautifully illustrated new books which appeal to children's awakening interest in nature.

"Colonial Life in America" by Margaret Farquhar, an excellent introduction to American history for beginning readers.

New volumes in the American Heritage Junior Library such as "The California Gold Rush" and "The Pilgrims and Plymouth Colony" present history for the ten- to fourteen age group in a colorful, fully illustrated form which the whole family will enjoy.

"The Lords Baltimore" by Nan Agle and Frances Bacon is an account of Maryland's colonial history which makes enjoyable and worthwhile reading. "The Grist Mill Secret" by Lillie V. Albrecht is a vivid story of Revolutionary War days and of the quiet courage of those who stayed at home.

In "The Winged Watchman," a story of Holland in World War II, Hilda van Stockum shows that courage and loyalty are just as important in the twentieth century as in any other.

"A Mystery for Meg" by Elizabeth Ladd provides enough excitement to satisfy girls of the nine-to-twelve age group. Scott Corbett's "Cutlass Island" is a well-written adventure story for boys. Both books have settings on Maine islands.

"The Golden Goblet" by Eloise McGraw gives the young reader a vivid picture of ancient Egypt as well as a story of action and suspense. Betty Cavanaugh's "Time for Tardiness" and Elizabeth Ogilvie's "Turn Around Twice" are well-written modern stories with appeal for young teenagers.

"Ten Leagues to Boston Town" by Dorothy Butters and "Three Against London" by Rachel Varble are historical stories which bring the past to life for teen-agers. They have humor, romance and good characterizations.

"Restless Spirit: The Life of Edna St. Vincent Millay" by Miriam Gurko is a mature book which young adults and teen-agers will enjoy.

Tests Are Given To Determine Betty Crocker Winners

A senior high school girl from Northern High School and Southern High School will be named in the ninth annual Betty Crocker Search for the American Home-maker of Tomorrow. The county winner will compete with other high school seniors from high schools within the state, and the state winner will compete further for national recognition.

The girls were scheduled to take a written test this week to help determine winners. The test, prepared by Science Research Associates, Chicago, to emphasize the importance of homemaking as a career, is the determining factor in selecting local and state winners.

The 1963 winner and three runners-up will be named in the spring at the culmination of an expense-paid educational tour of New York City, Washington, D. C., and Colonial Williamsburg for the state winners.

Scholarships range from $1,500 for each state winner and $500 for each state runner-up to $5,000, $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000 for top national winners. A set of Encyclopedia Britannica is awarded the school of each state winner.

GOP State Central Group Files Report

The Republican State Central committee filed its report of receipts and expenditures as required by the Corrupt Practices act. It showed contributions of $4,108.21, and expenditures of $3,781.84. They have a balance on hand of $226.37.

The committee operated solely on local funds, with nothing received from state, congressional or national ticket candidates. The former committee had left $378.21 in the account.

Contributions came mostly from candidates, ranging from a high of $800 from W. D. Stover, candidate for judge, to $10 from an individual. Expenditures included $422.30 for a steer for the beef barbecue held at the Fair Grounds prior to the election and which was attended by five to six hundred persons, in spite of the inclement weather.

They put out $2,660 to people who supervised the checkers and hauling of voters. At least two persons who received money for distribution to haulers and checkers, from the Republican committee also received money from S. F. Hamill, Jr., Democrat for the same job. The two listed on both expense accounts were Stephen DeWitt and Julius Wilhelm.

The Democratic State Central committee has not yet filed its report. The report is required within 30 days after the election.

100th Lodge Anniversary Shown In Old Photograph

The old photograph published today poses somewhat of a mystery to the man who supplied it, and he is of the hope some reader of The Republican can help him identify the event and the participants.

Lester Wilhelm, of Kitzmiller, who owns the photograph, said it was taken in 1919 and marked the 100th anniversary of the Improved Order of Odd Fellows. Probably, those shown are members of the Blaine, W. Va., lodge, which was long active.

No doubt someone will remember the "five, ten and twenty-five cent store" operated by Capt. Gulley and will be able to furnish complete information and identification.

Returns To His Home

Kermit Glafelt, of near Accident, returned home last Friday from Meversdale Community hospital where he was admitted Monday evening, November 26, after collapsing on his farm.

Glafelt and his wife were preparing to go to Annapolis when he was stricken. He had completed his feeding of the cattle in the barn and was heading for his home when he became ill and fell into a ditch that was being dug for a new water line. He sustained a deep laceration on the head and other cuts. He remained unconscious until the following day.

Begins Practice Teaching

Miss Lucille E. Markley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Markley of Hutto, began an eight-week period of student teaching on November 26, under the teacher education program of Hood College, at Frederick.

Miss Markley will teach French 4, 5, 6, 7, and 9 at the Elm Street Junior High School in Frederick. She began by observing in her classes and will gradually assume teaching responsibilities under the direction of her supervising teacher at the school.

A French major at Hood, Miss Markley is a senior this year. She is a graduate of Southern High School, Oakland.

what happened to the funnies

Now there's a little man who knows what he wants! He wants the pretty funny papers. You might say, "He has a mind of his own..." That's correct, of course. Every child is endowed by his creator with a will and a mind; not developed, but it's there. Yet, how that child is trained from his earliest years, will mold his character, develop his mind and strengthen his will.

Children should have good example, then. And the best example that parents can give is to go to church. The Church is for you and your family. It is the hope of your children. It is the means of bringing God's bountiful blessings to all.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Eternal Life

Lesson for December 9, 1962

DO YOU have an ambition to live forever? That depends, doesn't it? It depends on what kind of "forever" you are thinking about. There are some forevers you wouldn't want a minute of. There may be other forevers so perfect that a single instant would be more than enough for all the sorrows and agonies of this sad world. Merely to survive is no wise person's ambition. There is a famous French play, "No Exit," in which three characters, all strangers to one another, meet in a hotel room. There is nothing there to hurt them, they are just there—only they can never get out. They get worse than bored, they become desperate, they try to kill one another. But they can't... because they are dead and they are all in hell. That's what it would be, sheer hell, merely to live on and on and on...

Beall To Be Minority Leader of Delegates

Beall was selected at a caucus in Baltimore attended by 22 of the 25 Republican delegates to the General Assembly. The vote was made unanimous after Beall won on the first ballot by 12-5.

Beall, 34, a son of U. S. Senator J. Glenn Beall, was top vote-getter in the November 6 election which swept an all-Republican Delegation to the General Assembly into office from both Allegany and Garrett counties.

Rare Bible Will Be Shown At St. Paul's

Rare and old Bibles will be exhibited at the 10:45 a. m. Worship Service at St. Paul's Methodist Church Sunday. Among the items on display will be fragments from an original Bible manuscript on vellum, over a thousand years old. Pages from the First Edition of the King James Version will also be shown; this Bible, first printed in 1611, is the version that is the most familiar to people today. A Bible translated and printed before the King James will be shown; this copy of the so-called "Breeches Bible" was printed in the year 1587.

Many other strange and interesting versions of the Bible will be shown. Among these will be copies in both the Greek and Hebrew, the original languages of the Bible, as well as copies in other foreign languages. Several modern English versions of the Bible may be compared with the version most familiar to present-day readers.

Sunday is "Universal Bible Sunday," observed around the world. The service in the local Church will be a part of this observance.

The newly-formed Junior Choir will present an anthem during this service.

There's a new idea going around. And it's catching on. The Dart idea. No longer do you have to be packed or stacked in a compact. Now there's plenty of room—for head, feet, and seat. No longer do you have to settle for weak-sister power. Dart saves with the rest of 'em... yet outstrips the best of 'em. That's the whole idea. Too roomy to be a compact, too darn thrifty to be anything else! And lots of spunk in the bargain. Now go see it. Nine fresh models. New 5-year/50,000-mile warranty.*

*Your authorized Dodge Dealer's Warranty against defects in material and workmanship on 1963 cars has been extended to include parts replacement or repair without charge for reported parts or labor for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, on the engine block, head and internal parts, transmission case and internal parts (excluding manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints (excluding dust covers), rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings—provided the vehicle has been serviced at an authorized Dodge dealer.

PICK YOUR KIND OF CAR

AT YOUR CHEVROLET DEALER'S ONE-STOP SHOPPING CENTER

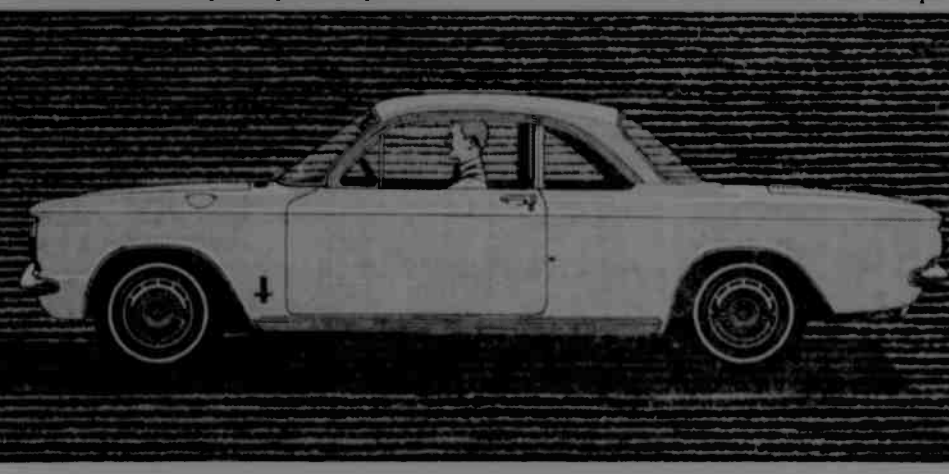

If you'd like to see how your car dollar can be tailored to your needs, your Chevrolet dealer has four entirely different kinds of cars that do it handily. Jet-smooth '63 Chevrolet: It's a luxury car that invites comparison with the high-priced cars. '63 Chevy II: Really much too snappy looking and spirited to be called a thrifter car. But sparring is what it is in price and upkeep, '63 Corvair: The rear-engine wonder for people who like their sport with the family along. Then there's our all-out sports car—the new Corvette Sting Ray: It's completely restyled and re-engineered, and now available in convertible or sport coupe. Whatever your new car fancy, you'll find the answer at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Ken Martin Aiding In Research at WVU

Ken Martin, Oakland, is one of a young male students at West Virginia University, Morgantown, selected to participate in a recently-initiated research project which may contribute to a better understanding of how amino acids, fatty acids, and glucose function together in human metabolism, according to Dr. Elizabeth Yearick, associate expedition station nutritionist and leader of the project.

Dr. Yearick said that specially-prepared test meals will be fed to the young men. Resulting changes in amino acid, fatty acids and glucose in their blood streams will indicate the amounts of these nutrients absorbed into the blood, mediated by the amounts provided by the body processes of synthesis and clearance.

Each of six test meals will be the same as far as the number of calories is concerned. Two levels of protein will be used. Sources of the protein will be from milk and milk products. Amounts of fat and carbohydrates, as percentages of the total calories involved, will be changed from meal to meal, according to the design of the project.

Assisting Dr. Yearick will be Richard Nadeau, research assistant in agricultural biochemistry, and Gregory Rhodes, medical technician. This experiment is one of the first conducted anywhere to study the combined action of amino acids, fatty acids and glucose together. Other researchers have conducted studies which involved a single nutrient. The information collected in this research may lead to knowledge that will make possible more efficient use of protein in the human diet, Dr. Yearick said.

Completes Training

Marine Private Donald V. Fike, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merl K. Fike of Oakland, was scheduled to complete recruit training, Nov. 20, at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S. C.

Congressman Charles McC. Mathias, Jr., R-Md., left Saturday for his annual Naval Reserve tour of active duty. During his current reserve assignment, Mathias will spend two weeks on anti-submarine patrol in Atlantic waters participating in naval exercises and fleet command operations.

Congressman Mathias holds the rank of lieutenant commander in the United States Naval Reserve. This year he marks his twentieth year as a member of the U. S. armed forces. It was on December 7, 1942, that Mathias first enlisted in the Coast Guard Reserve, later joining the Navy in the spring of 1944.

This year the December 7 date once again finds the Congressman in uniform and on active duty assignment somewhere in Atlantic waters off the coast of the United States.

Shop Locally . . .

Last November an editorial was used in The Republican to urge people to try at home first for their Christmas needs. Last year as well as this year, we believe this practice is being observed. At least that is what several merchants have told us.

There has been more than the usual number of catalogs and booklets appearing in the county area this season, all of them filled with suggestions for Christmas needs and luring the buyer with prices that may seem much lower than are obtainable locally. But this is not the case many times.

A person who feels a responsibility to his community is inclined to give the local merchants the first chance. Oakland has up to date stores, with thousands of items available at moderate prices.

Many times the prices in mail order catalogs seem to be much lower, but by the time the postage, express or freight is added, the items may cost as much or more as those obtainable in Oakland or other county towns. When one buys items locally they can see first hand the quality and there is no uncertainty.

The variety of selection is here this year, as it has been in previous years. The prices will compare with those in the larger cities, and there is top quality. People who feel they must buy out of town, never have been able to give a good reason. They are the ones who never actually tried to shop the local areas and don't really know that there is almost everything anybody would want right here in our own community.

So give your local merchant the opportunity to serve you. If he is not able to do so, then be on your way to the city, but as we said last year, please make an honest effort and you will be very much surprised and pleased.

First National Plans Increase In Capital Stock

Declaration Of 25 Percent Stock Dividend Also Proposed To Stockholders

The declaration of a stock dividend of 25 percent and an increase in the capital stock to $350,000 is being recommended by the Board of Directors of the First National Bank of Oakland, to its stockholders in a letter mailed to them this week.

A vote on the proposals will be taken at the annual meeting to be held Tuesday, January 8.

The Board of directors is also declaring a regular semi-annual dividend of 30 cents per share, and a special dividend of 10 cents per share to stockholders of record, are to be mailed out after 1.

K. Littman, bank president, said if the recommendations were approved it would increase the bank's capital stock to $350,000, and the surplus to $150,000. The bank's capital stock is now $250,000, and the surplus is $100,000.

The specific recommendations were: 1, a stock dividend of 25 percent be declared which would increase capital stock from $250,000 to $350,000, resulting in ownership by stockholders of 25 percent more stock than they now have; 2, that the capital be further increased from $250,000 to $350,000 and the surplus account be increased from $100,000 to $150,000 by the sale of 10,000 shares of new stock of $10 par value, at $25 per share.

Mr. Littman said such a step (Continued on Page Four)

11 Children, Bus Driver Murooned In School Bus

Kyle Bennett, 44, and eleven school children from the Kempton area, were stranded in a school bus last Thursday for some two to three hours, as the result of the storm that suddenly turned into a blizzard, and piled snow in drifts of three and four feet deep on the highway.

After walking half a mile to a telephone to call for help from the County Roads garage, Bennett returned to the children and waited there until help finally did arrive. When the bus was pulled from the drift they were unable to continue to their homes and so spent the night at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wolf. They were given food and lodging and the following morning when the road was still blocked they were brought back to Oakland and lodged in the Green Street school. Four of them ate supper and spent the evening with their uncle Delmont Corbin on

Search For Donald Rounds Still Futile

Donald Rounds, 28, of Swanton, disappeared last Thursday about noon while deer hunting and efforts to find him since that time have met with no success.

Rounds is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivory Rounds with whom he resides. He was seen in Oakland Thursday morning and then completely vanished. The National Guard, youth of the Meadow Mountain Forestry camp, the Oakland fire department and county police authorities have thoroughly searched the area where he is presumed to have disappeared, under the conditions of deep snow on the mountain.

He was an employee of the Sterling Processing plant in Oakland. Rounds reportedly had no food with him when he left for his trip into the mountain just east of Glendale bridge. He did have a rifle and some ammunition.

The snow was knee-deep for the most part during Friday's search with some of the drifts among the rocks and laurel of Meadow Mountain being waist-deep. Members of the Forestry camp joined in the search Saturday and the National Guard was called out Sunday.

The Oakland firemen were called Saturday morning to aid in the search. The National Guard men were from Company E, 115th Medium Tank Battalion, under Lt. Yost, company commander. A number of individuals also tried to help in the search. Robert Brown, district game warden, and member of the National Guard and Robert Friend, forest ranger who was born and reared in the vicinity where Rounds was last seen, also pitched

Interest Shown In New Jr. High School At Oakland

Meeting Held Tuesday With Legislators, Commissioners, P.-T. A. Leaders

The proposal to construct a new junior high school in Oakland to take care of the overflow students from Southern High school, the Dennett Road and Center street elementary schools, was given unanimous approval by members of a building committee, P-T-A leaders, and other interested parents present at a meeting Tuesday afternoon.

The meeting was held with the newly elected County Commissioners, State Senator and members of the House of Delegates. The legislators and commissioners expressed interest in the school, but made no specific commitments. The proposal was outlined by William L. Hawkins, county superintendent of schools, who also explained the status of the present county school bond indebtedness.

He pointed out the total principal and interest paid in 1962 was $198,903. Approximately $155,000 came from the Natural Gas tax and state incentive fund. The county has been receiving $50,000 annually from the Natural Gas tax and $105,000 from the state incentive fund, based on enrollment. For debt service needs the county provided $44,000 or less than one-fourth of the total need.

For the years up to 1970 it was figured the county money needed was estimated at $47,260 for 1963, $45,468 for 1964, $57,879 for 1965, $56,277 for 1966, $10,683 for 1967, $4,189 for 1968, $2,208 for 1969 and none needed in 1970.

A bond issue of $700,000 in 1964 was proposed to raise funds for the junior high school. This would be paid back at the rate of $10,000 annually after the first year, with interest beginning at $24,500 and (Continued on Page Four)

Legislators Plan Two Open Meetings

Decision to hold the two meetings planned by the newly elected members of the Legislature in Oakland and Grantsville, was announced this week.

One meeting will be held at the Court House in Oakland on Monday evening, December 17, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The second meeting will be at Grantsville on Tuesday, December 18, in the fire hall, also at 7:30.

In order to avoid confusion the legislators suggested that if there was a group of people interested in a certain piece of legislation that the group name a spokesman. It was suggested that there Saturday be better organization if ideas were written on paper.

The legislators already have had meetings with the Forestry Department, the Welfare Board, the State Roads commission and the Board of Education.

At a conference one day last week Mrs. Martha I. Glotfey was named chairman of the House of Delegates trio. Other members are Elwood Groves and Elza Bray. All three of the Delegates and Senator-elect Spencer W. Graham expect to attend both meetings.

These meetings are being scheduled to give citizens an opportunity to express their views on any contemplated legislation.

Shovels Snow; Is Fatally Stricken

John Henry Hunt, aged 36, died Monday night, December 10, in Garrett County Memorial hospital in Oakland where he was admitted earlier in the day after being stricken with a heart attack while shoveling snow at his home in Oakland.

Born in Uniontown, Pa., he was a son of the late John and Laura Humphries Hunt.

Surviving are his wife, Esther Burroughs Hunt, two daughters, Mrs. Lois Detmer, at home; Mrs. Barbara Pickett, Elliott City; one brother, Donald Hunt, Baltimore; three sisters, Mrs. Kathryn Tissue, Mrs. Laura Reed and Miss Esther Hunt, all of Uniontown; and four grandchildren.

The body was taken to the Munich Funeral home in Oakland. Funeral services are being conducted from the funeral home this afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Rev. W. Shelby Walthall, Episcopal rector. Interment will be in Garrett County Memorial Gardens.

Young Deer Hunter Accidentally Shot

One of the few area deer hunting mishaps occurred last Saturday, December 8, when Donnie D. Tichnell, 21, of route 1, Swanton, was accidentally shot in the left knee by a member of the party with which he was hunting.

The fact that the victim was clothed in brown rather than in bright red or yellow contributed to the accident, according to Trooper R. W. Andrews and Trooper Milton Hart, of the Maryland State police, who investigated. The victim and his cousin, Kenneth Tichnell, were hunting with five other hunters on the east side of Backbone mountain. John J. Pettit, route 1, Crownsville, and Arthur Tichnell, route 1, Swanton, uncle. The tracks revealed that the animal had backtracked in front of the two trackers.

The victim and Kenneth Tichnell were walking in a stooped position as they made their way through a widespread cluster of heavy brush. Pettit saw the brown clothed man 125 yards away as he passed through the brush. His clothing resembled the color of a deer and Pettit shot.

Kenneth Tichnell yelled that his companion had been shot and immediately began to administer first aid. He applied a snow pack to the injured area and also applied a tourniquet of the upper thigh above the wound. Tichnell had learned first aid when he had formerly been a member of the state police.

A stretcher improvised from the spot from poles and hunting coats, was used to carry the man two miles to a car. He was rushed to Potomac Valley hospital in Keesee where hospital authorities said that the quick application of first aid probably saved the victim's life.

The high powered bullet passed through the knee, causing major nerve and artery damage, and the hunter was in shock when admitted to the hospital.

Outgoing Christmas mail has shown an increase over previous years, it was announced yesterday by Robert W. Lohr, acting postmaster. The cancellations for the first 11 days of December last year showed 35,878, compared to 37,563, for this year. The high day was 8,820 on Tuesday.

This was two days earlier than last year and six days earlier than the year before for the high day. The first ten days of parcel post showed an increase with 3,287 compared to 2,968 for the same period last year.

Mr. Lohr announced that the post office would remain open all day Saturday, December 15, to take care of the expected rush.

He also announced there would be no extra employees this year. The regular employees would be used on an overtime basis when necessary. There will be no carrier service on Sundays this year, it was stated.

To Undergo Examination

Karl William Wilson, Jr., on two appeal cases from Trial Magistrate Robert M. Maroney's docket, tried before Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill yesterday afternoon, was found guilty, and the verdict of the magistrate upheld.

However, sentence was withheld, pending an examination by a psychiatrist at the Garrett-Allegany Mental Health clinic, in Cumberland, to take place within ten days. The defendant consented to the examination. Jack R. Turney was counsel for the defense.

Wilson was found guilty of unauthorized use of automobile and resisting arrest when tried before Magistrate Maroney on October 31, and was sentenced to serve six months for resisting arrest and one year for unauthorized use of automobile. He pleaded not guilty and prayed an appeal. The truck was the property of Mrs. Wadulski, of Pennsylvania. When arrested Robert Shillingburg said Wilson kicked him in the face. Percy Lawton said Wilson kicked him on the leg. Both were police for Oakland.

Juvenile Case Heard

One juvenile case was heard yesterday afternoon by Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill, sitting as juvenile judge.

The charge was for not attending school. The youth was ordered to attend school and be of good behavior and he was placed in the custody of his parents.

Schell Appointed Director Bureau Mines Of State

Governor's Selection Is Announced Yesterday; Effective January 2

Carl A. Schell, of Kitzmiller, who just completed his four-year term as a County Commissioner, was informed by James Morton, assistant to Governor J. Millard Tawes, that he had been named director of the Bureau of Mines for the state of Maryland.

The appointment is effective January 2. He will succeed Frank R. Powers, who has served as director for the past thirty years. He will retire at that time.

Mr. Schell will be the third person to have held that office, the original appointment being Dr. J. J. Rutledge who served for a number of years prior to his retirement. Mr. Powers maintained his office in Westernport but Mr. Schell said it was not necessary to move there to perform his duties. He plans to remain in Garrett county.

Mr. Schell spent thirty years in the coal mines and has lived in Kitzmiller since 1942. Prior to that time he resided in Gorman. He has specialized in mine rescue work and was captain of the Kitzmiller mine rescue squad which won the national championship in 1961.

In his new position Mr. Schell will be responsible for safety measures prescribed for all strip and deep mining activities. Schell said he took the examination for the position in July, 1961, and that there had been three other persons that had been designated as qualified.

The new director is married and has four children and one adopted child.

Takes Matters Into Own Hands; Nabbed

Bruce Bartenfelder, of Baltimore, was one of the numerous deer hunters in the county last week, and since the first part of the week he was camping in the area.

The picture changed on Thursday however and Bartenfelder became panicky when the snow fall continued to threaten to close the highways. To make matters worse one of his party became ill. He found a tractor with plow attached belonging to the Department of Forests and Parks, and discovered it would operate successfully. So he decided, Harold Stark, assistant superintendent at Swallow Falls park area, saw him as he was returning the tractor and placed him under arrest.

At a hearing before Trial Magistrate Robert M. Maroney, Bartenfelder told him of his plight and said he had opened some three miles of road. He added that the campers were running out of oil and he was fearful they would be snowed in with perhaps a serious illness.

Maroney heard the young man plead guilty to unauthorized use of a motor vehicle and sentenced him to thirty days in the county jail but suspended the sentence upon condition he be of good behavior.

The magistrate never did learn whether they got out before the man became seriously ill.

"Snowbow" Is Visible

A rainbow is a rather common sight, but did you ever hear of a "snowbow"? It is a coined word and about the only thing that will describe what Rev. Stanley Earhart, and several persons saw about 8:15 Wednesday morning.

All the colors of the rainbow were there, except it wasn't raining. But it was snowing and the minister said the "snowbow" was somewhat in the shape of a horse-shoe. It was not quite as distinct as a rainbow but it was there. People from downtown Oakland and neighbors of Pastor Earhart confirmed the fact. The object was visible, of course, in the east. Someone in the office just about ruined this story when he looked in the encyclopedia and claimed this phenomena was a snow-blink. A snow-blink is a light reflected from snow and ice.

Stores To Remain Open

Most stores in the Oakland area are now starting to remain open in the evenings and will continue to do so until Christmas.

Blizzard Closes School Two Days; Mercury Hits —12

Over 18 Inches Of Snow Piled In County; Break May Come Today

A blizzard of mid-winter proportions struck Garrett county last Thursday afternoon and before it ended there was over 18 inches of snow on the ground, schools were closed for two days, and the area was experiencing extreme cold weather, in spite of being almost clear and sunny.

Similar weather chilled most of the nation and put freezing temperatures down to 12 below zero Wednesday morning at the official weather station at Weber's south of town. It hit 5 below this morning but a break was expected today.

The mercury had been dropping steadily since the blizzard of Thursday night and Friday. Eight inches of snow was recorded Thursday, with additional snow on Friday and Saturday, amounting to approximately 5 and 2 inches. Sunday night an additional 3 1/2 inches of new snow fell to bring the total for the week to 18 1/2.

Winds whipped the powdery stuff into big drifts and although state roads remained open, a number of the county roads were closed. Schools were called off Friday and again Monday, taking two of the three days that are allowed during the winter months without having to make up the days lost.

There was one-lane traffic on some of the state highways Thursday night and Friday morning but no further trouble was experienced. Continuous effort was necessary however, to keep the roads clear.

Breaks Knee Cap

Harold Trickett, while returning to Washington, D. C. Sunday night, by automobile collided with another vehicle near Coonville, and sustained a broken knee cap. L. J. Sacher, riding with him, was not hurt.

Trickett underwent surgery Monday at the Garrett County Memorial hospital and remains a patient there. This is the same leg which was broken while working for the West Maryland Power company a few years ago.

Trickett said as he rounded a slight turn he saw headlights of one car and tail lights of another, both cars blocking the highway. He said he had no other choice than to strike one of the vehicles. Trickett was attending an electronics school in Washington. He and Mr. Sacher, who works for an engineering firm in that city, had come home by train for the week-end and were enroute back to work in Trickett's auto.

To Show Slides At Rotary

The Rev. Shelby Walthall, rector of St. Matthew's Episcopal church, Oakland, will show slides and speak about his recent trip to Mexico and Central America this summer, at the weekly meeting of the Oakland Rotary club on Friday evening.

Mr. Walthall spent two months this summer on his trip to six different countries and traveled some 11,000 miles. He plans to dwell on the rising influence of communism in these countries during a portion of his talk.

Road Commission Outlines 20 Year Program of Action

Dual Line Highway For Rt 40 Is Among First Phase Projects

The State Roads commission, at a meeting in the court house, Oakland Monday morning, presented to legislators, new and old County Commissioners and other interested persons a needs study program just completed, as it pertains to Garrett County. The Commission also pointed out how it fits into the new twenty-year program now being undertaken by the roads group.

The local program was worked out with the local planning commission, the County Commissioners, members of the State Roads commission and the State Planning commission.

Wilson T. Ballard, consulting engineer working with the SBC, pointed out that the needs study compiled was requested by the 1962 General Assembly in Joint Senate Resolution 13 passed last February.

The plan, he said, would be subject to periodic review for adjustments in order to give succeeding legislature members an up to date and clear picture of the roads situation.

Ballard said the study has been sorely needed for a long time. Thoroughly examined was the entire roads system from major arteries in to the level of primary and secondary roads in counties and in the 159 cities and municipalities of the state.

Working teams made a complete study of engineering, planning, fiscal study as well as functional classification of the highways in the "best interest of the state." Taken into consideration was the anticipated economic growth of the state during the next two decades.

Referring to Garrett county the needs were placed in three phases. For the primary phase was the completion of U. S. route 40 as a dual line highway, from the Allegany county line to the Pennsylvania line; the completion of U. S. 219, from Deep Creek to McHenry, and from Accident to U. S. route 40; and the completion of route 135 from Altamont to the top of the mountain.

In the secondary phase was the upgrading of route 495; highway 42 out of Friendsville, improvement of U. S. route 50, from Gorman to the West Virginia line west of Red House, and the construction of a by-pass of Deep Creek on U. S. 219. The final phase includes the construction of a parkway along the crest of Savage, and joining to the crest of Backbone mountain, eventually joining with the West Virginia proposed parkway which starts in the vicinity of Gorman and goes to Richwood. Judge Hamill Gives $27,200 As Damages After Civil Trial Judgments totaling $27,200 were awarded Monday in the Garrett County Circuit Court by Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill, who presided at a civil suit involving a three-vehicle accident on U. S. route 40, east of Grantsville on July 3, 1960. No jury was involved in trying the case.

Mrs. Charlotte Walker, Elkridge, who was injured in the accident, was given a judgment of $20,000; her husband, Brook L. Walker, $7,000 for medical expenses, loss of his wife's services, and property damage, and her son $200 for minor injuries.

Judge Hamill dismissed the case against Mrs. Ruth Dell, Pikesville, driver of one of the vehicles, and ruled she was not responsible in the accident. The other defendant, Delbert P. Smith, of Dunbar, driver of the third vehicle, did not appear for the trial. He was represented by William Gilchrist, of Cumberland.

Testimony revealed that Smith was operating a car east on the highway when he rammed into the rear of a station wagon driven by Mrs. Dell, forcing it into the west-bound lane of traffic and causing a head-on collision with the car driven by Brooks L. Walker. Mrs. Walker was in the car with her son.

Among those testifying were T. Charles V. Snow and Dr. Robert Fendley, William C. Walsh, William Walsh, Cumberland, and W. Dwight Stover, Oakland, represented the Walkers. S. R. Parnhardt represented Mrs. Dell.

The American Way

"Profits"—A Lovely Word
By Harry Browne

The way the word "profits" gets kicked around, you'd think it was synonymous with "child-stealing."

Yet profits have produced everything we have. Without them, what would give an employer the incentive to risk his savings to provide work for others? Who would have bothered to produce all of the modern conveniences we take for granted—such as the newspaper you're now reading?

The hope of profit has spurred man to most of his greatest achievements. And we too often forget what a man is required to do in order to obtain profits.

There is only one thing in the world that can produce profits. That one thing is service. In order to receive profits, a capitalist must provide a genuinely-needed or desired service. In a free economy, there's no other way.

What Are Profits?

Profits are a measure of the service we give.

The more service a man provides—the more he answers the real needs and wants of society—the more profits he will probably receive. If he has nothing of genuine value to offer, who will voluntarily provide him with a profit?

The man who can produce the greatest good for the greatest number of people will be the man who makes the most profit.

That's the beauty of the free enterprise system. In order to make money, a man has to help others. Altruism is built into the system. No regulation or slave labor is necessary.

Neglecting System

Unfortunately, however, we have allowed our free enterprise system to fall into disrepair. We have allowed government to create artificial incentives and barriers.

Men now receive profit from the government for performing work that is not genuinely needed by society. And legislation is passed conferring artificial advantages to labor unions so they can gain personal profits without serving.

And while providing false incentive on one hand, government is also placing artificial barriers in front of the genuine incentive to service. Businesses are penalized for serving too much, thereby reaping more than the "allowable limit" of profits.

Solution Overlooked

Politicians supposedly lay awake nights trying to think of ways to bring the greatest good to the greatest number. It's a shame they are blind to the only answer that can possibly produce that worthy objective. History has proven that only free enterprise can produce the greatest good.

To make it real again in America, we must pass the Liberty Amendment, clean out the oppressive regulatory agencies, and stop penalizing success in business.

The utopia that socialists and communists think is over the rainbow, is really right under their noses. Let's bring back the profit system!

Gov. Tawes Not Candidate For U. S. Senate In 1964

Gov. Tawes, discredited by a published report that he was considering running for the U. S. Senate in 1964, said he was too busy winding up his first term as governor and preparing for his second to even think about the U. S. Senate.

There had been considerable speculation about whom the Democrats might run against Senator J. Glenn Beck if he decides to seek reelection to a third six-year term in 1964. U. S. Attorney Joseph D. Tydings, David Munn, George P. Mahoney, Herbert R. O'Connor Jr., Rep-elect Carlton R. Sickles and Rep. Richard C. Lankford have all been mentioned in editorial talk as potential candidates.

Right To Work

The position of Lockheed Aircraft in the current dispute with the International Assn. of Machinists certainly is to be commended by individuals who believe in freedom. Lockheed, despite the pressure from the union and its allies in the federal government, is standing on the principle that only an individual should decide whether he will join and pay dues to any organization.

The union, with support from Big Brother John F. Kennedy, struck only because Lockheed refused to grant an election on establishment of a union shop, under which all eligible workers would be required to join the union to keep their jobs. Lockheed is sticking by the principle that a vote of a majority or two-thirds does not make a decision right. Lockheed says it will not consent to an election or any other device that could force as many as 14,000 non-union people to join the union and pay dues or lose their jobs. It points out that these employees now are free to join the union without any objection from the company.

It is not a question of having a union or not having a union. This is a question of compulsory unionism, with the union having the right to impose its will on all, regardless of the individual wishes of workers. The vote at other aerospace plants indicates there are some union workers who do not go along with the union brass idea of compelling everyone to join and pay dues to enhance the union bosses' own organization.

Issues such as the union shop should never be brought to a vote, if a single individual objects, he should not be required to belong to an organization in order to keep his job.

County Reports 560 Deer Killed

Garrett Takes Allegany Reports 700 Killed

Garrett county dropped into the runner-up spot in deer kills for the second straight year, being topped by Allegany county once more following the completion of the second-day season.

The inclement weather of Thursday and Friday cut down the total heavily and the county fell behind the kill of 1961.

The total at present for the season was 560 compared to 638 reported last year. Allegany county led the state in deer kills with 700. The Maryland unofficial total for the seven days was 4,653.

The daily kills in this county were reported as follows: 267, 110, 83, 47, 12, 9, 31, total 655. The totals by checking stations: Carroll's Sport shop in Oakland, 165; Storey's Deep Creek Lake, 95; Yough Motor, Friendsville, 83; Edwards garage, Grantsville, 132; LaVale, 27; Westport, 51; other 7.

The Department of Game and Inland Fish reported that Maryland hunters failed to equal last year's or 1960's deer kill. The 4,033 deer kills this year compared to 4,218 in 1961 and 4,539 in 1960. Washington county had 324 Others: Carroll 106, Frederick 199, Howard 13, Anne Arundel 17, Calvert 50, Charles 151, Prince Georges 9, St. Marys 16, Baltimore 85, Cecil 220, Harford 50, Caroline 57, Kent 274, Queen Annes 71, Talbot 91, Dorchester 256, Somerset 92, Worcester 78, Worcester 106, Edgewood Chemical center 191, and Aberdeen Proving ground 144.

Over thirty illegal kills were reported by game wardens. There were no extra wardens this year from other parts of the state to assist the local wardens. The resident wardens, from the records in the magistrates' offices, were busy most of the week. A list of arrests appears in another story.

Also classes on "Tank Infantry Operations", given by Sgts. Clark and Miller. Second period was on the job training" with head personnel of each department advising. The company commander, Lt. Bank, Farm Meeting Conducted Yesterday

Approximately 100 bankers and agricultural leaders of Garrett and Allegany counties gathered for a Bankers Agricultural conference yesterday at the Will O' The Wisp on Deep Creek Lake.

"Boundless Opportunities in Agriculture" was the theme which got under way around 10:30 under sponsorship of the banks of the two counties and the Maryland Banking association.

Master of ceremonies was Willis Hancock, assistant vice president, Maryland National Bank, Baltimore, and chairman of the Agricultural committee of the Maryland Bankers association.

Dr. Paul R. Poffenberger, assistant dean for instruction, College of Agriculture, University of Maryland, spoke on "Tomorrow's Opportunities for Today's Farm Youth." Rudolph Brown, agricultural consultant for the Maryland National Bank, Eastern, spoke on "A Banker Answers the Farmers' Questions."

During the luncheon "Highlights of U. S. Agriculture," were shown in a series of slides by Mr. Hancock. Also on the program was Dr. John M. Curtis, head of the agricultural - Economics department, University of Maryland, who spoke on "Conservation."

Good Skiing Over Week-End

Skiing got under way officially on Marsh Mountain on Saturday and the week-end was full of activity for perhaps two hundred skiers.

There were representatives from the (state area and the District of Columbia with those from the nation's capital including officials from the Austrian embassy.

The Marsh Mountain slopes are covered with better than fifteen inches of snow. Since there was no advance information that the conditions were excellent. The town would have suitable skiing over the week-end, the number showing skiing conditions have continued to be considered surprising to read this week but the temperature has been on the cold side.

During Sunday morning conditions were described as average. Some 150 carpenter struck at but by later afternoon they were Nevada atomic test.

Listen Americans!

... by Dr. George S. Benson
PRESIDENT - NATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAM
Searcy, Arkansas

According to Associated Press reports, the annual convention of the National Education Association in Denver heard a panel discussion last June which advised teachers and educators to fight back at "right wing extremists." This was the advice of several educators in a session on "Thunder on the Right and Education." One of the speakers lumped the "right wing" with the Communists when he said that the only way to counter all the extremist revolutionaries is to expose their methods.

Whatever happened to educators who consider ideas? But this is the way it goes. One of the panelists, a prominent educational leader called upon "true lovers of freedom" to challenge "openly, aggressively, and unrelentlessly" their opposition? But what opposition? The Communists? No, he was calling for this kind of action against Americans who have been aiming the most telling blows at Communism. Anybody who exposes the Red Menace must be heckled and belittled.

This sort of thing makes it obvious that the Communists have outfoxed the Liberals. The support they are able to obtain from Liberals is the greatest hoax of our time.

Whittaker Chambers commented in his book, Witness, that when he took up his sling and aimed at Communism, he hit something else. "What I hit," he wrote, "was the forces of that great 'Socialist revolution' which, in the name of liberalism has been inching its icecap over the nation for two decades." Lenin vowed that the U. S. would be forced to spend itself to destruction, and now the promoters of the American socialist state are trying their best to follow through for him.

Is Mr. Khrushchev pleased by our march toward socialism? Well, apparently he is continuing to count on it to bring victory to the Reds, for the Communist Party here and in Russia has many times urged our peaceful acceptance of socialism through legislation. Why should the Soviet army undertake military campaigns, when a little patience plus infiltration can do a thorough job of conquest? The Reds have the experience to prove that their plan works. They think it will work with America.

Mr. Khrushchev has voiced this idea many times. An example was in a speech last June in Rumania, quoted by the Associated Press: "I am convinced that tomorrow the Red flag will fly over the United States. But we will not fly the flag. It will be the American people themselves." In other words, he is counting on the internal factors of apathy, negligence, misinformation, and ignorance plus the disservice of misled Americans who espouse socialism and who fight his battles for him.

Moreover, Mr. Khrushchev is counting on the U. S. to foster socialism abroad, supporting it with foreign aid. We have been doing this for years, and of course he appreciates it. In the name of social justice and redistribution of wealth, American taxpayers have been supporting socialist experiments around the world which, if continued will destroy the institution of private property. Whenever this is done the Communists can then come on in with their propagandists, saboteurs, and technicians and finish the job without firing a shot. It is time for Americans to wake up.

Sees Doe With Collar

Mrs. Lloyd Bowser and Mrs. LeRoy Carr, while driving along on U. S. 219, north of Oakland, and near the Forndale church one day this week, spotted a deer with a collar around its neck, which ran across the highway.

The doe seemed wild. Whether or not it was a pet of some person, was not known.

nually. After 1970 the balance on the principal could be paid in equal yearly installments of around $46,000 with the interest decreasing approximately $1,800 per year. Under the present program by 1970 the county would not have to put up any local funds to complete amortization on all school bonded indebtedness.

Mr. Hawkins said he believed the plan to be feasible and worthy of consideration. He said the board had not intention of coercing the plan or any other upon the people of the county but that the educational welfare of nearly 2,000 boys and girls could be greatly improved by the proposed move.

He said the school board offered an alternate proposal but only as a last resort. It had originally considered a five science room addition plus an additional shop at Southern and two classroom addition at Bennett road, which would allow relief from present conditions and could be accomplished with an expenditure of around $250,000.

But he pointed out the plan would not remedy the overcrowded conditions at Southern in such areas as library, shops, cafeteria, gym, toilets, corridors, etc., nor provide full relief needed at Bennett Road and Center street.

Bennett Road school now has 385 enrolled with a capacity of 320. Center Street has 410 with a capacity of 360, and Southern High has 1175 with a capacity of 900, making the present overcrowding of the three schools 380.

George Stuck is permanent chairman of the building committee. Among those attending Tuesday's session were Mrs. Mary Martin, Mrs. Edward Smouse, Mrs. Guy William Hinebaugh, Walter DeBerry, Emilie Germain, Mrs. Robert Stanton, Mrs. Charles Knotts, William Platter, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Laskey, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Feld, Thomas Browning, Mrs. Kenneth Lawton, Ross Crowe, Kenneth Johns, Mrs. Herbert Bittinger, Mrs. I. L. Bigler, Mrs. William Naylor, I. R. Rudy, Jr., and Ernest Spierlein in addition to the county commissioners and legislators.

ing link with Savage and Backbone would be through Bloomington and up Savage to U. S. route 40, it was pointed out.

The transportation system in Garrett county must be well maintained in order that new industry may develop and also for the tourist trade which is considered "big business."

A similar meeting for Allegany county was held Monday afternoon, and other sessions are set up for the entire state.

Search

in.

The search was hampered as snow continued to fall and no traces of the man were found.

Sheriff James E. Frantz announced that the search had been called off until some of the 18-inch accumulated snow in the area had melted.

Some of the searchers voiced the possibility that he had found a hunting cabin somewhere and had obtained shelter there. However the past several nights have been bitterly cold.

At one time 40 searchers were in the vicinity where Rounds was last seen, spread out at double arms length and moved through the area near the fire tower on Meadow Mountain without avail.

The County Roads department is sending a plow to the Meadow Mt.

would enable the bank to present a stronger capital ratio to deposits and risk assets, but would place it in a position to offer more adequate loan accommodations to industry and business.

Under the proposal the owner of every four shares will receive one share without cost and be entitled to subscribe for two shares of the new stock for every five shares that he would then own.

Mr. Littman said tentative approval of the proposal already had been obtained from supervisory authorities for the recommendations, pending stockholder approval. Reardon Purbaugh and W. Blair Simmons were named to act for stockholders who return proxies.

Should the recommendations be approved the bank will have capital, surplus and undivided profits totaling over $1 million and total resources of over $10 million.

Blizzard

At one time State police were concerned about 12 deer hunters and their vehicles reportedly stranded along Russell road in the back woods of the Axilton area.

The Mt. Storm-Allegany front area on U. S. route 50 was hard hit. At Mt. Storm there was an accumulation of about 15 inches of snow. The blizzard was accompanied by winds reaching at times more than 50 miles per hour. There was power trouble experienced by the Potomac Edison company but the difficulties were cleared up by Friday evening.

The Pennsylvania turnpike was closed to traffic for a time. While light snow continued to fall, there was only slight additional drifting and schools resumed Tuesday morning. More absences than usual were reported.

A brief resume of the week's weather showed the blizzard Thursday, with Friday having a number of county roads drifted shut with school called off. The temperature was 19 degrees. Saturday was clear and warm with additional snow falling Sunday and high winds starting up again in late afternoon and evening. Schools were called off again Monday with official temperature reading at 8 above zero but other thermometers registering down to zero. Schools resumed Tuesday with an official reading of 7 above, but zero again on a number of thermometers. Snow fell lightly Wednesday morning the mercury registered an official 12 below and four above zero was the highest for the day which was mostly clear. It was back to zero at 8 p. m., which showed some moderation over a 1 below reading at 5.

Northon High School's Huskies belatedly opened their season last night by securing a 61-51 victory over Terra Alta High on the West Virginia school's floor.

The Huskies had been scheduled to open their campaign last Friday with Bruce High of Westmoreport, but a heavy snowstorm forced postponement.

Larry Yommer banged in 25 points for the Huskies who broke the game open in the final quarter after holding a scant two-point edge 41 to 39 at the close of the third period. Parsons was high man for the losers with 17.

For the Huskies Speicher scored 13 points, Shumaker 5, McGraw 10, Dietrick 8. Hawks was non-scoring. For Terra Alta Fouch scored 9, Hardesty 9, Schrock 14, Fraley 2. The Huskies hit on 17 of 24 fouls while Terra Alta got 11 out of 19. Northern outscored the Terra Alta team 22 to 20 from the field.

Unjustified Kid Gloves

One of the difficult domestic problems with which the last Congress wrestled was the huge post office deficit. The result was a Postal Service bill creating increases in various classifications of mail rates. Newspapers, for example, will pay three to ten percent increases with the first to take effect on the first day of the coming year.

However, Congress wore kid gloves when it came to publications of the Rural Electric Co-ops. Formerly, according to Editor and Publisher, these publications paid a one-half cent rate. The new bill gives them a special rate of about one-eighth cent per copy.

The general manager of the American Newspapers Publishers Association states that there is "no justification for this special privilege." Another comment says, "So REA groups will now be able to enjoy a financial advantage which for propagandizing against their prime target, the investor-owned private power industry. Meanwhile, the publications of the private power industry will be compelled to pay the regular rates to tell their side of the story."

There are 28 REC publications. Their circulation is about 3 million. They carry advertising. They are all actually engaged in attempting to extend the REA scheme. And no one can say the REA co-ops, or anything connected with them, are poor and struggling enterprises in need of special help. The REA movement is big business—and it is a big business conducted with government loans at below-cost rates, plus other special privileges, including tax advantages, which are denied to private enterprise.

The least one can ask is that the REA co-ops operate on precisely the same basis as do comparable utilities in the production and distribution of electric power. This means paying the same costs—whether those costs be taxes, interest rates on borrowed money, or the mail charges on their publications. This country's rural electrification problem, was solved long ago—more than 95 per cent of all farms are using central station power or have it available. There is no longer an excuse for giving the co-ops special privileges.

22 Game Violations Net Fines of $1,275

Some twenty-two persons, charged with breaking the game laws and regulations were given hearings within the past ten days, resulting in fines of $1,275 plus costs.

Whenever counsel was involved for the defendants, the cases were prosecuted by Fred A. Thayer, state's attorney.

The hearings were held before Magistrate Edward Crowe in Grantsville and Robert M. Maroney in Oakland. Arrests were made by game wardens, Robert Brown, Francis Ruge, Leo Friend and Deputy Harold Harmon. There were no extra wardens on duty this year from other counties, according to Mr. Thayer.

Spotlighting and having illegal deer meat in possession brought $100 fines while fines were lesser for the lesser violations.

At Grantsville

Three cases were heard at Grantsville. Ken McKenrick, Spring Gap, for hunting racoon in closed season, entered a plea of not guilty but was found guilty and fined $25 and costs. Robert McMillan, Midland, pleaded not guilty on the same charge, but was found guilty and also fined $25 and costs. Reed Smeerman was found not guilty of having an improper license.

Heard at Oakland

Walter I. Collins, Baltimore, forfeited collateral of $200 and costs for having two deer in his possession.

Donald Parker, Akron, charged with giving false information to procure a license, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $50 and costs. John Brooks, of Bayard, entered a guilty plea to a similar charge and was fined $50 and costs, with the fine being suspended. Edward Whittaker, Garfield Heights, O., pleaded guilty to giving false information to procure a license and was fined $50 and costs.

Four persons were apprehended for spotlighting with firearms in possession. All entered pleas of not guilty but were found guilty and each fined $100 and costs.

Southern High School will hold its annual College Tea on Thursday, December 20, from 1:15 to 3:00 P.M.

Because of the number of students who are planning to further their education, individual invitations will be sent out this year. Juniors and seniors of Southern High School who are planning to further their education by attending college will be attending the tea. They will have an opportunity to ask questions and hear discussions on the classroom and social and religious opportunities at the various colleges and universities.

the total of "money available".

The report came from the Maryland Board of Revenue Estimates. State spending has been rising around $20 million a year. State budget director James G. Rennie, indicated the next general fund budget would rise around $25 million or more to a new total in the neighborhood of $300 million. The state started the fiscal year with an accumulated surplus of $108 million. It was revised upward because of booming collections of income and sales taxes.

Rennie said total state spending for next year, including special funds from gasoline taxes and other earmarked revenue and federal aid to the state, would edge up near the $600 million mark. It was $555 million for the current fiscal year.

Annual Christmas Choral Program Will Take Place On December 19

The annual Christmas program of the Southern junior and senior choruses will be presented on Wednesday, December 19, at 8:00 p. m.

Two matinees will be given the next day for students. The junior chorus, directed by Miss Colabrese, will open the program with their traditional processional "O Come All Ye Faithful." Other numbers include "The Sleigh" by Kuntz-Nash, with a lively Russian flavor; the beautiful "Little Lamb, Who Made Thee," by Blake-Roll; an old favorite, "The Twelve Days of Christmas," and a Spanish carol, "Fum, Fum, Fum." Narrators and slides will be used depicting Roy Ringwald's "The Christmas Crib."

A girls' octet will sing "No Place Like Home for the Holidays" by Stillman-Allen; "Ring These Christmas Bells" by Fisher-Levene, will be sung by a mixed group, and a modern version of "Jolly Old St. Nicholas" sung by the girls' chorus. "Twas the Night Before Christmas" by Moore-Darby, with Santa, Mother, Father, and 12 children, and "We Wish You a Merry Christmas" are the final selections.

The senior chorus, directed by Mrs. Turney, will open its part of the program with "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel," an ancient Plainsong. This is to be followed by a traditional English song, "The Holly and the Ivy." Other numbers to be included in the program will be "Did Mary Know" by Richard Averro, "Christ Was Born on Christmas Day," a traditional German song; "Carol of the Bells" by M. Leonovich, "O Bethlehem," a Spanish folk song, and "Lo, How a Rose" by Michael Praetorius.

The girls' glee club will sing "How Far Is It To Bethlehem" by Geoffrey Shaw, and "No Candle Was There and No Fire" by Liza Lehmann.

Following the custom of past years they will close the concert with the "Hallelujah Chorus" from The Messiah, by George F. Handel.

Chorus Presents Christmas Opera

Friday, December 21, the Southern Senior High Chorus under the direction of Mrs. Nancy Turney will present an opera entitled "Amahl and the Night Visitors." This is the first time the chorus has ever attempted to do anything of this nature. The opera by Gian-Carlo Menotti has been a great hit at Christmas time on television for the past few years.

The program will be held in the school gym at 8:00 and will last approximately an hour.

Sue Martin will play the lead role of Amahl, a little crippled boy from a very poor family. His widowed mother is portrayed by Kay Bowman. The Kings will be played by Ronald McDaniell, Lloyd Bittinger, and Jerry McClung, with Jack Jones as the Page.

The Kings are on their way following the star when they stop at Amahl's home for food and rest. They carry great riches with them, and when Amahl's mother spies them she intends to take some.

The climax of the story comes when Amahl gives his greatest gift to the Blessed Child, and a miracle is performed.

Iraq Improves Tourist Attractions

The Summer Resort and Tourism Service of the Republic of Iraq is now busily engaged in several projects aimed at improving summer resorts and tourist centers, providing amusement, sports and rest houses to encourage more visitors to come and partake of the country's scenic and historical wonders.

The Habbaniyah area is receiving a great deal of attention. Located in central Iraq, it is noted for fine weather and fascinating scenery, and is both a summer and a winter resort. The Service has built a modern casino with accompanying cabins and all other facilities necessary to make the visitor's stay pleasant. Thirty larger houses also were built to be rented at short period accommodations for comfort-loving tourists. There is a special swimming pool for children within parent's vision of the cabins and houses. Also in the Habbaniyah area, the Afforestation Department has begun planting trees which will beautify the surroundings and moderate the climate.

The historically important religious city of Karbala, visited by pilgrims from all over the Islamic world, is equally deserving of the recent attention given it by the Tourism Service. After a survey of the cities of interest to visitors, the Service determined that Karbala was not keeping up with the general rate of progress, especially in building, in the various parts of Iraq. The agency's experts decided to promote the construction of a large first class hotel in the city to handle the influx of visitors and serve as a model to inspire similar investment on the part of local businessmen should it prove a successful venture.

The new Karbala hotel will be situated on a spacious, 10,000 sq. yard plot of land in the al-Husseini district on the Karbala-Najaf highway. The building is of the most modern design. It will be air-conditioned throughout its two stories and 74 rooms. Also, each room will have a private bathroom and balcony. This model tourist hotel will have three large banquet and meeting rooms. Outside it will be surrounded by spacious gardens, complete with fountains and ponds.

Another casino-hotel complex is under construction for the Tourism Service at the historical Iraq city of Babylon. Visitors to this famous point of interest to tourists may soon be royally housed and entertained while resting from their day-long expeditions to the ruins of the ancient city. The first two floors of the hotel already are completed.

At the site of the ruins themselves, work is also in progress on a fountain in front of Ishtar Gate. Its arches will hold the famous Hammurabi Obelisk.

Ukhaidir, walled fortress-palace in the desert, one of the points of interest near Karbala, Iraq.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gortner talked by phone to his sister, Mrs. Anna Bittinger, from St. Petersburg, Fla., on Sunday evening. The Gortners left Florida by car on Monday, for California to spend the holidays with their daughter.

Mrs. Forrest Gortner is spending several days near Washington with her daughter, Mary.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sisk, Mr. and Mrs. Osborne Beckman and Mr. and Mrs. LeMayne Kim spent Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Foley at Gorman's.

The Swan Meadow school children, who were stranded because of the snow storm, spent the night at Atter Hershberger's and Dwight Snyder's. Some of their anxious parents made it on tractors on Friday to bring their children home.

Misses Freida and Grace Lichty, arrived home from Oakland on Thursday evening, were compelled to spend the night at John C. Yoder's. John bucked the storm to let Mrs. Lichty know of their whereabouts.

Mrs. Otis Swiger and Newton Beckman, who were returning from work in Oakland on Thursday evening, were forced to walk part way to their homes.

Mrs. Otis Swiger visited Mrs. Delbert Swartzentruber, on Saturday.

ITS RELIABILITY COMES FROM ITS QUALITY

A nutshell description of Chevrolet trucks could be "Trucks That Work". It's not exactly earthshaking but it says a mouthful. It's what Chevrolet trucks are best known for—their reliability. Ready to work, day after day, whenever you are.

You can't build trucks that perform like this if you don't put quality into engine, chassis and body. Chevrolet does: double-wall construction, insulated cab, select-wood body floor, chain-supported tailgate, ladder-type frame, the careful attention to upholstery and finish. It's this kind of quality that makes any Chevrolet truck—from pickup to heavyweight tandem—worth more on the average at trade-in!

Valley Is Winner Over Southern 57-35

Exploding for 25 points in the final quarter the Valley High Black Knights of Lonaconing chalked up their first victory of the season Tuesday night by defeating Southern Highlanders 57 to 35 at Oakland.

The Knights led by eight points at the end of the third period and outscored Southern by a 25-11 margin in the decisive final eight minutes.

Philip Shockey tossed in 21 points and Lowell Snyder added 13 for the Valley eagles. Jay Rice spearheaded the losers' attack with 14.

The triumph was the first in two starts for the Knights who dropped a 51-50 decision to Keyser in their opener last Friday. The contest was the first of the season for the Highlanders who were snowed out of their scheduled opener with Elk Garden last Friday night.

In the opener for the jayvees junior varsity the Valley High jayvees won over the Southern jayvees 46-24.

ROBIN HOOD FLOUR IS A PRODUCT OF INTERNATIONAL MILLING COMPANY

Our First Telephone

The Garrett County Telephone Company

by Ross C. Durst

Although the telephone was invented in 1876, for a time, it was considered only a toy and it was a bit late in arriving in our community. I believe it was in the summer of 1890 that we received the electrifying news that the Garrett County Telephone Company was building a telephone line across the mountain from Bittering that would pass directly in front of our home.

Vivacious "Billy" Smith of Hoyes was the president of the company and its moving spirit. M. Mattingly, Hoyes, was secretary-treasurer. The directors were Joseph McCrobb, O. Klandt, C. V. Guard, Friandville, William Miller, Accident and later, James M. Durst, New Germany. Thus all sections of the county were represented.

Following hard on the heels of the news, workmen appeared and began planting poles and erecting wires. Ordinary galvanized fence wire was used. Two wires were strung. One was for the use of the local subscribers; the other was reserved for long-distance calls. A local exchange was established at Bittering and another at New Germany. All subscribers between these two points were on the same party line. Fifteen or twenty subscribers were not uncommon.

The company built and maintained the lines on the highway and the subscribers built and maintained the lines on their own property. Also, each subscriber bought, owned and maintained his own telephone. They were of the wall type and were securely screwed to the wall. To talk, it was necessary to stand in front of the telephone. It might be assumed that this would discourage long conversations. Such was not the case.

Since the current was carried by a single wire, it was necessary to use the ground for the return current. A steel or copper rod was driven into the ground and the other side of the circuit was connected to it. This system worked satisfactorily so long as the ground remained damp but in dry weather it frequently failed. A thorough soaking of the ground around the ground-rod was all that was necessary to restore it to service.

We had just sufficient time to become accustomed to the novelty of the new gadget when word was received that a competing company was invading the same region. The area was a barely able to support one company financially. The new companies line ran along the same route as the old line. The Pennsylvania and West Virginia Telephone Company or some such combination of names. Such was the haste to get into competition that in many cases, crossarms were nailed onto trees whose tops had been cut out. Frequently the two companies line ran along the same highway but on opposite sides of the road. Some subscribers used existing fence posts to carry the wires. In wet weather, the loss of current became very troublesome.

The two companies divided the community into two camps. They were not exactly hostile camps but the subscribers on one line looked with some disfavor on any of their neighbors who should choose to use the other company. These tensions and groupings were common in rural communities. They also occurred along political and religious lines. One tended to overlook the faults of their own group while magnifying the mistakes of the opposite group.

The first rental rates were quite low, something like 50 cents per month. In order to gain new subscribers, the new company made a slight reduction in rates. This was promptly followed by a reduction by the Garrett County Company and a disastrous rate war was on. Billy Smith stated that his company would give free service if their competitors cared to go that far. The inevitable result was that both companies were seriously weakened financially. The Garrett Company managed to hold out the longest and they took over the lines and other property of the other company. The rates could not be raised too abruptly and as late as 1911 the rate was still $5 per year. The last directory, issued in 1911, contained the names of 925 subscribers. The company was still in existence in 1912 when I left the county but it was sold soon after to The Chesapeake & Potomac Company.

One reason why the low rates could be maintained was that the cost of material and labor was extremely low. I had soon learned to use the climbing spurs and for years I did most of the repair work in the neighborhood. This included the repair and serving of the telephones as well as the lines. A service charge of 50 cents was the standard rate for servicing a telephone. In an old notebook, I find

SANTA CLAUS GOES MODERN—BY DICK MANSFIELD

Ask Santa for a seat belt for Christmas, the Maryland Traffic Safety Commission advises. The automobile seat belt is the most effective device for preventing serious injuries and deaths that has been developed in recent years. A seat belt cannot prevent an accident—only safe driving can do that, however, in accidents—and one can happen to a good driver through no fault of his own—the seat belt has an outstanding record for preventing serious injury and death. Install seat belts in your car and use them. Remember, seat belts are not a panacea for safety. You must drive with care, caution and courtesy at all times and especially during the holiday season.

Don't drink and drive, and observe all speed laws and rules of the road. This will insure your safety and that of your fellow-man.

Give a gift of safety for Christmas.

This notation under date of Jan. 11, 1912, "Accident—3 hrs. work on Dr. R's line—60 cents." This was at the rate of 20 cents per hour. Later in the summer, for some reason, the rate seems to have gone down. Under date of July 19, 1912 is this notation: "10 hrs. work on Bond line—$1.50". This comes to 15 cents per hour. Just to prove that this was not an error in time-keeping, there are six other entries in July and August at the same rate.

I can still recall going about from house to house with a little black bag of tools, making well the ailing and faltering telephones, much in the tradition of the country doctor. I believe, too, that I was received in the same spirit. I made many lasting friends while on these missions of mercy.

A few more details on the old wall telephone might be helpful. The current for carrying the voice was furnished by two dry cells in the bottom of the box. The signaling of other subscribers was done by turning a crank on the side of the box. The signals consisted of a series of long and short rings. If a subscriber's receiver was off the hook, it was practically impossible to ring a number.

During the summer months it was a common occurrence for lightning to strike the lines and run into the houses. Most subscribers disconnected their phone during thunder storms. The lightning would then jump from the end of the wire with a loud pop. Some subscribers connected the end of the wire to the ground rod. This virtually put the entire party line out of commission.

The original construction was financed by the sale of stock. Certainly, no stockholder ever received any dividends. Just how they fared at the sale of the company is unknown to the writer.

We soon discovered one of the interesting phenomena of telephone lines, namely, the high musical humming which the wires give off when the atmospheric conditions are just right. When walking or riding along the quiet country roads at night, it created the eerie sensation of music coming from outer space.

A number of interesting customs grew up around the party-line system. Since each subscriber heard all his neighbors' calls, it was considered entirely proper to "listen in" to any conversation in which he might be interested. Frequently, a neighbor would break into the conversation and a four or five way marathon would result. This was not considered eaves-dropping but was understood and accepted by all. This may seem strange to people accustomed to using private lines or two-party lines but to understand it, one must consider the circumstances of the times. Previous to the coming of the telephone, we had virtually no contact with the outside world, not even a daily newspaper. News had to be passed along from person to person. When President McKinley was assassinated in the fall of 1901, we received the news by telephone almost within the hour. This was considered a great triumph for the telephone.

In assigning calls to the subscribers, the single short ring was left unassigned. A continuous series of short rings was a signal of trouble such as fires or serious illness. In response to this call, everyone rushed to the telephone. It was a spine-tingling experience to hear this call for help at night when such emergencies usually happened.

Another interesting practice somehow got started among the younger set and, like Topsy, "just grew". During the long winter evenings, after the adults had finished their conversations and retired, a single short jingle would be heard on the telephone. This was the

Where Do You Stand, Mr. Citizen?

By Harry Browne

(Editor's Note: Harry Browne is the Editor of American Progress Magazine and Managing Editor of American Way Features, Inc.)

With the elections over, it's natural to want to relax and forget about "politics" for another two years. Now that George has been elected, let him take care of things. But "letting George do it" has been an expensive luxury for us—evidenced by the $2,000 per car the average family pays in federal taxes.

For once the election is over, campaign promises to cut federal spending and reduce taxes fade from memory. Now your Congressman will be under the intense pressure of the ever-expanding Washington bureaucracy, pressing for its new pet projects.

Your Views

To counteract this pressure, you must make yourself heard. Now that the din of the campaign has quieted, sit down and write your Congressman-elect a letter. For the past months, he's been telling us where he stands—now's the time to tell him where you stand.

To make it easy for you to get started, just answer the following five questions, clip out this article, and mail it to your new Congressman.

How do you feel about these importance issues:

1. The proposed Liberty Amendment to the Constitution would compel the federal government to give up every business activity not specified in the Constitution (farm subsidies, public power, etc.). The savings gained would be utilized to repeal the personal income tax after a three-year transmission period. Do you believe Congress should submit this amendment to the States for ratification?

Yes..... No.....

United Nations

2. Do you believe that the U. S. should get out of the United Nations and conduct its own foreign policy, based on our concepts of freedom and our national interest?

Yes..... No.....

3. Do you believe we should "quit doing business with the Communists?" In other words, should we end our diplomatic relations, and cut off all trade and aid to Communist countries?

Yes..... No.....

4. Do you favor ending the government foreign aid program?

Yes..... No.....

5. Should we end all farm subsidies?

Yes..... No.....

Your Opportunity

Don't worry about which answers look right. Remember he's your representative. Your honest views are vitally important to him.

Two of Three Fires Cause Slight Damage

Three fires occurred within the past week with two of them causing some damage to residences.

The most serious fire occurred Tuesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cosner and family at Sang Run, caused by an overheated flue. The Oakland firemen received the call about 10:20 and some twenty minutes later were at the scene of the fire, some eighteen miles from Oakland.

They extinguished the blaze by use of the booster line. Damage to the building and contents was estimated at around $200.

A flue fire at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Messing and family, a frame dwelling located across the highway from the Donnell Road school, brought the Oakland firemen to the scene Monday evening about 6:30 o'clock. There was slight damage as the blaze had eaten into a support that rested on the flue, necessitating cutting a hole into the floor.

The third alarm was one of "all smoke and no fire." This was at the home of Mrs. Rose in Hutton last Friday afternoon about 3:50 o'clock. Oakland firemen never did find any flame but they said there was smoke all over the house.

Three Cases Listed For Motor Vehicle Violations

Three persons were apprehended in recent days on charges of violating the motor vehicle laws.

Farris Floyd Gregory, Hutton, pleaded guilty to a charge of operating a motor vehicle without a license and was fined $10 and costs.

Ronald Delmar Dilley, Oakland, pleaded not guilty to a charge of reckless driving and was found not guilty when he appeared before Trial Magistrate Robert M. Maroney. However Dilley pleaded guilty to a charge of operating a car at a speed greater than reasonable and proper and was fined $10 and costs.

NEWSPAPERS MAKE A BIG DIFFERENCE IN PEOPLE'S LIVES

THE DAY THESE WIRE PLIERS CUT THROUGH ROPE

It was a quiet day in a quiet Baltimore neighborhood. Not that telephone lineman Clarence Bivens particularly noticed. He was absorbed in work, at his high perch atop a utility pole.

Suddenly Clarence heard the frightening sound of a child choking. He looked in all directions and at first saw nothing. Then, some hundred yards away, he spotted a small boy hanging by his neck, from a rope tied to a tree limb.

Hardly believing his eyes, Clarence clambered down the pole, dashed to the tree and severed the rope with his pliers.

Happily, the four-year-old boy escaped with just mild rope burns on his neck. Lineman Bivens had prevented a tragic ending to a child's game that had toyed with danger.

For five years, Clarence Bivens has been using his skill and tools to provide dependable telephone service. But his lineman's pliers never performed a more important service than on the day he cut the rope.

Bittinger Normal School Students, 1907

The Bittinger Normal School

By Ross C. Durst

Accustomed as we are to the excellent educational facilities available today, it is difficult to remember what conditions were like in Garrett County in 1907. Parents of that day were just as anxious for their children to have an education as are the parents of today but consider for a moment the situation.

The county was only 34 years old. Born in the panic year of 1893, it had weathered the "hard times" of 1884, the panic of 1893 and a somewhat milder one of 1907. Money was hard to come by. Taxes of necessity had to be low because land values were low. Consequently, little money was available for schools and teachers' salaries.

The starting salary for teachers was $28 per month. If your work was satisfactory, you got a promotion the second year to $30 per month. Under such conditions, too little could not be demanded of teachers in the way of education and training. College degrees were practically unheard of except a few principals of town schools.

Teaching credentials were acquired by taking an annual written examination. For a second grade certificate, the subjects covered in the examination were: spelling, arithmetic, geography, U. S. history, physiology and algebra (to quadratics). Reading ability was tested by reading aloud a selected passage. If one aspired to a first grade certificate, the examinations were somewhat more difficult and the following additional subjects were required: advanced algebra, plane geometry and world history.

To prepare prospective teachers for the examinations summer normal schools were held each year. One was always held in Oakland and another was held in the northern or central part of the county. I can recall such schools having been held at Accident and Grantsville and I believe at Friendsville. The school usually ran for six weeks and the tuition was about $6 for the course.

In the spring of 1907, an announcement was made by Superintendent Edward Browning (who was then called County Examiner) that a summer normal school would be held at Bittinger. This seemed like a heaven-sent opportunity to me as I would be able to board at home. Unfortunately, no funds were available for paying for board and room away from home. Books were furnished by the school. This was a substantial saving of funds. About 35 students attended from Bittinger and the surrounding area. The ages varied from 12 or 13 to the veteran teacher, Mrs. Fazenbaker, who was three score years or more.

The teacher was Professor Earl King, a recent graduate, I believe, of Morgantown. This was my first contact with a classical scholar. His excellent teaching ability as well as his broad and profound education made a deep impression on this young and immature student.

Attendance at this school involved a walk, morning and evening, of nearly six miles across the top of Meadow Mountain. At a steady gait, that required about 1 1/2 hours. Since the advent of the automobile, walking has become a lost art, but at the time it seemed no hardship and well worth the effort.

The mind sometimes plays queer tricks upon us. After the lapse of more than 55 years, I could not name a single fact learned from our textbooks but two seemingly insignificant memories remain. One is the recollection of pausing to rest one beautiful morning under a chestnut tree near the school to listen to a mockingbird singing his heart out in a paean of praise to the morning. The other remembrance is of Professor King, reciting the verses of Thanatopsis, especially the part he loved best: "So live, that when thy summons comes, to join

That innumerable caravan, that moves
To that mysterious realm, where each shall take His chamber in the silent halls of death.

Thou go not, like the quarry slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon; but, sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams."

Procedure To Close Schools In Stormy Weather Is Outlined

The procedure for the closing of schools due to inclement weather, was outlined this week by Willard L. Hawkins, county superintendent of schools.

Mr. Hawkins said the Board of Education relied entirely upon the advice of the County Roads department as to when weather and road conditions make it inadvisable to operate the schools of the county. He added that every bus operator has the individual responsibility of keeping in close touch with the conditions existing on his own route during the day when weather is treacherous and if conditions warrant it, going to the school and taking his children home.

When schools are called off by advice of the County Roads supervisor, Mr. Hawkins said he immediately notifies all principals and the radio stations at Keyser, Frostburg and Uniontown. Principals in turn notify all bus drivers and teachers, who notify as many pupils as possible. Parents desiring information may receive it by keeping tuned to one of the radio stations listed or by calling their child's teacher.

Mr. Hawkins declared that schools, by law, must operate a minimum of 180 days. Three extra days are set up in the school calendar, two of which already have been lost this year, last Friday and Monday. One more day can be lost for bad weather, after which extra days must be added at the end of the school year. A few years ago eight days were lost, and made up, three of them on Saturdays, plus an extra week in June.

Training Classes Begin For Firemen

Deer Park and Oakland firemen have banded together to begin classes in advanced firemanship. The first session will be held this Friday at the Oakland fire house at 7:30 p. m., and will continue weekly for twenty weeks. Each session will last three hours and they are designed to broaden the firemen's knowledge of fire fighting techniques. Any fireman who has had the basic class in firemanship is eligible to participate. Some men from the Kitzmiller Fire department are also expected to attend the classes.

Bobby's Power Plays

In an exclusive interview published last month in the London Sunday Times, Attorney General Bobby Kennedy was quoted as follows:

"I have been talking this week to the top executives of 40 important business firms whose central offices are not in the South, but who have branches and investments in Mississippi, and have them to use their influence, either by persuasion or by threatening to curtail their investments in Mississippi, but I doubt whether it will have much of an effect."

"I have recently talked to two publishers whose newspaper chains include newspapers in Alabama to try and infuse some sanity in their readers, but it is very difficult to change the climate if most media of communications are working against you."

"The Federal government is spending about 650 million dollars in Mississippi, even though the state pays 350 million dollars in Federal taxes. There are possibilities of withholding some Federal money from Mississippi, but it's a lever that must be handled with great delicacy."

Each of the three statements attributed to the nation's top legal official can be boiled down to one word—threatening . . . brainwashing . . . black-jacking. All are repugnant to the American people.

If anyone has thought that the warnings of an all-powerful centralized government in Washington are just so much campaign talk, let him ponder deeply the implications of attorney general's statements.

We can imagine that our British cousins who read the interview raised a few eyebrows and wondered what is going on in their old colony that rebelled against the autocracy of an arrogant king.

Perhaps we should do a little eyebrow-raising ourselves.—Barnesville Enterprise.

Merry Christmas . . .

Christmas again! It is evident in the sparkling eyes of the children as they are being "so very good" in anticipation of the great day. The spirit reaches everywhere and seems to affect everyone, for this is more than just a "season" of the year. It is a time in which the goodness of man becomes manifest, and the miracle of the nativity holds us enthralled.

'Tis the old story, ever new. Nearly 2000 years ago the tax collectors forced Mary and Joseph to return to his family's town. It was then Christ came to dwell among us. The Prince of Peace was born in the poverty of a manger in a stable at Bethlehem. There the Shepherds found him, and later the Wise men.

He came to lead mankind along the way to freedom, dignity and tranquility. Tyrants tried to seek him out and destroy him and the principles he represented. They failed in this, as they always must in their attempts to corrupt the everlasting concepts of equity.

A crown of gold was his for the taking. There were many then, as there are today, ready to follow a leader bent on conquest and plunder. Instead, he chose a crown of thorns and led mankind to an understanding of the fundamental principles of life, teaching of freedom and tranquility by parable and example.

The lust for power was great, so there were few to do him honor, and fewer still with true faith in the Divine principle of individual liberty, justice and equality. His birth and life confirmed the truth that we are equal in the sight of God, and therefore must be equal in the eyes of the law, if the law is just.

The concept of equality and self-determination by all mankind is the very essence of his teachings. For this he was crucified. Then as now tyrants sought to degrade and destroy him and to make themselves the masters of humanity. The glory that was Rome and the pomp of the Caesars have long since crumbled and the pomp of the Caesars have long since crumbled into dust, but tyrants under other names and other forms continue.

Board Reappoints Mrs. Fizer As Clerk

At the regular meeting of the County Commissioners earlier this week Mrs. Virginia Fizer was re-appointed as clerk to the board, a position she has held for several years.

The board also named H. D. Swartzentruber as vice-president, and Earl Opel was named as representative to the Garrett County Welfare board. Allen S. Paugh had previously been named president of the board and Lewis H. Jones, attorney, and Paul DeWitt as county roads supervisor.

Three persons employed in the Assessment office were also re-appointed: Kenneth Hilder as map maker, Mrs. June Harvey as clerk and Miss Janet Paugh as stenographer.

The resignation of Mrs. Major Broadwater, stenographer, was accepted. Mrs. Broadwater has been in the commissioner's office since in May when Mrs. Darlene Schloss, nagle Lane moved from the area. No successor has been named.

The voting on Mrs. Fizer as clerk was not a unanimous one. Mr. Swartzentruber said he was of the opinion the clerk should be a man. He said he had no fault to find with Mrs. Fizer's work but he asked that the vote be taken and that he be registered on the minutes as being opposed.

No action was taken on any other appointments.

The board designated a four-day holiday period, Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Christmas day, Tuesday, December 25. Normally the employees would have worked Saturday morning and Monday.

The Liberty Trust company, Grantsville and First National Bank in Oakland were designated as depositories for Joseph H. Welch, treasurer. The county roads department uses the Garrett National.

It was also announced that liquor dispensaries in Grantsville and Oakland would be closed January 3 for inventory purposes.

Mrs. Fizer said the board discussed the problems of the county airport, and the budgets that have been submitted by various departments. There was a delegation before the board from the Garrett County-Deep Creek Lake Promotion council seeking an appropriation of $5,000. Last year the organization received $3,000.

SUCCESSFULLY TESTED—The new truck of the Oakland Volunteer Fire Department, Inc., was successfully tested at Mt. Lake Tuesday afternoon when it pumped 90,000 gallons of water in a two-hour period, and an additional 60,750 gallons in other various tests. Present for the testing and shown left to right are John Sharps, 1st assistant chief; Harold Schell, chief; and Donald M. Browning. There was no way to show the stream of water poured by the pumping test, since the roadway along the breast of the dam where the testing took place, is quite narrow and it was not possible to get a picture from that side of the truck.

New Fire Truck Has Met Every Test

Oakland fire department's new truck arrived here this week and after being given rigid tests was passed by the Underwriters and put into service.

The new truck will take the place of the old No. 2 truck, which has been in use for some twenty four years.

The truck was procured at a cost of $17,500, and has under the process of assembling for the past six months. The cab type bed is mounted on a Chevrolet chassis, obtained through bids with four other automobile companies.

Purchase was made from American Fire Apparatus, the Glenn D. Coburn company, of Silver Spring. The new machine has a capacity of 750 gallons per minute, pumping stream, as compared to the old machine with 500 gallons per minute. Several other features were included in the truck, some of them entirely new.

It carries a smoke ejector, Scott air packed gas masks, and a portable light plant, all new, and also carried two flood lights and portable pumps. More than 650 gallons of water may be carried on the truck.

Jack Reckner, representative of the company and Bob Clark, of the Maryland Underwriters Rating Bureau were in Oakland Tuesday and they made an exhaustive test of the machine. They went to Mountain Lake where they pumped at capacity of 750 gallons per minute for two hours, then increased the capacity 10 percent for ten minutes, then ran 2 1/2 speed for an hour and half speed for one-half hour.

On hand to witness the testing were Harold Schell, chief; John Sharps, first assistant chief; and Donald M. Browning.

Following completion of the test Mr. Sharps and Mr. Schell tried it out on the highway for several miles. Schell said it surpassed all expectations.

Mr. Browning pointed out that the company had two excellent trucks which would insure the safety of the town. In case of a fire locally while one truck was out of the city perhaps 12 to 15 miles away, fighting another fire.

The No. 3 truck, although also in service for ten or more years, has excellent fire fighting possibilities, he said. He said the firemen could now breathe easier with the two trucks ready for any action.

Legislative Ideas Are Discussed At Two Meetings

Sessions At Grantsville And Oakland Intended To Give Legislators Suggestions

Two meetings held this week to provide the county's legislators with ideas for constructive legislation resulted in a lot of talk on subjects but not many concrete recommendations.

Schools and welfare entered the picture both at the Oakland meeting and the session at Grantsville. Notes were taken at each meeting. Richard L. Davis serving as secretary at the Oakland meeting and Mrs. Martha Giffel serving in similar capacity at Grantsville.

Approximately 40 people attended the Oakland session, about 35 at Grantsville. Spencer W. Graham, senator-elect, served as chairman at each meeting.

At the Oakland meeting Frank Mattingly represented a group from North Glade expressing concern regarding the moving of school children from smaller schools such as North Glade, Deer Park and Swanton, into the Oakland school, with the ultimate aim of closing these schools.

They mentioned the long hours that some children must spend on buses, particularly the smaller pupils, and the hardships involved. They indicated in some instances children from Dry Run and Savage river area went past the North Glade and Deer Park schools which had plenty of room, to the Dennett road school which was now overcrowded.

They suggested legislation that would allow parents to send their children to schools in their own community.

They also suggested legislation allowing people to vote on the selection of a County Superintendent of Schools and members of the Board of Education.

They asked that when an expenditure like $700,000 was contemplated by County Commissioners for schools that such a question be put to a referendum. H. D. Swartzentruber, county commissioner, said these smaller schools should be kept if possible, build additional rooms on them if necessary, and use Dennett road school for the proposed junior high school.

James Nally suggested legislation raising pay for County Commissioners to $7,500 and make them full time jobs. Mr. Swartzentruber suggested president only would be suggested.

Man Seeks Freedom From Prison Thru Petition to Court

One of three men sentenced to prison terms in the Garrett County Circuit court in 1957 as the result of the robbery of a Friendsville store of $13,000 in cash and $25,000 in series E Savings bonds, has filed a petition for hearing under the Post Conviction Act.

Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris, Allegany county, has set January 11 at 10:30 a. m., as the date and time to hear the petition. He has appointed Lewis R. Jones, Oakland, as attorney for the petitioner, Earl R. Franklin, of Washington, D. C.

The prisoner is seeking freedom on the contention he was not properly represented by counsel and his conviction was based on corroborated testimony of two other men charged in the robbery.

Franklin was one of the trio which included Oliver Rockett, Baltimore and Edward Kiser, native of this county who had been residing in Baltimore for some time prior to the robbery of the Arnold Fox hardware store in July of 1957. All three received 10-year prison terms and Franklin an extra two years for jail break.

Kiser was allegedly the "finger-man" in the case. The trio broke into the Fox store sometime over a week-end in July and Franklin allegedly "cracked the safe." He had bragged while in the county jail at Oakland after he had been apprehended that he made "his living by cracking safes."

The theft of the money and bonds was discovered Monday, July 30, 1957, by Fox when he opened the store for business.

The trio fled the county with their loot and went to Washington. The Savings bonds were burned and only $6,900 of the cash was recovered after the men were arrested. Rockett entered a guilty plea September 6 of that year. The late Associate Judge Neil C. Fraley heard the case in the circuit court here and the present associate judge, Stuart F. Hamill, assisted the state's attorney in prosecuting the case. This disqualifies him from hearing Franklin's plea.

Christmas Treat To Be Given Saturday

The Christmas treat goal was $750 in contributions probably will be reached the latter part of the week. It was announced by Charles L. Briner, in charge of collections. The total as of yesterday was over $625.

The treat for the children of the community, 12 years of age and under, will take place Saturday afternoon, December 22, at the corner of Second and Liberty streets in Oakland, beginning at 1 o'clock.

Unless the weather is too stormy the Junior band of Southern High school will play for the event. Santa Claus will make his appearance at the treat line unless the weather is bad, in which case he will make his appearance at the Center street school. The treats will be given out however, at the Liberty street corner.

Preparations are being made to give out at least 2,500 treats.

Assisting in the distribution will be members of the National Guard, the boy scouts and explorer scouts, and the city police will be on hand for order and any emergencies.

Young Hunter Has Leg Amputated After Shooting Accident

Donnie D. Tichnell, 21, of route 1, Swanton, who was accidentally shot in the left knee by a member of the party with which he was hunting on December 8, had his leg amputated above the knee when the wound became dangerously infected.

The high powered bullet had passed through the knee, causing major nerve and artery damage and for a time it was hoped that the leg might be saved. Following the accident a stretcher was improvised which was used to carry the man two miles to an automobile and he was then rushed to Potomac Valley hospital in Kyser.

Owen Martin Barn Damaged By Fire

One of the storage barns of Owen Martin, used as a tool shed and workshop, on his farm south of Oakland, on U. S. 219, was damaged Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock when an overheated stove ignited the surrounding area.

A complaint call to the Oakland fire department prevented very serious damage as the flames were extinguished before they caught the area above it which contained hay and grain.

Firemen estimated that the damage was at least $200.

This was the second call for the Oakland firemen this week. They were called to the home of David Uphold in Crellin on Monday morning but they were not needed as the flames had been extinguished upon arrival of the department.

Inhalator Saves Man

The use of the department's inhalator resulted in saving a man's life this week. Frank Cunha, 51, of Grantsville, W. Va., suffered a heart attack and apparently was on the point of death.

The assistance of the Oakland fire department was requested. Eugene Helbig and Carlton Hinebaugh took the inhalator to Grantsville and after the use of four tanks of oxygen the man recovered sufficiently to be moved to the Garrett County Memorial hospital in the Minnich ambulance, where he remains a patient.

Send in News At Very Earliest

County correspondents and others desiring news to appear in The Republican issue next week, December 27, were being urged to send in their material at the very earliest time.

The Republican office will be closed the entire day on Christmas, Tuesday, December 25, and when the employees return to work on Wednesday it is necessary to start immediately on getting the pages ready for press.

Correspondents who can send in much of their material on Saturday and early Monday will make it more certain that the news will be included in the issue of Thursday, December 27.

Friendsville Firemen Name Officers of '63

Lost Hunter Found

The search for Donald Rounds, who became lost two weeks ago today while hunting in the Meadow Mountain area, ended this morning at 10 o'clock with the finding of his body about a mile from his home.

Sheriff James Frantz and Dr. James Feasler were at the scene at press time and not available to supply details.

The search has been continuing as weather conditions permitted.

Democrat Committee Files Expenses Prior To Deadline

The Democratic State Central committee officially filed its report of receipts and expenditures on December 6, on the final day of the 30-day period allowed under the Corrupt Practices Act. The Republican was in error last week in stating the report had not yet been filed.

The report was placed in the usual file, but underneath several reports that had been made previously to the deadline, so that when the file was examined last Wednesday, December 12, the same report was not on top of the pile that had been there the previous week. The Republican is glad to be able to say that the Democratic committee filed its report prior to the deadline.

The report showed contributions by candidates from $10 to $100, and receipts from Democratic headquarters of $1,200. Receipts totaled $2,275.

Expenditures totaled $1,584.84, leaving a balance on hand of $690.16. Expenses included payments to certain individuals who were designated to pay for checkers, haulers and others. Highest on the list was Mrs. Earl Guard with $150. Mrs. Harry Seggie got $125, Earl Opel and George Morse $120, Carl Schell $80, Dr. E. J. Baumgartner, $150, Mrs. Lu Gonder $100, and others of lesser amounts.

The report was filed with Richard L. Davis, clerk of the Circuit court, by Mrs. Margaret Nally Coffey, treasurer for the Democratic committee.

Too Many Paul DeWitts

There are several Paul DeWitts, and those not connected with the County Roads were complaining this week about the number of telephone calls they were receiving which really did not concern them.

The new County Roads supervisor is Paul William DeWitt, and his telephone number is 334-4829, if he must be called in the middle of the night. There is also an employee on duty at the County roads garage at night and those desiring the department should call 334-3988.

Some of the other Paul DeWitts were receiving telephone calls in the early morning hours and were becoming very unhappy.

THERE'S FUN IN CHOOSING

GIFTS

Generally, the problem is that we tend to overlook the "every-day things" which fit nicely into the pattern of gift-giving.

Mom, for instance, will appreciate something for the kitchen or the home, particularly something which in some way makes her daily chores easier or which brightens the appearance of her workshop.

How about an electric fry pan? A ceramic clock? A coffee maker? The list is endless and the price of kitchen items will range from a few cents to several dollars. There's something in this range to suit every need and pocketbook.

Dad? He shouldn't be too much trouble. What are his hobbies? If he isn't retired, how about something for his shop or his office? A hand warmer is appreciated if he spends any time outdoors. If he's an inside man, how about an intercom system? He'll have fun rigging it up between office and shop, kitchen or workshop. Clothes brush, sun glasses—these are also good selections. And, despite all the old jokes, your dad might really need and appreciate a new tie.

Grandparents? Many folks who have the time enjoy reading. A subscription to a good magazine is a fine gift for a "reader."

SHOP AT HOME

With the approach of Christmas, the retail "buying season" is in full swing. At this time of the year, some folks tend to forget about the "store on the corner" when they undertake their Christmas shopping.

Local stores carry a wide variety of items, at competitive prices. Many items found in out-of-town stores may be located here at home, often for less.

We never forget the merchants "on the corner" when a charity drive is in progress so this year let's remember them when we do our seasonal shopping. Besides, money spent at home stays at home—where it does the most good.

Break in Weather

Occurs During Week

There has been a definite break in the weather during the last five days, but the break didn't come until a fresh blizzard occurred last Thursday which closed the schools of the county for the third day in less than two weeks.

The schools have now used up their three allotted days, given over to missing school, and any additional days missed from now on must be made up at the end of the school term.

Last Friday was blustery and the County Roads system was unable to keep all roads open to allow school buses to travel. The break began on Friday, continuing during the week. Saturday was partially fair and moderate in temperature. There was a light snow Sunday but temperatures remained moderate.

It was mild and cloudy on Monday. Tuesday was sunny and moderate and snows melted considerably.

Warning air continued Wednesday with the thermometer reaching 49 degrees at noon. However, shortly after noon yesterday the temperature began to fall and it was in the upper 20's this morning with a slight snow forecast.

The winter season does not begin officially until tomorrow, December 21.

3 Holiday 'H's' Can Be Bested

Hurry, haste and hustle, Holidays and the 3 "H's" really go together. And they often interfere with another "H"—hospitality, says Mayne Schoonover, Extension Nutritionist, University of Wyoming.

Her recommendation for a holiday without haste—hurry—hustle and with time for hospitality? It takes a little doing and planning, but it is well worth the effort. Here are her suggestions:

... Stock the pantry shelf with canned meats for sandwiches and nibblings.

... Store extra cheese and dips in the refrigerator.

... Add extra boxes of fancy crackers to your usual supply.

... Bake some plain and fancy cookies and store them in the refrigerator in closed containers.

... Make a dessert that you can freeze or store in refrigerator.

SWISS CHRISTMAS

Switzerland begins celebration of Christmas on December 6, the birthday of St. Nicholas of Myra, the first Santa Claus. Although celebrations are pretty much the same, each village has its own way of celebrating the good Saint's birth. Typical customs include bell-ringing, contests and "Sternsingen," or star singing, caroling under the stars, and the appearance of Christkind, personified by a girl in snow-white garb, who passes from house to house bearing gifts for little children.

HERE'S SANTA... As seen by a Hollywood make-up expert, here is what Santa really looks like. Whiskers are inches of Yak hair, shoulder length. Mustache is bushy, nose red bulbous, cheeks are rouged and lashes and brows are powdered. Have you seen this man coming down your chimney?

Christmas SOUTH OF THE BORDER

In Mexico, the posada celebrates the Holy Family's journey to Bethlehem. The procession is led by children carrying a litter with the figures of Mary, Joseph and an angel.

Bearing candles, the procession moves from door to door, asking through the medium of litanies, or songs, for lodging for the night. From inside each house, they are answered, also in song, but the doors do not open—until they reach the chosen house, where the doors are thrown open and lodging, or posada is granted.

There are refreshments, much rejoicing, and the high point of the evening is when the pinata appears. The pinata is an earthenware vessel filled with candies and sweets and then decorated gaily in the shape of some animal—an elephant, duck, rabbit, pony, etc. The pinata is suspended from the ceiling. Each guest is blindfolded in turn and given a stout pole with which to break open the pinata—while the other guests attempt to keep the pinata swinging out of reach. The person lucky enough to break the pinata is showered with all the sweets and goodies inside the clay jug.

In the spirit of the season, the goodies from the pinata are shared with other guests.

Is Your Name BRANT?

Brant, an old and honored surname, is principally of German and English origins. It admits of at least two derivations. According to most authorities on the origin of names, Brant was generally applied in mediaeval times to farmers whose land was cleared by burning. It is said also that Brant was sometimes bestowed, when surnames first came into vogue, upon those homes were on the banks of the Brant River in Lincolnshire, England.

Samuel Brant (1763-1823) served as a private in the Morris County, New Jersey militia during the Revolutionary War.

The first census of the United States, taken in 1790, has eight listings of persons by the name of Brant who were residents of Pennsylvania and heads of families at that time. The census records of Maryland for the same year contain no references to persons by the name of Brant.

According to "The Pennsylvania German Pioneers," published by the Pennsylvania German Society and listing the immigrant arrivals at the Port of Philadelphia from 1727 to 1808, Wilhelm Brant arrived on the ship "Queen Elizabeth" on September 16, 1738. Samuel Brant and Just Brant came on the ship "Robert and Alice" on September 3, 1739; and Bernard Brant arrived on the ship "Enterprise" on November 22, 1796.

Sebastian Brant (1458-1521) was a noted German satirist.

Edward Brant (1845-1916) received a public school education and at the age of 19 was employed by a lumber firm. At the age of 25, he started his own lumbering operations in which he achieved outstanding success. He made his home and business headquarters in Benton Harbor, Michigan and was the owner of large tracts of timberland and of saw mills and other wood working properties. He was a substantial financial benefactor of the region in which he lived.

Joseph Henry Brant, a chemist of note, is director of research, Colgate-Palmolive Company, Jersey City, N. J.

Francis L. Brant is vice-president, Butterick Company, New York City, manufacturers of garment patterns and magazine publisher.

Henry Brant is a member of the music faculty of Bennington College, Bennington, Vermont. He is a composer of musical compositions and the recipient of numerous awards and honors.

EVERGREEN SYMBOLS

Long before the Christmas era, evergreens were used in traditional ceremonies. Egyptians, celebrating the winter solstice (shortest day of the year) brought green date palms into their homes as a symbol of "life triumphant over death."

The evergreen bough was used by the Romans in their observance of the feast of Saturn. The Druids believed that a sprig of evergreen in the house meant eternal life; early Scandinavians paid homage to the fir tree; Norsemen saw in evergreens the revival of their sun god, Balder.

Fined by Magistrate

Walter S. Cooper, of Gormanville, was arrested on a charge of being drunk and disorderly on Tuesday. The charge was brought by Pauline Cooper.

At a hearing before Trial Magistrate Robert M. Maroney on Wednesday morning the man pleaded not guilty. However, he was found guilty and fined $15 and costs and also sentenced to serve 15 days in the county jail. The jail sentence was suspended upon condition he remain of good behavior.

Maurice L. Bonifant, of Silver Spring, who had appealed a decision of the magistrate last week in regard to a spotlighting charge with firearms in possession, dropped his appeal and paid his fine of $100 and costs. The magistrate heard.

Legislative Ideas

They spoke of re-surfacing of Savage river road, toward Grantsville, and suggested the state, which owns most of the land on both sides, should share heavily in any resulting program. It was also suggested it be put in the federal aid program.

Lawrence Sines felt county commissioners should be relieved from activities as board of liquor license commissioners and that this work be given to the judge, John Beachy suggested a separate liquor board be set up with authority to enforce the laws. Sines also felt state should sell some of its 72,000 acres of land, particularly along highways which could be developed with homes and increase assessable basis.

Several people discussed the welfare, set up criticizing the high cost of welfare and what, if anything, could be done about it.

George Brownings suggested that the legislators keep their eyes and ears open for any indication that the federal government was moving industries away from the seaboard areas, and trying to persuade them to move to this area. He also suggested seeking federal funds when obtainable. He suggested the establishment of test laboratories for coal or wood in this area. He asked possible legislation compelling members of both Republican and Democratic State Central committee members to take oath of office and that the treasurers be bonded.

Ideas at Grantsville

The Grantsville meeting discussed at length its opposition to the proposed city dump on Big Savage, for use by city of Frostburg. Final approval of this is up to the Commissioners and they declared their opposition.

Lawrence Groer spoke of snow removal difficulty on school bus routes off route 40. Commissioners promised action.

B. O. Aiken, Accident, spoke of the unattractive result of failure to backfill strip mine areas. There was a proposal to fix the bond higher (now only $300 an acre).

West Virginia has a bond of $5,000 an acre. It was suggested a clause which says only farm land needs backfilling would also include wooded areas. Mr. Aiken also spoke of hazard of flashing lights along highway and suggested some control.

The airport at McHenry came in for share of the talk. Harold Whitehead, spokesman, said much money had been spent there and many airplanes land there, needing special gasoline. It was pointed out the contractor needs $55,000 but federal government has not contributed its full share yet. The county promised 25 percent, the state 25 percent and the federal government 50 percent. No high octane gas is available there up to present. He felt there was laxity in letting public know about county affairs.

The United Fund came in for its share of talk. Mr. Groer said some 500 employees who work in Allegany county contribute about $10,000 to Allegany county United Fund, with nothing coming back to this county. People want an inquiry as to whether or not such money could be returned to this county and whether or not a united fund was advisable here.

The question of how much does the county pay into welfare was brought up with suggestion that surplus food program should be used extensively. Someone suggested compulsory records as to where money goes.

What happens to money from pulpwood was one question posed. If from state land 15 percent comes to the county, balance to state.

Oscar Savage felt more fish should be obtained for the county streams and the legislators promised to cooperate.

The new legislators will go to Annapolis in January for a ninety-day session.

time the quest for power and plunder. Yet, after 2000 years have passed, Jesus Christ stands as the central figure of human history.

He is born anew each Christmas day in the hearts of men, teaching us again the way to "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men."

His truth will not be destroyed.

Christian Challenge

We know the treachery of power politics has failed to bring peace. There can be neither peace nor justice under the rule of deceit, brutality and force. If we could but accept and apply each day the Divine direction we feel so strongly on Christmas Day, we would discard our false prophets and be governed by the Golden Rule.

Do we dare put the Christmas Spirit to work on a year around basis? Or do the Caesars still possess us, asserting their dominion over the lives and the productivity of the people, feeding their lust upon the agony and toil of their fellow men?

Hope Of America

In America we have come close to the Divine Way. Our constitutional chains upon the powers of government, and the people in it, have enabled the American citizen to shape and develop his own life, in his own way. This inspired principle has brought the American people more satisfactions and benefactions than any other people ever imagined.

Now the conquest by tyrants threatens again in our land. The tools of our tormentors are doubt, confusion and surrender. The weapons for our salvation continue to be justice, equality and faith.

Yes, the Star gleams again in the heavens, guiding wise men to the only hope of the world. It is essential that we remember these enduring truths which give zest to Christmas Day. May we keep the faith.

Merry Christmas! — Willis E. Stone, author of the Proposed Liberty Amendment and Chairman, National Committee for Economic Freedom, Los Angeles, Calif., writing for American Way Features, Inc.

Chorus to Present Christmas Opera

The Southern High school senior chorus, under direction of Mrs. Naney Turney, will present an opera, "Amahl and the Night Visitors," tomorrow evening, December 21, in the school gymnasium, beginning at 8 o'clock.

This is the first time the chorus has endeavored to do anything of this nature. The opera has been a hit at Christmas time for the past several years.

Sue Martin will play the role of Amahl, cripple from a poor family. Other participants will be Kay Bowman, Ronald McDaniel, Lloyd Bittinger, Jerry McClung and Jack Jones.

The Kings are following the star when they stop at Amahl's home for food and rest. They carry great riches with them and when Amahl's mother spies them she intends to take some.

The climax comes when Amahl gives his greatest gift to the Blessed Child and a miracle is performed. The school's annual Christmas program was presented last night and today is being given before the students.

Listen Americans!
...by Dr. George S. Benson
PRESIDENT - NATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAM
Searcy, Arkansas

Let us not be misled to believe, because of our recent experience with Cuba and its Russian masters, that it was only on October 22, the day of President Kennedy's momentous address to the people, that our Caribbean neighbor suddenly became a menace and a threat to peace and security. Let us not forget that the presence of missile bases was already known generally. And while we are remembering, we might linger on the fact that long before the bearded Castro came down the mountain to assume power in 1959, despite the fact that he had been enthusiastically interviewed by American reporters, his background in Communist subversion was known to many.

Moreover, his political course at that time was being predicted by men who were acquainted with the progress of Communism in Latin America. If all along our national leaders had possessed political "savvy" anywhere nearly as effective as the aerial photography of the defense department it is possible that conditions bringing about the recent Cuban crisis could have been avoided.

The U. S. might well have taken the initiative in world affairs many months, even years prior to the Cuban missile episode. But it seems that after the war we got into the habit of hindsight only, rather than foresight, of looking at developments after the fact. The whole story has been: Soviet challenge followed by U. S. response. Where has been U. S. action, rather than reaction? With NATO, with the Berlin airlift, in Korea — we reacted. Perhaps this was better than nothing, as when we allowed and even assisted the Communist to take China and when we only raised our official eyebrows at the Hungarian revolt.

If there has been any U. S. advantage out of the Cuban experience it is that we have been engaged in a practical demonstration of the advantages of taking the initiative. Established in time, these approaches to foreign policy do not necessarily constitute "brinkmanship". When a nation gives a clear statement of its intention that includes moral purpose and fairness toward its neighbors, this is toughness that will be respected and honored.

If we do not very soon follow up our advantages in the Cuban episode, we shall lose the little momentum we gained. An obvious opportunity was lost when we did not immediately restate the Monroe Doctrine. We have exploded the myth that the Doctrine is unenforceable, but we have not so far announced to the world that it must be respected. We must no longer allow our friends and neighbors to assume that it is dead merely because Khrushchev says it is.

Instead of announcing to the world that, "U. S. Thinks Threat Gone From Cuba," as a local news headline over a Washington story had it the other day, we need to realize that the dangers there are entering a new phase that can be more menacing than ever. Unless our diplomats see this, they are not likely to declare again the validity of the Monroe Doctrine. This is why an understanding of the Soviet purposes has been, and still is as much as ever, the first order of business. If our leaders understood Communism, we believe they would declare the Monroe Doctrine with vigor!

enterprise system.

(2) Lastly, whenever two advertising media are relatively equal, select the one that is actively doing the most to promote the private enterprise system. And let both know how the final decision was made.

Is this censorship? It certainly is — the kind of censorship the great American citizen is privileged to enjoy. It's the kind of censorship we utilize when we refuse to patronize a rude sales clerk, or when we reject an inferior product, or change to a milkman that promises earlier delivery. It's the kind of selectivity that makes the American consumer the most pampered and affluent person in the world.

Freedom Of Choice

Oh yes, someone will cry "freedom of the press is being strangled." But if freedom of the press means that a sponsor is forced to finance his own destruction, then we've already lost most of our freedom.

Let's encourage this long overdue campaign. Let's see how many companies can be encouraged to "try private enterprise."

Non-farm payroll employment set a November record and average hourly earnings of factory workers went up to another new high.

HOLIDAY MENUS

In France, after the elders return home from midnight mass, it is time for a grand feast. In some sections of the country, the roast goose occupies the center spot on the festive board. Elsewhere, the menu may be highlighted by such items as buckwheat cakes and sour cream, roasted chestnuts served with milk, turkey and chestnuts served in wine.

Many homes in France are decorated with Christmas trees, although trees are not displayed in public places to the extent one finds them in America.

GIFTS FOR SHARING

When purchasing gifts for small children who are members of a large family, it is wise to think of gifts that can be "shared" or games in which a number of players may take part.

In this category are card games, sports equipment, tea sets, toy soldiers. Most children will enjoy these and similar gifts.

Older youngsters have definite likes and dislikes, however, and it is wiser to select the gift that will please the individual, with no thought of the sharing possibility.

SAFE HOLIDAY

If your holiday plans include travel by automobile, be sure to start early and drive carefully. Road conditions are unpredictable at this time of year and extreme caution is advised. It will be much better to arrive at your destination a few minutes late than not to arrive at all.

ABOUT CHRIST

"If Christ is to remain alive in the life of men, eternally present with us, it is absolutely necessary to resuscitate Him from time to time, not to color Him with dyes of the present day, but to represent with new words, with references to things now happening, His eternal truth and His never changing story."

—Papini's "Life of Christ"

TREE TOWN

Every year about this time, Shelton, Washington, in the heart of the great timberlands of Mason County, broadcasts its slogan to the world. It is "Christmas-town, U.S.A." Christmas tree farms ship their products across the world. The young decorative trees are Douglas firs.

Cleaning Up After Christmas Is Easy

Opening Christmas packages is fun—cleaning up afterward can be quite a chore.

So, before Christmas morning, gather together the following simple clean-up materials:

1. Two large shopping bags; one for paper and ribbon you want to keep, and one for scraps to be thrown away.
2. Whisk broom and dust pan. (Try tying a pine cone and sprig of holly on these everyday helpers to give them a holiday look.)
3. A bottle of pine cleaner with a sponge, for crushed candy cane or spilled beverages.

Store your holiday clean-up equipment in one of the shopping bags and tuck away in the closet where you're hiding Christmas presents.

Follow Rules For Lights On Outdoor Evergreens

Outdoor evergreen trees can be safely decorated with Christmas lights if a few simple guidelines are followed to avoid needle scorch.

Needles of yew, arborvitae, chamaecyparis and hemlock are sensitive to heat from bulbs. Pine, spruce and fir require the same precaution.

Bulbs of 15 wattage are sufficient. Never let the bulbs touch the needles. Hang sockets down ward to prevent water and snow from collecting in them. Use rubber-jacketed or lacquered cord to connect the lights. Periodically check the position of the lights because winds may shift their position.

SANTA CLAUS

"He was dressed all in furs from his head to his foot and his clothes were all tarnished with ashes and soot—he was chubby and plump, a right jolly old elf, and I laughed when I saw him in spite of myself."

These words from Clement Clark Moore's "A Visit From St. Nicholas" gave to the world the popular image of Santa Claus. For appearance sake, we presume, Santa's clothes are now pictured a clean, bright red, but he's still "a jolly old elf."

The new U. S. communications satellite was in orbit but its power was weak.

Six policemen in Cleveland were charged in robbery cases.

WINTER IN PARIS... Everyone knows, because of the song, that Paris is beautiful in April. But the historic French city is also quite beautiful in winter as shown above in photo taken after season's first snowfall blanketed tree-lined walks.

BY THE ROAD... The little church by the side of the road may still be found from one end of the country to the other. And, of course, the bells always ring loudest and clearest on Christmas morning.

REAL V.I.P.... We always knew Santa was a Very Important Person. Here he is getting the full treatment from a bery of beauties at Sarasota, Florida. The jolly old fellow likes to look his best and the girls are really giving him the works.

Pictures Become Mixed

The pictures accompanying the story about the Bittinger Normal school which appeared last week as a reprinting from The Glades Star, were slightly mixed. The photo of the Bittinger Normal of 1907 was all right, but the one of what was reported to be the ruin of the class held in 1962, was not quite what was said. The picture actually was one taken during the annual historical tour of the Garrett County Historical society. The faces of Dr. Grant and Paul B. Naylor and Mrs. Naylor and others are plainly visible. And it's a sure thing that they didn't attend Normal school some fifty-five years ago. The same error appeared in the December issue of The Glades Star.

Two Cases Filed

The cold, unseasonable weather of last week also had an effect on the activities of Trial Magistrate Robert M. Maroney, in his office cases.

Only two new cases were listed, one an automobile vehicle case. Ronald Frank Sines, Millersville, Md., forfeited collateral of $10 and costs on a charge of exceeding 50 miles per hour.

Also on the regular docket Walter Fike entered a plea of guilty on December 11, to a charge of being drunk and disorderly the day previous. The charge was brought by Bulah Beeman. Magistrate Maroney fined him $10 and costs and sentenced him to ten days in the county jail.

The Mississippi episode with the Negro enrollee in college cost the Justice department $496,508.

An explosion trapped 36 miners at Carmichael, Pa. bodies were not recovered until five days later. The draft quota for February was set at 4,000 by Selective Service.

THE AMERICAN WAY

What "Law"—Or What "Land"?
By Tom Anderson

Kennedy says Khrushchev broke his word in the Cuban situation. When has Khrushchev ever kept his word when it was expedient to break it? Speaking of word-breaking, among other Kennedy vows broken, it was Jack Kennedy who in April, 1961, withdrew the air cover he had promised the Cuban patriot on the beaches at the Bay of Pigs and left them to be slaughtered. And let us not forget his pledge at the democratic National Convention not to use federal troops to impose integration on the South.

Whose Law?

"Law of the Land"? What law of what land? Article IV, Section 1 of our Constitution clearly prohibits a President from acting against domestic violence in any state, unless requested by the government of that state. Kennedy enforced not the law of the land, but the law of the NAACP.

Article IV, Section 4 of the Constitution provides that the individual states shall be guaranteed "a Republican form of government." Kennedy violated that, Article IX of the Bill of Rights declares: "The enumeration in the Constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people." Kennedy violated that.

Article X of the Bill of Rights declares: "The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the states are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people." Kennedy violated that.

The Constitution nowhere says that a decree by any Court is "the law of the land." If it were, we'd have a dictatorship — officially.

For the Supreme Court is not elected by the people and is beyond reach of the people except through impeachment. Only Congress properly makes the laws. Congress has made no law covering these matters, a prerogative of the states only, so the Executive is entirely out of order "executing" a law that does not exist.

Limited Powers
Under the Constitution our Federal Government is one of delegated, very limited and restricted powers. It does not have a constitutional right to invade a sovereign state to enforce anything involving education, since education is not even mentioned in the Con-

Buckels To Get Story In Farm Magazine

C. Edward Smith, field editor of Business Farming, a magazine published monthly for the New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland areas, spent Tuesday afternoon and evening at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Buckel, near Blittsburg.

Mr. Smith took pictures of the family and farm, the milking operation, etc., and plans to publish an

Maryland National Guard

Last night's meeting started with 51 men present from a full strength of 57 men at the present time. Three men absent and three men, Robert O. Shreve, William C. Friend and Robert R. Blittsburg are on active duty to date. We now have Harvey Winters standing in to be sent for active duty on 12 January 62.

According to Sgt. Brown, with information received from Lt. Vost company commander, that anyone interested in joining the Guard unit can come in and be screened, or qualified may be taken into the unit. Sgt. Hanchaugh brought to attention that all men having served two years active duty or one amount of prior service more than two years has only two year reserve obligation. All other individuals a third year service must enlist for 6 years with six months active duty and must attend weekly meetings, and summer camp for two weeks each year.

Classes for this drill, No. 23, consisted of all personnel taking part in "Cook Platoon Re-orientation Exercises" with Sgt. D. W. Weeks and Sgt. Landon instructing. The Major Platoon with Sgt. Myers and Sp-5 Suckers bring their men's attention to "Track Vehicle Maintenance Service." "Organizing the Mess," which is kitchen organizing at the armory. Sgt. Weeks and Sp-5 Paugh then concluded with "Care and Cleaning of Equipment." All equipment used for classes is cleaned and put in proper place at the end of each meeting.

Capt. Oscar J. Nilson, Second Army was the advisor for this meeting.

stitution and since the 19th Amendment specifically reserves to the states all powers not specifically granted to the Federal Government. Thus the Federal Government had no proper power or place whatever at Little Rock, nor has it any at Oxford.

Urge your congressman to pass legislation clarifying the role of the Federal Government.

Wants Fines Lowered

There was a hearing yesterday afternoon in the Circuit court room before Associate Judge Stuart I. Hamill, Jr. on a petition to reduce the fines of four persons were convicted of the sale of beer after hours at the September term of court. All four were found article featuring the family in the February issue of the magazine.

Mr. Smith told Mr. Buckel that beginning with the January issue a farm bureau members and also 211A members of Garrett county would receive the magazine for one year free of charge, in order to promote its future growth in the county.

Caroling, Mass Are Traditional

In the mountain regions of Western Austria, entire villages join in carol singing on Christmas Eve. Beginning with the family living farthest from the village church, torch-bearing carolers form a procession. At each house along the way a group of "Fruchtliche Weihnachten" are exchanged, and the inhabitants fall in line. Eventually, the whole population is part of the parade as it arrives at the church steps in time for Midnight Mass.

Christmas Eve carol-singing and Midnight Mass are also a part of the British holiday tradition. The custom of hanging up mistletoe dates back to the Druids, who used the plant in their religious rites. Burning the Yule log is another custom borrowed by the British from the Vikings, who first burned it in honor of their god Thor.

To Continue Search For Missing Man

The search for Donald Rounds, 28, of Swanton, who disappeared Thursday, December 6, about noon while deer hunting, and who has not been seen since, is to continue over the week-end, providing the weather remains promising.

Elmer Upole, forest supervisor of the Forestry department, had made plans for an organized search just as soon as there was a definite break in the weather, but abandoned the plan last night when it was learned that many volunteers had gone into the woods on their own accord, to search the area where he disappeared.

Mr. Upole had planned to beam notices over radio station WFRB, Frostburg, as to the exact time and place, when the search would begin, but felt this would be of no avail at present.

Rounds is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivory Rounds, with whom he resides. Last week the National Guardsmen, youth of the Meadow Mountain Forestry camp, the Oakland fire department and county police authorities also searched the area where he is presumed to have disappeared. However, the deep snow and stormy weather of last week caused the search to be halted.

Trains For Air Police

Airman Basic Albert E. Dillsworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard M. Dillsworth, 11, 2, Oakland, has been selected to attend the United States Air Force technical training course for air policemen at Lackland air force base in Texas.

Airman Dillsworth, who completed the first phase of his military training at Lackland, was chosen for the specialized course on the basis of his interests and aptitudes.

He is a 1961 graduate of Southern High School.

Mothers Receive Day for Shopping

Realizing that mothers never have enough time to prepare for the holidays, last year a Des Plaines, Ill., drive-in restaurant and the staff of a nearby school teamed up to give Mom a hand with her Christmas chores.

As a result, on Dec. 11 mothers of more than 300 Lions Park School pupils had a chance to address Christmas cards, wrap presents and do their shopping without having to stop and prepare lunch for their children at noon.

Instead of going home at noon, the youngsters got their favorite food—hamburgers and hot dogs—in their own classrooms.

Stanley Kellern and his son-in-law, Cy Pazdloch, who operate Henry's Drive-In, Des Plaines, delivered 455 hamburgers, 215 hot dogs, 545 orders of french fries and 475 milk shakes to the school.

"Without cafeteria facilities in the school building," said Fred Reimann, Lions Park principal, "this was the best way of handling our present to the mothers."

For Kellern and Pazdloch, the big order for a worthwhile project was, as they put it, "All in a day's work—that is, a good day's work."

Ellis Brothers Meet On Okinawa Island

Douglas and Dale Ellis

The Department of the U. S. Army brought brothers together recently by coincidence since one is stationed in the Republic of Korea and the other in Okinawa which are in the U. S. Army Pacific Command.

Principals involved are Pfc. Dale and Pvt. Douglas Ellis, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Ellis of Crellin.

The unusual event occurred when Dale was sent to Okinawa to work with Stars and Stripes, a newspaper published around the world for military personnel.

Doug, having arrived in Okinawa only three days earlier from Fort Knox, Ky., is assigned to the USA Ordnance Group as a clerk-typist.

Dale has been assigned to Headquarters 1 Corps (Group), Korea, since last March where he is sports editor of the unit newspaper. He also works for the Armed Forces

Korean Network (radio) and the Stars and Stripes

Dale, through letters home, knew his brother was in Okinawa, however, Doug never realized Dale was going to be there.

A surprised Doug and a thankful Dale spent two days together before Dale returned to his Korean assignment. They hadn't seen each other since Thanksgiving Day, 1961. Both are graduates of Southern High School, Dale in 1961 and Doug, a year later. Both entered the Army immediately upon graduation.

Proved reserves of Natural Gas reach record high in 1961

1961 was a year of growth in the gas industry. The number of customers was greater than ever before. So was the amount of gas they used in homes, commercial establishments and industry.

But the most significant development was this: proved reserves of natural gas reached an all time high of 267.7 trillion cubic feet.

Despite the tremendous increase in the amount of gas used, reserves continue to rise every year. Back in 1946, proved reserves were 160 trillion cubic feet.

GREETINGS

of the Christmas Season

Christmas! The word awakens a host of happy expectations... stirs the imagination with visions of turkey and treats, gifts and greetings, laughter and friendship. It's a sparkling season, a joyous season... a season that beams a spiritual light into our hearts. We wish all its delights for you.

To Stage Christmas Play Friday

The annual Christmas program, parent of the meaning of Christmas and a comedy of North American life, will be presented by the County Roads Garage and asked for a plot, to open our private lane I was told that when all secondary roads were clear some equipment could be released for private work on a set hourly rate which we would need to pay. On Thursday the 13th the auto patrol opened our lane and we were able to have a tow truck come in and get our car operating again. By that night the winds had drifted the lane shut once more, but I was able to get the car out to the county road before it was too late. On Friday one of my small sons cut his head in a fall at home and he needed medical attention. A second call and an explanation of the circumstances brought two men and a snow plow to the aid of our four year old. To this organization and these particular two men, this was nothing extraordinary, but to our family it seemed as though the "magic words" were not enough. That is the purpose for this public letter to say thanks to the good and faithful servants who make up and operate the County Roads Department.

The band, under the direction of Mr. Schwing, will open the program with a holiday medley of numbers, entitled "Christmas Festival."

Following this, the chorus will present "Christmas in Review."

St. John's Lutheran Church
Red House, Md.
BORN TO BE GOD

We indeed receive a most amazing message at Christmas when we learn that the crying, burping, thumb sucking, bed wetting, sleepy and helpless little baby Jesus was born to be the Son of God. As the Angel said to Mary in Luke 1:35, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be called Holy, the Son of God." Joseph was "betrothed" or engaged to Mary at this time. A Jewish betrothal could be dissolved only by the man's giving the woman a writ of divorce. Joseph's first normal reaction when he learns Mary is to have a child is a quiet divorce, because he knew better than anyone else that he was not the child's father. An angel of the Lord changes his mind by explaining "that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit."

Even the name of Jesus tells us his message, for he is to be called "Emmanuel," meaning "God with us." Mary is still greatly troubled and frightened when she learns he will become the mother of Jesus, God the Son. Again the Angel calms her down by explaining, "Jesus will be the Son of the Most High, the Lord God." Mary asks, "how can this be, since I have no husband?" The Angel answers, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, therefore the child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God. For with God nothing will be impossible."

But back to our clever, restless human minds. How dare God become a baby in human flesh? How humiliating and unsophisticated of God to do this. Surely this is not the proper way for Almighty God to enter human history personally to "Save Man." Surely God knows He can't expect man to believe this Christmas Birth Story! Who does God think He is, anyway?

In the Broadway Play, "Gideon", Paddy Chavelsky turns this question around by asking, who does man think he is? Gideon begins to lose sight of the Angel. Earth departing, he turns to himself. Soon he is saying:

"O God! I cannot believe in you! If you love me, let me believe at least in mine own self! So I beg of you, My Lord, go from my sight. Make not your presence known to me again that I might say: 'God is a dream, a name, a thought, but not a real thing.'"

Gideon: "I would pretend that you were not."
The Angel: (A little startled at this): "God no more believes it odd that man cannot believe in God. Man believes the best he can, which means, it seems, belief in man. Then let him do my good deed and let him be a proper God. You know, he might make it at that some day. With this concept, we end the play."

Letters to the Editor

Mr. George H. Hanst, Editor
The Republican
Oakland, Maryland
Dear Mr. Hanst:
As any small child who watches television can tell you, "Please and Thank You" are the magic words. Some times we adults forget these magic words when they need most to be said.

During the recent snow storm, my family of six children, my wife and myself, were snowed in for the best part of a week. When I called the County Roads Garage and asked for a plot, to open our private lane I was told that when all secondary roads were clear some equipment could be released for private work on a set hourly rate which we would need to pay. On Thursday the 13th the auto patrol opened our lane and we were able to have a tow truck come in and get our car operating again. By that night the winds had drifted the lane shut once more, but I was able to get the car out to the county road before it was too late. On Friday one of my small sons cut his head in a fall at home and he needed medical attention. A second call and an explanation of the circumstances brought two men and a snow plow to the aid of our four year old. To this organization and these particular two men, this was nothing extraordinary, but to our family it seemed as though the "magic words" were not enough. That is the purpose for this public letter to say thanks to the good and faithful servants who make up and operate the County Roads Department.

Sincerely,
W. Perry Shaffer

Highlanders Take Game From Bruce Hi

With Jay Rice leading the way with 26 points, and valuable assistance from other members of the squad, Southern High Highlanders took an important basketball game from Bruce High school of Westernport on Tuesday night 68 to 62. It was their second victory in three starts, having won from Romanex last week.

The victory came because there was good bench support, since three of Southern's starters fouled out in the third quarter.

Southern got off to an early lead 5 to 0 but was tied with the Bulldogs at the end of the first period 9-9. They were down three points once in the second quarter but ended the half 27 to 24. The Highlanders outscored Bruce 20 to 18 in the third period to go ahead by five at 47-42, and held on to a 21-20 advantage in the final frame to end up 68-62. The game remained exciting to the end as the Highlanders held only a two point advantage, 58-56, with only three minutes left to play.

Hinebaugh was non-scoring. High man for Bruce was Barry with 19. Shaw had 16 and Kight 10, while Shatter had 8, Mullen 6, Smith 2, and Kabauch 1.

The Highlanders outscored the Bulldogs 25 to 22 from the field and also excelled at the foul line, making 18 of 30 attempts. Bruce was able to make only 18 of 40.

The Southern Jaycees lost to Bruce Jaycees in the preliminary game.

The Elk Garden game which was postponed on December 7 because of inclement weather, has been rescheduled for Friday night, December 28, on the local court. It is the only game scheduled during the holidays.

Letter to the Editor

Editor, The Republican:

Dear Sir:

Many times we have read the column of the increasing costs of welfare programs for our county. We also read the Editorials on the growing powers and the increased expenses of the Federal Government. Also included are the cries of shrinking freedoms of the people. You possibly have in your possession a current issue of Readers Digest.

The article I would like to call your attention to is the one entitled "Revolt of the Plain People" by Clarence W. Hall. The text of the article deals with the problems of a group of people refusing to accept the welfare programs of the Federal Government. The Federal Government seems to think anyone who doesn't want to be taken care of from cradle to grave is "Un-American". The government has forced the collection of Social Security taxes upon a set or group of people in New York called Amish for a program that is of religious objection to these people.

Now what has this problem to do with us in Garrett County? Many residents in Garrett County have as some of their best neighbors people of the same religious belief, maybe not the same but very similar. The Amish in Garrett County are regarded as some of the best farmers in the Community. In a current issue of the local paper we read where a barn was destroyed and the victims' neighbors helped restore the barn, the symbol of helping one another in time of need. It is instances like this that compel us to bring to your attention their problems to let fellow readers know of their problems.

Knowing not all these people by name, we know of their thrift, closeness of family, and success of their farms. The founding of our Country was for religious freedom. It seems to have been lost. Religious freedom was one of the first portions of the Declaration of Independence and Bill of Rights. Why should a group of people defend something that has always been enjoyed? The issue is not in the open so to speak in Garrett Co., yet but it has possibilities. Something is being done on a national scale, but very small. A bill has been introduced to correct or amend the Social Security Act, in exempt the participation in the program due to religious objection.

It was introduced by Senator Joseph Clark of Pennsylvania and co-sponsored by Senator Barry Goldwater of Arizona.

It will become a national issue

We appeal to you Mr. Editor, let others know of the concern for his neighbor. It has been said that it is "not what you can do for your neighbors, but what you can do working beside him". We are also sending a letter of the same concern to our Congressman Rep. Charles McC. Mathias in Washington, Representative for our district.

We thank you for the time you have possibly taken to read of our concern for the fellow residents of Garrett Co. as we feel that a person should show concern for the many good neighbors one enjoys in Garrett County when you may be of some help for their concern.

We respect the warnings given by the paper in our community. We remain concerned for the

What To Do? . . .

A police chief of Manassas Park, Va., has been winning praise from all over the country as result of a stern letter telling juveniles how to behave. Not the original author, however, he had copies mimeographed and distributed and now it has had wide distribution.

He has received thousands of letters. Here is the message that started it all:

"Always we hear the plaintive cry of the teen-agers: 'What can we do? Where can we go?' The answer is - - - Go Home!"

"Hang the storm windows, paint the woodwork, Rake the leaves, Mow the lawn, Shovel the walk, Wash the car, Learn to cook, Scrub some floors, Repair the sink, Built a boat, Get a job.

"Help the minister, priest or rabbi, the Red Cross, the Salvation Army. Visit the sick. Assist the poor. Study your lessons. And then when you are through—and not too tired—read a book.

"Your parents do not owe you entertainment. Your village does not owe you recreation facilities. The world does NOT owe you a living. You owe the world something. You owe it your time and energy and your talents so that no one will be at war or in poverty, or sick, or lonely again.

"In plain simple words: GROW UP; quit being a cry-baby; get out of your dream world; develop a backbone not a wishbone; and start acting like a man or a lady.

"I'm a parent. I'm tired of nursing, protecting, helping, appealing, begging, excusing, tolerating, denying myself needed comforts for every whim and fancy, just because your selfish ego instead of common sense dominates your personality, and thinking and requests."

A really good idea on how to start out the New Year.

Summary of Past Year Lists Major Events

By Wilbur W. Close

"Tomorrow, and tomorrow, and tomorrow,
Creeps in this petty pace
from day to day . . ."

Shakespeare wrote these words for the third scene of Macbeth, and perhaps the quotation is appropriate to introduce a resume of the year's local news.

A year is made up of many to-days, and each quickly becomes a tomorrow. Sometimes the pace is petty, sometimes hectic; but always the passage of time is composed of yesterday, today and tomorrow.

Some of the past twelve months' yesterdays have included the events recorded below, which have served in some manner to affect the lives of all of us.

January

As the year began, the County Commissioners began work on the annual levy—that county-wide budget which determines exactly how much each department of the government may spend during the twelve months. It was hoped that the tax rate could be continued at $2.35 per hundred dollars valuation, and this was confirmed later in the month when total local expenditures were set at $1,292,128.28.

Still on the financial side, the three county banks reported assets in excess of seventeen and a half million dollars, and the town of Oakland ended the fiscal year with a balance of $264,582.23.

The new U. S. Postoffice at McHenry was officially dedicated, the second new facility in the county to be opened in a year, with two more in the planning stage.

In sports, Southern's Highlanders capped the first of a two-game series with Northern by the score of 73-60. And writing of sports, two daring "motorists" narrowly averted drowning when their pickup truck plunged through the ice of Deep Creek Lake. The incident resulted in a ruling prohibiting wheeled vehicles from joy-riding on the lake's frozen surface.

Warmer weather was the rule during the year's opening month, resulting in the postponement of the Maryland State ski championships, which had been scheduled at Marsh Mountain on January 20 and 21.

Maurice Brookhart became the first to file as a candidate in the year's county election, when he signed up as a Democrat for State Senator. As the month ended, he was joined by five other candidates for various offices—all Democrats.

February

The Oakland Knitting Mill, which had begun operations some months before, sent its first shipment of finished garments during February, with additional mailings planned daily. During the month, the company received approval for a federally-sponsored training plan, with 56 employees to be affected.

Gas production for the fourth quarter of 1961 dropped somewhat, resulting in a loss of $2,000 in taxes to the county.

For the most part, the weather remained fairly mild. The temperature did take one dip to 10 below zero, quickly rallied. The postponed ski matches were held on a minimum cover of snow, resulting in top victory to Carl Benson, of Pennsylvania. A number of young skiers captured trophies in various classifications.

Contracts were awarded for the construction of two schools, one at Crellin and one at Bloomington, to cost $190,000. L. E. Hardesty of Oakland was successful bidder.

Residents of Oakland were beginning to wonder who their next city officials might be. With the filing deadline only days away, no one had come forward for mayor or any of the three council seats to be vacant in March.

Things were far from lax in county-wide politics, however. No fewer than 31 persons had filed for office, the number for State Senator now being three: Brookhart and Elbert Buckel, Democrats, and Spencer Graham, Republican. Southern's Highlanders made it two in a row as they capped the (Continued on Page Nine)

Envelope Uniformity Is New Regulation

The Post Office has advised that the postal regulations to standardize envelope sizes will become effective January 1.

The following regulations will govern the mailing envelopes on and after that date:

Envelopes less than three inches in width (height) or four and one fourth inches in length will be non-mailable.

Envelopes more than nine inches in width (height) or 12 inches in length are not recommended.

Envelopes having shapes other than rectangular are non-mailable. Envelopes having a ratio of width (height) to length of less than 1 to 1.414 (1 to the square root of 2) are not recommended.

Regarding the above regulations to size, shape and ratio, it was explained that envelopes of standard sizes and shapes are essential to the economical handling of mail, both by machine and manual methods.

Three Fire Alarms Sound; Damage Light

Three fires occurred around Oakland within a twelve hour period but there was very little damage. The calls to the Oakland Fire department came between 11:20 Saturday evening and 6:45 Sunday morning.

The first was at the home of Charles Bateman, in the Bethlehem section near Tasker's Corner, but the department was called back by radio while enroute to the fire and the truck turned homeward in Baker's Lane beyond Loch Lynn.

The second call came at 3:20 a. m., when an automobile, a 1957 Mercury owned by Lee Reel, Kitzmiller and occupied by Reel and Harold Shank, was reported on fire on route 219, beyond Weber. The blaze was out on arrival.

The third alarm was the result of a fire in the frame dwelling, corner Oak and Fourth streets, owned by Josephine Baker and occupied by her and some people in other apartments. There was no damage.

March Of Dimes Set For January

Annual Campaign To Raise Funds To Get Underway Next Month

The annual campaign to raise funds for the March of Dimes will begin in January, and to get the drive off to a good start Charles L. Briner, campaign director, announced this week that some 3,500 mailer notices are being sent out this week-end to rural families and others.

Several activities have been planned for the month-long drive for funds and Briner urged that the mailers be returned to the community chairmen as soon as possible with their contributions.

Among the community chairmen are the Rev. W. Shelby Walhall, Oakland; Mrs. Dan Hershberger, Grantsville; Mrs. E. C. Clatterbuck, Deer Park; Mrs. Mary June Harvey, Swanton; Mrs. Charlotte Bernard, Bloomington; Mrs. Eugene Stines, Friendsville; Mrs. Wilmer Margroff, Accident; Verna Harvey, Mt. Lake Park and Loch Lynn.

Mrs. Helen Harmon, president of the Garrett county polo group, pointed out that while polo was at a minimum for the second straight year the care of patients as well as research for birth defects and arthritis continued.

Posters and coin collectors are being distributed to community directors. Willard L. Hawkins, county superintendent of schools, has given permission for the schools again to participate in the program.

A Mothers' March will be conducted toward the latter part of January, and Mrs. Arthur Jones, Oakland, will head this part of the program. The exact date is to be announced. Mrs. Jones said volunteers would be needed for this part of the campaign.

Secretary for the 1961 campaign is Mrs. Betty Trickett, Treasurer is Glenn Forman, at the First National Bank of Oakland.

Karl Wm. Wilson, Jr. Given Two Sentences

Karl William Wilson, Jr., received two sentences in the Circuit court last Friday, following a report from the Garrett-Allegany Mental Health clinic in Cumberland.

Wilson was found guilty and the verdict of the magistrate upheld some two weeks ago after Wilson had taken an automobile without authority and had resisted arrest. Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill, Jr., sentenced the man to one year in the county jail, running from October 30, on the unauthorized use of automobile and six months in the county jail, from the same date, for resisting arrest. The sentences were to run concurrently.

Judge Hamill received the report from the mental health clinic which indicated that Wilson was legally responsible, that only while under the influence of liquor did he have a tendency to break the laws; that he had no mental disorder and was not in need of psychiatric treatment at this time. Wilson was found guilty of the two charges when tried before Trial Magistrate Robert M. Maroney on October 31. He prayed an appeal. When arrested Wilson kicked policeman Robert Shillingburg in the face and kicked Percy Lawton, another town policeman, on the leg.

Wilson had agreed to take the psychiatric examination.

The jury trial in the case of Carlton Hinebaugh, Oakland, on a charge of sodomy, was originally set for December 28, but will now be held on Monday, December 31, according to F. A. Thayer, state's attorney. This will be a jury trial. The defendant has denied the charge.

The Swallow Falls 4-H club will meet on Wednesday, January 2, it was announced.

Four Forestry Camp Youths Given Trial

Four youths from the Meadow Mountain Forestry camp were given hearings before Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill last Friday morning.

All four pleaded guilty to escape, while two entered pleas of guilty to larceny of an automobile and larceny of a rifle. James Joseph Pettis, pleading guilty to escape, was sentenced to the Maryland Institution for Males for a term not exceeding one year. Richard Allen Baxter entered guilty pleas to the three charges and was sentenced to three years in the Maryland Institution for Males on the automobile larceny, and one year each on the other two charges.

John Harrison Allen entered guilty pleas to all three charges and similar sentences were meted out the same as Baxter. Phillip Shifflett entered a guilty plea to the charge of escape. Charges of larceny of automobile and larceny of rifle, with which he had been charged, were dismissed. He was ordered to be returned to the Meadow Mountain Forestry camp.

The cases were prosecuted by Fred A. Thayer, state's attorney, while Jack Turney, who had been appointed by the court about two weeks ago, defended the four.

Three Derail: Is Occur on B. and O. In 36-Hour Period

Garrett county had more than its share of train wrecks over the holiday period with three within a four-day period. They were Numbers three, four and five in an area-wide tabulation which included two more wrecks on the Pittsburgh division, one at Connelville and one at Meyersdale.

The first of the local mishaps occurred at 6:15 p. m. Sunday when two freight cars derailed near the old water station at Deer Park. The second occurred just west of the Oakland station and east of the chicken processing plant when two diesel units and six loaded coal cars derailed Monday morning about 7 o'clock.

The wreck at Oakland occurred when one set of wheels of a diesel unit left the tracks and was followed by the next diesel unit and the six loaded cars. The derailed equipment of the eastbound train blocked both east and west tracks. No injuries were reported.

Traffic was routed over the Pittsburgh division while the tracks were blocked. The fifth in the series of derailments and third for Garrett county occurred yesterday on the 17-mile grade, about eight miles from Swanton.

Four cars of a freight left the track at Big Curve about 9:40 a. m., and two wrecking crews were dispatched to the scene to clear one blocked main track and part of a two-mile siding. No injuries were reported. The wreck did not necessitate any rerouting.

The other two wrecks occurred on the Cumberland-Pittsburgh division. Twenty-two cars wrecked at Meyersdale Saturday while the initial derailment took place Friday at Connelville. Both main lines were blocked when 35 cars jumped the track there.

Addition To Laundro-Mat

An addition to the Southern Laundro-mat, to include self-service dry cleaning units was completed last week by DeCorsey Bolden, owner and operator. The Laundro-mat is located on the old Oakland-Mt. Lake Park highway. The machines are coin-operated, the same as the washing machines and dryers.

The regular meeting of the Order of Eastern Star has been postponed until Tuesday, January 15, because a New Year's day conflict.

Stores Reporting Holiday Trade is Generally Good

Some Businessmen Indicate Improvement Over Last Christmas Season

Holiday buying among Oakland stores was considered generally very good this year, most of the merchants declaring that the month of December would show either as good or better than last year.

Most of the merchants indicated that business was on a par with the last three years, with the final two shopping days appearing to be two of the best of any year. With Christmas coming on Tuesday there was the week-end and then an extra day for the last minute shopper. These apparently were quite numerous as merchants acknowledged even greater business on Monday than on Saturday.

Saturday December 15, was also tagged as one of the busier days of the season.

Grocery stores also generally were as good or better than previous years. There were unusual sales angles in some of the stores. In one grocery store the owner stated that turkey and oyster sales were tops, but that for some reason or other the sale of oranges was off considerably. He contributed this to the large amount of publicity concerning the freezing of the citrus fruit in Florida. In spite of the fact that the price of oranges had not increased much, not many people seemed to be in the mood to buy.

Some merchants were not sure whether the over-all pattern for the year would show much of an increase, but most felt there would be some increase. One proprietor said that business might be off as much as two percent.

One business man said the pattern remained pretty much the same, that December business remained rather constant through the years.

Stores generally were well stocked with quality merchandise and people found that in most cases it wasn't necessary to go to other cities to get what they wanted. Those who were inclined to travel may have been prevented this year because of the severe snowstorms.

There seemed to be an ample supply of electrical goods, toys of all kinds, cosmetics of many brands.

The overall pattern was one of satisfaction that business had been good.

Escapee from County Jail Back in Custody

Walter Lee Davis, an escapee from the Garrett County jail in 1960, was back under roof again last Thursday after having been brought here from the Federal penitentiary at Chillicothe, Ohio, where he served time for the theft of an automobile.

Davis was charged with Stanley Tasker, Jr., and Julius Ervin, Jr., with burglary, breaking and entering and escape. Tasker and Ervin were subsequently apprehended, convicted and sentenced, and have since been released from custody. Deputy Sheriff Wayne Wilt said Davis would be docketed on the three charges but that he probably would not be tried before sometime in January.

The three broke into the Victor Lee residence on route 50 Tasker and Ervin were apprehended at Fairmont, Wilt said.

Second Lieut. and Mrs. Douglas E. Smith and infant daughter, Fort McClellan, Ala., are spending a week here with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin S. Smith. They plan to leave Friday for Woodbury, N. J., where they will visit Mrs. Smith's parents, for several days before returning to Alabama.

Post Office Figures Compare With 1961

Figures showing the activity at the post office in Oakland during the Christmas season compare approximately with those of last year. There was an evident increase in incoming parcel post, with 8,801 parcels being received this year compared to 6,909 last year.

The highest day for cancellations last year was on the 18th when there were 17,467. This year the peak was hit on the 17th with a total of 13,500. This year's work was done with two men in comparison to four used last year.

The cancellations from December 1 through December 21, showed a slight decrease, with 112,115 cancellations compared to 145,829 a year ago.

The stamp sale showed a slight increase. Last year the sales amounted to $6,097.55, while this year the total was $6,163.45.

Parcel post has seemed heavier than normal but Robert Lohr, acting postmaster, said the mailing of parcels and letters seemed to be more evenly distributed this year. There was no last minute rush.

From the 10th through the 21st the office sold 55,100 three-cent stamps, and 35,260 four-cent stamps.

Mr. Lohr pointed out that the office now had a supply of five-cent stamps which would go into use on first class letters and new air mail stamps, to take care of the projected increase which starts January 7th. The new five-cent stamp carries the picture of George Washington. It is a grayish-blue in color. The air mail stamp is red.

To Promote Savings Accounts During Coming Year

A bank promotion of Centennial savings accounts was announced by George K. Littman, president of the First National bank of Oakland.

During the coming year the bank will be participating with all other commercial banks in the United States in the observance. The observance commemorates the signing of the national currency act in 1863 by President Abraham Lincoln which gave the country its dual system of state and national banks and its first uniform national currency.

Special efforts are to be made to teach young people the value and habit of thrift. To emphasize the importance of thrift habits, the First National is starting savings accounts for the first 100 babies born during 1963. Each will receive a beginning deposit of $5; and if twins, each will receive $10, and if triplets, each will receive $20. Parents must present the baby's birth certificate within thirty days after birth.

The program includes residents of the entire area, not only Garrett county but nearby communities in West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

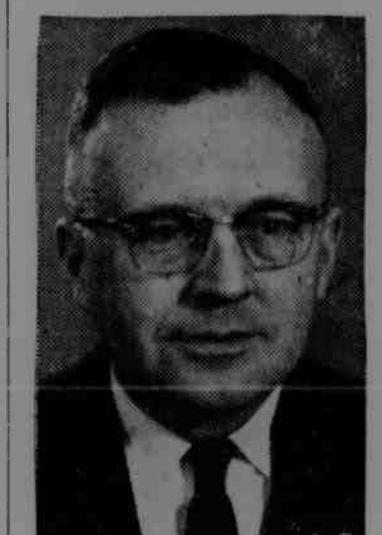

Mr. Littman said the bank also was planning other features for the coming year in observance of the centennial.

Send in News At Very Earliest

The same situation prevails this coming week as prevailed during the week just past. County correspondents and others desiring news to appear in The Republican issue of January 3, are being urged to send in their material at the very earliest time. The Republican office will be closed the entire day on New Year's, January 1, and when employees return to work on Wednesday it is necessary to start immediately on getting the pages ready for press.

Correspondents who can send in much of their material on Saturday and early Monday will make it more certain that the news will be included in the forthcoming issue. Several correspondents did a good job of it this week.

L. C. Weeks Named Department Manager

L. C. Weeks, planning engineer on Monongahela Power Company's headquarters staff in Fairmont, W. Va., since 1953, has been named manager of planning engineering, effective January 1. In his new capacity, Weeks will take over the duties of Ross Brown, chief engineer who retires from active service at the close of this year.

Weeks has been with Monongahela since 1947, starting as distribution design engineer. In 1952 he became senior assistant engineer and in 1953 planning engineer. A native of this county, he attended West Virginia Wesleyan and got his degree in electrical engineering from University of Maryland. He also took special work at West Virginia University. He served in the Corps of Engineers during World War II and had other industrial engineering experience before joining the Monongahela organization. He is married to the former Norma Casteel of Oakland.

Brown retires after 40 years of service with the electric utility. He started with Monongahela in 1923 as an engineer, was system operator, 1930-37, became electrical engineer for the company in 1937 and chief engineer in 1945.

John Ross, Not Lawrence

Apparently Lawrence Sines didn't want the notoriety of having voiced an opinion at the legislative meeting held recently in Oakland. The secretary of the meeting thought it was Lawrence Sines who stated he felt the commissioners should be relieved from activities as board of liquor license commissioners.

He called the newspaper to state that he had not attended the meeting and wanted a correction. Upon conferring with the secretary, it was finally decided that the person making the statement was John Ross Sines, and not Lawrence.

Crane Interrupts Electric Current

A crane in operation by the cleanup crew of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company, just west of Oakland, struck four primary wires of a high tension line crossing the railroad tracks and put a portion of Oakland in darkness for three hours, last night.

A minor explosion occurred when the first contact was made, and a ball of fire lit up the sky for an instant. Lights all over Oakland went out for an instant but all came on again with the exception of Liberty street and the Rosedale area.

The crane operator was not injured, as the machine is perfectly insulated.

Hugh Denison said that as soon as the railroad company had furnished a brakeman the linemen of the power company went to work and had electric service restored within a three hour period. The break in current occurred about 10:30 o'clock.

The crane was operating in the area where one of the five wrecks of the holiday period had occurred on Monday morning.

Exposure Caused Rounds' Demise

Body Found Last Thursday Morning About A Mile From His Home

Death of Donald E. Rounds came from exposure, authorities determined last Thursday after searchers had located the man's body about a mile from his home. Rounds had been missing since Thursday, December 6. The result of death was pronounced by Dr. James H. Feaster, Jr., deputy medical examiner. An autopsy was performed at the Garrett County Memorial hospital in Oakland.

The body of Rounds, 28, resident of route 2, Swanton, was found at 10:15 a. m., about 15 minutes after a party of five had gone into the woods near the Glendale road to continue the search.

He was found by Edward Hoyt, route 2, Deer Park, who was with Robert Friend, route 2, Swanton, forestry department employee John Halsey, star route, Oakland; Terry Frazee, route 2, Swanton; and Harry Sherbondy, of Mt. Pleasant, Pa.

Rounds was found lying in a small ravine which is located about a mile from his house. The victim's gun, an old army style .308 rifle, was found empty about 30 feet away from the man's body. After the victim was located Sheriff James E. Frantz and Dr. Feaster went to the scene.

The search for the man began December 6 after he failed to return home after going hunting. The search was halted for several days due to the snowstorms which hit the county. The snow was waist deep in some sections where the search was conducted.

Mr. Rounds, who was employed as a packer for the Sterling Processing company in Oakland, was a member of Local 421, Amalgamated Meat Cutters, of Pittsburgh. A native of Swanton, he was a son of Ivory and Florence Green Rounds.

Besides his parents he is survived by his maternal grandfather, James Green, route 2, Swanton; a daughter, Catherine, Vinick; a brother, Harry Rounds, with the U. S. air force in South Carolina; a half brother, Fred Rounds, Barton; three sisters, Mrs. Genevieve Bowman, Swanton, Miss Annabelle Rounds, Washington, D. C.; Miss Dorothy Rounds, at home; a half-sister, Mrs. Evelyn Broadwater, Grantsville.

The body was taken to the Minnick Funeral home in Oakland. Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Rev. Edgar D. Miller, pastor of the Meadow Mountain Mennonite church, officiating. Interment was in the Glendale cemetery.

Elwood, Not Edward Kiser Is Name Of Accomplish

In last week's story about Earl B. Franklin, of Washington, who was seeking his freedom from prison through a petition to the court the name of his accomplice was incorrect.

The accomplice was Elwood Kiser, formerly of Friendsville, and not Edward, as stated in the story appearing in daily newspapers as well as The Republican. The story originally appeared in The Cumberland Evening Times.

Mrs. Ralph Kiser, Friendsville, said her son's name was Edward Kiser, and she did not want people to think it was her son who was involved. Edward is 18. The robbery occurred in 1957, so he would have been 13 at the time.

Franklin will get a hearing before Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris, in Allegany county, on January 11, at 10:30 a. m. Franklin is seeking freedom on the contention he was not properly represented by counsel and his conviction was based on corroborated testimony of two other men charged in the robbery.

Franklin was one of the trio which included Oliver Rockett, Baltimore and Elwood Kiser. All three received ten-year prison terms and Franklin an extra two years for jail break.

Sermonette By Area Ministers

J. Luke Walter
The Christmas Message

"And when they were come into his house, they saw the young child with Mary, his mother, and fell down and worshipped him; and then they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh." (Matthew 2:11).

Many people in the world today pass Christmas having a big time in sin, not thinking of celebrating the birth of Christ. We, this season of the year, are to commemorate the birth of our Savior.

Many count the months, weeks and the days until Christmas, but here are few that consider how they can honor the birth of Christ, the moonshiners and proprietors of dens of iniquity are always busy preparing for this day, so should God's people prepare something in honor to God who gave His son, and to the Son who gave His name and later His life.

At the time of the first Christmas the world was deep in sin, and God wanted to give them a Redeemer. There was a good and virtuous woman who lived at Nazareth in Galilee, she was espoused to a good and righteous man Joseph, and they went down to Bethlehem of Judea to be taxed. Night fell upon them, and there was no room for them in the inn (what we might call a hotel). Others coming to the city for the same purpose had crowded them out, so they were glad to share the shelter of a stable with the beasts of burden. It was while they were here that this virgin brought forth her first born son, they wrapped Him in swaddling cloth and laid Him in the manger, instead of a downy bed.

Out on the hills of Judea there were some shepherds that were keeping watch over their flock by night, and all of a sudden they were aroused by heavenly music throbbed the air above them. And one of the angels announced to them the birth of the Savior assuring them that it meant peace on earth and in heaven, and good will toward men. And the shepherds left their flocks and set out in search of Him.

There were certain wise men of the east. They were probably Kings, however there is nothing to prove who they were, only that they were wise, and lived in the east. There appeared before them a star which they followed in search of Him. Thinking that surely the King would know something about the birth of the King of the Jews, they stopped in Jerusalem and made inquiry to Herod about Him, but Herod knew nothing of Him, so after searching the Scriptures some one found that He was to be born in Bethlehem, and then the wise men proceeded southward about six miles and found the young child.

Christmas remains very much like it began, a day of giving, it was created by a divine and heavenly gift, and should be a divine and holy day. God gave to the world the most precious jewel of heaven. When God gives He gives his best, and when He saw the world in such great need of redemption, He did not withhold the brightest jewel of all His kingdom but willingly consented, and took the highest valued thing that the heavens contained and gave it to mankind.

You talk about the addition of other lands and riches to nations; the gifts of great kings and statesmen, the railroad and air traffic etc. No nation has ever received a purchase like that God gave them, when He offered His Son.

Life is considered the highest valued thing that man possesses. The devil told the truth when he said that man would give all that he had for his life, he was speaking of natural life. God gave us that when we were born, but now He has given us a more precious life than that—life everlasting, eternal joy and happiness. The whole world with its wealth and its glories and pleasures, could not have made a gift that would equal the one God gave us. God gave until it hurt.

Heaven opened its richest treasure to man and in return as a token of their love and appreciation the wise men who had followed the star, opened their valuable treasures and presented kindly gifts unto the child.

We don't have a complete history of this blessed day. There might have been a day when Christ was not honored with gifts during the dark age of Christianity, but today we honor Christ, and show our appreciation of the gift from heaven, with a little gift to our friends. The Bible declares that it is more blessed to give than receive, but we usually like to do both, especially on Christmas, not so much for the value of the present, but in honor of the great gift that God gave to us. Many give just because it is Christmas, and other folks are giving, but we should give in sincere reverence to God, thinking of the gift of the Son to us.

We would believe that God is pleased with us making gifts, though they may be small, but if we give because we love God and appreciate His gift, I think He will smile on us. People scarcely ever give to an enemy, but give because they love the one to whom they give, the gift is a token of love and friendship. If God had not loved us, we would have never received the gift of His Son, and if the Son had not loved us, we would never have enjoyed the gift of eternal life, through Him giving His life.

We should give because we love God. There are many reasons why

Dr. Salk Coins A Word: Bionauts

"Super stars" of science will make up the research team of the Salk Institute for Biological Studies.

Dr. Jonas Salk, who will direct the Institute at San Diego, Calif., quite often draws analogies between sports and science.

He once said, modestly referring to his historic role in developing the polio vaccine, that "I just happened to be in the right place to catch a long forward pass."

Today he might select another sport and say that the Institute faculty members are the Mickey Mantles of science—they can hit home runs from either side of the plate. Dr. Salk points out that in recruiting his Institute Fellows he searched for and found versatile scientists "who have all been trained in a field other than that in which they are working today."

Varied Abilities
They possess more than one skill or field of knowledge. They are not limited to biology. Some of the 10 Fellows already appointed are equally at home in higher mathematics and physics, or history and literature.

This unique combination of professional skills, versatility, imagination, intellectual curiosity has been described by many as the magic formula needed today to achieve the conquest of disease—from the common cold to cancer. They believe firmly that an assault on disease of the kind and magnitude planned by Dr. Salk and his colleagues could pave the way to revolutionary breakthroughs.

Just as the Mickey Mantles depend on the baseball fans who pay their way through the turnstiles, construction of the Salk Institute will depend on contributions from the general public.

$15 Million Goal
This summer all across the nation a campaign is in full swing to raise $15,000,000 to build and equip the Institute. The drive is sponsored by The National Foundation through the March of Dimes. It is a renewal of the partnership between all Americans and Dr. Salk—the man who did so much for them in developing the polio vaccine, and will do so much more as director of the Institute.

As another way of describing the scientists who will work at the Institute, Dr. Salk has coined the word "bionauts." "If we can speak of astronauts," he asks, "why can't we think of 'bionauts'—scientists who are capable of doing in biology what has now been done in the fields of space and of atomic physics?" He envisages the Salk Institute as a sort of launching pad for the gifted "bionauts" of the scientific world who will comprise his faculty.

The conditions under which the Salk Institute "bionauts" will pursue their studies are probably unique. The physical as well as the intellectual atmosphere of the Institute has been designed so that the individual scientist can concentrate fully on productive work and thought. Laboratory equipment will of course be the most modern. A highly specialized reference library on biology and related fields will be maintained. The whole environment is designed to spur the Institute Fellow toward daring and uninhibited original thinking on how to reach the goal he is seeking—faster.

Pioneering Projects
In most great universities and other research centers scientists are obliged to invest a great deal of their time in teaching and in administrative detail. There will be none of these time-consuming duties for the faculty of the Salk Institute. Its members will spend all of their time on pioneering projects. Moreover, they will have complete freedom to launch whatever projects they elect and may change the direction of their research if they wish.

Experts familiar with the scientific world and its leaders agree that the 10 Fellows se-

ENJOY NEW YEAR'S DAY by taking it easy

The smart way to start off New Year's Day is by enjoying the first day of the new year!

With some families, a big meal is traditional. If it's tradition, if everyone enjoys it, keep it up, by all means. Just make sure that everyone contributes some effort to the occasion to the extent that Mom doesn't spend the whole day in the kitchen.

If you don't have a big meal on New Year's Day, then take it easy. Don't do much of anything except breathe. Hospitality is contagious, so when guests come, do as little as possible. They will relax and enjoy themselves.

Have Snacks
Don't overdo the food bit for company. Have some nuts, cookies and fruits available. Don't run a day-long mess hall.

No need to stay up late, unless there's a good movie on. For dinner or supper, keep it to the immediate family. Cold cuts or hamburgers are practical; some salad too.

Open house guests may bring a gift or two. Don't say they shouldn't have! Be grateful they did. It may be just what you need for your next party.

The origin of drinking a toast on festive occasions is lost in history. The word "toast" is traced to England, where during the reign of the Stuarts it was a custom to place a bit of toasted bread in a cup of wine.

Down through the course of time, some toasts have become traditional.

Benjamin Franklin is credited with this line: "He who drinks fast pays slow."

Robert Loveman reflected optimism when he coined this toast:

"A fig for him who frets
It is not raining rain for me,
It's raining violets!"

And, let's not forget the standard:

"Cheers!"

"To your health!"

"Here's mud in your eye!"

Swallow Falls Was One of First State Forests in Country

How Swallow Falls State Forest came into being is recalled in the latest issue of the Newsletter of the State Department of Planning.

This forest, now with 7,500 acres, was one of the first state-owned forests in the United States. It grew from a tract of 1,951 acres, donated to the state in 1905 by John and Robert Garrett.

The financiers and industrialists made a stipulation with their gift that the state must first establish a forestry service for the protection of forests and the advancement of forestry in Maryland.

The State Board of Forestry, created by the General Assembly, to implement this program, is now the Department of Forests and Parks, which has jurisdiction over 122,000 acres of state forests and 21,000 acres of state parks.

In addition the State Department of Game and Inland Fish administers over 40,000 acres of wildlife refuges, hatcheries, rearing stations, game farms, waterfowl managing units and public shooting lands.

Besides Swallow Falls State Forest, other large acreages include Savage River State Forest, primarily in this county, almost 53,000 acres; Green Ridge, Arvick station county, 26,000 acres; Potomac, Ruth Mc forest, this county, 12,000 ac. Md. Deconde, Worcester county, 31, stu- 600 acres; Dan's Mountain, W. 19, both gary county, 7,500 acres and In 21, stu- 1-Land wildlife management and Connie Hill, Pa. 6, bull- le Mary Park

First-Foot Tradition
The "first foot" tradition harks back to merry England, where a glass of wine and slice of bun loaf rewarded visitors who arrived first at a home following the birth of a new year. A "first-foot," also known as a lucky bird, brought with him the traditional symbols of warmth and prosperity—coal, bread and salt. He was welcomed because he "let in" the New Year—but he also represented the old year, always leaving by the back door.

Fortune of President Kennedy's father was put at $300 million.

Professor Says No Resolutions Best Policy

If you feel you must make New Year's resolutions, you would be wise to start off with this one: "I resolve not to make any resolutions this year."

That's the advice of Dr. George H. Smith, professor of psychology at Rutgers (N.J.) Newark College of Arts and Sciences.

"At New Year's, everyone exhibits a natural tendency to make a new start, to drop some bad habits and to become a better person," the State University psychologist said. "This leads to a resolution to make a sudden and sharp change to oneself. Sometimes this works, but more often the holiday resolutions fail," he said.

"Why do New Year's resolutions often fail? Usually," says Dr. Smith, "because they are made under pressure without a clear acceptance of responsibility, without even a deep desire to go through with them."

Not Sincere

"For example, some feel they would be better people if they lost weight. Under a New Year's deadline, they decide to lose a large amount of weight. But they do not deeply wish to do so. They refuse to accept the hardship involved and so the resolution fails."

"Their deeper goal," Dr. Smith said, "is to consume food—sometimes as an unconscious substitute for love or because of frustration, perhaps."

"People can and do improve. But they do so by following a plan rather than by making impulsive resolutions at New Year's, a birthday or a holiday," he said.

Scottish Festival

In Scotland, New Year's Day was traditionally the most important festival of the year; a time for exchanging gifts, cards, and visiting with friends and kin. The Scots named New Year's Eve Hogmanay, grouping it with the whole New Year's season as the "Duff Days." Scottish children flood the streets on New Year's Eve shouting, "Hogmanay," expecting cakes and fruits from neighbors just as American children do at Halloween.

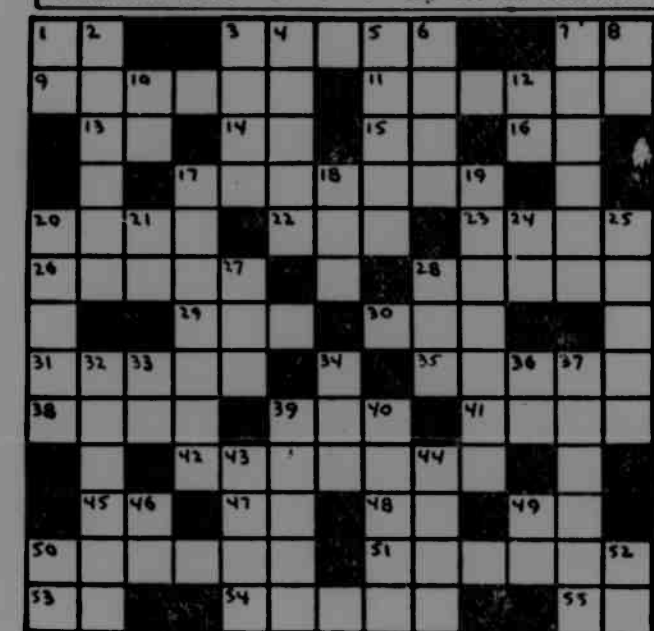

JFK and Macmillan agreed on use of Polaris missile to replace Skybolt which is being discontinued.

Consider Comfort In Planning Party For New Year's Eve

Here are a few tips for a successful New Year's Eve party: Don't invite more people than you can comfortably serve. It's a nice idea to invite the whole neighborhood, but parties should be given in comfort.

Keep plenty of ash trays handy, and keep them clean. A discarded cigarette may start a smoke screen coming from a tray of piled-up cigarette butts. Have plenty of clean ash trays handy and you may not discover a cigarette burn in your new rug after the party is over.

Don't serve gooey food—unless you enjoy playing a guessing game when your rug cleaner asks you to identify various spots on your carpet. Nuts, cheese cubes, cold cuts are perfect for a New Year's Eve party.

Wintry Weather Still Has County In Grip

There was a continuation of wintry weather over the holiday season but conditions were mild in comparison to the blizzard that struck the county last Friday to bring the last day of school prior to the new year to a close before it really got started.

In most areas as soon as the school buses arrived they were turned around toward home without even unloading. This meant that the fourth day of school was lost on account of storms, one more than the number allowed.

One of the school buses in the southern area, was temporarily stranded in the drifts while attempting to get the students back to their homes.

Christmas programs that were to be presented were canceled. There was one exception. An opera planned by the choral group from Southern High school. Practice continued on this and the presentation was made Friday evening before 150 or so who braved the storm.

With the exception of Friday the weather was about as normal. Friday night there was sleet in spite of 16 to 20 degree temperature and new snow fell on Saturday with the thermometer standing at about 28 degrees.

Sunday was blustery and cooler. The mercury dropped to 8 above zero on Monday and the weather was cloudy. About two inches of snow fell on Christmas day, but there was no drifting.

It remained cloudy on Wednesday with the temperature just under freezing. The mercury registered 17 degrees early Thursday but moderated to about 24 by 11 o'clock.

Bitter cold and snow were predicted for the week-end. After the crust on the snow had broken up the additional two-inch snow made skiing conditions favorable and there were 100 or more on the Marsh Mountain slopes.

South Not Included In Soldier's Wish

A New Year's greeting jotted down in a diary in the year 1963 exempted Southerners.

Sam Smyth, a Union lieutenant fighting in the mud of the Civil War at Holly Springs, Mississippi, made this notation in his journal: "Happy New Year to all the world, except our Southern Rebel friends, their aiders and abettors."

Obviously, the entry was made at a time when things were going badly for the North. The entry continued: "... though to speak truly I think the prospect is not such as to warrant and in even hoping that the wish (of a Happy New Year) may be fulfilled. ... I had hoped to see a different state of things, and that we should enter upon the New Year with the bright prospect of a speedy termination of this exhausting conflict."

The journal, with human and personalized descriptions of the Civil War, is among the collection of Lincolniana and Civil War materials in the Wyles Collection at Santa Barbara, Calif., College.

Final Legislative Meeting is Concluded

The final meeting with citizens and legislators was held last evening at the Accident Fire Hall.

Similar problems to those previously mentioned were brought out, according to the legislators. There was also discussion on the advisability of removing salt from the highways because of the damage to automobiles, and the advisability of bonding the County Commissioners.

Elza Bray, member of the House of Delegates, said the group would be meeting with the Board of Health this evening at the hospital and on Friday would have a conference with the County Commissioners at 3:30 p. m. at the Edge o' Lake restaurant.

Attending last night's session were senator-elect Spencer W. Graham, and delegates Elwood Groves and Mrs. Martha Glatfelter.

Auto Accidents Kill Four

Four persons died in traffic accidents in Maryland during the 102-hour Christmas holiday which ended at midnight Tuesday.

There were no fatal accidents in the state on Christmas Day, despite hazardous driving conditions caused by a snow storm that left up to seven inches of new snow on the ground.

The four holiday deaths pushed the 1962 Maryland death toll up to 579, far ahead of last year's total of 478 for a corresponding period.

The 1962 figures will go down as the second highest in Maryland history, exceeded only by the 612 killed in 1941.

WHITE NEW YEAR Each new year is like a new-fallen snow — unmarked until errant footsteps destroy its gleaming splendor. But short-lived is that spell of peace and perfection. Soon the newness is trampled out, the same old trails show themselves again.

Tearing the last page off the calendar can change the year. But, it cannot change the MAN. We'll make of each new year just what we have made of the old ones — unless we direct our lives anew toward God and neighbor, unless we re-evaluate destiny and self.

In this New Year don't expect a blanket of perfection to hide the old failures. But seek the better Way. The Church helps men discover new trails . . . and follow them with new hope . . . to a new vision of life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Belief In Action

Lesson for December 30, 1962

IF YOU want to knock down a stone arch, it is not necessary to knock down every single stone. All you have to do is to knock out the keystone, the center stone at the very top, and the rest will fall of themselves.

Christians sometimes ask: What is the keystone belief of all the Christian doctrines? We have been looking for three months now at "Beliefs that matter," and more than one of these has been claimed to be the keystone, at some time or other.

Now at the end we come to a belief which Jesus rated as indispensable. A man's house of life will fall to ruin if this is missing, Jesus said: "He that heareth these words of mine and doeth them shall be like a man who built his house on a rock." The man who hears and does not do, is building his house on sand.

What We Can Do

This indispensable keystone belief is called "Discipleship." A Christian scholar has said: "Discipleship is the process as well as the objective of belief." Let's not be shy of those five dollar words. What that sentence means is that discipleship—being a follower of Jesus—is not just something to believe in, something we call important; discipleship is belief in action. If we really think it is important we shall not just talk about it, we shall begin to live it.

There are many angles to this. You might say the whole New Testament deals with what it means to be a disciple—to be, to think, to plan, to live, as brothers of Christ and children of God the Father. But let us pick out three angles from one chapter in Ephesians (4). Paul is writing to born-again Christians, committed Christians, committed Christians. But even such Christians need advice, warning, teaching and help. One thing Paul has to say is that believers all have "gifts" of one sort or another. People who are unbelievers, not Christians at all, of course have gifts,—that is to say, aptitudes, abilities, to each his "gift," whatever it is, as something God has provided and will use it and increase it as a sacred trust. He will know, furthermore, that "what he can do"—his gift—is not just what he can do; it is what he can do in partnership with God.

How We Do It

The second angle of discipleship brought out in this chapter by St. Paul is the way we use gifts, the spirit in which they develop. History has many examples of brilliant scoundrels. One whose chief and perhaps only gift is an attractive, warm personality, can use that almost electric personality in unselfish, friendly ways or in ways of pure selfishness. Many a confidence man, check-forger, embezzler, or plain liar, has been smooth as butter, bland as cream. A woman may marry the "sweetest" man she ever met only to find out, too late, that he is also the meanest. The Christian on the other hand will want to use his gift which God gave him not for selfish but for unselfish purposes.

Why We Do It

Why does a Christian, a disciple and follower of Jesus, hold his gifts in a spirit of humility and use them in a spirit of helpfulness? In other words, what is the Christian's motive for acting and serving as a Christian ought? Paul gives us the answer in the first sentences of Ephesians 5. He holds up two motives, which are really the same. First he tells us to imitate God "as beloved children." And if imitating God seems too high for us, Paul is ready with another thought which is yet the same: Walk in love, he says, "as Christ loved us." If it seems too hard to imitate the invisible God, we can remember that he becomes visible in Jesus. So at the end of the Christmas season we may be grateful above all for the one great gift of Christ himself. For he is not only God's word to us, he is the pattern of our response to God. (Continued from Page One) county basketball championship from Northern, 69 to 54.

March

What was described as a "somewhat belated winter storm" hit the county the first week of the month, piling up 30 inches and recording a 12 year record for depth during a single fall. Schools were closed for two days, traffic halted and for 38 hours the county was gripped by the blizzard.

Minutes before the filing deadline, Oakland's municipal election ticket was filled—but just. There were only enough candidates to fill the offices, which made the election a mere formality. Elected were Russell Smith, mayor, and Harold H. Harned, Earl F. Roth and Carlton Callis for council. Smith and Harned were incumbents.

A bill to create the office of county manager was passed by the state legislature. Considerable opposition had developed, however, and it finally appeared as a referendum on the November ballot.

The March grand jury finished its deliberations, returning 32 indictments against 24 individuals. Two elderly women lost their lives when fire destroyed their home in the Gortner section. They were Mrs. Alma Z. Lee and Mrs. Sophronia M. Davis.

Spring arrived on March 20, accompanied by rain and high water. A few snow flurries were experienced, but it appeared the weather would continue quite seasonable. A census department survey showed there were 7,197 housing units in the county. Of this number, 4,961 had flush toilets and 4,064 had television sets.

April

Donald M. Browning, who had been Oakland postmaster for eight years, announced his resignation. He was succeeded several weeks later by Robert W. Lohr, who was named acting official.

An Oakland fire truck ran wild on Third street following a mechanical failure, striking eight vehicles. A State policeman, who had accompanied the truck into town, promptly presented the driver with a traffic violation ticket.

The Board of Education announced no vacancies in teaching positions, despite a rash of resignations. Teacher turnover was said to be about 10 percent annually. There were some signs of spring. A softball league was organized.

The Summer Theatre announced its play schedule. There were Easter egg hunts and flower sales, daylight saving time was declared in Oakland, the Promotion Council began distribution of its annual Vacation Guide, a few grass fires were reported and one young lady turned up in the Triad Magistrate's office in a bikini bathing suit. To end this sort of activity, five inches of snow fell.

May

The final tally on candidates for the primary elections showed 49 Republican and 55 Democratic. Perhaps most interest centered around the office of Associate Judge, where three candidates were listed without party labels. They were Stuart F. Hamill, S. H. Pagenhardt and W. Dwight Stover.

Election results showed Hamill and Stover paired for the general election in November. Other successful primary candidates for top positions were, in the Republican column, Spencer Graham for State Senator and Mrs. Martha Glatfelter, Elwood Groves and Elza Bray for House of Delegates. The Democrats nominated Maurice Brookhart for State Senator and Mrs. Helen Baumgartner, Mrs. Robeson and Leslie Savage for the House. Schools were in the news again. The two high schools were preparing to graduate a total of 247 seniors, 142 at Southern and 105 at Northern. Willard L. Hawkins was named to his third term as county superintendent.

The Oakland tax rate was set at 90 cents per hundred dollar valuation, no change from previous years. During the month, the town officials held open house at the new half-million dollar pumping and filtration plant and several hundred persons saw the process of converting raw river water into something safe to drink, if not always palatable. Equipment was installed for fluoridation of the water as it was processed.

First quarter gas production was off again, showing a net loss in tax revenue of another $2,000.

At times, the weather was unusually warm for May. Temperatures in the 90's were recorded, and several heavy rain and electrical storms, caused considerable damage.

June

June brought with it what was described as the largest single property transfer ever effected in the county. Involved was the high-producing Accident gas field, rights to which were owned by Snee and Eberly, a Pennsylvania firm. They were acquired, for a reported $11,000,000, by the Texas Eastern Transmission company. The Accident field for several years had been the big producer here.

Fishing was in the news at Deep Creek Lake, with anglers reporting one of the best seasons in years. Northern Pike led the list of big catches, some measuring up to 40 inches.

In Oakland, the Post Office department and town officials began the task of re-numbering all buildings in the corporate limits, a job which had never been satisfactorily done. The work was completed in about three weeks.

The Board of Education, in announcing its complete staff for the next year, came up with only one vacancy among teachers—a situation which they expected to correct shortly.

Plans were also being made for the county's first house show which was being sponsored by the recently formed Garrett County Horsemen's association.

Nosing around north of Oakland, agents of the U. S. Tax division thought something was in the air and staked out a farm just beyond town. A week later, they were sure something was cooking, they moved in and seized 70 gallons of mash and an illicit still. Both were destroyed.

July

It rained all day on the Fourth of July, much to the chagrin of picnickers and other alfresco celebrants, but to the delight of farmers who had been plagued for several weeks with drip weather which threatened their crops.

Plans for the annual fair were moving right along. The date was set for August 7 to 11, and officials predicted a record exhibition. Other events were planned, too. For the first time, the National Sailing Championships were to be held at Deep Creek Lake, under sponsorship of the Yacht club. And in another area of sport, the annual Tennis tournament at Mt. Lake Park was taking shape.

But there was bad news during the month. Miss Fannie Garber, a young woman of the Gortner section, was killed when pinned under a tractor. Edward P. Kahl, who had been resident engineer for the State Roads commission, was fatally stricken while working. A spectacular fire at McHenry completely destroyed the old Arden Boat club, home of the Garrett County Playhouse and the Sweeney Boat company. The loss was over $100,000. Both victims immediately made plans to carry on and the theatrical group utilized the Donnell Road school building temporarily, missing not one opening.

Underground activity had its ups and downs. For the first time in several quarters, gas production was up, but slightly, and coal production was down somewhat.

August

The big event of the month for many was the fair. As predicted, the exhibits set new records, both in quantity and quality. During the fair period, Miss Kathleen Harshbarger, of Accident, was crowned Farm Bureau Queen, and Eddie Dean, a Northern High school student, was judged the county's champion junior tractor operator.

There was plenty of activity on the lake, too. One of the top crowd-drawing events was the water ski show, which attracted spectators by the thousands.

After a hectic season which had the troupe playing in three different locations, the Playhouse closed its season with a final performance of "Kiss and Tell." Following the fire which destroyed the theatre after the season's first performance, and a brief interlude at the Donnell Road school, the players had finally found a new home in the Blue Barn, near the Glendale bridge. In spite of everything, the summer's run had been one of the most successful.

The administrator of the Garrett County Memorial hospital, Henry W. McComas, succumbed shortly after suffering a heart attack. He was succeeded a week later by Merritt Feather, who had been hospital accountant.

And as the month ended, the boys and girls, teachers and parents, were all ready for the opening of school.

September

... which occurred on September 4, when 4,803 students returned to their classes.

The election campaigns, which had been dragging a little during the summer months, came to life in September. Local candidates began circulating among the citizenry, and the county was invaded time after time by members of both parties seeking state and national offices.

The Garrett County Airport was finally dedicated. The date had been set for early May, but at that time fog and cold weather forced its postponement. The elements still were not kind when the event did take place, with high winds and unusually chilly weather limiting the crowd and preventing the appearance of a number of important guests—most of whom were running for one office or another.

The Grand Jury, which was expected to have a fairly light load, pulled a surprise and returned 15 indictments. Among them were those charging the operators of six business places with liquor and beer law violations. Not for several years had indictments been returned on those charges.

On the final day of registration before election, 92 persons signed the books. A final tabulation showed the Democrats had retained their usual minority, with the figures including 6,025 Republicans, 3,891 Democrats and 46 others who didn't choose to be identified with either party.

The Health Department announced plans to proceed with a large-scale program of oral polio vaccine, to be carried out over several months.

Residents of the lower section of the county were up in the air over proposals to locate the Frostburg city dump in that vicinity. A survey showed the area properly belonged in this county.

October

A change in command of the local National Guard unit took place in October. Capt. Arthur Calhoun, who had been commanding officer for a number of years, announced his retirement after 20 years' army service. He was succeeded by Lt. Mahlon Yost. The Guardsmen were also busy planning for their 15th anniversary celebration.

Nature lovers—871 of them—took a final fling at the outdoors when they arrived for the Autumn Glory excursion and tour. Most were from Baltimore or Washington.

The annual county high school football classic ended with a narrow victory for Southern, when the Highlanders squeaked by the Huskies with a 7-6 score.

Plans were approved during the month for the erection of a radio station in Oakland, to begin operations in 1963.

And the school system found itself in a familiar dilemma. Overcrowding, it was reported, was becoming serious at both Donnell Road and Southern High schools. The solution, it was suggested, was the construction of a junior high school in the Oakland area. The idea was to be discussed fully during succeeding months.

The month ended with the campaigns becoming more intense, but lacking any clear-cut issues. Office seekers found themselves at a loss for argument, with all being against higher taxes and unemployment. One candidate declared she believed "Sweet Land of Liberty" was a most patriotic song.

November

The election held the spotlight in November. In the county, all Republican candidates were successful, with two exceptions. Earl E. Opel was elected as a county commissioner, and Stuart F. Hamill won a 15-year term on the bench. Judge Hamill's election night margin was a scant seven votes, and it was two anxious days before counting of absentee ballots assured him the victory.

Others elected were Spencer Graham, State Senator; Elwood Groves, Martha Glatfelter and Elza Bray, House of Delegates; and Allen S. Paugh and H. D. Swartzentruber, County Commissioners, with Opel being the lone Democratic member. The county manager referendum, which never had much popular support, went down by an overwhelming margin.

The Robert Buckel family, who farm near Blittinger, were judged winners in the 1962 Farming for Better Living competition. More than 70 farm families had competed. And a young county 4-H club member, William Magruder, won first place in state safety competition and the right to a trip to Chicago finals.

Down on the lake, an unusual accident found Thayer's Barn unexpectedly reopened during the winter when a truck loaded with cattle plunged through the front wall and came to rest on the dance floor.

Fourteen deer were reported killed by bow hunters during the season, and more conventional Nimrods were awaiting the regular season in December.

A hint of the holidays approaching was given when local banks mailed out Christmas club checks totaling $53,000.

The Board of Education, in its annual financial report, showed total expenditures of $1,768,695.91, thus making it the largest single enterprise in the county, both from the standpoint of money expended and personnel involved.

Fred A. Thayer was appointed as State's Attorney, succeeding W. Dwight Stover, who resigned just a month before his term was due to expire. There had been no candidates for the office in the general election.

Both the County and State Roads departments were making preparations for the "snow battle" which they knew was ahead. And well they did so, for both men and machines were to get workouts during the month ahead.

December

Early in the month, the first winter blizzard piled more than two feet of snow in the area in little more than a day. Accompanied by severe cold and winds, roads were blocked and schools closed for a two-day period. Two weeks later, the situation was repeated, although on a somewhat smaller scale, and on December 21, which had been scheduled as a half-day school session beginning the Christmas holidays, students found themselves riding to their classes and immediately returning home when a new snowfall for a time threatened to close many roads.

During the eight day deer season, 560 of the animals were reported killed in Garrett county. For the second time, Allegany county recorded more successful hunters with a total of 700.

One hunter, however, never returned from the chase. He was Donald Rounds, 28, who became lost on December 6 while hunting with companions in the Meadow Mountain section. A subject of intensive search, his body was found two weeks later only a mile from his home—a victim of exposure to the cold and blustery weather which characterized the closing days of the season.

The new County Commissioners took over their duties the middle of the month and immediately organized with Allen S. Paugh being named president and H. D. Swartzentruber, vice president. Mrs. Virginia Fizer was re-named clerk to the board, and Darrell M. Wotring was relieved of duty as county roads supervisor. In his place went Paul W. DeWitt, who had served at various times as bookkeeper and assistant supervisor for the department.

The newly elected legislators were busy, too. Two public meetings were held when citizens had an opportunity to offer suggestions for what they believed to be needed legislation, and to air complaints about present laws. So successful were the sessions that a third, before the 90-day Annapolis session begins in January.

The First National Bank of Oakland made plans for the opening of another branch, this one to be at McHenry, next spring. An office at Friendsville has been in operation for several years.

All Oakland citizens were advised they would be required to re-register in order to vote in future town elections. The present books, it was said, had been in use for twelve years and a new counting of eligible noses was in order.

The William-James hotel, an Oakland landmark for several generations, was closed to the public during the month, following a series of incidents which included extensive damage to the heating system, and an automobile accident involving its recent purchaser. Formerly the Commercial House, the hotel was taken over in the 1920's by the late William O. Davis and James Towler, hence the William-James label.

Carl Schell, of Kitzmiller, a former county commissioner who did not seek re-election, was named head of the Maryland Bureau of Mines, to succeed Frank Powers, of Westernport, who will retire January 1, 1963.

And so the year closed as it had begun, with the observance of the twin holidays of Christmas and New Years. Bells were rung, carols were sung, and, to end with another Shakespeare expression

CARD OF APPRECIATION
We wish to thank the men who assisted in the search for our son, Donald.

We especially wish to thank the friends of Olen M. Yoder, of Accident, who conducted a search on two occasions, accompanied on Sunday of last week by a group of approximately 40 men, led by the Rev. Noah E. Yoder, of Meyersdale. A search was made on Meadow Mtn. after his offering of prayer; also the group led by Robert Friend, Johnny Halsey, Terrell Proce, Ed Hove, Harry Shierondy, Mt. Pleasant, Pa. Mr. Hove discovered the body.

The deep snow and cold weather discouraged the State Forestry department and the National Guard from continuing the search. However, the friends and neighbors kept up the search constantly during the two weeks Donald was lost. We wish to thank those who relinquished their telephone calls while emergency calls existed, and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Friend for constant cooperation.

The American Way

Look Out For That Bone!
By Harry Browne

It now appears certain that a sizeable income tax cut—along with an increase in federal spending—is in the cards for 1963. Apparently, the government has decided that it's time to throw the dice a home and is readying unanimous tax concessions to the "taxpayer."

Before the dice goes for the bone, however, let's better make sure it isn't his own tail that he's devouring. For there's one fact of life that mustn't be overlooked.

Taxes constitute the price we pay for the government we get. The only possible way to cut that price is to cut the amount of government.

We Pay Anyway

The hard economists will come up with some head-spinning theories justifying tax reforms. But we taxpayers are still going to have to cough up every cent necessary to pay for the amount of government we allow to be inflicted upon us.

Once income tax rates are reduced, the search will begin for ways to make up the loss in revenue. Other taxes may be raised or existing "loaded" or "closed." Either way, government spending will continue to cost us dearly.

The sneakest in that of confusion is to simply let the tax reduction create a budget deficit—letting us believe we're putting the deficit "on the cut" to be paid later. But in this case there's no "cut!"

You see, the Treasury Department long ago ran out of leaders who would lay it hands. As a result, the only way to finance the remainder of its $200 billion deficit is to have the Federal Reserve System create brand new money to pay for it.

INFLATION

So every additional dollar of new money the government prints means one more Federal Reserve dollar in circulation. And the national tax cut means that every dollar added to the money supply reduces the value of existing dollars proportionately.

In other words, instead of taxing citizens to pay for it, extravaganzas, the government simply lowers the value of each dollar in circulation. Once again, the taxpayer foots the bill.

We just can't escape the fact that taxes are merely the price we pay for the government we get. To lower taxes or to just reduce government means that the price we pay for it is reduced. Any other method simply means that the price we pay for it is reduced in a different way.

Let's Do It Right

So let's not be misled by talk about reducing taxes when the real issue is the need to reduce government. Once the government is reduced, we automatically have more wealth with the money we can.

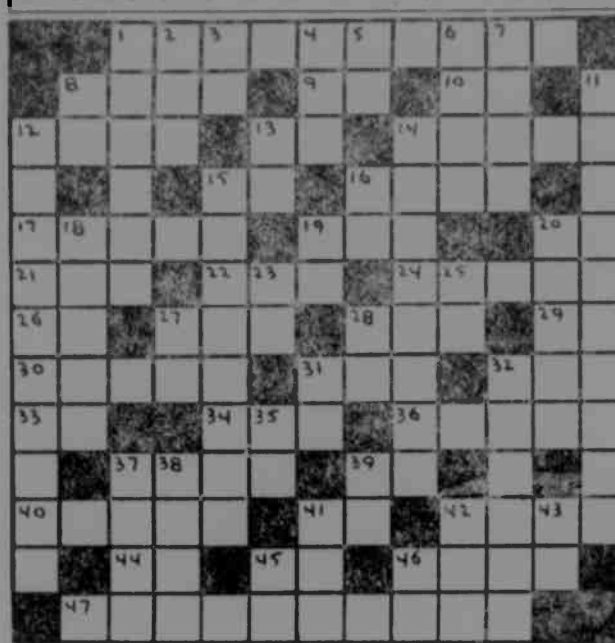

There is only one sound program for this kind of spending-cut reduction that the Laborers Amendment will force the government to give up all of its unconstitutional "welfare state" activities and return these real savings to us through complete repeal of personal income taxes.

Isn't that the kind of bone you've really been craving for?
